Besides and together with a study of the social sciences and philosophy, this author’s intuitive confidence in this hermeneutic design insights that underlies the arguments and discourse, is inspired from ‘an intimate and spontaneous idiosyncratic philosophical exercise (praxis) in the quest for the essence of meaning’, a ‘craft’ that has been nurtured continuously for nearly 25 years now (without conscious planning at the beginning nor at any time thereafter) since his discovery of ‘philosophical questioning and discourse’ at high school. An exercise that mirrors the intimate idiosyncratic exercise/praxis allowing an artist like a musician to grasp and develop memes that latter down the years enable the artist to be more or less ‘consummate with respect to the personal orientation they give to their arts’. Central to all such idiosyncratic processes is a continuous idiosyncratic memetic refinement over time of rough-cuttings, internal coherences, insights, inspirations, intuitive validations, constraining, sense-of-failing, sense-of-succeeding, confidence, mental inflections and mental projections; of course as per ability and ultimate pertinence with respect to intrinsic reality!
Abstract

This paper is rather a profound hermeneutic enunciation putting into question our present understanding of psychopathy. It further articulates, in complement, a novel theoretical and methodological conceptualisation for a hermeneutic psychological science. Methodology-wise, it puts into question a traditional more or less categorical and mechanical approach to the social and behavioural sciences as it strives to introduce a creative and insightful approach for the articulation of ideas. It rather seeks to construe the scientific method as being more about falsifiability and validation but driven by a sense of creative understanding and insight of notions laid out as open-ended conceptualisations. Theory-wise, it sees continuity between anthropology and psychology as anthropopsychology behind an entropic construct of human psychology based on a recurrent re-institutionalisation mechanism for intemporal-preservation-entropy-or-contiguity–or–ontological-preservation.

Introduction

Quite possibly everything about this paper whether the authoring, the approach and the substance sparks of novelty bordering on the outlandish. Further, why not take a traditional categorical approach and clearly present scientific ideas the traditional way? It is a personal insight developed more than 20 years ago, and just when the author began his B.Sc. in Sociology and Anthropology; that a study of the social and behavioural should carry the philosophical and insightful at its very core above anything else given the inherent ephemeral nature of its subject matter. When I came across the term hermeneutics (and others like phenomenology), this author felt as a personal persuasion that that was the chart for the future of the social sciences. My vision in this regard is one of a social science that delves directly into the core of things and avoids platitudes. To come back to the point of this abstract, this explains my apparently tattered approach. But tattered really? No, as the central insight of my articulation is that the scientific method is a validation and falsifiability method, and not necessarily the creative method. The creative method as a hermeneutics isn’t supposed to roll down and stifle its very expressiveness, and at the same time it should be articulated in such a way that an exercise of falsifiability, validation and open-ended questioning can be undertaken over it. Such a hermeneutic science calls for a mutual sense of such a hermeneutics by both the author and would-be critic. I hopefully believe the way I have articulated ideas should be able to allow for such an examination. My hermeneutic inspiration in this regard can be analogised with musical creation and music theory. The latter is there to ensure the appropriate articulation of rules but is not really the drive of musical creation, as musical creation is rather the musician’s hermeneutic/reprojective insight of how to go about creating music while adhering to music theory, such that any such music is analysable/critiqued by the way it credibly adheres to music theory, and actually in exceptional cases further develop music theory. A second point that makes this method ideal is that the apparent enunciation of this paper (an outright call for a reinvention of the state of the art regarding our understanding of psychopathy and the underlying psychology science); is that it is doubtful such an articulation can be credibly presented in simple categorical terms, without rather utilising an entropic hermeneutic-referential approach based on an open-endedness for falsifiability and validation in future elaboration and development of ideas. Further, I thought it more critical (wary of platitudinising the occasion) that the purity of ideas expressed herein shouldn’t be overly clouded particularly as the treatment of this paper is largely in substance virgin territory, as of the underlying conceptualisation referential drive (beyond just simplistic rhyming/speculative/interpreted categories of philosophical theories and concepts but rather as ‘a driven distinct comprehensively coherent/contiguous operant-level of insights articulation, and carrying implicative and applicative operant-level possibilities going forward’; more like a song is a coherent referential whole beyond just naïve categories of disjointing/disparateness/disentailing percussions-and-tunes-more-or-less-similar-to-those-of-the-song construed as constituting the song.) As a matter of fact, I would rather I wrote another paper talking about influences for such an articulation for this paper going by my hermeneutic design insights. Moreover, going by the very nature of how humans develop new ideas; while many, if not most, of my arguments may be more or less ‘plainly intelligible’, I equally thought it important to articulate ideas I hold in deep conviction and further as many such ideas come with their requisite precise convoluted qualifications even if such ideas might not be quite intelligible from a plain and simple reading, with the notion that such a requisite insight will be forthcoming in future critique as the very nature of the introduction of new ways of thinking often mean their unintelligibility at first (equally explains my repeating of many terms for ‘habituation’), but then it is not the pertinence of reality that compromises it is the impertinence of human certitudes that does! In the bigger scheme of things, it is herein contended that human social and institutional progress and development is not de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically contiguous as to the very inherent nature of any given institutionalised framework as all such frameworks arrive at apathetic threshold as these rather develop into denaturing – wooden-language-{imbued—temporal—mere-form/virtualities/dereification /akrasiatic-drag/denatured/preconverging-or-dementing – narratives—of-the- reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology } stifling prospective possibilities, thus requiring prospective fundamental reconception. While such prospective re-projection/re-anticipation recognises prior human cumulated knowledge as enabling institutional-cumulation/institutional-recomposure-{as-to- }historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing> right up to the present, it also recognises at a certain point the ‘prior knowledge-as-of-mechanical-knowledge predisposition and its developed temporal institutional self-serving predisposition’ becomes critically a drawback for the possibility of knowledge-reification of prospective human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint, as dimensionality-of-sublimating ←supererogatory—de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation behind the

As what becomes critical in such a context is no longer prospective knowledge-reification as the primary and essential constraining worth but rather obsession with mere sway and influence even to the point of undermining prospective knowledge-reification as supposed intellection is increasingly infused with obfuscations, falsehoods and subterfuges (as to the fact that misrepresentations and pretences to misunderstand are rather conveniently given as of perceived social-stake-contention-or-confliction and hardly reflecting a discernment about the possibility for advancing human progress) that apparently render human-subpotency/mortality bigger than existence-potency~sublimating–nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-

across all ages and times come to an end not because of inherently right or inherently wrong ideas per se (as the very basic genuine striving for intellectual progress is what is critically decisive as that exercise ensures that down-the-line correct and reifying ideas will arise anyway), but critically when deliberate deception-and-induced-deception-as-of-ontologicalan open-ended activity providing the possibility for human knowledge and reflexive empowerment from that knowledge. At which point, it is wrong for ‘genuine intellection’ not to recognise what is going on as to imply that it is veridically in dialogical-equivalence with such intellectual falsehood (so-construed by this author as to the implausibility of genuine lack of understanding as from a serious intellectual engagement but rather a ‘strategic/calculated behaviour of mere power even against genuine knowledge’ which this author intimately construes as a ‘decadent and dangerous conception of knowledge’ that is effectively destructive of prospective human knowledge reifying and empowering possibilities) is at the ‘root source’ for surreptitiously ensuring that the public debate fails and thus leading to public policy defaulting into vested postures and interests especially so when such an intellectual teleological-decadence-in-dimensionality-of-desublimating-lack-of—mentative/structural/paradigmatic consequences associated with institutional failures (which such intellectualism is hardly inclined to address). Critically, such a ‘self-contented intellectualism’ increasingly focuses not on knowledge-reification\(^8\) as to existence-potency–sublimating–nascence–disclosed–prospective–epistemic–digression–amplituding–formative–epistemicity–totalising–renewing–realisation–re-perception–re-thought–supererogatory–epistemic–conflatedness\(^1\) or the critical analysis of such knowledge-reification\(^8\) but in the face of criticism rather consciously substitutes strategies of institutional ascendency as of a strategy of influence by default imprimatur status rather than genuine knowledge-reification\(^8\) pertinence. It will be as naïve as implying the validity of a common basis for doing arithmetic where an interlocutor insists on 2+2 as 5 but when appropriately explained the veridical assumptions of arithmetic goes on to insist 3+3 as 7, speaking not of a fundamental problem of arithmetic operation as of dialogical-equivalence but a fundamental question of ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity\(^6\) on the naïve mental reflex that anyway dialogical-equivalence is ever always assumed to then adopt an apriorising/axiomatising/referencing attitude of abusing the notion of dialogical-equivalence as to wrongly implied logical-dueness. Faced with such an orientation the genuine intellectual reaction is to engage it upfront as of an inclination ‘not just to evaluate logical coherence as of correctness or incorrectness or any other evaluation in-between on the basis of ontological-good-faith/authenticity’, but beforehand ‘to equally evaluate the apriorising/axiomatising/referencing in ontological-good-faith/authenticity\(^6\) or ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity\(^6\) (beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology–<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>) as of underlying existential-contextualising-contiguity\(^3\) elucidation/deblurring as well as whether the veracity of such apriorising/axiomatising/referencing can be established as being of ‘relative-ontological-incompleteness’/relative-ontological-completeness’.

(sublimating-referencing/registering/decisioning—as-self-becoming/self-conflatedness /formative-supererogating-<projective/reprojective—aestheticising-re-motif—and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing-,in-perspective—ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>) as to human-and-social—expectations/anticipations—metaphoricity—as-rede-mentating/restructuring/reparadigming—psychologism’ as construed necessary herein and overriding naïve apriorising/axiomatising/referencing as of presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness in relative-ontological-incompleteness (that seem to undermine the absolute a priori of existence and imply that when existence doesn’t fit/digresses-from its conceptual-moulds then existence must have an inherent issue strangely enough as to be ignored/overcome by the stubborn/dogged/political upholding of such defective conceptual-moulds over inherent knowledge-reification implications as of existential-reality). We can appreciate that while many a subject-matter will often seem to imply that dialogical-equivalence is just assumed ‘as to the fact of merely engaging as of logical coherence without questioning the underlying ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality in ontological-good-faith/authenticity or ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity’, the fact is this is rather the consequence of their universal-transparency—{(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,—as-to-entailing—<amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness cr) of the-Good/understanding/knowledge-reification /ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework rendering the possibility of ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity directly ridiculous as in the natural sciences given its direct universal-transparency—{(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,—as-to-entailing—<amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness cr) subjection to prediction, such that we can hardly contemplate of an interlocutor insisting to imply that gravity on earth is 7 m/s2 to ensure that calculations conform
to its expectations for one interest or another; but the reality of that universal-transparency (transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>-totalising--in-relative-ontological-completeness) as preempting such ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity inclinations is not so directly obvious in many a social domain-of-study and that blurred possibility effectively elicits circumstances of disparateness-of-conceptualisation-<unforegrounding-disentailment,-failing-to-reflect-‘immanent-ontological-contiguity’> not only as of wrong ontological-conception out of good-intent (failing ‘technical ontological-good-faith/authenticity’ as of its ontological-normalcy/postconvergence epistemic-projection perspective conceptualisation) but equally as of outright ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity (in spirit). This idea is essential in the thought of many such postmodern thinkers as Derrida and Foucault given the implications of human limited-mentation-capacity as herein construed as reflecting human constructiveness-of-ontological-performance-<including-virtue-as-ontology> and destructuring-threshold-(uninstitutionalised-threshold/​presublimating–desublimating-decisionality)–of-ontological-performance-<including-virtue-as-ontology>. The fact is knowledge-reification is of ‘existential <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>-totalising/circumscribing/delineating construal for human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening’ and nothing can be construed in totalisingly-disentailing—discretion/whim-of-thought whether as of ignoring or on the other hand exaggerating, and just as we can fathom that we don’t have the choice to fiddle with even a single number or operation without a mathematical equation going wrong as of its existence-potency~sublimating–nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>-totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-supererogatory–epistemic-conflatedness over our human-subpotency motives, the same actually do apply in all knowledge-reification and claims of subject-matter specificities (wrongly implying their subontological nature) ‘rather speak of the difficulty with respect to

Just as there is no magical arithmetic or physics to resolve such a more fundamental apriorising/axiomatising/referencing situation involving ‘abusing the assuming of dialogical-equivalence’, it is wrong and foolhardy not to bluntly recognise this reality in the social domain as to the possibility of then achieving prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity as to existence-potency–sublimating–nascence–disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-

from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-supererogatory–epistemic-conflatedness over human-subpotency, notwithstanding the fact that we are at the backend of human institutional-cumulation/institutional-recomposure-<as-to-historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing>, and so because in many ways it is hardly the case that the priority is obsession with such intellectual emancipation rather than obsession with institutional-being-and-craft muddlement. While the natural sciences are ‘naturally’ constrained by the stronger necessity for prediction, there is nothing that says because the social domain is relatively blurred the possibility for such rigour cannot be achieved in the social as well even as it is highly subject to social-stake-contention-or-confliction meddling; as the possibility of the undercutting of the latter’s <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-(imbued—temporal–mere-form/virtualities/dereification”/akrasiatic-drag/denatured/preconverging-or-dementing”–narratives—of-the- reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology”) with asceticism’ does exist as has existed throughout sublimating “historiality/ontological-eventfulness”/ontological-aesthetic-tracing. Beyond the seemingly intellectual ebullience ever so portrayed today, the question can be asked to which extent it usually reflect deep curiosity for prospective knowledge-reification” rather than a culture of pop-intellectualism today that seem to define our human-subpotency/mortality purposes as superseding existence-potency–sublimating–nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-supererogatory–epistemic-conflatedness”/immortality purposes, as so-reflected in the supposed intellection values conferred in many a press operation with such vague catchphrases as ‘the-greatest/most-influential thinker of our times’ as of mere influence peddling and poorly advancing the inherent importance of prospective knowledge-reification” as addressing the human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint of our prior reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition—as–reproducibility-of-aestheticisation, notwithstanding the sometimes crude and unsavoury social discomfort implications in this respect. Thus in many ways such an orientation is unsettling to upcoming/future young thinkers as to what can be of profound intellection value with respect to opting for a profound intellectual commitment for prospective knowledge-reification rather than just strategies of socially perceived intellectual success within deified temporal/mortal existential frameworks; especially in the underhanded institutional presence of such avowedly teleologically-decadent–as-in-dimensionality-of-desublimating-lack-of–<amplituding/formative>supererogatory—dementativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation mantras like theories die with the passing of their authors as so-implied with regards to many a postmodern scholar, wherein such highbrow has been surreptitiously inclined to put-up their temporalities/mortalities (notwithstanding that knowledge is as to existence-potency–sublimating–nascence–disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of–<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag consequences accruing to the entire humankind) to institutionally and socially undermine prospective knowledge-reification with stooges/foils muddying the ontological-veracity of genuine thought as of its true human emancipatory implications, as they ‘sneak-in and sneak-out about knowing and not knowing’ in a distorted conception of intellectualism as a Machiavellian/political exercise rather than the requisite magnanimity of engagement for a genuine knowledge-reification exercise! Actually the projection of values including intellectual values in such <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag are often prospectively deficient, given the fact that notions of value are only as pertinent as of their transvaluation implications in relative-ontological-completeness since the very same conception of value when construed on the basis of relative-ontological-incompleteness may actually be associated with vices-and-impediments, and so beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology <-in-existent-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> (given that virtue is rather as of the-Good/understanding/knowledge-reification/ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework conceptualisation as to transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity and not the vagueness of impression-driven/good-naturedness/wishfulness <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-(imbued—temporal–mere-form/virtualities/dereification/akrasiatic-drag/denatured/preconverging-or-dementing –narratives—of-the- reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology ) in human-subpotency social-aggregation-enabling). We can grasp in this respect that the value conception as from the non-universalising sophistry perspective had construed as decadent the prospective Socratic philosophers universalising-idealisation just as did medieval-pedantic dogmatism of budding-positivists like Galileo and Descartes; as in many ways prospective knowledge-reification requires that we supersede our emotional-involvement starting with the very intellection striving for such prospective knowledge-reification. (In any case, ultimately the reality of human knowledge-reification involves 'direct bilateral relationship of appropriate construction-of-the-Self for appropriate cognisance-and-integration of prospective relative-ontological-completeness' 'meaningfulness-and-teleology', and so in transvaluation; as for instance, it can hardly be imagined that the reference-of-thought of the non-positivism/medievalism mindset as of its de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic ontologisation/ontological-veracity/aestheticisation-towards-ontology is apt as of its supererogatory-acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness-of-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint transvaluation as putting in question the old valuation, and in this regards the transcendental/transvaluating conception is universally existential and cannot be just about the physical world without social world implications and vice-versa as so-underlined with the fact that both are for-human-studies/for-human-constructs by the underlying fact that these are the very same human-subpotency implications as to overall reifying-and-empowering-reflexivity-of-ecstatic-existence-as-panintelligibility\textsuperscript{103}\textless{}<imbued-and-‘hermeneutically/reprojectively-educing’–human-subpotency–epistemic-perspective-of-projective/reprojective—aestheticising-re-motif–and–re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing–conceptualisation>; as inevitably the apparently innocuous Copernican, Galilean, Cartesian, Newtonian, etc. conception of the material world in superseding the human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint of ‘traditional mythological/supernatural conceptualisation of material world/things as of the universalising but non-positivism–medievalism preclusive-consciousness’ have constructive implications about corresponding requisite prospective social-values in superseding the human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint of ‘traditional mythological/supernatural conceptualisation of the social-construct as of the universalising but non-positivism–medievalism preclusive-consciousness’, and the possibility for the further advancement of such material sciences arises from the effectively enabling social-values like freedom-of-speech, opened communication, etc. availing as of the transcending positivism/rational-empiricism occlusive-consciousness. Likewise, it is herein contended that the future possibility for the natural sciences advancement is inseparable from the possibility of social and social-organisational as of prospective human aporeticism transvaluation as to the prospective deprocrypticism–or–preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought protensive-consciousness induced Being-development/ontologicalimplying an ontological-performance -><including-virtue-as-ontology> that is rather constrained on the prior reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as—reproducibility-of-aestheticisation ‘despite the implications as from budding/nascent insights of ecstatic-existence-as-transcendental-signifier—becoming-spontaneity-implications-<as-to-existence-potency—sublimating—nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of—<amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,—in—supererogatory—epistemic-conflicatedness—as-to-the-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-projective-perspective,—to-which-latter-human-subpotency-projectively-conflates-to-in-order-to-overcome-our-prospective-epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence ’ for the need for prospective originariness-parrhesia,—as—spontaneity-of-aestheticisation, to which the Self absconds (in <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—self-referencing-syncrtising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag as to limited-mentation-capacity implications) until the perceived induced notional—positive-opportunism from any such prospective originariness-parrhesia,—as—spontaneity-of-aestheticisation elicits the requisite human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening (involving prospective knowledge-reification and/or deferential-formalisation-transference) for prospective secondnatured institutionalisation as of renewed prospective reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as—reproducibility-of-aestheticisation. Furthermore, besides the conceptualisation articulated herein, what vindicates this idea of apriorising/axiomatic/referencing intellectual break/schism/estrangement is effectively that the possibility for prospective meaningfulness-and-teleology is associated with a renewed framework of ontologisation/ontological-veracity/aestheticisation-towards-ontology which is in ‘affirmation/projection by its underlying supererogatory—acuity/perspicacity.astuteness/edginess/incisiveness—of—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument ’ to the superseded framework of ontologisation/ontological-veracity/aestheticisation-towards-ontology as unaffirmed/deprojected; as to the possibility of the recovery of dimensionality-of-sublimating —<amplituding/formative>supererogatory–de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation prospectively, disentangled from ‘prior knowledge-as-of-mechanical-knowledge predisposition and its developed temporal institutional self-serving predisposition’. And finally, after many years of formative contemplation this author is rather dedicated to writing henceforth even if read/skimmed just by a handful or fortuitously or never-but-potentially, whatever cometh, hopefully over the next half a century, and thinks any human who genuinely feels strongly about the need for profound human thought should be able to do likewise, as ultimate responsibility and choice notionally lies with the individual.

