

Dear Donald Trump,

you are a strong and powerful candidate for the US Presidency. But how you would try to win, if your nation does not distinguish between true and false? Therefore, you need my proof of the Bible, the proof of the Jesus Christ. Please, promote the text among the people. You can do it, brother in Christ, because you are rich, smart, brave and powerful!

Because of the final separation of the humanity into two groups ("the hell" and "the Heaven"), there should be more clear of how to behave and how to think in this world at pre-end. The Freedom of the choice is mainly because of the love or of the hate towards the Objective Reality, so one, especially the Scientist, should try to reveal all objective aspects of the Real World. Therefore, please do not afraid of the God's Proofs. They are not intended to weaken your faith.

Title: "Mom or sin-drunk world - who is smarter?"

My mom says that she knows that God exists. Can you imagine? She knows! She has knowledge. But the world does not know. It has no knowledge. Then who is the foollike - the world or my mother? Here and below the invented word "foollike" means "to make a foolish impression".

Opening my eyes, I feel that the whole world comes to me with weapons and warfare. But listening to my heart, I feel that Jesus Christ has overcome the world.

One may argue that "mom was cheated and infected by the faith." Instead, I ask whether "the fact that the world does not know something, is because of its great eruditeness?"

The world needs to grow to enrich itself with knowledge. But today the world has no knowledge, like any foollike. The existence of Jesus Christ is proven as follows:

- 1) the existence of God has arguments, such as those given by Thomas Aquinas.
- 2) A person is not wrong (and has no hallucinations or illusions), until she/he is proven wrong.

The latter conjecture is proven in the following way: Without this conjecture there is no knowledge, because all is in doubt. Therefore, the latter sentence is the knowledge. Taking this for granted, people has the knowledge.

Conclusion: God is proven.

There is no limit of foollike-ness.

Previously, the most desperate foollikes have "cracked nuts with their heads", as Russians say. Now foollikes "bang the building piles down with their heads". Such a feeling you get from the evening News. See: "the drunk Ukrainian soldiers blew themselves up", "over 200 man slammed themselves on Russian cemetery, three man were killed".

Forgive me, brother in Christ! I do not read the comments from the atheists or other oppositioners: it is not safe and is meaningless. I cannot save them, but can become a foollike.
