Grind all these 20 commodities in to powder. Prepare one liter juice of white eclipta protrata. Mix this juice and the powder of the 20 items with one liter of pure coconut oil. Put all these things in a mud pot and heat it. Then put the powders of pawalaputhu , blue vitriol and white copper sulphate. Then at the top of an another mud pot, keep a nice and clean cloth. Keep the powders of saambirani and pachai karpooram. Poor the boiled oil and preserve this tonic. Wake up from your bed early in the morning before the sun rise. Take sufficient quantity of this oil and rub it on your head, and abdomen. While doing so , you will experience light heat in your hands. Then after one hour you may go for other wash-ups and cleanings of your body. While performing yoga and sitting in meditation, normally the temperature of your body increases. For good health and successful meditation and yoga , normal body temperature is very essential. This tonic will do that job.

(2) Spirituality tooth powder

Take equal quantities of barks of margosa & babool trees, rods of prickly chaff flower, skin of gallnut, and cloves. Make these into powder. Mix this powder with the powder of Inthuppu in the ratio of 1: 4. Use this powder to clean and wash your teeth twice a day, namely in the morning and evening. This powder will surely cure all of your tooth complaints and keep your teeth very strong.

(3) Eye – wash

Choose a large mud pot. Fill it up with clean water. Put water solder the previous night. After tooth wash, put your head in this water and roll your eyes in left and right directions. Choose a large mud pot. Fill it up with clean water. Put water solder the previous night. After tooth wash, put your head in this water and roll your eyes in left and right directions for one minute. Then take off your head from the water. Repeat this action 5 or 6 times. This practice keeps your eyes always cool and clean. During yoga and meditational practice, due to the rise in the body temperature, the eyes also troubled. This practice will protect your eyes from over heat of the body.

(4) Kaba Suthi

Take the juice of white eclipta prostrate and pure cow ghee in equal quantity. Put these in a mud pot and heat the pot. Then put the padigara / seenikara powder. This ghee should be applied on the throat. After this, avoiding any conversation is a must for 48 minutes.

(5) Intestines cleaning

In a mud pot put 50 grams of cumin and fill it up with 1/2 liter pure water in the previous night. After the above four morning duties, drink this water as slow as possible. This water will push down all the stored ingredients in the stomach and push down the stools.