Institutionalisation and formalisation are based exactly on the fact that we don't have a universal

The notion of higher teleologies as such is specific to the human species in holding that beyond just ‘a physical animal passing of specie generational succession’ for survival and optimising-specie-flourishing, with higher teleologies there is ‘an even more critical passing of generational succession’ as mementic-skewing-or-reordering/philo-cultural optimising of possibilities

a ‘referential-as-natural’ conceptualisation of knowledge that consciously tautologically subsumes temporal-dispositions and intemporal-disposition

It is rather naïve to depart from a philosophical angle and try to imply causal effectiveness of a natural science nature (rather than effective validation techniques relevant to transversal nature of philosophical conceptualisation) just as the same holds true the other way round the tautological/referential/existential-reference nature of intrinsic-reality/ontology/existence allowing for ‘predication or predictive-insight’ and ‘postdication or projective-insights’ with our human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening, we are actually involved in a ‘developmental notional~teleology of ontology’ construed as coherent shallow superseding–oneness-of-ontology to coherent deeper superseding–oneness-of-ontology in reflecting holographically-⟨conjugatively-and-transfusively⟩ the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process

why spatialisation, indirectness and craftiness are critical to postlogic and conjugated-postlogic mental-dispositions so as to evade their prospective interlocutors ‘putting one and one together’ as will arise in an existentially veridical context need for a retracing to establish the existential reality of the breaching or non-breaching of axiomatic rules, before determining the ontological-veridicality of the results of the arithmetic operations

The notion of temporality/shortness as actually ‘pseudointemporality’ provides a deeper insight to such traditional notions as bad, evil, wicked, etc. that we attach to temporal-dispositions a ‘postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking–psychology or psychology-of-mentation-dynamics or natural–psychological-dynamics’ rather captures the ontological undercurrents that constantly redefine human placeholder-setup/mental-devising-representation/mentation/consciousness-awareness-teleology

¶ with the implication that since existence is the absolute a priori, the ‘becoming of existence as ecstatic-existence’ is the inherent determinative basis of falsifiability as the latter is reflexive of ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework, and where ecstatic-existence manifestation is rather as of an ‘overall singular/unrepeatable/nonrecurring/as-of-yet-unrepeatable-or-nonrecurring unfolding manifestation’ as implied with the ambit of such theories as the big bang theory, string theory, the ontological-contiguity—it’s–of-the-human-institutionalisation-process etc., falsifiability is reflected by determining the coherence-as-of-ontological-congruence and incoherence-as-of-ontological-incongruence of any such ambit implied ‘overall singular ecstatic-existence unfolding manifestation model-theory’ as reflected by ‘the falsifiability of its underlying-and-subsumed-phenomena’ with regards to the epistemic-veracity of their ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework going by their specifically relevant repeatable/recurring methodological evaluations or observations or experiments, whereas where ecstatic-existence manifestation is about just a ‘repeatable/recurrent ecstatic-existence manifestation phenomenon’ then such an ecstatic-existence manifestation phenomenon is falsifiable as of the epistemic-veracity of its ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework going by its specifically relevant methodological evaluations or observations or experiments as to underlying human conceptivity/epistemic-reflexivity living experience cognition into the existentially atypical manifestation of natural phenomena and this is the very true meaning of scientific approaches and methods as not breaking away from philosophising but rather extension of philosophising into methodologically framed and controlled experiences known as experiments (with the naïve perspectiveless/soulless adoption of methods/methodologies/approaches in many a domain-of-study today by the mere token that this is the practice in the natural sciences losing sight of the underlying and relevant philosophising of such methods/methodologies/approaches as to profound and creative supererogatory–acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness–of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument–for–conceptualisation required for the relevant domain-of-study as to reflecting its given epistemic-conception phenomenal/manifest–subpotency–<in-transitive-conflatedness^3>–reflexivity,—in-the-full-potency-of-existence’s–sublimating–nascence> pertinence to which any such scientific methods/methodologies/approaches are rather subjected), human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening as reflecting both overall knowledge-reification^5 orientation associated with the overall philosophical and exactifying/precisioning–of-sublimation–<as-to-entailing-theoretical,—conceptual-and-operant-implications> orientation associated with science rather fundamentally speaks to the pre-eminence of their aetiologisation/ontological-escalation purpose so-reflected in the succession of ‘relative-ontological-completeness’— universal/universalised/universalising when expressed specifically herein universal/universalised/universalising-<as-to-universalisation> refers to the specific universalisation registry-worldview/dimension as to its ‘universalising apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–rules of entailing<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising meaningfulness-and-teleology”’ while when expressed herein in a general sense universal/universalised/universalising actually and precisely refers to ‘totalising-entailing of implied knowledge-reification–gesturing’ for instance in the sense that mathematics is universal means mathematics is totalisingly-entailing (with this general sense applying with regards to any given registry-worldview/dimension as to its given ‘entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising-in-relative-ontological-completeness’ apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–rules’ and as further reflecting the implication that registry-worldviews/dimensions of relative-ontological-completeness are of more profound ontologically totalising-entailment apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–rules as so implied as from ‘non-rules totalising-entailing, rulemaking-over-non-rules totalising-entailing, universalisation-directed-rulemaking-over-non-rules totalising-entailing, positivising/rational-empiricism-based-universalisation-directed-rulemaking-over-non-rules totalising-entailing, and preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought,-as-to-

female-seclusion was prevalent as to warped collateralisation), budding-positivists (even as in many ways the practices of serfdom/slavery, social-class discrimination and female-discrimination were equally prevalent as to preclusive collateralisation) and today’s supposedly universal conception of human rights (even as it is marked by occlusive collateralisation of other peoples, cultures and nations as well as gender and age occlusive collateralising biases); actually the specific sense and general sense are thus linked on the basis that both imply totalising-entailing with the specific sense speaking of totalising-entailing as to the specific universalisation registry-worldview/dimension ‘when mankind initially consciously cognised that the profoundness of “meaningfulness-and-teleology” should be totalising-entailing but without necessarily differentiating such a conception of totalising-entailing between mythological and positivistic/rational-empirist totalising-entailing with both construed as universal “meaningfulness-and-teleology”, while the general sense of universal implicitly captures and exactifies/precises the conception of totalising-entailing in terms of ‘entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness”, as reflecting the implication of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening as to the ‘notionalisation/notional-conception/amplituding of totalising-entailing so-reflected by the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process’ (along the same lines as notional–deprocryicism) thus amplificatorily rendering the conception of totalising-entailing (as to notionally–universal) as more ‘profoundly construed as from perspective

There is a common word that already exists that best describes what a psychopath is philosophically-speaking. It is a French word that doesn't exactly exist in English. The word is ‘cinglé’ and is better translated in English as ‘slanted mind’ (in contrast to the straightness/candor/organic-comprehension-thinking of a ‘conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation’-ly predisposed human mind’ as of prelogism or prelogism-as-of-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation—(existentially-veridical-logical-dueness-precedes-logical-outcome-arrived-at) so-construed as candidity/candour-capacity. It should equally be noted that sometimes the word cinglé is used intermittently with deranged (dérangé) which is a more general word that does not capture the socially-functional-and-accordant phenomenal specificity that is of relevance herein. In other words, ‘the cinglé’ perceives meaning as ‘a hollow mimicking form in-of-itself that determines others behaviour’ in contrast to the normal—as-of-candidity/candour-capacity human relation to meaning as of essence or supplanting—conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation—postconverging/dialectical-thinking—apriorising-psychologism or prelogism— we abide by (and so, even in the case of ‘poor or bad supplanting—conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation—postconverging/dialectical-thinking—apriorising-psychologism’ or bad prelogism where the bad logic of the prelogism-as-of-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation mind operates by an ad-hoc and circumspect exaggeration or omission). In other words, the psychopath manifests postlogism or postlogism-as-of-compulsing–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation—(perverted-outcome-sought-precedes-existentially-veridical-logical-dueness) by its reference-of-thought—devolving-as-of-instantiative-context—meaningfulness-and teleology—construed as ‘how can a perverted sought after outcome be obtained with an interlocutor or interlocutors with respect to a targeted end-goal or targeted individual by falsely projecting hollow-abstract logic notwithstanding that it is existentially unreal or it is faked or it is opportunistically raised or raised out-of-context (existential-decontextualised-transposition)’, i.e. meaning-as-form or pathologically/compulsively hollow-constituting-as-disjointed-misappropriation-of-meaningfulness-and-failing-intemporal-preservation, contrasted to the normal prelogism-as-of-conviction,-as-to-profound-supererogation minds prelogic state (‘existentially-veridical-logical-dueness-precedes-logical-outcome-arrived-at’ construed as ‘what does the veridical logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation of a given existential situation intrinsically imply as relevant and sound outcome’, i.e. meaning-as-ontologically-veridical/in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation, whether thereafter the logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation is rightly or wrongly assumed). Hence prelogism or prelogism-as-of-conviction,-as-to-profound-supererogation is all about the appropriateness of logic without any implication/questioning about any issue with the reference-of-thought on which logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation is based, and thus the idea of re-engaging is valid on the basis that the logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation can be well performed subsequently despite an initial failure or possible initial failures. Whereas with postlogism or postlogism-as-of-compulsing–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation this essentially has to do not with an issue of logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation but rather an issue of perversion-of-reference-of-thought-as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation, as logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation is on the basis of a sound reference-of-thought (non—perversion-of-reference-of-thought) such that fundamentally ‘the notion of the dueness for logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation’

The postlogic disposition is associated pathologically with the psychopathic character as a faulty-mentation-procedure-deception-or-urge\(^{19}\) with respect to perceived social-stake-contention-or-confliction but can equally extend ad-hocly or more profoundly as a manifestation of conjugated-postlogism /preconverging-or-dementing -integration (due to psychopathic/postlogism\(^{77}\) induced social loss-of-awareness of the social \(^{103}\) universal-transparency\(^{104}\) -(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness)) where it elicits temporal-dispositions of ignorance/affordability/opportunism/exacerbation/social-chainism-or-social-discomftrute-or-negative-social-aggregation/temporal-enculturation-or-temporal-endemisation in situations of social-stake-contention-or-confliction.

teleology’ neuterising that it is an evil forest one should not trespass together with a whole cohort of ‘imaginary tales’ in shoring up that posture, speaking of its threshold-of– nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation’— preconverging/dementing –apriorising-psychologism. This is a most elaborate articulation of neuterising but it equally applies where ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ is ‘just about miscued’ say between positivism–procrypticism and notional–deprocrypticism with the latter underlying the disjointedness-as-of- reference-of-thought of the former as it neuterising, for instance in the case of psychopathy and corresponding conjugated-postlogism as social psychopathy as in the various illustrations highlighted herein and particularly as more obviously revealed with childhood psychopathy. In the bigger picture, ascriptivity-or-ascription-hardening/pseudo-referentialism arises as of enabled-prior-institutionalisation-level-by-prospective-uninstitutionalised-threshold; underlining the ontological implications of understanding neuterising with respect to ‘retrospective and prospective Being underdevelopment elucidations of meaningfulness-teleology’ as of ‘neuterising induced failing of reference-of-thought/dementative/structural/paradigmatic—ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology’.

Basically neuterising as so articulated is the conception of ‘the ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology’ of the various institutionalisations references-of-thought-devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’ so-conceptualised from the notional—confusedness of notional—deprocripticism protensive-consciousness, and such an ontologically-veridical evaluation of neuterising is construed as a deneuterising referentialism reflecting-ontologically-veridical-‘affirmation/projection/assertion/dueness-validating-logicising/suitable-measuringinstrument-validating-measuring—as-to-postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking—apriorising-psychologism’—and-ontologically-flawed—‘preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism/deassertion’ as of the various institutionalisations references-of-thought-devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’.

The implication here being that neuterising can be disambiguated as of the fundamental human limited-mentation-capacity induced <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating context—meaningfulness-and-teleology reference-of-thought—devolving-as-of-instantiative-ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology misconstrual-as neuterising, and so-construed as of referentialism as of the notional—confusedness of notional—deprocripticism protensive-consciousness; thus gaining a superseding insight of the ontologically-flawed references-of-thought-devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness fixations/hardening-construed-as neuterising of the various relative-ontologically-incomplete institutionalisations destructuring. Understanding and overcoming neuterising as such reveals the beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology of human temporal-to-intemporal individuations mental-dispositions/apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument as critical across all the registry-worldviews/dimensions construed as of de-mentation-(supererogatory—ontological—de-mentation-or-dialectical—de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics). The ontological-veridicality of a ‘postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking—psychology or psychology-of-mentation-dynamics or natural~psychological-dynamics’ as associated with ‘intemporal ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality instigated ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process as of difference-conflatedness—as-to-totalitative-reification—in-singularisation—as-veridical-epistemic-determinism<amplituding/formative—epistemicity>causality—as-to-projective-totalitative—implications,—for-explicating-ontological-contiguity’ is one grounded as of de-mentation-(supererogatory—ontological—de-mentation-or-dialectical—de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics) on ‘decentering/pivoting around the uninstitutionalised-threshold rule’ as a remaking of apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument involving the resetting of the placeholder-setup/mental-devising-representation/mentation/consciousness-awareness-teleology, pointing out that the prior apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument has been superseded as of its revealed perversion-and-derived-perversion-of-reference-of-thought-<as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation> and so as of the uninstitutionalised-threshold rule. This explains why at uninstitutionalised-threshold which are subject to ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ neuterising’, prospective institutionalisation can only be achieved as of secondnatured constraining social universal-transparency -{transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness} that overcomes the given uninstitutionalised-threshold meaningfulness-and-teleology neuterising’ thus enabling the ontological-normalcy/relative-ontological-completeness-of- reference-of-thought of the prospective institutionalisation. It also explains why naively implying at an uninstitutionalised-threshold that ‘the social-universally-nonnonge-transparency-thus-non-constraining-element of ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality’ is universally attributable as if humans had only the intemporal/longness-of-register-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology individuation without temporal/shortness-of-register-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology individuations will simply fail to recognise the generation-and-upholding of neuterising and thus unable to reveal perversion-and-derived- perversion-of- reference-of-thought—as-effectively-apriorising-innonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-superoeration>; as it is naïve to think that while being at an uninstitutionalised-threshold like universalisation–nonpositivism/medievalism by mere-and-vague impression-driven/good-naturedness/wishfulness wooden-language-{imbued—averaging-of-thought—<as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology as-of ‘nondescript/ignorable–void’—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications}> in social-aggregation-enabling, people will ‘simply by magic’ find themselves articulating positivistic meaningfulness-and-teleology without grasping that the psychoanalytic-unshackling/memetic-reordering/institutional-recomposuring crossgenerational process is effectively the mechanism for ‘overcoming non-positivism/medievalism uninstitutionalisation meaningfulness-and-teleology neuterising’ to be able to then reveal, construe and uphold positivistic Being and "meaningfulness-and-teleology", and this equally applies with regards to overcoming our 'procrypticism–or–disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought meaningfulness-and-teleology' neuterising' to attain futural Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology as of prospective notional–deprocrypticism Being and "meaningfulness-and-teleology". As a further elucidation, a comparison can be made between a construct of 'notional–referentialism’ disambiguated as referentialism, categorising neuterising, qualifying neuterising, tendentious neuterising and impulsive neuterising, and in parallel a reflection of ‘data conceptualisation’ disambiguated as ratio-contiguous referencing, intervalist pseudo-referencing, ordinal pseudo-referencing, nominal pseudo-referencing and random pseudo-referencing. We can grasp that effectively data conceptualisation as of intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality is inherently ratio-contiguous as of ontological-normalcy/relative-ontological-completeness of reference-of-thought but then we don’t always have the capacity to reference ratio-contiguous data and so the other types of data conceptualisations are available to us as well ‘as of the limitations of our measuring capacity’, and we grasp that the latter are actually in ‘constructed-deficiency of <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising-ratio-contiguity/ratiocination-as-referentialism’ as of their respective epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence /relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought. Here as well it is important to understand that it is the ratio-contiguous referencing data conceptualisation that provides the 'overriding framework as of conflatedness' for making-sense-of/construing the relatively deficient referencing data conceptualisations as of their ‘defined tolerable levels’ of neuterising. This elucidation is to point out that reference-of-thought constructs in epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence /relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought in the very first place cannot be the basis for articulating, as of their given constitutedness, by elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity ontologically-veridical meaningfulness-and-teleology as if in referentialism as of referentialism—ontologically-uncompromised-mediated,-as-of-conflatedness

thus enabling ontologically-veridical construal as of both ontological-completeness/incompleteness-of- reference-of-thought of Being and meaningfulness-and-teleology retrospectively to prospectively in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process. To put it another way, as distinct articulations of the same physics intrinsic-reality, we cannot simply by constitutedness by elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity of ‘traditional classical mechanics axiomatic-construct’ given its epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence/relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought arrive-at/achieve the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs as of its ontological-normalcy/relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought; as what is so generated is nothing as of reality but rather a virtuality-or-ontologically-flawed-construal. Instead such a construction of prospective relative intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality is a conflatedness of ‘traditional classical mechanics axiomatic-construct’ by an epistemic-totalising ~renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought as of ‘maximising-recomposing-for-relative-ontological-completeness’—unenframed-conceptualisation; driven by ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality to reconstruct the same physics domain-of-study as the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs, and rather reflects the ontological-veridicality that ‘traditional classical mechanics axiomatic-construct’ as of its epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence /relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought is ‘construed as a constructed-deficiency of the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs ontological-normalcy/relative-ontological-completeness of reference-of-thought perspective’, and the former can only be subsumed/implied/construed-as-non-contradictory to the latter. Such a basic conception of comparative axiomatic-constructs in their reflection of the very same <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~devolved–purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality highlights that ontologically-veridical meaningfulness is a construction or derived-construction as of inherent intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality or the closest axiomatic-construct approximation to it; the insight here being that ‘relative completeness/profoundness of axiomatic-construct/ reference-of-thought with respect to intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality’ is what is ontologically preeminent/critical for the notional perspective of ontological construal/conceptualisation. This is equally relevant with regards to the ‘reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’ which refers to the transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supercerogatory—de-mentativity conceptual framework that sets up the apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument for a registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought construction possibilities of derived axiomatic-constructs of meaningfulness-and-teleology as knowledge-constructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional–referential-notions/articulations/virtue as of existential-instantiations’, on the same unchanging intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality construed/conceptualised by all registry-worldviews/dimensions, but generating with human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening successive more and more relatively profound/complete registry-worldviews/dimensions reference-of-thought constructions of derived axiomatic-constructs of meaningfulness-and-teleology as knowledge-constructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional–referential-notions/articulations/virtue; with the (given consciousness’s neuterising-induced-or-deneuterising -induced)- reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness as of its intradimensional existential-instantiations derived/devolved axiomatic-constructs of meaningfulness-and-teleology as knowledge-constructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional–referential-notions/articulations/virtue as the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought ‘abstract teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming/teleological-possibilities’. For instance, all subsequent axiomatic-constructs of meaningfulness-and-teleology as knowledge-constructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional–referential-notions/articulations/virtue of the recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation registry-worldview/dimension are possible only by its (trepidatious-consciousness neuterising-induced)- reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness which is non-rules—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism,—as-impulsive-or-accidented-or-random-mental-disposition as this basically defines the possibility of institutionalisation within recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation as inherently non-existent. Likewise it is the habituated rulemaking-over-non-rules—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism as of ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality for the prospective institutionalisation of base-institutionalisation that is the (warped-consciousness neuterising-induced)- reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-dementating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness for enabling intradimensional existential-instantiations derived/devolved axiomatic-constructs of meaningfulness-andteleology as knowledge-constructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional—referential-notions/articulations/virtue of base-institutionalisation. This insight extends to all successive registry-worldviews/dimensions institutionalisations in construing their teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming/teleological-possibilities. This equally explains the divergence of individuals and societies ontological-performance -<including-virtue-as-ontology> across registry-worldviews/dimensions even though all humans have the same basic intellectual potential; as within the institutionalisation limits of a registry-worldview’s/dimension’s ‘reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-

As a further elaboration, the circularity and <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag mental-disposition attached to a registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument is fundamentally grounded on its teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming/teleological-possibilities established as of its reference-of-thought–and–reference-of-thought devolving–meaningfulness-and-teleology as its intradimensional knowledge-constructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional–referential-notions/articulations/virtue. It is only a crossgenerational psychoanalytic-unshackling/memetic-reordering/institutional-recomposuring in the medium to long-term that can transcendentally ‘wean off’ from such a teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming/teleological-possibilities of a registry-worldview/dimension by habituating a prospective institutionalisation as of its reference-of-thought–and–reference-of-thought devolving–meaningfulness-and-teleology as its intradimensional knowledge-constructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional–referential-notions/articulations/virtue. This explains as of metaphysics-of-absence-(implicit–epistemic-veracity-of nonpresencing–<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>) why for instance the mere demonstration to approval/acquiescence of positivistic principles/interpretations of intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality in a non-positivistic as animistic social-setup or medieval social-setup however frequent the demonstrations within a given limited period of time doesn’t mean that the social-setup has been transformed into a positivistic social-setup; since their existentially habituated state of animism or medievalism teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming/teleological-possibilities as of ⟨warped-or-preclusive-

We can get a projected sense of this as of metaphysics-of-absence ⟨implicated-epistemic-veracity-of-nonpresencing—perspective—ontological-normalcy/postconvergence⟩ in that despite the articulation of positivistic principles/interpretations in the animistic social-setup or medieval social-setup, in the short to medium run individuals will keep on overriding and ignoring such positivistic meaningfulness-and-teleology nihilistically, notwithstanding that we may recognise this as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness—of-reference-of-thought, and falling back to construe/conceptualise meaningfulness-and-teleology in non-positivistic animistic or medieval terms—as-of-axiomatic-construct, construed from the positivistic perspective as perversion-and-derived-perversion-of-reference-of-thought<as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation> as of unsoundness-or-ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity—of-reference-of-thought. As broadly speaking, a registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought is as notions/notional~referential-notions/articulations/virtue, are rather as of ‘a psychoanalytic-unshackling commitment’ and not as of ‘a grounded knowledge construct commitment’. Inherently, such ‘a psychoanalytic-unshackling commitment’ inevitably and fundamentally puts into question the axioms and underlying supposedly transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supernumerary~de-mentativity notion as of the (given consciousness’s neuterising-induced) reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming~of-meaningfulness of the prior registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought of meaningfulness-and-teleology which establishes its ‘grounded knowledge construct’, and so because of its denaturing of the prior institutionalisation’s reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology by way of elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity at the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s uninstitutionalised-threshold inducing prior relative-ontological-incompleteness reference-of-thought in need for prospective relative-ontological-completeness reference-of-thought, and so as a transitional construct that is in effect as of a psychoanalytic-unshackling/memetic-reordering/institutional-recomposing articulation by its crossgenerational transcendental implications projection. Such that such ‘a psychoanalytic-unshackling commitment’ cannot be construed in the same terms—as-of-axiomatic-construct as ordinary intradimensional knowledge as of the established prior institutionalisation teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming/teleological-possibilities for its ‘grounded knowledge construct’ as prior relative-ontological-incompleteness reference-of-thought, but rather construed as of prospective ontological-normalcy/relative-ontological-completeness reference-of-thought it more critically and organically points to the uninstitutionalised-threshold state of the present registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought at its uninstitutionalised-threshold with respect to the prospective institutionalisation state of the prospective registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness reference-of-thought, and thus rather implies an dementation (supererogatory ontological de-mentation-or-dialectical de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics). It is psychoanalytic-unshackling commitment and not grounded knowledge construct commitment, because it is for instance about articulating ‘prospective positivism axiomatic-construct (occlusive-consciousness neuterising-induced) reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’ with respect to a relatively underdeveloped registry-worldview/dimension in prior ‘non-positivism axiomatic-construct (warped-or-preclusive-consciousness neuterising-induced) reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’, or in the case of articulating ‘futural Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology as of prospective notional deprocrypticism axiomatic-construct (protensive-consciousness deneuterising-induced) reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’ with respect to a relatively underdeveloped registry-worldview/dimension in prior ‘positivism—procrypticism axiomatic-construct (occlusive-consciousness neuterising-induced) reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness. deeper as of institutional-cumulation/institutional-recomposure-<as-to-historiality/ontological-eventfulness>/ontological-aesthetic-tracing>; such that counterintuitive to what we might be inclined to think, the development of human psychology is not as of ‘a grounded construction that simply varies incrementally across all times’, but rather ‘a construction which teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming/teleological-possibilities/teleological-potency are sharply rearticulated in succession of institutionalisations as of ontological conflatedness’, and this is important ‘to avoid unduly considering our whole psychical-nature-and-potential as of our present positivistic institutionalisation mindset/consciousness as of metaphysics-of-presence--(implicitd-‘nondescript/ignoreable-void ’-as-to-’ presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’), but rather grasp that there are teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming/teleological-possibilities/teleological-potency of our mental-projection and mental-disposition as of deprocrypticism–or–preempting—disjointedness-as-of-<reference-of-thought>‘<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument as of <reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming–of-meaningfulness’ beyond just what we can imagine as of our presence as positivism–procrypticism. This analysis brings out what is effectively meaningfulness as it shows that meaningfulness is more completely about apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument-for-operant-or-incidenting-predicative-insights thus involving the ‘<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument as of <reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming–of-meaningfulness’ as of the prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought of the (given consciousness’s neuterising-induced-or-deneuterising -induced)- reference-of-thought—

Within a registry-worldview’s/dimension’s institutionalisation framework the placeholder-setup/mental-devising-representation/mentation/consciousness-awareness-teleology is utterly geared in an <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag of meaningfulness-and-teleology as of ‘operant-or-incidenting-predicative-insights or logical-coherence’ and beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology -<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> by mental-reflex presupposes-and-assumes the ontological absoluteness/indubitability of its ‘<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument as of reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming–of-meaningfulness’, and wrongly so even at its uninstitutionalised-threshold; such that it is only crossgenerationally that it can attend effectively as of its transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity to the reality of temporal denaturing of the said institutionalisation’s reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology at its uninstitutionalised-threshold by elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity, pointing to its perversion-and-derived-perversion-of-referenceeventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing> is always rather perceived intradimensionally as an exceptional-askance and unordinary. For instance, the maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation mental-disposition in their own times advocating the end of such perverse human institutions like serfdom and slavery were construed in their own times by their dominant societies as of exceptional-askance and unordinary such that in effect these actually engendered great conflict before such practices came to an end; and such metaphysics-of-absence-(implicit-epistemic-veracity-of-nonpresencing-(perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence)) analysis does apply with respect to superstitions, universal human rights, free society, modern science, etc. but then as of our developed present institutionalisation the idea of not entertaining such practices is viewed as not an exceptional-askance and ordinarily to be expected. This explains human mental states respectively as of uninstitutionalised-threshold and as of prospective institutionalisation with respect to maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation as the process enabling prospective relative-ontological-completeness—reference-of-thought of same <amplituding/transformative-epistemicity>totalising-devolved-purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality hitherto considered off limits to any challenging maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation at the uninstitutionalised-threshold but then acknowledged thereafter after prospective institutionalisation; with the implication that the possibility for all prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—de-mentativity as of opened-construct-of-meaningfulness-and-teleology arise only by maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation but presences in their wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought—as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—as-of-reality/ontological-veridicality not subject to immediate-constraining ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework thus rather eliciting atomising/taking-to-pieces constitutedness that induces relatively poor ontological-performance. The central element here has to do with the pervasiveness of ‘conceptual patterning’ that actually speaks of a nombrilisticas <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag approach to conceptualising knowledge based on an intellectual exercise of producing patterns of thought with little consideration as to their underlying intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity as validated by ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework. At its worst, such an orientation construes of categorisation/taxonomisation of knowledge as inherently representative of intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality by that mere exercise. Such a constitutedness ends up misconstruing the organical depth involved and renders all knowledge constructs so categorised/taxonomised on the same vague plane of mechanical equivalence undermining their transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity, originality, organic nature and more often than not turning them into platitudes as rather concerned with perceived academic formulations and formats in of themselves rather than ontological-veracity as of intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity. The underlying mental-reflex for this intellectual disposition associated with conceptual patterning is the assumption that by mere categorising/taxonomising ideas on the basis of their similarities and differences it should be able to attain a grander truth as of elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity. But then such an approach is naïve by its failure to reckon the reality of human limited-mentation-capacity which implies that human conceptualisation tends to develop from prior relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought, as of the incompleteness of the de-mentating/structuring/paradigming of human reference-of-thought. Such that a naïve categorisation/taxonomisation conceptual patterning perspective on that basis equally inherits that relative-ontological-incompleteness of the de-mentating/structuring/paradigming of human reference-of-thought; with the consequence that it is not ‘notionally de-mentated/structured/paradigmed’ to conceptually factor in human poor to perfect/near-perfect construal on the basis of conflatedness but rather suffers from constitutedness. This weakness is underlined and resolved by the notion of maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation driven by ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality that enables conflatedness in line with existential-contextualising-contiguity’s-reifying/elucidating-of-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought—devolving-as-of-instantiative-context. It is such a conceptual patterning mental-reflex associated with categorising/taxonomising dispositions in constitutedness that is behind the naïve but poor influence of the saying that ‘every idea has already been thought of before’ with the nefarious consequence of ‘emphasising themes and authorial differentiation within such categorised/taxonomised thematics in of themselves’ as if an epistemic-totalising~devolved~purview-as-domain-of-study mainly involves intersubjective evaluation or evaluation among humans within the scope of their mortality on the naïve assumption that such categorising/taxonomising effectively covers analytically the entirety/potency of existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation~and~existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,~eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation~<as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied-’prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’>, whereas such is achieved rather by a conceptualising as implied by referentialism-as-ofontological-normalcy/postconvergence that places existential-contextualising-contiguity’s-reifying/elucidating-of-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness’-of- reference-of-thought-devolving-as-of-instantiative-context above intersubjective evaluation or evaluation among humans in their mortality in determining intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity as of intersolipsistic insight. Consider for instance that in the run up to the development of theory-of-relativity and quantum-mechanics in the early part of last century, the scientists involved weren’t in the exercise of evaluating their respective theories in a closed framework emphasising their respective ‘ownership-of-theories’ as mortals but rather an opened framework emphasising whoever theories contribute in disclosing intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality as the superior third party. This can equally be compared to naively articulating categories/taxonomies of sounds on the basis that their constitutedness defines the entire existential possibility/potency of musical compositions that can arise but then the ‘depth/axiomatic-construct of existence for musical compositions’ doesn’t submit to such a naïve categorising/taxonomising constitutedness but rather such ‘depth/axiomatic-construct of existence for musical compositions’ is as of an imbricatedness/threadedness/recomposuring of existential-instantiations that is graspable rather by a conflatedness as enabled by referentialism-as-of-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence. Given our limited-mentation-capacity, existential-contextualising-contiguity’s-reifying/elucidating-of-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness’-of- reference-of-thought-devolving-as-of-instantiative-context is then the preceding and transformative element of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ conceptualisation as of our limited-mentation-capacity-deepening enabling our prospective relative-ontological-completeness’-of- reference-of-thought for grasping ontologically-veridical organic-knowledge articulated in any given <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–devolved–purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality such that the wrong approach for prospective intellectual creation is one that simply lumps authorial articulations under given themes together in ‘mechanical association’ without factoring beforehand their respective ‘transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity dynamism and implied organic-knowledge’ as of conflatedness. This equally underlies the pervasive disposition for misattributed and misfocused analyses as such blurry intellectual exercise become an <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag temporal-dispositions focussing less on the possibilities and insights of prospective elucidation and expansion of knowledge as of intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality as being the transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity immortal/first-party, and turning more and more and placing the stakes rather on authorial second-parties/mortals competing analyses even to the extent on occasion of undermining the intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity immortal/first-party. Further, such conceptual patterning will often fail to identify the appropriate point for grasping intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality as instead of emphasising conflatedness in (re-originary–as-unenframed/unbeholdening/outlier-conceptualisation-(imbued-postconverging/dialectical-thinking‘-‘projective-insights’/‘epistemic-projection-in-conflatedness ‘-of-notional–deprocrypticism-prospective-sublimation)‘) originary/event ‘-of-prospective-ontology-origination projection into existential-contextualising-contiguity’s-reifying/elucidating-of-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness‘-of-reference-of-thought’d-evolving-as-of-instantiative-context, it emphasises mere de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic patterns inducing constitutedness, and so whether at detailing or synoptic levels of analysis. This extends to the way issues are raised, questions are posed, as well as their supposed resolutions; ultimately lacking in providing theoretical, conceptual and operant constructs of universal applicative pertinence, and explains a certain position of closure that holds that philosophy is just a vague thinking exercise. Furthermore, whereas an intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity construal highlights the ontological-contiguity of all knowledge as of their reference-of-thought/de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic relationship, conceptual patterning seem to naively imply a discreet relationship of knowledge constructs with little insight of their intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental enabling ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework interconnectedness as this is often not the primary driving focus, as it is naively assumed that the conceptual patterning is a correspondence of intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality as of the mere de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic conceptualisation in constitutedness rather than striving to expand the transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework existential-reality potential, and this easily leads to virtuality or ontologically-flawed construal. The defect of conceptual patterning is easily overlook mainly as philosophy is of first order knowledge, a level at which knowledge differentiation doesn’t easily manifest itself. Such errors of conceptual patterning will hardly arise in second-level knowledge where transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity implications arise in a specular way. For instance, while hereditary is an underlying conceptual patterning idea in biology, it will be unthinkable to try to lump together and undermine the originality of subsequent hereditary notions of genetics on the basis that these are of the same conceptual patterning as earlier notions like Mendelian heredity as the transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity differentiations are spectacular. Finally, one practical intellectual flaw arising out of such naïve categorising/taxonomising conceptual patterning has to do with a certain vague intellectual practice based on perceived intellectual pertinence in terms of the authorial ‘precedence of mentioned terms’ irrespective of association whether simple formalistic identifying of terms and notions with little consideration of the divergence of implied organic-knowledge as of their intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework nature and differences as well as their divergence in meaningfulness-and-teleology implications. This again leads to lumping, artificial categorising and undermines originality and organic-knowledge, turning this into simplistic mechanical associations with the more serious consequence being that the more decisive notion for human knowledge renewal as of maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness —unenframed-conceptualisation driven by ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality, becomes seriously undermined; as it refers to a transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework renewal of a same totalising~devolved–purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality but with such effort for renewal often laden with a tradition that is naively of constitutedness undermining requisite creativity as of conflatedness, as it ‘critically presupposes beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology—<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>— that prospective meaningfulness is deterministically tied down to a certain categorising/taxonomising relationship with the prior conceptualisations’ in the given totalising~devolved–purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality. Ultimately, the idea here is that approaching intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality with our given limited-mentation-capacity in other to achieve ontological-veracity requires a rather counterintuitive mental-reflex as of existential-contextualising-contiguity’s-reifying/elucidating-of-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{3} of reference-of-thought devolving-as-of-instantiative-context that ‘originally reconstructs the ontological-pertinence of axiomatic-constructs and their derived-conceptualisations’. Such an analytic insight as of a notional-deprocrypticism (protensive-consciousness deneuterising\textsuperscript{4} -induced)-reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming-of-meaningfulness analysis as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{5} of reference-of-thought/ontological-normalcy, points out that actually, and according to this author’s view, such a currently discussed philosophical issue as the hard problem of consciousness arises as a result of a fragmented thematic construal as of constitutedness\textsuperscript{6} wherein a more profound view of the philosophical enterprise as intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity ontological-prime-movers-totalitative-framework here hasn’t been entertain sufficiently to point out that effectively it is a problem that actually ‘devolves out’ of the more fundamental issue of Being as of its but is rather being posed as of a ‘disjointed/fragmented analysis’ as a consciousness grounded problem. This equally explains this author’s construal of human consciousness development as rather of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion-as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology; consciousness defined as of ‘notional <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/anteriorising/akrasiatic-drag human-subpotency/subpotent-mimetic-echoness-derivation-within-the-full-potency of existence/intrinsic-reality/ontology-as-of-its-mimetic-echoness-or-existence-in-reverberation-or-existence-potency–sublimating—nascence,–disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,—in-suprerogatory–epistemic-conflatedness. The fundamental fact is that existence as of existential-contextualising-contiguity’s-reifying/elucidating-of-prospective-relative-enabling the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process. It is interesting to grasp here that we cannot from our ‘sense of conceptual patterning’ claim to put into question the inherent nature of existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation—and—existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation—<as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied—‘prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’> and as of its implied superseding–oneness-of-ontology, since existence is de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically precedent and our conceptual patterning is arising secondarily as of our shoddy-and-incomplete construal of the ‘iterating nature of existential-instantiations’ as of existence’s imbricatedness/threadedness/recomposuring; and any such pretence of conceptual patterning is nothing but a virtuality or ontologically-flawed construal as of naïve constitutedness. Of course, it is rather prospective relative-ontological-completeness—of—reference-of-thought that will imply deeper ontological-veracity of the same underlying purview for the construal of meaningfulness-and-teleology mental-disposition grounded on existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation—and—existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation—<as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied—‘prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’>. Insightfully and making the case against conceptual patterning as of elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity of existential-instantiations, this points out that existence inherent superseding–oneness-of-ontology necessarily implies ontologically-veridical meaningfulness-and-teleology is effectively as of a natural transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory—de-mentativity existential-contextualising-contiguity—of—all-ontologically-veridical-meaningfulness ‘in wait’ to be elucidated however imbricated/threaded/recompusured such an exercise, explaining why our knowledgeconstructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional~referential-notions/articulations/virtue of a given <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~devolved–purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality in conflatedness need to be as of a reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology, for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring–meaningfulness-and-teleology, and more than just conceptual patterning that doesn’t or poorly attends to a natural transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity contextualising-contiguity-of-all-ontologically-veridical-meaningfulness. existential-For all the above elucidations highlighting the ontological-veracity implications of constitutedness and conflatedness, it should be noted that emphasis is rather on the deficiency of limited-mentation-capacity in construing intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality such that the more profound/complete recomposuring of the very same <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~devolved–purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality highlights/reflects in its subsuming interpretation the true deficiency of the shoddy/incomplete. This can be expanded upon as follows, the reason why relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought/epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence/de-structuring can only be construed with certainty-as-to-their-true-ontological-deficiency ‘rather as a constructed-deficiency of prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought/ontological-normalcy/conflatedness’ lies in the fact that the construal/conceptualisation of an epistemic-totalising~devolved–purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality is ‘supposedly as of a perfect or near-perfect or relatively-perfect ontological correspondence between such human construed/conceptualised meaninglessness-and-teleology and the inherent ontological-veracity/intrinsicness of the <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~devolved–purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology of human construal/conceptualisation of it'.

The only human construal/conceptualisation that can guarantee or relatively guarantee such a perfect or near-perfect or relatively-perfect ontological correspondence is as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought/ontological-normalcy/conflatedness. Since there is no direct correspondence between relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought/epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence/destructuring with the inherent intrinsicness of the <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–devolved–purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology of human construal/conceptualisation of it, it is thus only from a constructed-deficiency of prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought/ontological-normalcy/conflatedness which has such a direct correspondence that the certainty-as-to-their-real-ontological-deficiency of relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought/epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence/destructuring can be established. A direct approach to determine the certainty-as-to-their-real-ontological-deficiency of relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought/epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence/destructuring will simply lead to a virtuality-or-ontologically-flawed-construal, as failing to elucidate the correspondence of ontological-deficiency to the inherent intrinsicness of the <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–devolved–purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-veridicality since a logical correspondence with intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality will be vaguely implied by mental-reflex; as is often the case with postlogism and conjugated-postlogism. By and large, this overall conceptualisation explains the nature of ‘notional constructs’ as implying a variance of poor-to-perfect ontological-performance of the same underlying idea conceptualised as of its perfect/near-perfect/relatively-perfect ontological-performance as in-sync/corresponding with inherent intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology of human construal/conceptualisation of it. This fully articulates the dynamic relationship of human limited-mentation-capacity as of its poor to perfect relationship-with/conceptualising-of existence-or-intrinsic-reality-or-ontological-veridicality; respectively as poor as of constitutedness and as relatively-perfect/near-perfect/perfect conflatedness, construed as notional~conflatedness as of constitutedness-to-conflatedness of human limited-mentation-capacity. Insightfully, it highlights that constitutedness arises as of human limited-mentation-capacity ‘poor/unsound/shoddy/incomplete unanticipated/unprojected’ construal/conceptualisation-of-axiomatic-constructs-as-knowledge-constructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional~referential-notions/articulations/virtue from ‘the imbricatedness/threadedness/recomposuring iterating of existential-instantiations’ as of ‘existence-or-intrinsic-reality-or-ontological-veridicality’, while conflatedness arises as of human limited-mentation-capacity ‘good/sound/profound/complete anticipated/projected’ construal/conceptualisation-of-axiomatic-constructs-as-knowledge-constructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional~referential-notions/articulations/virtue from ‘the imbricatedness/threadedness/recomposuring iterating of existential-instantiations’ as of ‘existence-or-intrinsic-reality-or-ontological-veridicality’. Notional~conflatedness /constitutedness-to-conflatedness as such highlights an underlying of-relativity, universal human rights, etc. doesn’t add anything to ‘abstract/imaginary existence as a pre-given’ pointing to the fact that human existence is about human-subpotency construed as of successive defining transcendentally-enabled-institutionalisation-levels-of-ontological-good-faith/authenticity/objectification/desubjectification-as-objectification/ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being—as-of-existential-reality/antinihilism as levels of human dispensing-with-immediacy—for-relative-ontological-completeness-by-reification/complative-distension (as of human self-surpassing—existentialism-form-factor,—in-overcoming—‘notionally—collateralising-beholdening-protohumanity’—to—‘attain-sublimating-humanity’—as-to-existence-potency—sublimating—nascence,—disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression—as—of—totalising—renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,—in—supererogatory—epistemic-conflatedness to supersede human temporality/shortness wooden-language—(imbued—averaging-of-thought—as—to—leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—as—of—‘nondescript/ignorable—void ’—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications)). Thus in effect the natural sciences are actually for-human-studies/for-human-constructs whose specific ambit of human-subpotency is about ‘human consciousness as for material and physical effecting devolving teleologies as meaningfulness’ while the social domains of study are actually for-human-studies/for-human-constructs whose specific ambit of human-subpotency is about ‘human consciousness inherent effecting devolving teleologies as meaningfulness’. This validates the idea of dualism as ultimately—effecting can only arise from the conflatedness of human consciousness in-its-embodiment as the potent ‘phenomenological transcendental-point-of-departure handle’ for human self-conscious existence and ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ construal/conceptualisation as of knowledge-Consider in this particular regards the intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality reflected as akin to an engineering product like a jet engine wherein the conceptualisation is an incisive conflatedness that goes beyond the whole and parts of the jet engine to grasp a conceptualisation profoundness/completeness of required critical performances like fuel burn, maintenance cycles, robustness, etc. construed as of the articulated depth of the reference-of-thought of aircraft engine engineering science. This overall notional conception extends as well to the various ways by which human limited-mentation-capacity ‘accosts’ intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality, bringing about the various registry-worldviews/dimensions categorising/qualifying/tendentious/impulsive—ontologically-compromised-mediating,-as-of-their-specific-constitutedness induced ‘neuterising or prospectively notional—deprocrypticism referentialism—ontologically-uncompromised-mediating,-as-of-conflatedness meaningfulness-and-teleology’. That is, the notional—deprocrypticism protensive-consciousness apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument in its referencing of conflatedness, with no intermediating construct as of constitutedness, thus achieves ontologically-uncompromised-mediating,-as-of-conflatedness meaningfulness-and-teleology. While the occlusive/preclusive/warped/trepidatious-consciousnesses mental-dispositions/apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstruments by their successive intermediating categorising/qualifying/tendentious/impulsive constructs as of constitutedness on conflatedness induce their successively categorising/qualifying/tendentious/impulsive—ontologically-compromised-mediating,-as-of-their-respective-specific-constitutedness meaningfulness-and-teleology. This ultimately points to the centrality of the implications of the 'notion of limited-mentation-capacity' as of its notional—deprocrypticm referentialism—ontologically-uncompromised-mediating,-as-of-conflatedness as a notional conception in construing meaningfulness-and-teleology, while avoiding its ontologically-flawed constitutedness construals in terms—as-of-axiomaticconstruct of the various neuterising. Hence the ‘notion of limited-mentation-capacity’ as it overtakes ontologically-compromised-mediating,-as-of-its-specific-constitutedness towards ontologically-uncompromised-mediating,-as-of-conflicatedness is what is effectively and ontologically defining of issues of reference-of-thought of meaningfulness-and-teleology given that as of its ontologically veridical conflatedness it is the cumulative recomposing of human limited-mentation-capacity as limited-mentation-capacity-deepening that is behind the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process itself, and also underlies temporal-to-intemperal individuations differentiation as shortness-of-register-of meaningfulness-and-teleology and-longness-of-register-of meaningfulness-and-teleology as of limited-mentation-capacity, and as this is so-conceptualised from the ontological-normalcy/relative-ontological-completeness of reference-of-thought perspective of notional-deprocripticism referentialism—ontologically-uncompromised-mediating,-as-of-conflicatedness protensive-consciousness sound conceptualisation perspective. This equally underlies and is in sync with the notion of candidity/candour-capacity as a variance of the same as of notional-deprocripticism referentialism—ontologically-uncompromised-mediating,-as-of-conflicatedness protensive-consciousness sound conceptualisation perspective. It is the 'notion of limited-mentation-capacity' that as of its deficiency is falsely-composited by 'ontologically-compromised-mediating,-as-of-their-specific-constitutedness' consciousnesses flawed conceptualisation perspectives into ontologically-flawed constructs of neuterising. historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing as of the notional-conflicatedness of notional-deprocripticism highlights that humankind in its projected-or-anticipated relationship with 'existence as-the-absolute-a-priori' is rather in existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought, and not the full potency of existence; existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought construed rather as 'shoddy-and-incomplete actualising in presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness' of the full potency of already given rather as of its potency, and the real problem of existence is humankind’s access to existential possibilities as of humankind’s limited-mentation-capacity. That is, human transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity is what achieves existence as a ‘potent construct’, as the notion of existence-as-a-grounded-construct doesn’tempiricism perspective, we’ll certainly construe the supposed intradimensional resolution of existential issues of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought as of ontological-performance-including-virtue-as-ontology arising in recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation as intradimensional meniality-or-hyperbole and rather resolvable as of base-institutionalisation superseding projection/anticipation, and same with base-institutionalisation-ununiversalisation as intradimensional meniality-or-hyperbole and rather resolvable as of universalisation superseding projection/anticipation, and same with universalisation–non-positivism/medievalism as intradimensional meniality-or-hyperbole and rather resolvable as of positivism/rational-empiricism superseding projection/anticipation, but we won’t or hardly construe of the same as of our <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag about our positivism–procrypticism as it being of intradimensional meniality-or-hyperbole and rather resolvable as of notional–deprocrypticism as preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought superseding projection/anticipation! This points to the flaw of a Heideggerian Dasein conceptualisation as it wrongly implies ‘humankind has any developed mental state as of Being-and-contemplation in any past-to-present epoch’ to ‘fully register as of that epoch’s metaphysics-of-presence–(implicated–nondescript/ignorable–void –as-to-presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness )’ what is existence/existential-possibilities not factoring Being conflatedness <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought as rather driven by ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality in reflecting holographically–<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity —of-the-human-institutionalisation-process, and further in contradiction to the notion of human <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–thrownness-in-existence (I exist therefore

Existence is rather a ‘potency construct of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity as of human existential potential’ and not ‘a grounded construct for construing existence’ as wrongly implied/attempted with the Heideggerian Dasein notion, as all what ‘grounding’ does is to wrongly elevate the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought in which such a construct is articulatedly grounded thus contradictorily undermining the possibility for transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity by wrongly implying that the said registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought is of absolute ontological-performance -<including-virtue-as-ontology>, whereas it is deepening of human limited-mentation-capacity as of ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality in inducing prospective apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstruments that allows for prospective relative-ontological-completeness -of-reference-of-thought thus expanding human notion of existence/existential-possibilities. Anecdotally, the prophesying social scientists of their times who insist on the recurrence of the practices of the creed are ‘not stupid’ as they know very well that reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology for meaningfulness-and-teleology are just that with respect to an animal of limited-mentation-capacity beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology -<inexistential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> who is bound to circularly elicit shortness-of-register-of-meaningfulness-and-teleology on such renewed reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology for meaningfulness-and-teleology and further denaturing them as of the prospective institutionalisation uninstitutionalised-threshold !

decentered-infinite-freeplay in its critique of ‘centered—epistemic-totalisation as of circularity of meaningfulness-and-teleology in relative deficient/flawed ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology’ since such a criticism is based on assuming only a same registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought, and so-construed mainly because such a Derridean conception construes of centered—epistemic-totalisation as only within one

Here as well the Derridean postulation of decentered-infinite-freeplay in lieu of such a conceptualisation of a ‘projected ultimate centered–epistemic-totalisation circularity of meaningfulness-and-teleology^99 of theoretically perfect/sound ontological-performance^71)-<including-virtue-as-ontology>’, as implied by this author’s notion of ontological-normalcy/postconvergence, operantly displays the philosophical tradition problem of constitutedness^14 as failing to project of the transformational implications of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening^52 for successive prospective relative-ontological-completeness^87)-of-reference-of-thought in bringing about successive registry-worldviews/dimensions as of conflatedness^77 that prospectively ultimately grasps the centered<-amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating meaningfulness-and-teleology^99 ontological-performance^71)-<including-virtue-as-ontology> in reflecting holographically<-conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity^66—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process^67 or notional–deprocrypticism. Despite such a Derridean decentered-infinite-freeplay conception being the most radical attempt hitherto to overcome the philosophical tradition constitutedness^14, it perfectly grasps the implications to meaningfulness-and-teleology^99 ontological-performance^71)-<including-virtue-as-ontology> of ‘centered–epistemic-totalisation as of circularity of meaningfulness-and-teleology^99 in relative deficient/flawed ontological-performance^71)-<including-virtue-as-ontology>’ but rather as within a same horizon of meaningfulness-and-teleology^99 ontological-performance^71)-<including-virtue-as-ontology>. reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality’ with an ambition for a theory of everything. However, a Derridean decentered-infinite-freeplay is nevertheless critical as a first step for breaking away from a prior centered–epistemic-totalisation of a very same <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~devolved–purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality in relative deficient/flawed ontological-performance’ -<including-virtue-as-ontology>, and thus by extension with regards to the-very-same-immanent-existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality,-as-to-
‘human<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~purview-of-construal’ which is a given reference-of-thought, construed as ‘reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-dementating/structuring/paradigming–of-meaningfulness’; and for all practical matters this has been the way Derridean deconstruction has been commonly applied as in effect all our meaningfulness-and-teleology ontological-performance’-<including-virtue-as-ontology> has been as of our positivism–procrypticism registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-dementating/structuring/paradigming–of-meaningfulness’ horizon and such a Derridean decentered-infinite-freeplay is an inspired conception providing the groundwork as its initiates the centered–epistemic-totalisation exercise for the insight of a futural différance as of the latter’s transcendental–epistemic-totalisation that underlies conflatedness in breaking with the philosophical tradition or human knowledge conceptualisation tradition or towards fulfilling the understanding of Being. In this regard talking about the physics example again, such a Derridean freeplay différance is akin to the ‘putting in question exercise’ that surrounds the cooperation/mutual-complementing-ideas-among-various-physicists leading up to the critical breakthroughs; which then establish such physics centered–epistemic-totalisation schemes as Newtonian physics and later on Theory-of-relativity and Quantum-mechanics, and today with respect to various theoretical efforts with the potential of leading to a physics Theory of Everything. Inherent to futural différence is the notion of \textit{<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatc-drag}, as of beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology \textit{<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>}, construed in the immediate-and-short-term as of ‘self-referencing’ as the uninstitutionalised-threshold\textsuperscript{102} temporal individuations circular undermining of the prospective institutionalisation \textsuperscript{83}reference-of-thought/de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic implied transformation/shift as transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{87}–of-\textsuperscript{82}reference-of-thought, as well as the idea of temporal individuations ‘syncretising’ that underlies a spiralling crossgenerational increasing undermining of the uninstitutionalised-threshold\textsuperscript{102} \textsuperscript{83}reference-of-thought which is in \textit{<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiac-drag} with its ultimate crossgenerational collapsing for the prospective institutionalisation’s \textsuperscript{83}reference-of-thought; and so as of prospective social-stake-contention-or-confliction dynamism with increasing social\textsuperscript{103} universal-transparency\textsuperscript{104}–(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,–as-to-entailing–\textit{<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness}) as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{87}–of-\textsuperscript{82}reference-of-thought of the prospective institutionalisation’s \textsuperscript{83}reference-of-thought. Insightfully again, this idea of infinite-possibilities/circularity implied as of a Derridean infinite-decentered-freeplay of a given meaningful-frame/axiomatic-construct/model such as mathematical models/axiomatic-constructs circularity is familiar to physicists and other scientists who understand that there is no infinity in the real-world/existence and infinity showing up in mathematical models/axiomatic-constructs point to the fact that there is a circular or undefined or undecidable problem arising from poor human limited-mentation-capacity conceptualisation implying the given mathematical model/axiomatic-construct is in circular-existential-disjointedness-as-of-prior-relative-axiomatic-construct in the same way that insight/intuition is reflected rather with regards to any given implicated axiomatic-constructs; with an axiomatic-construct such as an idea or a concept or a notion or a theory being any conception as of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ of supposed existential-implications correspondence. That is the traditional knowledge conception articulated as ‘axioms of logic’ is rather vague, with the appropriate articulation being rather ‘logic of axiomatic-construct/reference-of-thought’, as the axiomatic-construct/reference-of-thought is the effective human limited-mentation-capacity supposed correspondence relation with existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation—and—existence—as-sublimatingwithdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation—<as-to-perspective-ontologicalnormalcy/postconvergence-IMPLIED—‘prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’> for human-subpotency possibilities for devolving ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ as knowledgeconstructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional—referential-notions/articulations/virtue, with increasing ontological-performance—<including-virtue-asontology> as of human transcendence; even though such a conception as ‘axioms of logic’ could be perceived rather as a meta-conception or more like a technical practicality akin to say the scaffolding of a building! In other words as the ‘inner working coherence/contiguity of axiomatic-construct construal of ecstatic-existence/the-nature-of-the-world/conditions’, logic and by extension mathematics imply elaboration—as-mere-eXtrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existing-contextualising-contiguity”, whereas axiomatic-constructs as reflecting ecstatic-existence/thenature-of-the-world/conditions are construed in affirmation/projection/assertion/duenessvalidating-logicising/suitable-measuring-instrument-validating-measuring—<as-topostconverging-or-dialectical-thinking—apriorising-psychologism> as of “maximalising-recomposing-for-relative-ontological-completeness”—unenframed-conceptualisation. But then as of ‘ontology of logic’ and ‘ontology of mathematics’ as their very own respective conceptualised meta-axiomatic-constructs as ontologies in terms of reflecting their philosophical depth of contemplation as of ‘coherence/contiguity-of-superseding–oneness-of-ontology-implied-as-of-inherent-existence-coherence/contiguity,-and-so-construed-as-the-enabler-of-insight-or-intuition-or-foresight-as-of-embodied-consciousness’, both logic and mathematics are construed practically as formalisations which are mainly as such constructs of faithful/reproducible syntaxisation on the supposed basis of ‘smarter and simpler articulations’ for the sake of succinctness, clarity and fungibility; however, without the implication of any other inherent transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity of such formalisations besides their succinctness, clarity and fungibility usefulness ‘thus-limitedly construed as their inherent meta-conceptualised ontological-veracity/axiomatic-construct of logic and mathematics transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity’. But then it is naïve to construe of mathematics, as logicists have tended to do, as essentially an exercise of mathematical formalisation. The fact is that mathematics have always been developed implicitly or explicitly in association with or inspired from the context/existential-contextualising-contiguity18 of other applied and transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity activities as of their axiomatic-constructs development and mathematics very own existential-reality of developed axiomatic-constructs applicative orientation, including developing together with heavily dependent mathematics domains like physics, engineering, other applied sciences and statistical studies. This latter situation which is more real than generally said and makes of mathematics ‘a <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality created axiomatic-constructs’ and more so than the ‘abstract romantic image portrayed as of the mere manipulation of numbers and forms’ as if not inspired as of existential-reality contextuality itself. Thus naively taking cue from the formalisation of mathematics as if it will enable the inherent transcendentalenabling/sublimating/de-mentativity of any discipline is bound to lead to disappointment, as the inherent axiomatic-constructs as theories, concepts, notions and ideas of the existential domain in question have to be critically developed as of existential-contextualising-contiguity\textsuperscript{18} knowledge-reification\textsuperscript{20} for logic and mathematics to then be relevant as of a secondary tool or at best a concomitant tool. In this regards, the ‘truly mathematical proof’ (over and above any formal mathematical proof) is rather about validation/invalidation of any such mathematics as it can be so-demonstrable in the occurrence of existential phenomena/manifestations; even as such a mathematical demonstration is rather so ‘existentially nominal’ that such phenomenal/manifest veracity of mathematics is often for all practical purposes mostly overlooked by mathematicians when involved in their formalisation exercise including ‘formal proofs’ as to the fact that the existential validation/invalidation of mathematics is so nominally obvious that hardly any experimenting is warranted for confirmation and this existential nominalism can easily lead to a reductionist confusion that mathematics (as to its epistemic-conception phenomenal/manifest-subpotency-<in-transitive-conflatedness –reflexivity,-in-the-full-potency-of-existence’s–sublimating–nascence> with regards to the ontological-contiguity of existence’) is not priorly subject to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation\textsuperscript{16} (and this very insight about the ‘existentially nominal’ sublimating-validation/desublimating-invalidation of mathematics as of a ‘very existentially nominal supererogatory-acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness–of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuringinstrument –for–conceptualisation as to the mere adequacy of formalised mathematics’ explains on the other hand why the mere introduction of mathematics, statistics and data in domains requiring ‘human corresponding-sublimation-inducing,-profound-and-creative supererogatory-acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness–ofapriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument—for—conceptualisation’ is not construed as sublimating-validation in such domains where such mathematics, statistics and data are rather ‘distracting-from and not-contributing-to’ the inherent domain’s epistemic-conceptions phenomenal/manifest—subpotencies—in-transitive-conflatedness—reflexivity,—in-the-full-potency-of-existence’s—sublimating—nascence> given ‘human corresponding-sublimation-inducing—profound—profound—and-creative supererogatory—acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness—of— apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument—for—conceptualisation’'). In physics the Newtons, Leibnizes, Einsteins, Poincarés, Schrodingers, Bohrs had to elicit the transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory—de-mentativity of the physics <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—devolved—purview/domain-of-construal—as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality created axiomatic-constructs with mathematics being accessory to the transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory—de-mentativity. They didn’t just start to develop ‘patterns of mathematical equations’ without the prior insight about the physics domain-of-study and what to strive for, and actually from that ‘physics reality precedence perspective’ got the insight to further develop their relevant branches of mathematics. Nor do even pure mathematicians just go about constructing ‘mathematical patterns’ as of formalisation without striving to get insight and inspiration from existential-reality as transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory—de-mentativity; and we can appreciate in this regards how the human mathematical disposition adjust from a classical reflex with regards to existential phenomena/manifestations that assume a non-classical character like statistical-constructs, quantum phenomena, black holes, etc. as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation<sup>96</sup>. The naivety of logicism lies exactly in this respect of construing formalisation as most of what is supposed to be achieved, and failing to grasp that when it comes to social reality its own transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity has to be ‘creatively construed’, and this in many ways explains the frustrated conclusion that will often then arise from such a naïve formalisation perspective that the philosophical exercise is not necessarily transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity, contrary to the precept of all other knowledge! Thus the conceptualisation of logic implied by any given registry-worldview/dimension reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’ as of the-very-same-immanent-existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality,-as-to-‘human-amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~purview-of-construal’ points to the fact that the various registry-worldviews/dimensions operate their own conception of logic as of their prospective relative-ontological-completeness—of-reference-of-thought; as we can appreciate inherently as of metaphysics-of-absence-{implicated-epistemic-veracity-of-nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>} that however deficient, that each registry-worldview/dimension does have its own sense of logic as of its self-conscious construed meaningfulness-and-teleology. The notion of an absolutely valid logic can only arise on the backdrop of an absolutely valid reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’ as implied by futural Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology as of prospective deprocrypticism—or–preempting—disjointedness-as-of- reference-of-thought registry-worldview/dimension institutionalisation, wherein such a logic is its ‘inner working coherence/contiguity of axiomatic-construct construal of ecstatic-existence/the-nature-of-the-world/conditions’. In this regard, the link-up of all the concepts and notions articulated herein by this author speaks of ‘suprastructural logic’ that is critically articulated as of a prospective notional-deprocrypticism psychoanalytic-unshackling metaphysics-of-absence-(implicit-depistemic-veracity-of-non-presencing-<perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>) and conflatedness¹, and further subsumed in the word candidity or candour-capacity. Such 'suprastructural logic' is even more damning about the naïve constitutedness¹³ of 'meaningfulness-and-teleology'¹⁹ that besets the knowledge and philosophical tradition. Such a conception of logic and logical analysis points to the <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising-self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag⁹ naivety and vagueness involved when construing logic and logical analysis as absolute without any explicitly implied or formulated 'reference-of-thought, construed as 'reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness'; usually in our case, in a non-transcendental <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising-self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag⁹ that is unconsciously implied as of our positivism—procrypticism registry-worldview/dimension. Insightfully, such a 'suprastructural logic' undermines metaphysical notions like good, essence and truth as being naively construed as of a given registry-worldview’s/dimension’s <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising-self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag⁹ of 'meaningfulness-and-teleology', and in lieu emphasises Being construed as ontology’s-directedness-as-Being which best reflects and captures 'meaningfulness-and-teleology'¹³ as of 'intemporal ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality instigated ontological-contiguity⁶—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process⁷ as of difference-conflatedness-as-to-totalitative-reification—in-singularisation—as-veridical-epistemic-determinism²¹ ⁴<amplituding/formative-epistemicity>causality—as-to-projective-totalitative-implications,—for-explicating-ontological-contiguity'. Being as of its implied notional-deprocrypticism’s conflatedness\textsuperscript{1} provides elucidation to such question as: what is the meaning of good/truth/essence in a recurrent-utter-institutionalised, an ununiversalised or a non-positivistic society? And invariably the answers will be a vague $<\text{amplituding}/\text{formative–epistemicity}>\text{totalising–self-referencing-syncrétising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag}$\textsuperscript{2} as of each registry-worldview/dimension, and it is rather the emanant insight of the Good/understanding/knowledge-reification\textsuperscript{3}/ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{4} conceptualisation as of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{5} that carries the prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity which are the resolution of the successive prior registry-worldview’s/dimension’s uninstitutionalised-threshold\textsuperscript{6} vices-and-impediments\textsuperscript{7}; and so by successive Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{8} in reflecting holographically-$<\text{conjugatively-and-transfusively}>$ the ontological-contiguity —of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\textsuperscript{9} as base-institutionalisation, \textsuperscript{10} universalisation and positivism respectively, and prospectively deprocrypticism. Being construed as of ontology’s-directedness-as-Being thus enables the superseding of $<\text{amplituding}/\text{formative–epistemicity}>\text{totalising–self-referencing-syncrétising/illusion-of-the-present/present-consciousness/mirage as metaphysics-of-presence–(implicated–‘nondescript/ignorable–void ’–as-to–’presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness ’)}$. Further, the fact is that it is rather axiomatic-constructs whether explicit or implicit that are supposedly in a meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{11} correspondence relation with an epistemic-totalising\textsuperscript{12}–devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality as of their given \textsuperscript{5} meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{13} ontological-performance\textsuperscript{14}–$<\text{including-virtue-as-ontology}>$ as validated by ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{5}; so-construed as of the implications of aestheticised-preconverging/dementing ~qualia-schema>, and so with regards to ‘the very same physics <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality’. Such mutual unintelligibility, with regards to reference-of-thought, speaks of differing ‘apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument as axiomatic-construct’ of the differing references-of-thought, with the traditional philosophical and knowledge anti-psychologism stance fundamentally grounded on a mix-up about the nature of ‘axioms wrongly construed as elements of logic’ as implied with statements like ‘axioms of logic’ rather than the fact that axiomatic-constructs are ‘ontological wholes of correspondence’ as of supposed correspondence with <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality and thus carry transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity implications as of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening , whereas logic and logical analysis is rather the ‘inner working coherence/contiguity of axiomatic-construct construal of ecstatic-existence/the-nature-of-the-world/conditions’ and at best yields formalisations grounded on the implied ‘apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument as axiomatic-construct’ but doesn’t reify meaningfulness-and-teleology as knowledge which can only arise as of the maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness — unenframed-conceptualisation affirmation/projection/assertion/dueness-validating-logicising/suitable-measuringinstrument-validating-measuring-<as-to-postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking–apriorising-psychologism> of apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument as axiomatic-construct’. Such a logicism disposition is rather in constitutedness and is behind such naïve contention that philosophy doesn’t carry transcendental implications and actually undermines other approaches that strive for transcendent-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-dementativity by way of conceptual patterning arguments blinded to transcendental implications of knowledge as derived from existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation—and-existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation’<as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied—‘prospective-aporetic-overcoming/unovercoming’>. In the bigger scheme of things, this author holds that the deepest ‘phenomenological transcendental-point-of-departure handle’ in the conception of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology—ontological-performance’<including-virtue-as-ontology> as of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—dementativity reflected by metaphysics-of-absence—(implicated-epistemic-veracity-of-epistemicity>totalising—purview-of-construal’. This author phenomenological transcendental conception is articulated as of non-speculative, non-imaginary, theoretical, conceptual and operant implications construing/conceptualising in reflecting holographically—<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity<of-the-human-institutionalisation-process>, not as an external speculative dialectics, but as a wholly internal natural dialectics in confledness\(^2\) as of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepen\(^2\). Such that human phenomenological \(<\text{amplituding/}formative–\text{epistemicity}>\text{totalising–thrownness-in-existence}\) (I exist therefore existence is of transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-dementativity to my human-subpotency / hyperbole-of-temporal-to-intemporal-ontological-performance `-<\text{including-virtue-as-ontology}>`) is the ‘complete scientific archaeological depth’ for grasping ontology and Being as of the conflatedness\(^2\) of human limited-mentation-capacity implications construed from notional–deprocrypticism perspective as ‘historiality/ontological-eventfulness’/ontological-aesthetic-tracing, and consequently doesn’t carry any external ideological implication but rather for the inherent ontological and Being implications. Further as of such phenomenological transcendental conflatedness\(^2\), there is no issue about existence itself as it is pre-given, as existence-as-of-its-mimetic-echoness/existence-in-reverberation/existence-potency–sublimating–nascence, disclosed from prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity> \text{totalising–renewing–realisation/re-perception/re-thought,–in–supererogatory–epistemic-conflatedness} \(^2\), but rather an issue to humankind arising as of human-subpotency in the full-potency of existence with all the problem of existence being the issue of humankind’s limited-mentation-capacity implications as failing Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology as of ontology’s-directedness-as-Being. The phenomenological insight here about the nature of ‘existence as so construed as of ontology’s-directedness-as-Being’ is that Being is the conflatedness\(^2\) as of \text{intemporal-preservation-entropy-or-contiguity–or–ontological-preservation selectivity} inherent in existence that rather skews presence states towards the ‘ontological statistical-exception’ of intemporality /longness over temporality /shortness possibilities, thus rendering existence as of relative teleological orderliness and not teleological chaos in the case were all ontological-possibilities as of temporality^\(_{-}\)-to-intemporal\(^\_\) \text{were to be arising in equivalence/equal-measure. Thus, such ontology’s-directedness-as-Being conflatedness

Ultimately, phenomenology is all about grasping the conflatedness of ontology’s-directedness-as-Being. Furthermore, just as a transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory—de-mentativity biological science in relative ontological-contiguity of reference-of-thought will dissociate modern day heredity DNA genetics as of its theoretical, conceptual, methodological, operant and applicative implications from say th century Mendelian heredity however its inherent merits, and will not naively purport to analyse the former on the grounds of the latter which as axiomatic-construct is in relative notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity—<shallow-supererogation—of-mentally-aestheticised—preconverging/dementing—qualia-schema> on the basis of a naïve conceptual patterning implied as of the common term ‘heredity’; this author likewise is very much critical and averse to such conceptual patterning mental-reflexes imbued in traditional non-transcendental philosophical and knowledge analysis all too ready to construe and articulate meaningfulness-and-teleology in sophistic/pedantic conceptual patterning terms overlooking transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory—de-mentativity implications, and failing to fathom that conceptual patterning is no substitute for transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory—de-mentativity work required for all knowledge notwithstanding setbacks and failures that may be involved, given the reality that human critiques have tended to be naïve about what passes for theory whereby naïve conceptual patterning of general knowledge are articulated devoid of ‘new theory’, with little or no cruscendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory~de-mentativity implications, which in reality is nothing more than a sophistry of argument from authority. This conception of relatively profound and complete axiomatic-constructs/\textgreater reference-of-thought in ontological-purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality. The totalising-renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought involves taking cue from existence/existential-contextualising-contiguity* as of existential-instantiations imbricatedness/threadedness/recomposuring in a maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness**—unenframed-conceptualisation exercise as of ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality; wherein say with a demand curve, the insight as of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening * of a significant rise in consumers’ salaries implies that everything else being equal the demand curve-axiomatic-construct will shift to the right as of relative ontological-contiguity**. The notion of axiomatic-construct in ontological-contiguity* arises out of its existential completeness and profoundness, for instance the axiomatic-construct in ontological-contiguity* as concept of a bicycle arises by the completeness and profoundness of the bicycle in its existential wholeness of functionality and contents as its ontological-contiguity*. ontological-contiguity** rather highlights relative perspectives as of ontological-normalcy/postconvergence depths of axiomatic-construct/reference-of-thought of construal; which for instance renders the idea of general relativity in relative ontological-contiguity* and newtonian physics in relative notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity**<shallow-supererogation**-of-mentally-aestheticised~preconverging/dementing *qualia-schema> rather as uncorrelated, whereas a notion of ‘continuity of ontology’ as is implied by ‘ontological-continuity as of relative ontological-continuity and relative notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity**<shallow-supererogation*-of-mentally-aestheticised~preconverging/dementing *qualia-schema>’ will seem to imply correlatedness by the very nature of the term continuity. Ultimately, the overall analysis above points out that this is not an inherent ontological-as-of-the-full-potency-of-existence’s~sublimating–nascence problem but rather a problem of human-subpotency as of its limited-mentation-capacity that is resolvable by the deepening of human existentialism-form-factor, anthropologists are very much aware that the social diffusion of new transcendental-enabling/sublimating/superaeogatory–de-mentativity practices into a given society are more likely to be adopted as of the society’s institutional and formal percolation-channelling framework than as of an dimensionality-of-sublimating — supererogatory~de-mentativity/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness/attacks-rationalising/relativist/relativistic-de-formative/epistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/sprit-drivenness–equalisation ‘direct convincing’ at individuals-level underlying deferring to institutional and formal meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{10} as of the need for profoundness and rigour that doesn’t avail in ordinary thought for transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory~de-mentativity. Likewise, on occasion in the face of prior institutionalisation established and perceived vested interest such intemporal-as-ontological meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{9} could be ontologically undermined as of institutionalised-being-and-craft. Consider in this regard Establishment efforts undermining the Diderot-led Encyclopédistes project. Furthermore, every registry-worldview/dimension relates to its value construct as of its prior relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought constitutedness\textsuperscript{11} as more or less absolute, and doesn’t factor in that its prior relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought is a de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic deficiency inducing the totalising–self-referencing-syncetising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag\textsuperscript{3} of its value construct. But then prospective institutionalisation necessarily implies a notion of prospective value construct as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought conflatedness\textsuperscript{12} which will be unintelligible to the prior value construct, such that it is only a sense of intemporal consummation that drives transcendental dispositions as it is paradoxical to expect that what is in need for transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory~de-mentativity acts as transcended, as transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory~de-mentativity is inevitably and so across all registry-worldviews/dimensions a state of paradoxical conflictedness as more profoundly involving a crossgenerational meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{9} psychoanalytic-unshackling than a grounding conceptualisation! Furthermore, both the prior institutionalisation value striving to draw in various ways the optimum as of perceived existential possibilities, and thus individuals and social groups are not in an absolutely given/set self-referencing centered–epistemic-totalisation-facticity of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ within their social-setup and are predisposed on critical occasions as of syncretising-effecting to ‘reinvent’, circumvent or adapt as to what they perceive as optimum existential possibilities, such that a social-setup is already involved internally however restricted in its very own reinvention/circumventing/adaptation as of its very own internal ‘self-referencing and syncretising-effecting construed as <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising’ of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ with regards to perceived social-stake-contention-or-confliction; and it is this element that enables all human societies to have a minimal opening/overture/receptivity to each other, including at the very extreme between an industrial age society and a hunter-gatherer society. Without such a de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic ‘self-referencing and syncretising-effecting construed as <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag’ human nature’, both internal social transformation however lethargic and cultural diffusion will be basically impossible, and <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag’ induced transformation arises because human perceived social-stake-contention-or-confliction drifts within-and-across social-setups whether with regards to basic trading, curiosity, social competition and generally as of a predisposition to achieve optimum existential possibilities. In this regard, the rapid transformation implications of cultural diffusion arise because it makes relatively immediately available to individuals and social groups a comprehensive set of options however limited the nature and speed of their adoption. This syncretising-effecting mechanism ultimately explains why crossgenerational transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity occurs notwithstanding a seemingly self-referencing centered–epistemic-totalisation-facticity of meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{19} within a given social-setup in the immediate-and-short-term.

its inherent social-dispositions and mental-dispositions are rather as of beyond-the-

with regards to such transcendental implications! Despite the fact that all social-setups tend to be surreptitiously permeated with individuals temporal/shortness-of-register-of– meaningfulness-and-teleology social-dispositions and mental-dispositions of suboptimal ontological implications for social-functioning-and-accordance—as-of-social-stake-contention-or-confliction, every social-setup as a conventional-construct can only be held together in the long-term as of its requisite given registry-worldview’s/dimension’s institutionalisation-level of minimally-expected basic conscious-adherence-at-best or token-adherence-at-worst to the said institutionalisation-level’s reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology with regards to meeting a basic level of individuals and social existential-possibilities expectations. It may thus seem from within just one human generation perspective that the underlying human metaphoricity for transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—de-mentativity is rather marginal especially when not associated with any external cultural diffusion. However, human metaphoricity as of cultural transformation had tended historically, in the main, to ebb in peaks and lows, and so as of the relative universal-transparency—(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness ) about such metaphoricity instigative reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as—reproducibility-of-aestheticisation direct, indirect and/or devolving implications. The fact that individuals in a social-setup are already involved internally however restricted in its very own reinvention/circumventing/adaptation in a dynamic relationship of perceived social-stake-contention-or-confliction striving to draw in various ways the optimum as of perceived existential possibilities and is thus of a minimal opening/overture/receptivity to internal and external metaphoricity, also critically speaks to the fact that any social-setup is only able to hold together because of supposedly coherent ontological-commitment that is subject to existence-potency—sublimating–nascence,—disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of—<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,—in-supererogatory—epistemic-conflatedness validatory ontological-primemoverstotalitative-framework. As of its circularity, the lack or poorer cause-and-effect determinism of any such supposedly coherent ontological-commitment threshold of a social-setup ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ allows for the possibility for prospective metaphoricity to reconstrue-and-redefine the social-setup ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’. Such prospective metaphoricity possibility cannot be preempted because even the social-setup conventioning in its functional operation of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ needs this supposedly coherent ontological-commitment in order to affirm itself over any spontaneously arising disruptive ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ that may be articulated by individuals or groups, with the result that a social-setup ever always exposes itself to prospective metaphoricity in one way or the other when such spontaneously arising disruptive ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ is not of poorer but rather of a superseding ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework.<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>causality-as-to-projective-totalitative–implications,-for-explicating-ontological-contiguity as of the social-setup given supposedly coherent ontological-commitment. We can consider in this regard that an animistic non-positivistic or medieval non-positivistic social-setup will certainly imply a supposedly coherent ontological-commitment respectively as of superstitious spiritualism ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ or scholasticism pedantic dogmatism ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’, as of the given social-setup ‘self-assuredness-of-ontological-good-faith/authenticity—as-being-as-of-existential-reality with respect to its social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ in its capacity to demonstrably and objectively uphold and function going by its specific registry-worldview/dimension as of superstitious spiritualism or scholasticism pedantic dogmatism. It is exactly this ‘self-assuredness-of-ontological-good-faith/authenticity—as-being-as-of-existential-reality with respect to its social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ that equally makes available the possibility for prospective metaphoricity to demonstrably undermine the implied supposedly coherent ontological-commitment of such prior social-setups registry-worldview/dimension.

Ultimately, prospective metaphoricity in a reflection of the individual-as-receptable-of-temporal-to-intemporal-individuations realistically implies that it is rather fundamentally a question of grasping the mechanism that tips the balance towards human intemporality and subsequent prospective institutionalisation which is ontologically sufficient for prospective ontological-effectiveness, rather than a naïve engagement as if the human is all-essentially intemporal-as-of-an-absolute-ontological-commitment-disposition. More critically, such a conception of prospective metaphoricity cognisant of the decisiveness of deferential-formalisation-transference for institutionalisation and thus subsequent social percolation-channelling, come to grasp that sophistic/pedantic predispositions are the more salient entrenched interests beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology with respect to prospective metaphoricity as of the implications of such undermining of social deferential-formalisation-transference. In this regard, the sophistic/pedantic barriers to futural Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion-as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of-meaningfulness-and-teleology as of prospective notional-deprocrypticism metaphoricity implications are necessarily spurious and associated with our positivism–procrypticism institutional-being-and-craft as of the direct, indirect and/or devolving prospective metaphoricity implications. We can appreciate in this regard that for the medieval-scholasticism-pedants—ideal-type-or-individuation, it doesn’t matter that budding-positivism can be demonstrated as more ontologically pertinent as of ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework, so long as it is socially and institutionally credible to uphold non-positivism meaningfulness-and-teleology in effect by undermining its deferential-formalisation-transference. It is with regards to such sophistic/pedantic disinclination to prospective metaphoricity that the latter elicits contortioning gesturing, wherein for instance Socrates with respect to the sophists—ideal-type-or-individuation (as we can appreciate that however say a Protagoras engagement with Socrates may project coherence as of his contextual appreciation of Socrates predisposition for coherence, this doesn’t exclude the possibility of a ‘floating sophistic’ inclination that simply adjusts to its interlocutor thus undermining in the bigger picture the notion of knowledge as of universal coherence idealisation, or still maybe Protagoras is just at the lower end of the sophists—ideal-type-or-individuation) and budding-positivists with respect to medieval-scholasticism-pedants—ideal-type-or-individuation (as we can appreciate that the recognition and then censure and then banning of Copernicus’s heliocentric world work or engagement with Galileo’s support of heliocentrism then his persecution for publishing, rather speaks de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically of the covert/underhanded nature of the medieval establishment pedantic disposition as of the implications of ideas undermining medieval dogma as of social-stake-contention-or-confliction) construe of such sophistic/pedantic disinclination as implying notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity—<shallow-supererogation>—of-mentally-aestheticised—preconverging/dementing—qualia-schema> with their prospectively implied metaphoricity; with the consequence that there can’t be common/mutual aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring as of dialogical-equivalence and intellectual-and-moral-equivalence and inherently so because of the sophists—ideal-type-or-individuation and medieval-scholasticism-pedants—ideal-type-or-individuation inauthentic/unsound apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument as of respectively non-universalising and non-positivism/medievalism dogma prior relative-ontological-incompleteness—of—reference-of-thought warranting their unaffirmation/deprojection/de-assertion/undueness-invalidating-logicising/unsuitable-measuringinstrument-invalidating-measuring—<as-to-preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism> for the affirmation/projection/assertion/dueness-validating-logicising/suitable-measuringinstrument—

that anticipates and accounts for human inherent intemporal\textsuperscript{}/longness and temporality\textsuperscript{8}, purports to avoid wrong elevation of temporality\textsuperscript{}/shortness in threshold-of-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation\textsuperscript{9}—preconverging/dementing—apriorising-psychologism and wrong degradation of intemporal\textsuperscript{}/longness in supplanting—conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation\textsuperscript{9}—postconverging/dialectical-thinking—apriorising-psychologism implied reference-of-thought—elevated-devolving-as-of-prospective-institutionalisation, given the inherently confounding ontological-veridicality of human potent beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology\textsuperscript{5}—in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought\textsuperscript{5}. Broadly speaking thus, the amplituding/formative—epistemicity—causality—as-to-projective-totalitative—implications—for-explicating-ontological-contiguity\textsuperscript{5} of prospective relative-ontological-completeness—of—reference-of-thought as of human temporal-to-intemporal mental-dispositions in social-stake-contention-or-confliction implies that it is naïve to conceive of a ‘neuter framework of reference-of-thought putting the temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions as of the same axiomatic teleological projection’ as in effect as of conflatedness\textsuperscript{7} this simply wrongly elevates temporal/shortness-of-register-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{9} mental-dispositions teleologically-degraded-devolving-as-of-uninstitutionalised-threshold\textsuperscript{02} and wrongly degrades the intemporal/longness-of-register-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{5} mental-disposition elevated-devolving-as-of-prospective-institutionalisation; as the former is in reality denaturing of reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology\(^9\) beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology\(^9\) in existential-extrication-as-of-existental-unthought\(^9\) while the latter is upholding reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology\(^9\) for intemporal-preservation-entropy-or-contiguity–or–ontological-preservation. Actually such an ordinary mental-reflex of a ‘neuter framework of reference-of-thought putting the temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions as of the same axiomatic teleological projection’ when it comes to social-stake-confliction-or-contention is only valid as of ‘mutual conceptualisation as of a given institutionalisation with a common ontological-reference-of-thought’ wherein it is then strictly a matter of logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation\(^96\) in determining ontological-veracity. But then at such a registry-worldview’s/dimension’s institutionalisation’s uninstitutionalised-threshold\(^\text{102}\), there is a relative variance of ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought as of the prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought in intemporality /longness entailing the prospective institutionalisation and the prior relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought in temporality /shortness entailing the uninstitutionalised-threshold\(^\text{102}\); thus implying a relative variance in such intemporal and temporal teleological projection respectively as of elevated-devolving-as-of-prospective-institutionalisation and teleologically-degraded-devolving-as-of-uninstitutionalised-threshold\(^\text{102}\) in determining ontological-veracity. In this sense we can garner that it is inappropriate to imply a ‘neuter framework of reference-of-thought putting the temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions as of the same axiomatic teleological projection’ and so, as of an uninstitutionalised-threshold\(^\text{102}\) and the prospective institutionalisation; given the variance of temporality /shortness rather as respectively in recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, ununiversalisation, non-positivism-or-mediievalism, and prospectively procrypticism–or–disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought

limited-mentation-capacity transversal-and-cumulative-implications’ that accounts for ontologically-veridical human character-and-social-formation-dynamics as of both uninstitutionalised-threshold \(^2\) representation and prospective-institutionalisation representation. Such a storied-construct/ontologically-valid-narration is ultimately articulated rather as of the implications of the failing to uphold Being as of the temporal-to-intemporal transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative-disambiguated-‘motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing\(^{12}\) of human limited-mentation-capacity in temporal constitutedness\(^3\) mental-reflexes at presence \(^4\) reference-of-thought, and so reflected by the implied intemporal conflatedness\(^2\) of phenomenological transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supereordatory-de-mentativity as of notional-deprocrypticism. We can appreciate the metaphysics-of-absence-(implicated-epistemic-veracity-of-\(^{27}\) nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>) insight about such a deneuterising\(^9\) storied-construct/ontologically-valid-narration from the fact that a non-positivism/medievalism or animistic social-setup is ‘not committed in a <amplituding-formative-epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag’ to positivistic/rational-empiricism \(^{55}\) meaningfulness-and-teleology \(^1\) with regards to occurrences and incidents best explained and dealt with by such positivistic meaningfulness as of the latter’s prospective relative-ontological-completeness \(-of-\) reference-of-thought. As such non-positivism/medievalism or animistic social-setup ‘will not be self-effacing as of its ontologically-flawed <amplituding-formative-epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-synecretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag -temporal-mental-dispositions as-if-always-in-a-state-of-institutionalisation, failing to psychoanalytically project about its uninstitutionalised-threshold \(^{22}\) of non-positivism and the prospective institutionalisation of positivism’. This equally explains how our positivism–procripticism mental-disposition is construed in deneuterising ⁶ from futural Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology ⁵⁵ as of prospective notional–deprocripticism perspective ‘as not self-effacing as of its ontologically-flawed <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag ⁵³–temporal-mental-dispositions as-if-always-in-a-state-of-institutionalisation, failing to psychoanalytically project about the uninstitutionalised-threshold ⁰₂ of its procripticism–or–disjointedness-as-of–reference-of-thought and the prospective institutionalisation of deprocripticism’. This is actually the ontologically-veridical phenomenological transcendental framework for construing/conceptualising human temporal character and social formation mental-dispositions as of uninstitutionalised-threshold ⁰₂ and prospective-institutionalisation based on the dynamics of limited-mentation-capacity, unlike a naïve ⁷ neuterising mental-reflex that by its <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag ⁵³ fails to attain such a conflatedness ⁵⁰ as of notional–deprocripticism deneuterising ¹⁶ insight. Central and critical to achieving such a deneuterising ⁷ analysis in grasping the full and complete possibilities of ontologically-veridical construal of human ⁵⁵ meaningfulness-and-teleology ⁹ given human temporal-to-intemporal mental-dispositions as of prospective institutionalisation and uninstitutionalised-threshold ⁰₂ is the notion of beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology ⁹ <in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>. It is exactly what renders a veridical ontological-escalation or aetiologisation of the human condition possible as the ⁴ historiality/ontological-eventfulness ⁵/ontological-aesthetic-tracing of conflatedness ⁵ as of notional–deprocripticism. It is most critical because at any registry-worldview/dimension, human self-consciousness is a <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencingpertinently-perceived social-stake-contention-or-confliction contexts arises due to (beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology\textsuperscript{-}\textless in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought\textgreater ) constraint of human limited-mentation-capacity as of prospective human aporeticism such that this induces as of various existential-instantiations ‘ontologically-flawed \textsuperscript{-}meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{-}ontological-performance\textsuperscript{-}\textless including-virtue-as-ontology\textgreater ’, subpar to ontologically-veridical \textsuperscript{-}meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{-}ontological-performance\textsuperscript{-}\textless including-virtue-as-ontology\textgreater as fundamentally underscored by the prospective institutionalisation. Thus this determines a consequential ‘dynamic beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology\textsuperscript{-}\textless in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought\textgreater ’ limited-mentation-capacity constraint’ as reflected from a ‘notional\textsuperscript{-}deprocrypticism-referentialism-as-of-its-nonascriptivity backdrop-for-the-ontologically-veridical-construing’ of ‘temporal-to-intemporal individuations \textsuperscript{-}meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{-}and actions of individuals and the collective-social as of their varying-existential-instantiations-mental-dispositions-ontological-performance\textsuperscript{-}\textless including-virtue-as-ontology\textgreater or their characterisations-as-of-varying-existential-instantiations’, as fundamentally underscored by the implied uninstitutionalised-threshold\textsuperscript{-}reference-of-thought, wherein such temporal thresholding neuterisation with regards to ontologically-veridical \textsuperscript{-}meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{-}reflects Being-underdevelopment; and so from the ‘deepest phenomenological transcendental-point-of-departure handle as of the notional\textsuperscript{-}conflatedness\textsuperscript{-}of notional\textsuperscript{-}deprocrypticism deneuterising —referentialism’ as of metaphysics-of-absence\textsuperscript{-}(implicitied-epistemic-veracity-of- nonpresencing\textsuperscript{-}\textless perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence\textgreater ) insight that ontology’s-directedness-as-Being lies with Base-institutionalisation institutionalisation over Recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation uninstitutionalisation \textsuperscript{amplituding\textsuperscript{-}formative–epistemicity\textsuperscript{-}totalising–self-referencing\textsuperscript{-}syncretising\textsuperscript{-}circularity\textsuperscript{-}interiorising\textsuperscript{-}akrasiatic-drag\textsuperscript{-}}, it lies with \textsuperscript{universalisation\textsuperscript{-}}institutionalisation over Base-institutionalisation–ununiversalisation uninstitutionalisation universal propositions, when it comes to social-stake-contention-or-confliction social-functioning-and-accordance constraints such temporal part-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation—or-part–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation mental-dispositions tend to be ultimately translated decisively onto issues of public repercussions like corruption, mismanagement, nepotism, etc. It is very much naïve to imagine that as of such uninstitutionalised-threshold as of Being/ontological-framework-expansion underdevelopment, individuals in positions of social-stake-contention-or-confliction with respect to upholding/failing probity will simply adhere, at the exclusion of engrained-habits-and-mental-dispositions, to mere propositions of probity rather than in the face of weak-institutional-constraints-and-penalties to perceive such universal propositions as mere linguistic appendages of relative practical insignificance. The notion of beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology <-in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> is the effective and credible deneuterising enabling articulation that grasps such an ontologically flawed mental-reflex that recurrently permeates consciously and unconsciously human phenomenological mentation, as it ‘credibly’ grasps-and-accounts-for, without resorting to any neuterising, the full and complete possibilities of human mental-dispositions as of the exclusive dynamics of human limited-mentation-capacity across all registry-worldviews/dimensions involving the conjugation of the intemporal/longness-of-register-of-meaningfulness-and-teleology individuation and temporal/shortness-of-register-of-meaningfulness-and-teleology individuations of postlogism-slantedness/ignorance/affordability/opportunism/exacerbation/social-chainism-or-social-discomfiture-or-negative-social-aggregation/temporal-enculturation-or-temporal-endemisation, so-disambiguated as of reference-of-thought-devolving ontological-performance-<including-virtue-as-ontology>. Ultimately, the notion of beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology <-in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> given its psychoanalytic-unshackling as of prospective deprocryticism transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity, points to a self-consciousness that should rather come to terms with the reality of human limited-mentation-capacity dynamics as of temporal-to-intemporal mental-dispositions resolved beyond just the notion of "reference-of-thought--categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology" but rather their protraction as of ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality conflatedness of Being as implied as of "deprocryticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of" reference-of-thought. The issue of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology or Being underdevelopment is associated with that of the construal of knowledge as organic-knowledge or mechanical-knowledge respectively; with the latter construed as of the ‘mere effecting possibilities of knowledge’ without a coherence/contiguity with the ‘knowledge inventing’ mental-disposition as of ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality behind the given knowledge, as implied with organic-knowledge. It is such a mechanical-knowledge as of ‘temporal/shortness-of-register-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology’ mental-dispositions towards the mere effecting possibilities of the knowledge’ that induces the forgetting of Being construed as ontology’s-directedness-as-Being, by undermining the ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality upholding of intemporal-preservation-entropy-or-contiguity—or—ontological-preservation that is behind organic-knowledge. Human <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—self-referencing—syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag temporal mental-dispositions as of beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology -<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existentialeffecting possibilities of knowledge at the given institutionalisation’s uninstitutionalisedthreshold in temporal/shortness-of-register-of meaningfulness-and-teleology terms-as-ofaxiomatic-construal as of the plainly implied opportunism with little consideration of the projective intemporal value dispositions behind the ‘knowledge inventing’ and its organic preservation. Thus the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process arises exactly to ensure deferential-formalisation-transference secondnaturing of knowledge as of organic-knowledge comprehensiveness. The following is enlightening in this regard. (For what it takes to get a medieval as non-positivistic mindset/ reference-of-thought into a basis for a new logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation as ‘prelogic supplanting–conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation —postconverging/dialectical-thinking —apriorising-psychologism re-engaging mental-reflex’ that re-engages with non-positivism/medievalism mindset/ reference-of-thought, given the possibilities of further accusations of witchcrafts or by-and-large the vices-and-impediments\textsuperscript{05} potentially arising from such a non-positivism/medievalism worldview as of the ‘local community dynamism of individual interests involved’ that endemises and enculturates notions-and-accusations-of-sorcery. It is rather the crossgenerational psychoanalytic-unshackling/memetic-reordering/institutional-recomposuring transforming of the non-positivism/medievalism mindset/ reference-of-thought into a positivistic mindset\textsuperscript{}/reference-of-thought that is ontologically-speaking to be construed as the de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic resolution of the vices-and-impediments\textsuperscript{05} arising from a non-positivism/medievalism worldview with respect to such notions-and-accusations-of-sorcery. The same applies with respect to our positivism–procrypticism worldview and futural Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99} as of prospective notional–deprocrypticism worldview). We can appreciate such metaphysics-of-absence–(implicit–epistemic-veracity-of–nonpresencing–<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>)\) insight as of say in a situation of cultural diffusion the requirement that a recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation social-setup opportunistically grasping mere effecting possibilities of base-institutionalisation knowledge, as of relative convenience to individuals, are much more better off equally coming into terms institutionally with the ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality induced intemporality\textsuperscript{51}/longness behind the ‘inventing of the base-institutionalisation culturally diffused knowledge’ for an optimum accrual of the Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99} of recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation; that is, based on base-institutionalisation’s ‘rulemaking-over-non-rules—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism’ enabling the superseding of recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation vices-and-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology from what is of Being underdevelopment. But then this ‘immediate, cause-and-effect and non-blurry practical and scientific knowledge’ is just one aspect of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology as its mere effecting possibilities of knowledge however effective do not exist in a vacuum but rather within the ‘detached, contemplative and blurry human social-construct of knowledge’ which is the complementary background for Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology; as we can appreciate that despite the positivistic inclinations of the Copernicuses, the Galileos and the Newtons, the scientific advances that ultimately took hold arose because those budding scientists had a sense that the very ‘detached, contemplative and blurry human social-construct of knowledge’ background had to be superseded as of its scholasticism and mysticism underlying knowledge background for a positivism/rational-empiricism knowledge background to take hold as transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity not only to science but transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity as well to the open society equally required for the sound functioning of science. It is this dynamic relationship as of ‘immediate, cause-and-effect and non-blurry practical and scientific knowledge’ and ‘detached, contemplative and blurry human social-construct of knowledge’ that is behind Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology with respect to the prospective registry-worldview/dimension as resolving the vices-and-impediments of the prior registry-worldview/dimension. But then no matter the succession of institutionalisations as successive Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology, there is an ever present issue of Being underdevelopment as of human-subpotency—aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions—existentialism-form-factor wherein institutionalising reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology are always subject at uninstitutionalised-threshold to their denaturing as of their <amplituding/formative>wooden-language—(imbued—temporal—mere-form/virtualities/dereification/akrasiatic-drug/denatured/preconverging-or-dementing—narratives—of-the—reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology), as of temporal failing to uphold intemporal-preservation-entropy-or-contiguity—or—ontological-preservation. Hence Being—development/ontological-framework-expansion—as—to—depth—of—ontologising—development—as—infrastructure—of—meaningfulness—and—teleology given human limited—mentation—capacity is rather upheld by ontological—faith—notion—or—ontological—fideism—imbued—underdetermination—of—motif—and—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as—so—being—as—of—existential—reality as of intemporal—preservation—entropy—or—contiguity—or—ontological—preservation wherein the abstract intemporal/longness—of—register—of—meaningfulness—and—teleology behind the prior registry—worldview institutionalisation should equally be reflected as of prospective registry—worldview institutionalisation, and involving the requisite deferential—formalisation—transference secondnaturing of knowledge as organic—knowledge. We can appreciate the latter point in the sense that with the development of various positivistic—scientific—and knowledge fields, the knowledge agents weren’t naïve to imply that the ‘normal social temporal—to—intemporal mental—dispositions as of <amplituding/formative>wooden-language—(imbued—averaging—of—thought—<as—to—leveling/ressentiment/closed—construct—of—meaningfulness—and—teleology—as—of—‘nondescript/ignorable—void ’—with—regards—to—prospective—apriorising—implications’)’ are appropriate framework for engaging their subject—matter, as they rather promoted formal knowledge/scientific societies and adopted their specific jargons to ensure that the intemporal value reference mental-dispositions behind their respective ‘knowledge inventing’ was the institutional mental-disposition for engaging with the knowledge formally or as of secondnatured education practically available to everyone interested, and so while alienating and considering general social wooden-language-⟨imbued—averaging-of-thought-⟨as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology -as-of—’nondescript/ignorable–void ’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications⟩⟩ as improper and unqualified. This was to avoid a circularity of wooden-language-⟨imbued—averaging-of-thought-⟨as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology⟩⟩-as-of—‘nondescript/ignorable–void ’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications) undermining of the intemporal-projection of their specific knowledge/science, as they contribute in overall Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology. The point here is that at uninstitutionalised-threshold the idea of ‘equal opinionatedness’ doesn’t apply by the mere fact that knowledge of intrinsic-reality itself doesn’t arise by wooden-language-⟨imbued—averaging-of-thought-⟨as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology⟩⟩-as-of—‘nondescript/ignorable–void ’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications) but rather ontological-pertinence, and the point in reflecting holographically-⟨conjugatively-and-transfusively⟩ the ontological-contiguity —of-the-human-institutionalisation-process as knowledge-led is to harness ontological-pertinence and not wooden-language-⟨imbued—averaging-of-thought-⟨as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology⟩⟩-as-of—‘nondescript/ignorable–void ’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications⟩, thus explaining deferential-formalisation-transference as of institutional percolation-chanelling. This point is central and critical to the very notion of society-as-social-construct, as society is caught between the notion of sovereignty as-allowing-basic-level-of-universal-individual-and-collective-self-affirmation-striving-for-social-equality and the notion of knowledge as-of-selective-construal-of-social-value-and-institutionalhierarchisation-as-of-ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework'-overriding-social-equality-for-the-sake-of-individual-and-social-emancipation-as-of-efficient-ontological-performance'--<including-virtue-as-ontology>-implications. The implication of this dilemma is the reality that society is always subpar to a knowledge social determination as well as subpar to a sovereignty social determination. This dilemma is unavoidable by the very implications of a society: every social-setup as a conventional-construct can only be held together in the long-term as of its requisite given registry-worldview’s/dimension’s institutionalisation-level of minimally-expected basic conscious-adherence-at-best or token-adherence-at-worst to the said institutionalisation-level’s reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology',-for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring–meaningfulnessand-teleology' with regards to meeting a basic level of individuals and social existentialpossibilities expectations; such that the notions of knowledge and sovereignty can only be ‘socially effective’ within this articulated framework as enabled by ‘social universal-transparency'–(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative– epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness')’. This articulation can be elucidated more explicitly in cases of cultural diffusion between societies of differing institutionalisation level as such cultural diffusion isn’t by a simplistic institutionalisation knowledge-level transference, but involves a mutual sense of sovereign selectivity and recognition among the societies, however the drive for cultural diffusion; thus allowing for ‘acculturating-indigenising-pidginising transitioning settings and their social constructions as of <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising’ prior to eventual prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{41}-of-\textsuperscript{2} reference-of-thought accommodation. This is equally the knowledge and sovereignty dynamics that prevails within any given society. Thus, knowledge can effectively and efficiently be pushed forward but rather through an exercise of increasing `social \textsuperscript{103}universal-transparency\textsuperscript{104}-(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{41})\textsuperscript{,} thus enabling `intemporal ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality instigated ontological-contiguity\textsuperscript{66}—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\textsuperscript{67} as of difference-conflatedness as-to-totalitative-reification -in-singularisation -as-veridical-epistemic-determinism \textsuperscript{44}<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>causality-as-to-projective-totalitative–implications,-for-explicating-ontological-contiguity\textsuperscript{66},' associated with Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99}. However, all along this ontological-contiguity\textsuperscript{66}—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\textsuperscript{67} a suboptimal relation between knowledge and sovereignty undermines Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99} as of various pertinent social manifestations: —wherein sovereignty is affirm over knowledge as ‘supposedly being knowledge’ by a culture of mere social-aggregation-enabling of temporal-to-intemporal hotchpotch opinionatedness, notwithstanding the underlying transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity in formal institutional deferential-formalisation-transference and percolation-channelling, with the result that beyond the underlying implied institutionalisation-level such a social-aggregation-enabling hotchpotching opinionatedness culture tends to critically and decisively inform individual and collective thought and action in a manner that is suboptimal to intemporality\textsuperscript{51}-as-ontology as of the manifestation of such a temporal-to-intemporal hotchpotching culture in the extended-informality that permeates even formal institutions; wherein by exploiting of temporal mental-dispositions as of individuals and the collective-social sovereignty, knowledge is undermined by wrongly implying the pertinence of social-aggregation-enabling construed as ‘exploitation of sovereignty’/mobbishness as of ‘intellectual institutional-being-and-craft self-serving’ in lieu of upholding institutionalisation, including the tendency to degrade knowledge conceptualisations into popular frameworks of knowledge appraisal thus subverting institutional deferential-formalisation-transference rigorous knowledge framework as of their transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity as to existence-potency–sublimating–nascence, disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought, in supererogatory–epistemic-conflatedness; the ontologically-flawed articulation of knowledge by an intellectual disposition akin to <amplituding/formative> wooden-language (imbued—temporal–mere-form/virtualities/dereification/akrasiatic-drag/denatured/preconverging-or-dementing narratives—of-the reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology), for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring meaningfulness-and-teleology undermining knowledge as of its organic true nature implied by ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality behind prior ‘knowledge inventing’ and prospective ‘knowledge inventing’, and so as of intellectual institutional-being-and-craft; ultimately the very paradox of human <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag means that the human sovereign psyche is one that is geared to construe of ‘presence as all-encompassing meaningfulness-and-teleology value construct’ such that the transcendental implications of knowledge by mental-reflex are construed as of incrementalism-in-relativeontological-incompleteness—enframed-conceptualisation to presence, rather than as of of presence construed as of prospective relative ontological-contiguity over prior/transcended/superseded relative notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity-<shallow-supererogation -of-mentally-aestheticised–preconverging/dementing–qualia-schema>. However despite this knowledge and sovereignty dilemma associated with Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastucture-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology, the insight about human of self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag as of self-referencing and syncretising-effecting intemporal implications means that the requisite intemporal/longness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology psychoanalytic-unshackling positive-opportunism can crossgenerationally be induced for Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastucture-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology despite the inherent circular distractiveness of temporality, and ultimately so as enabled by ‘social universal-transparency -{transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness’}. The above analysis point out that transcendental knowledge in particular involves more than just knowledge as a grounded construct but as well an understanding of how such knowledge is instigated in society as part and parcel of the knowledge construed as organic-knowledge; given that the social-construct-as-society is not necessarily of immediate receptivity and is of a suboptimal disposition to such transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–dementativitiy implications that are not priorly as of grounded constructs of knowledge. This will explain why the mere articulation of positivism/rational-empiricism meaningfullness-and-teleology constructs of knowledge wasn’t enough in undermining medieval mental-dispositions, and the persistent initiatives of the Copernicuses, Galileos, Rousseaux, Diderots, etc., were not vague actions but informed by an intuition about the nature of human society and how it develops given the inherently untransformable human-subpotency—aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-ndeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions—existentialism-form-factor as of human limited-mentation-capacity. Thus in reflecting holographically—<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process, crucially the issue of ontological-veracity is only half the problem of knowledge, with the other half being the grasp of the underlying sovereignty and knowledge dynamics as of eliciting ‘social universal-transparency—(transparency-of-totalising-entailing, as-to-entailing—amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness)’. As it is the latter that induces that social positive-opportunism for deferential-formalisation-transference and institutional percolation-channelling, as of social deferential attribution of power for the beneficial effect of knowledge as empowering various institutional domains. Further, as implying the superseding of entrenched grounded knowledge as of its psychoanalytic-unshackling implications and in destabilising the underlying existential reference-of-thought, transcendental knowledge is of a circular but consistent exercise of <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—renewing—realisation/re-perception/re-thought, and so due to the ‘existential and emotive commitments’ it is involved in undoing with regards to the implied prior notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity—<shallow-supererogation—of-mentally—aestheticised—preconverging/dementing —qualia-schema> reference-of-thought and introducing the prospective ontological-contiguity—reference-of-thought as of the-very-same-immanent-existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality,—as-to—‘human<amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—purview-of-construal’. Consider in this regard, that the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs as

The ontological veridicality here is that such ‘double-gesture reification’ as the prospective axiomatic affirmation/projection/assertion/dueness-validating-logicising/suitable-measuringinstrument-validating-measuring—as-to-postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking—apriorising-psychologism> together with the prior axiomatic de-assertion/preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism/unaffirmation/deprojection/de-assertion/undueness-invalidating-logicising/unsuitable-measuringinstrument-invalidating-measuring—as-to-preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism>’ implied as of the ‘nonpresencing—perspective—ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> induced transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—de-mentativity is not to be construed as an incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness—enframed-conceptualisation as of elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation—outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity of the superseded presencing—absolutising—identitve-constitutedness, but is rather a maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness —unenframed-conceptualisation in subsuming ‘the very same physics totalising—devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality’. While the emotional involvement and sense of ‘existential ego undermining’ involved in such a transcending reification gesturing of axiomatic-constructs as of the very same totalising—devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality is relatively trite as occurring within the same registry-worldview/dimension reference-of-thought as of the positivistic/rational-empiricism meaningfulness-and-teleology mindset as well as its distance rather with respect to physical reality, such a transcending reification gesturing as of the grandest axiomatic-constructs having to do with consciousness with regards to the ‘very reference-of-thought itself’ wherein the prospective ontological-contiguity reference-of-thought as deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of reference-of-thought implies a transcending reification gesturing that not only affirms notional—deprocrypticism prospective registry-worldview/dimension but in that affirmation/projection/assertion/dueness-validating-logicising/suitable-measuringinstrument-validating-measuring as of its ontological-completeness-of reference-of-thought de-asserts/dements our positivism—procrypticism registry-worldview/dimension, this will elicit an existential and emotional involvement that will rather convert into a circular neuterisation of notional—deprocrypticism by a mental-complex avoiding such emotional discomfort and sense of existential ego undermining as is the case with all destructuring-threshold—(uninstitutionalised-threshold)/presublimating—desublimating—decisionality—of-ontological-performance—<including-virtue-as-ontology> with respect to their prospective institutionalisations. This explains why it is not a fundamental contradiction as of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/oughtindeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions– existentialism-form-factor at uninstitutionalised-threshold that the positivistic/rationalempiricism initiatives of such enlightenment thinkers like Galileo, Descartes, Diderot, etc. were met with counteracting reactionary views, and as it further elicits ontologically-flawed ‘uninstitutionalised-threshold’ by prospective institutionalisation dialogical-equality’. This can’t be the case because dialogical-equality can only arise where there is ‘common reference-of-thought’ whereas a state of institutionalisation as of prospective relativeontological-completeness -of- reference-of-thought is veridically in an institutionalising/enlightening/educating exercise relative to a state of uninstitutionalisedthreshold as of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought, and not such a flawed notion of dialogical-equality. We can appreciate even within a same reference-of-thought like our positivism/rational-empiricism registry-worldview/dimension that there is no dialogical-equality between the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantummechanics—axiomatic-constructs in ontological-contiguity and ‘traditional classical mechanics axiomatic-construct’ of notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity -<shallow-supererogation-of-mentally-aestheticised–preconverging/dementing –qualia-schema> but for the former’s enlightening the latter’s undefined-or-undecidable-threshold-of-ontologicalveridicality. This insight reflects the reality of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity —of-the-humaninstitutionalisation-process associated with Being-development/ontological-frameworkexpansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of– meaningfulnessand-teleology, wherein uninstitutionalised-threshold mental-reflexes of
syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag in their incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness—enframed-conceptualisation as of elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity tend to perpetuate the representation of prospective institutionalisation as nondescript/ignorable–void (actually speaking of akrasiatic-drag-denatured-and-preconverging-or-dementing narratives) in an ontologically-flawed dereification gesturing of neuterisation, rather than maximalising-recomposing-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation as of amplituding/totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought implied as of prospective institutionalisation’s deneuterising. It should thus be noted that such a transcendental exercise is not about passing the test as of the judgment of uninstitutionalised-threshold mental-reflexes of amplituding/self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag which is ‘ontologically flawed and wanting’ but rather is as of a maximalising-recomposing-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation intemporal-projection transcendental-enabling/sublimating/superrogatory–de-mentativity for prospective institutionalisation relative to such amplituding totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag that circularly reinstitute the uninstitutionalised-threshold temporality/shortness as if intemporal in incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness—enframed-conceptualisation as of elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity. In other words prospective institutionalisation arises as of ‘transcendental-reasoning-of-event—as-prospective-ontology-origination’ which as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness of axiomatic-construct-or-reference-of-thought is introducing a ‘new-as-of-the-prospective-institutionalisation ordinarynontranscendental-reasoning’ that blocks-out/supersedes/de-asserts/dements as of notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity\textsuperscript{\textcircled{1}}-<shallow-supererogation\textsuperscript{\textcircled{1}}-of-mentally-aestheticised-preconverging/dementing –qualia-schema> the ‘prior-or-old-as-now-uninstitutionalised ordinary-nontranscendental-reasoning’; with the implication that our ‘procrypticism–or–disjointedness-as-of–reference-of-thought reasoning’ is not admissible to prospective ‘deprocrypticism–or–preempting—disjointedness-as-of–reference-of-thought reasoning’ and so from the moment of the event -construed-as-the-prospective-ontology-origination of deprocrypticism, just as ‘non-positivistic medieval reasoning’ is not admissible to prospective ‘positivism reasoning’ from the moment of the event -construed-as-the-prospective-ontology-origination of positivism, etc., across the successive institutionalisations in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity —of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\textsuperscript{\textcircled{1}}; and so as of notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity\textsuperscript{\textcircled{1}}-<shallow-supererogation\textsuperscript{\textcircled{1}}-of-mentally-aestheticised-preconverging/dementing –qualia-schema> of the uninstitutionalised-threshold \textsuperscript{\textcircled{12}} and the prospective institutionalisation. Such a temporal/shortness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{\textcircled{19}} ontologically-flawed predisposition in circularly striving to reassert the ‘prior-or-old-as-now-uninstitutionalised ordinary-nontranscendental-reasoning’ over the ‘transcendental-reasoning-of-event -as-prospective-ontology-origination’ is fundamentally due to the de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic lifetime ‘mental and existential investment’ in the former, such that by and large it is mostly a crossgenerational transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supерerогatory–de-mentativity that fully brings about the adaptation of the induced ‘transcendental-reasoning-of-event\textsuperscript{\textcircled{17}}-as-prospective-ontology-origination’ as the ‘new-as-of-the-prospective-institutionalisation ordinary-nontranscendental-reasoning’. Such a temporal/shortness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{\textcircled{19}} ontologically-flawed circular predisposition arises due to human temporal-dispositions as of Being underdevelopment that tends to lead to the beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology\textsuperscript{29} in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought\textsuperscript{15} of knowledge as mechanical-knowledge and undermining organic-knowledge; wherein knowledge is related to as of existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought, that is, knowledge related to as of ‘the mere positive-opportunism’ it engenders at best with little or no cognisance that there is an attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme\textsuperscript{6} as of intemporality\textsuperscript{6}/longness behind ‘knowledge invention’ that must be preserved and perpetuated as ‘the very core of knowledge’ and so to undermine knowledge denaturing\textsuperscript{15}, so-construed as organic-knowledge. Organic-knowledge requires the articulation of meaningfulness-and-teleology rather in nonextricatory-existential-preempting-of-existential-unthought terms–as-of-axiomatic-construct as the profound-and-complete articulation of knowledge, and as the very attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme behind knowledge that induces the appropriate psychoanalytic-unshackling for its reception. In other words, we can’t seriously contemplate a profound positivistic knowledge engagement with a non-positivistic as animistic or medieval mindset without the idea of priorly eliciting the appreciation-and-adoption of a positivism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme when contending about any salient positivistic articulations as otherwise all such positivism/rational-empiricism articulations and explaining will be reconstrued circularly in animistic or medieval terms–as-of-axiomatic-construct as of the latter teleologically-degraded prior relative-ontological-incompleteness\textsuperscript{13} of reference-of-thought meaningfulness-and-teleology. Likewise meaningfulness-and-teleology articulated as of deprocrypticism–or–preempting—disjointedness-as-of reference-of-thought relative to our positivism–procrypticism necessarily requires priorly the requisite apriorising-teleological-elevation-in-ontological-contiguity from positivism–procrypticism’s disjointedness-as-of reference-of-thought mindset into deprocrypticism’s preempting—disjointedness-as-ofapriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme as otherwise such knowledge will be teleologically-degraded in circular positivism–procrypticism disjointedness-as-of–reference-of-thought terms–as-of-axiomatic-construct as of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness–of–reference-of-thought meaningfulness-and-teleology, even though in the latter case our <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/illusion-of-the-present/present-consciousness/mirage as metaphysics-of-presence--{implicitied–‘nondescript/ignoreable–void’–as-to– presentencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness } blinds us to appropriately appreciating this given the human mental-reflex of representing any uninstitutionalised-threshold as nondescript/ignoreable–void (actually speaking of akrasiatic-drag-denatured-and-preconverging-or-dementing ‘-narratives) as of our <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag . The point here is that the meaningfulness-and-teleology so-construed has to supersede the prior registry-worldview/dimension uninstitutionalised-threshold perspective/framing/reference/horizon for its prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity-enabling purpose, even if that implies being temporally unpalatable, given that the fundamental purpose for the underlying aetiologisation/ontological-escalation is of intemporal/ontological/social/species/universal/transcendental/ maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation de-mentating/structuring/paradigming and not temporal extricatory de-mentating/structuring/paradigming. Put another way, for instance, Newtonian physics doesn’t have any inherent meaningfulness-and-teleology as we can appreciate from a positivism/rational-empiricism perspective/framing/referencing/horizon with an animistic Thus an attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme can pertinently be defined as the ‘assumed-and-unflinching apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated–’motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing\textsuperscript{[101]}’ inducing a given specific ‘nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> outcome with regards to prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{[87]}-or-incompleteness-of-\textsuperscript{[83]} reference-of-thought as of the construal-as-existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality, and establishing-and-upholding the underlying framework of \textsuperscript{[9]}meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{[99]} associated with that attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme; and so, whether such a framework is a \textsuperscript{[8]}reference-of-thought as of overall construal-as-existence/existential-possibilities, or within a \textsuperscript{[8]}reference-of-thought like a social projection <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–devolved–purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality or specifically with living-as-of-human-personality-developing. For instance, with respect to coming across and living say in an early hunter-gather society with its interpretation of ill-health as of bad omen, we will still maintain an ‘assumed-and-unflinching transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated–’motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing\textsuperscript{[101]}’ as of the attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme of positivism’s/rational-empiricism’s perceptivity-as-of-full-disease-and-scientifictheory-construct-as-the-exclusive-cause-and-effect-conceptualisation, at least as of our self-conscious awareness, even as this reflects mutual beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology -<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> as when we publicly pretend to act otherwise by subscribing to the interpretation within such a social-setup. As construed within a given reference-of-thought, say in our positivism/rational-empiricism reference-of-thought we can further have the conception of the physics or biology or law or literature or even just entrepreneur or accountant or technician specific attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme, and further at the individual level as of changing attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme with living-as-of-human-personality-developing. attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme as so-construed is critical fundamentally because the notionally inherent human capacity for aetiologisation/ontological-escalation is directly associated with ‘attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme as dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness’-by-reification /contemplative-distension (as of human self-surpassing—existentialism-form-factor,-in-overcoming-‘notionally–collateralising-beholdening-protohumanity’-to-‘attain-sublimating-humanity’-as-to-existence-potency–sublimating–nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-supererogatory–epistemic-conflatedness to supersede human temporality/shortness <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought<as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology<as-of–’nondescript/ignorable–void ’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>) to be able to achieve transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity’, and so as of intemporality’. With regards to living-as-of-human-personality-developing, we can appreciate in the case of a child’s personality development as of its given attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme that it has a poor dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness -by-reification /contemplative-distension as of its more direct focus on instant-sensations-and-carefreeness requiring that the child is directed to end at successive stages infantile habits as it grows up with an increasing sense of dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness -by-reification /contemplative-distension that ultimately involves major stages like schooling, greater social autonomy and responsibility, and developing into an adult with even greater dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness -by-reification /contemplative-distension as for instance the notion of pleasure is increasingly substituted with that of work-and-pleasure, etc. Such living-development–as-to-personality-development as dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness -by-reification /contemplative-distension is construed as the more profound attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme for human optimum living, and so over say an animal-like immediacy attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme of living. With regards to the second-level of social aetiologisation/ontological-escalation associated with ‘attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness -by-reification /contemplative-distension’, for achieving transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity; humankind construes of existence as ‘more than just plain living as animals’ but as enabling for various domains of social projections dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness -by-reification /contemplative-distension so-implied across the various registry-worldviews/dimensions, whether in an animistic social-setup involving animistic practices or in the modern social-setup as of our modern practices involving subject-matter specialisms, trade roles, functionaries, arts, research, sports and other activities, etc.; with each involving their specific attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness -by-reification /contemplative-distension. The idea being infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology at the given registry-worldview/dimension, and so-construed as temporal extricatory de-mentating/structuring/paradigming. Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology as such implies increasingly more profound-and-complete enabling framework of human emancipation as of technical and existential possibilities arising from prospective relative-ontological-completeness—or-incompleteness-of—reference-of-thought. We can get an insight of registry-worldviews/dimensions attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme contrast as clarified in the preceding example as of the technical and existential emancipatory possibilities that can be contemplated with a positivism/rational-empiricism attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme in an early hunter-gather social-setup inclined to construe of ill-health as bad omen; and appreciate that the human-subpotency is much more than stalling at any prior relative-ontological-incompleteness—or—reference-of-thought registry-worldview/dimension, and so not only retrospectively but equally prospectively. Thus, an attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme can pertinently be defined as the ‘assumed-and-unflinching transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative—disambiguated—motif-and—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing’ inducing a given specific ‘nonpresencing—<perspective—ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> outcome with regards to prospective relative-ontological-completeness—or—incompleteness-of—reference-of-thought as of the construal-as-existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality, and establishing-and-upholding the underlying framework of meaningfulness-and-teleology associated with that attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme. It can be construed with regards to prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—de—mentativity as a de—mentative/structural/paradigmatic adjunctive-metaphoricity—signification inducing-and—upholding a prospective ‘underlying <amplituding—formative—disposition/care–and–episteme, with the latter necessarily having to ascend to the relative-ontologically-veridical attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme for the former’s implied meaningfulness-and-teleology as of its ontological-performance to avail, and so in reflecting the ‘incisive-and-intransigent nature of existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation—and–existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,’ eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation<as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied>‘prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’; as we can appreciate this with regards to existence’s relative validation of the positivism/rational-empiricism ‘perceptivity-as-of-full-disease-and-scientific-theory-construct-as-the-exclusive-cause-and-effect-conceptualisation’ interpretation over recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation’s ‘bad omen’ interpretation. Such an ‘assumed-and-unflinching transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffective–disambiguated–motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing’ has ultimately nothing to do with the deliberate willing of the relative-ontologically-veridical attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme. As we can appreciate that without implying a dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness-by-reification/contemplative-distension as of a child’s living-as-of-human-personality-developing, the child’s poorly developed attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme will poorly face optimum living of adult life or where such was the case about all human children then the human species will be no more culturally unique than any other animal. Again, as of human social-projection-institutional-orientations we know that subject-matter, trades and bureaucratic expertise come with a requisite implied attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme in detachment from wooden-language<imibued—averaging-of-thought<as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of meaninglessness-and-teleology-as-of–nondescript/ignorable–void’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications) as we know that, everything being equal legitimately, it is the professional electrician as of its Likewise, the dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness \textsuperscript{-by-reification\textsuperscript{16}/contemplative-distension\textsuperscript{16}} ‘assumed-and-unflinching transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative-disambiguated-‘motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing\textsuperscript{101}’ of a relative-ontologically-veridical attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme\textsuperscript{5} as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness \textsuperscript{-of-} reference-of-thought over a relative-ontologically-flawed attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme\textsuperscript{5} is implied for prospective “reference-of-thought transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory~de-mentativity, as of overall human existential and technical emancipation. Basically, while attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme implied with regards to both living-as-of-human-personality-developing and social-projection-institutional-orientations arises as of secondnaturing institutionalisation. However, attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme\textsuperscript{5} specific instigating of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99} as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness \textsuperscript{-of-} reference-of-thought is (re-originary–as-unenframed/unbeholdening/outlier-conceptualisation-(imbued-postconverging/dialectical-thinking \textsuperscript{-‘projective-insights’/‘epistemic-projection-in-conflatedness’ \textsuperscript{-of-}}}

teleology ‘-as-of-‘nondescript/ignoreable–void’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications⟩’. This notion of fulfilling a given prospective institutionalisation’s requisite attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme underlies the very idea of intellectual-and-moral-inequality/non-correspondence as well as dialogical inequality/non-correspondence; as where one party does fulfils the attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme of a given institutionalisation’s ‘reference-of-thought as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness -of-axiomatic-construct-or- reference-of-thought and thus its corresponding ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’, and the other doesn’t as of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness . This further explains why epistemic-breaks/epistemic-resetting arise with the successive prospective institutionalisations in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity —of-the-human-institutionalisation-process, wherein for instance the positivism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme of say a Galileo or Descartes is circularly beyond the contention framework of scholasticism ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’, speaking of the impossibility of logical-congruence between the positivists and scholastics with only the utter dominance of positivism arising as of its ontological-prime-totalitative-framework induced positive-opportunism as of scientific, medical, technical advancements, free society, etc. that leads to the crossgenerational collapsing of scholasticism. It is interesting to note here that such positivist scholars were ‘never beholden to a convincing exercise with scholasticism but rather with intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality’, and for which purpose rather opted to create internally-coherent positivist networks and societies for the perpetuation of positivistic meaningfulness-and-teleology while averting its denaturing by wrongly implying notional-contiguity/epistemic-contiguity<-<profound-supererogation-of-mentally-aestheticised-postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> with scholasticism. But rather implying notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity -<shallow-supererogation>-of-mentally-aestheticised-preconverging/dementing -qualia-schema> given the latter’s flawed de-mentating/structuring/paradigming as of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought. The insight here is that more fundamentally knowledge is not about ‘interhuman negotiating or agreeableness’ but more critically about a third party validator known as ‘intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality’ which is the transcendental-enabling/sublimating/suberogatory-de-mentativity above the mortals that are humans, and that the exercise of knowledge construction is rather an interhuman transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative-disambiguated-motif-andapriorising/axiomatising/referencing exercise in search for the validation of the ‘superior party that is intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality as of ontological-prime movers-totalitativebe any compunction as of human intemporal/ontological/social/species/universal/transcendental/maximalisingrecomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation dementating/structuring/paradigming to overlook them and imply intellectual-and-moralinequivalence/non-correspondence and/or dialogical inequivalence/non-correspondence in other to preserve genuine knowledge over charlatanism; as such ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity practices do not speak of ‘genuine intellectual disagreement’ but undermining of intellectualism basically and do not merit to be elevated teleologically to the level of intellectual contention because of their underlying knowledge denaturing predisposition. This is critically the case with registry-worldview/dimension reference-of-thought transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—de-mentativity implied knowledge given that the old/prior/superseded as of its beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology—<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> prior relative-ontological-incompleteness—of-reference-of-thought construes of ‘implied grounding of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ in terms—as-of-axiomatic-construct of ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’ while the new/prospective/superseding as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness—of-reference-of-thought construes of ‘implied grounding of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ in terms—as-of-axiomatic-construct of prospective nonpresencing—<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>. This brings home the reality that it is inevitable that all uninstitutionalised-threshold are necessarily ‘de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically conflicted’, with prospective transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative—disambiguated—‘motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework being the critically fundamental determining arbiter of what will prospectively pass for knowledge rather than the naivety of logical-congruence of dialogical-equivalence at any such uninstitutionalised-threshold; as fundamentally the issues faced by the Descartes, Galileos, Diderots, etc. as of ‘budding-positivism/rational-empiricism attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme’ are de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically fundamentally inevitable as of their articulation within a non-positivism/medievalism scholasticism context. This is the case since at a registry-worldview’s/dimension’s uninstitutionalised-threshold, such a framework of logical-congruence of dialogical-equivalence is de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically superseded, in the sense that every institutionalisation say for instance scholasticism scholarship has its ‘genuine intellectual engagement framework’ as of its underlying attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme reference-of-thought supererogatory–acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness–of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument, but then at its uninstitutionalised-threshold (as implied from prospective positivism/rational-empiricism attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme reference-of-thought supererogatory–acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness–of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument) scholasticism and positivism are rather in transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated–‘motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing’; as so reflected in their mutually beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology -<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>. This is equally reflected with regards to the prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity implying knowledge proponents, as the very notion of implying a prospective transcendental conceptualisation as of organic-knowledge is one that undervalues the presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme as of its social-stake-contention-or-confliction while the very notion of perceiving highly the meaningfulness-and-teleology within a prior institutionalisation framework is one that is necessarily apprehensive and shallowminded to the notion of a prospectively undermining prospective nonpresencing=<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity episteme transcendence-and-attitude/mental-disposition/care–and– reference-of-thought supererogatory–acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness–of-human mortals contentions in transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing, wherein the ‘superior party’ of existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality is the validator of ontological-pertinence as of concurrent ontological-prime movers-totalitative-framework, and thereof ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’ as new reasoning-from-results/afterthought, and so over and above ‘interhuman negotiating or agreeableness’. Thus ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity as of its charlatan effect undermines, as of beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology-in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought, the articulation of meaningfulness-and-teleology as of prospective maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation that could jeopardise pre-established temporal interest, and cultivating rather incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness—enframed-conceptualisation as of prior reasoning-from-results/afterthought in overlooking concurrent ontological-prime movers-totalitative-framework strife to uphold-and-promote the ‘superior party’ which is the nonpresencing-perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence of existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality; with such intellectual-bad-faith rather advancing such an incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness—enframed-conceptualisation accommodating framework for strategically cultivating pre-established temporal interest. Central to such incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness—enframed-conceptualisation is a simplistic, poor and inadequate articulation of the notion of scepticism usurping genuine intellectual scepticism. Such a poor notion of scepticism operates by a spurious relationship with intellectual contentions that is susceptible to legitimise-or-delegitimise arguments however ontologically pertinent or impertinent as of concurrent ontological-prime movers-totalitative-framework, rather as of its commitment to incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness—enframed-conceptualisation that in many ways could just as well validate <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought-<as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology-as-of—‘nondescript/ignorable—void’—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>) and untransvaluated—temporal-intemporality/ attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme and their social contentions. As in effect, such ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity scepticism fails to act as a ‘knowledge-growth-mechanism with regards to the perpetuation of knowledge coherence and pertinence’ as is the case with genuine intellectual scepticism, but is rather geared towards a dogmatic mandarinism and pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation that usurps the very notion of scepticism in incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness—enframed-conceptualisation, and so as of the naïve implication that proceduralism is the substitute for existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality as transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory—de-mentativity. This poor scepticism attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme usurping the pre-established ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’, has existentialising—enframing/imprintedness—<as-to—historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> implications as of the forestalling of prospective ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’ upholding of the primacy of the ‘superior party’ that is existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality, and so over mere ‘interhuman negotiating or agreeableness’; as this subsequently undermines intemporal knowledge deferential-formalisation-transference behind the secondnaturing for prospective institutionalisation. Rather the attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme of genuine intellectual scepticism is encrusted within the very notion of prospective relative-ontological-completeness of human meaningfulness-and-teleolgy, given human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening. Such a genuine intellectual scepticism construes of knowledge by its given <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality in terms—as-ofaxiomatic-construct of the competing contending construals elicited relative credibility and relative scepticism as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness, thus enabling the upholding of the ‘superior party’ that is existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality, which as of its transcendence-enabling nature brings about prospective human emancipation.

While genuine intellectual scepticism rather strives in a comprehensive intellectual credibility and scepticism framework as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness, ontologicalbad-faith/inauthenticity scepticism avoids such constraining as it rather emphasises a predisposition for discreet, ‘ontologically unconstrained framework as of prospective relativeontological-completeness’ causality—as-to-projectivetotalitative–implications,–for-explicating-ontological-contiguity and non-comprehensiveness, that rather allow for selectivity, incompleteness and perfidy passing for genuine intellectual scepticism. Effectively while genuine intellectual transformation involves dispensing-withimmediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness—by-reification—contemplative-distension, a perfidious ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity scepticism involves eliciting a sense of immediacy and temporality /shortness as of <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought—as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—as-of-‘nondescript/ignorable–void ’-with-regards-tochainism as ‘developed thought’, thus deflating the requisite dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness—by-reification—contemplative-distension intemporal detachment/backstep for transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–dementativity. In this latter respect, and for the possibility of prospective social transcendenceand-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity and emancipation, social practices at any given period as ‘becoming constructs’ are not inherently ontologically sacrosanct by the fact that these are the outcome of preceding prospective relative-ontological-completeness as of preceding intemporal dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness by-reification /contemplative-distension, and by that very implication this is what carries the possibility of ‘inventing’ as-of-prospective-institutionalisation social practices as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness. ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity ad-hoc pretences extolling social practices as of presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness but of a poor conception outside the prospective relative-ontological-completeness behind such social

As a result of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-
extentialism-form-factor, the ever present reality of human uninstitutionalised-threshold as reflected successively with recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, ununiversalisation, non-positivism/medievalism and procrypticism, has always implied resolution beyond just reasoning-from-results/afterthought that warrants successive nonpresencing—<perspective– ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> as of the reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning of base-institutionalisation, universalisation, positivism and depcrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of--reference-of-thought together construed as of the

The implication here is that ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality is rather about a ‘seeding promise of human-subpotency ontological-performance’-<including-virtue-as-ontology> equivalence/correspondence with the full-potency-of-existence’s–sublimating–nascence-as-of-its-coherence/contiguity’, but that reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning adduced transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity prospectively comes out short with the prospective reasoning-from-results/afterthought outcome, and so because of human limited-mentation-capacity at any moment. Thus the successive reasoning-from-results/afterthought renewing apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuring/instrument instigation as of reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme implicitation for aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring meaningfulness-and-teleology, which is construed as more fully articulating the notion of ontological-good-faith/authenticity. This practical conceptualisation of ontological-good-faith/authenticity as of its method is further critical because however well elicited, even reasoning-from-results/afterthought constructs still need their good ontological-performance—<including-virtue-as-ontology> in practice, and given human-subpotency—aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions—existentialism-form-factor, there is always room for human denaturing temporal ontological-performance—<including-virtue-as-ontology> of such reasoning-from-results/afterthought constructs induced by reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning; pointing to the fact that ultimately the underlying ‘sanctity of knowledge’ arises from ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existentia real-reality as of such ontological-good-faith/authenticity based intemporal organic-knowledge that is wary of the denaturing that can arise as of temporal mechanical-knowledge that ‘dispenses with the originary/as-of-event spirit of reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning’ and adopts a mere pedantic relating with the reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology, for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring meaningfulness-and-teleology. Thus human ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existentia of prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{17} of reference-of-thought, undermining institutional-anchoring and logocentric complexes/denials and pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation (in incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness\textsuperscript{15}—enframed-conceptualisation) of such prospective transcendental possibilities.

Such prospective apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument transformation for aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{30} is the reflection of a reality of human mental regeneration potential that speaks of the continuity of humankind as of the same relative-emancipatory potential as pertinently reflected with Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{26} as of ‘intemporal ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality instigated ontological-contiguity—as-of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\textsuperscript{24} as of difference-conflatedness—as-to-totalitative-reification\textsuperscript{36} -in-singularisation-as-veridical-epistemic-determinism\textsuperscript{21} \textless amplituding/formative-epistemicity\textgreater causality—as-to-projective-totalitative-implications, for-explicating-ontological-contiguity’ retrospectively and prospectively; with relative-emancipation construed as the inherent meaningfulness-and-teleology truth form of existence, wherein truth is as of immanented-teleologically-pertinent-truth over truth-devoid-of-immanented-teleology\textsuperscript{10}, for instance, like the teleological disposition of living organisms for self-preservation beyond just their organical composition. Thus, human ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality underlies the conception of de-mentation\textsuperscript{12} (supererogatory ontological de-mentation-or-dialectical de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics) stranding dialectics crossgenerational as enabling implications). The latter as ¹³deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of—reference-of-thought as of its ontological-completeness-as-of—reference-of-thought/ontological-normalcy/postconvergence is the effective basis for evaluating the ontological-veracity of all preceding ¹⁴reference-of-thought as of its deneuterising¹⁵—referentialism that breaks-down the various ¹⁶neuterising to their basic human limited-mentation-capacity dynamics implications. In this regard, their successive profoundness as of their ‘successive (uncircumscribing/undelineating-as-‘epistemic-totality’ with recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation) circumscribing-as-‘epistemic-totality’-or-delineating-as-‘epistemic-totality’” existential–epistemic-totalisation-scheme-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology” speaks of more and more profound convergence-as-of-accumulation of human-subpotency grasp of the full-potency of existence coherence/contiguity. It should be noted as well that the afore is focused on the abstract ¹⁷reference-of-thought/epistemic-totalisation level of différance/internal-dialectics/difference-deferral, as it is actually reflecting ‘the backdrop construed as human sublimation-inducing—textuality/hermeneutics/possibilities-of-becoming-existential-interpretation/axiomatisation-of-existence” for the effectively devolving différance/internal-dialectics/difference-deferral teleological process of meaningfulness; given that the abstract ¹⁸reference-of-thought/epistemic-totalisation level so-established rather enframes teleologically-devolving-as-drifting meaningfulness with regards to ‘social-stake-contention-or-confliction as of existential-instantiations dynamics among individuals and the social-collective’ construed from notional—deprocrypticism deneuterising¹⁹, to fully reflect the ontological-veridicality of mental-states as of affirmation/projection/assertion/dueness-validating-logicising/suitable-measuringinstrument-validating-measuring—<as-to-postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking>—apriorising-psychologism> and unaffirmation/deprojection/de-assertion/undueness-invalidating-logicising/unsuitable-measuringinstrument-invalidating-measuring—<as-to-preconverging-or-dementing>—apriorising—

analysis conveys the reality of human crossgenerational institutional-cumulation/institutionalrecomposure<as-to-3historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing> due to the impossibility of the very first humans as of their limited-mentation-capacity and yet inexperience/unaccumulated-experience to be able to reason more than their initial apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument will permit as of their state of recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation ‘non-rules—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism,—as-impulsive-or-accidented-or-random-mental-disposition’, and hence their construal of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ as of ‘their relative ‘neuterising’. Likewise the ultimate possibility of human crossgenerational institutional-cumulation/institutional-recomposure—<as-to- historiality/ontological-eventfulness>/ontological-aesthetic-tracing> as enabling the apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument of notional—deprocrypticism/<amplituding/formative>notional—preempting—disjointedness-as-of—reference-of-thought is the backdrop for deneuterising”—referentialism enabling the full transparent ontologically-veridical elucidation of human ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ construed as of ‘historiality/ontological-eventfulness>/ontological-aesthetic-tracing; as of the possibility of deneuterising’. In the bigger scheme of things, as of the notional—conflatedness of notional—deprocrypticism as deneuterising”—referentialism, what had hitherto been conceived notionally as logicism is herein exposed as effectively superseded by the notion of différance/internal-dialectics/difference-deferral so-construed as of ‘reference-of-thought—or-axiomatic-construct-devolving-as-of-ontological-reconstituting—as-to-conflatedness’—différance/internal-dialectics/difference-deferral’ and as implied as-of-the-construal-of-différance/internal-dialectics/difference-deferral-of—‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’; and so with respect to the more ontologically-veridical reality of human conceptualisation of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ always from a position of limited-mentation-capacity as of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness—of—reference-of-thought, thus in need for its prior deepening so-captured in the ‘human sublimation-inducing—textuality/hermeneutics/possibilities-of-becoming-existential-interpretation/axiomatisation-of—existence of the notional-deprocrypticism différance/internal-dialectics/difference-deferral as transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity-enabling, whereas such a human limited-mentation-capacity implication is naively ignored with logicism in its metaphysics-of-presence--{implicated-‘nondescript/ignorable–void ’-as-to-presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness }/illusion-of-the-present/present-consciousness/mirage. Such a ‘human sublimation-inducing—textuality/hermeneutics/possibilities-of-becoming-existential-interpretation/axiomatisation-of-existence as of the notional-conflatedness of notional-deprocrypticism différance/internal-dialectics/difference-deferral’, by its insight with respect to the implications of human limited-mentation-capacity for ontologically-veridical meaningfulness-and-teleology construal, is best predisposed to grasp the ‘inner working coherence/contiguity of axiomatic-construct construal of ecstatic-existence/the-nature-of-the-world/conditions’ as of nonpresencing-<perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> reference-of-thought as this enables transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity, thus fulfilling the full implications of knowledge as of its ontologically-veridical knowledge-notionalisation and organic-knowledge nature. Fundamentally this all has to do with human limited-mentation-capacity, as if at a given (re-originary–as-unenframed/unbeholdening/outlier-conceptualisation-(imbued-postconverging/dialectical-thinking ‘projective-insights’/epistemic-projection-in-conflatedness ‘of-notional-deprocrypticism-prospective-sublimation’ ) originary/event-of-prospective-ontology-origination moment humankind-as-of-its-integrant-individuals had a profound-and-complete mentation-capacity, then human meaningfulness-and-teleology will be absolutely identitive with no implied-différance/internal-dialectics/difference-deferral-of-meaningfulness-and-teleology requiring as of existential-constraint human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening as the circular driving notion of différance/internal-dialectics/difference-deferral. Différance as internal-dialectics/difference-deferral, beyond just

To the extent that human knowledge agents ‘achieve sufficient-and-recurrent credibility as of their knowledge methods and approaches’ with respect to social and so more than just as of beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology –<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existentialunthought>, but further because as of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions–existentialism-form-factor, there is ‘a drift from the ideal of knowledge agents only as ‘pertinent in delegation’ as of their ‘kowtowing to existential-reality’ towards a teleologically-degraded exercise of institutional-being-and-craft muddlement. It should be noted that such a notional construct of episteme interpreted herein is implied as of ‘dynamic social <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~self-referencing-syncretising’ across the entire social spectrum as of notional–episteme dynamically covering both informal institutional settings and formal institutional settings. In the bigger scheme of things, such transcendental epistemic-breaks/epistemic-resetting in transition associated with the ontological-contiguity–of-the-human-institutionalisation-process as of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions–existentialism-form-factor arise wherein ‘the prior shaman is being contested by a new shaman in a hunter-gatherer society’ with possible accusations of witchcraft as of institutionalised-being-and-craft, wherein ‘two or more traditional priesthods of an early civilisation foment against one another’, wherein ‘sophistry and philosophy vie for what passes as valuable and true knowledge’, wherein ‘medieval scholasticism dogmatic knowledge and positivism/rational-empiricism knowledge vie for the interpretation of human and physical nature’, and in our case wherein ‘knowledge traditions including philosophical traditions are put into question as of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology, antinihilism and transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity knowledge perspectives’. Ultimately, this point out that epistemic-breaks/epistemic-resetting become inevitable wherein the prior knowledge episteme de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically loses its way as of its initial justification as safeguarding the prospective possibility of enlightening human knowledge as of ontology’s-directedness-as-Being, but then by its institutional-being-and-craft uninstitutionalised-threshold actually de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> undermines the prospective possibility of prospective enlightening human knowledge; and so, as increasingly the prior epistemic disposition is one that overlooks prospective inherent transcendental-enabling/sublimating/superragatory–de-mentativity of meaningfulness-and-teleology<including-virtue-as-ontology> turning rather towards social-aggregation-enabling implications as meaningfulness-and-teleology<including-virtue-as-ontology>, undermining the very notion of the intellectual exercise as about developing/institutionalising the social and not kowtowing-to-it construed as charlatanism! Further in all such transcendent contexts despite the fact that the-new is derived from the-old as for instance the Descartes, the Galileos, the Leibnizes and the Newtons as budding-positivists are the outcrop of Scholasticism itself, the-new epistemic-break/epistemic-resetting is justified in that even the-old is predicated on upholding Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology as of ontology’s-directedness-as-Being going by the human intemporal/ontological/social/species/universal/transcendental/maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation de-mentating/structuring/paradigming. Insightfully, that exercise is actually reflected as of temporal-to-intemporal individuations wherein the individual is rather a receptacle of temporal-to-intemporal individuations with variance of mental-dispositions among individuals an issue of variance as of skewness towards temporality/shortness or intemporality; such that even the budding-positivists carried elements of scholasticism but were more definitely of a positivistic outlook, and many scholastics articulated notions which could more fruitfully be developed in a positivistic outlook but were stifled by their scholasticism dogmatic intellectual commitments. In effect, human limited-mentation-capacity however the institutionalisation-level as of human-subpotency—aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions—existentialism-form-factor implies that it is impossible for the intemporal projection as longness-of-register-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology that prospectively construes of successive frameworks of ‘reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-menting/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness as of implicated-and-explicated

The reality of human registry-worldview’s/dimension’s institutionalisation and uninstitutionalised-threshold mental-dispositions imply that at the uninstitutionalised-threshold prospective institutionalisation knowledge as transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity is not socially integrated directly as of an dimensionality-of-sublimating supererogatory–de-mentativity/epistemic-growth-or-conflicatedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transeistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation exercise engaging with intemporal-as-ontological meaningfulness-and-teleology. Such prospective intemporal-as-ontological meaningfulness-and-teleology is not necessarily perceived at the uninstitutionalised-threshold as any more pertinent for attaining social approbation than other temporal meaningfulness-and-teleology as of the said uninstitutionalised-threshold. This point out that maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation mental-dispositions in their intemporality/longness or longness-of-register-of meaningfulness-and-teleology are as of a projected-or-anticipated conflatedness of social universal-transparency ⟨transparency-of-totalising-entailing, as-to-entailing–amplituding/formative–epistemicity⟩ totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness ⟩ for institutional and formal deferential-formalisation-transference as of percolation-channelling. That is at the uninstitutionalised-threshold such intemporal-as-ontological meaningfulness-and-teleology is pragmatically expounded socially not in terms of its inherent dimensionality-of-sublimating —<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>supererogatory—dementativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation—ideal which is socially-too-abstract but rather as a structuring/paradigmatic secondnatured construct of positive-opportunism as of institutional and formal deferential-formalisation-transference percolation-channelling to attain social approbation. It is such a ‘conflatedness’ structuring/paradigmatic secondnatured construct of positive-opportunism of institutional and formal deferential-formalisation-transference as of percolation-channelling to attain social approbation’ that holds together in social universal-transparency —(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,—as-to-entailing—<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness ) temporal-to-intemporal solipsistic mental-dispositions as of a given secondnatured institutionalisation. Out of such a conflatedness structuring/paradigmatic secondnatured construct, intemporal-as-ontological meaningfulness-and-teleology is not necessarily perceived as any more pertinent for attaining social approbation than other temporal meaningfulness-and-teleology. In other words, the ideal articulation of base-institutionalisation meaningfulness-and-teleology in recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, just as that of universalisation in base-institutionalisation–ununiversalisation, positivism/rational-empiricism in universalisation–non-positivism/medievalism, and prospectively notional–deprocrypticism in positivism–procrypticism; are only pertinent for attaining social approbation as of their conflatedness structuring/paradigmatic secondnatured construct of positive-opportunism of institutional and formal deferential-formalisation-transference as of percolation-channelling. This highlights that from the perspective of immediate-or-short-run social approbation, it is simpler though ontologically flawed as of constitutedness to engage a registry-worldview/dimension at its uninstitutionalised-threshold rather by an incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness—enframedconceptualisation mental-disposition on the basis of its prior relative-ontological-incompleteness\(^\text{\textsuperscript{\textcircled{1}}}\)-of- reference-of-thought or its same metaphysical framework of contention rather than adopting at its uninstitutionalised-threshold\(^\text{\textsuperscript{\textcircled{2}}}\) a more complex but ontologically-veridical \(^\text{\textsuperscript{\textcircled{3}}}\)maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness\(^\text{\textsuperscript{\textcircled{4}}}\)\(^\text{\textsuperscript{\textcircled{5}}}\)\(^\text{\textsuperscript{\textcircled{6}}}\)—unenframed-conceptualisation mental-disposition on the basis of the prospective relative-ontological-completeness\(^\text{\textsuperscript{\textcircled{4}}}\)-of- reference-of-thought or superseding metaphysical framework of contention as of conflatedness\(^\text{\textsuperscript{\textcircled{9}}}\). That is, engaging a non-positivism registry-worldview/dimension \(^\text{\textsuperscript{\textcircled{7}}}\)meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^\text{\textsuperscript{\textcircled{9}}}\) with respect to say notions-and-accusations-of-sorcery on its same terms in case of an accusation of sorcery to imply the other is the sorcerer, etc. will sound more credible as of its \(<\text{amplituding/formative}>\text{ wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought-<as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology-as-of—'nondescript/ignorable—void’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications}>\) in a non-positivism social-setup than say projecting to prospective positivism registry-worldview/dimension \(^\text{\textsuperscript{\textcircled{7}}}\)meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^\text{\textsuperscript{\textcircled{9}}}\) and implying that notions-and-accusations-of-sorcery are not real speaking of both the defect of such accusation and the defective superstitious \(<\text{amplituding/formative}>\text{ wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought-<as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology-as-of—'nondescript/ignorable—void’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications}>\) in the non-positivism social-setup. hyperbole-of-temporal-to-intemporal-ontological-performance\textsuperscript{71} \textless including-virtue-as-ontology\textgreater{} in many ways necessarily has to project out of `ordinariness of thought’ for pretence of arriving at a sound construct capable of a most profound reflection of social ontological-veridicality. Consider with respect to a most profound emotional-involvement the issue of human imperilment as a test for the capacity for such requisite depth of transcendental contemplation. Consider for instance that tens of millions including soldiers killed in both the first and second world wars pass for mere victims of the wars in a bizarre twist of mutual <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag that shuts-off-the-mind to the odious reality of mutual genocide, to say the least. Consider that in Russia a dictator responsible for killing about 25 millions of his own citizens is still considered a national hero by the majority. Consider that the first president of the United States in position of power was a slave-owner thus encouraging the Atlantic slave trade that led to genocidal proportions of deaths but he is venerated by a majority as the greatest U.S. President. Consider in a different sense though non-exculpatory that Heidegger a leading intellectual joined the Nazi party leaving 2 years later with hardly any critical influence on the party and is universally condemned today. Consider as well that many an intellectual or public figure today actively or passively voiced for the recent wars killing millions whether in the Middle-East or elsewhere with a corresponding social indifference and mental shut-off. These profound considerations highlight the contemplative depth to which the social thinker needs to get to in order to truly be engaged in a transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{72} construal as implied with notional–deprocrypticism as preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought and so be able to keep their head up from drowning in human <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–thrownness-in-existence\textsuperscript{73} (I exist therefore existence is of transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity to my human-subpotency / hyperbole-of-temporal-to-intemporal-ontological-performance71-<including-virtue-as-ontology>) in order to be able to produce ‘veridical ontology’ on a same parity as nature constrains on the natural sciences. Effectively, such transcendental insight points out that existence/existential-possibilities is inherently a radical ontology beyond our <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag72 in existence/existential-possibilities as ‘hyperbolic pretences of ontology’. This author thinks that there can effectively be an engaging and constructive approach for arriving at such a depth of radical ontology warranted by existence/existential-possibilities that is transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity for the social avoiding the platitudes of our times such that many an intellectual have even given up to ‘this all-powerful emotional-involvement element of the social’. Human <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–thrownness-in-existence74 (I exist therefore existence is of transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity to my human-subpotency / hyperbole-of-temporal-to-intemporal-ontological-performance71-<including-virtue-as-ontology>) implies the need for a sound perpetuating construct of universal projection as intemporal-or-longness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology99 as the opportunity for prospective transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity. Such a construct is a ‘response construal’ that inherently enables transformative universal implications as beyond presence issues and complexes as it sublimates presence out of its failure. This is unlike the all too frequent construct of ‘reactionary construal’ caught up in presence as it is presence-serving and so whether as of positive or negative reaction; as even as a positive act a reactionary construal is hardly of entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness71 thus hardly as of aetiologisation/ontological-escalation. A hero as of a positive ‘reactionary construal’ may perfectly prevent a crime from happening and save the day but then such action is not dependable and the outcomes are unreliable as well together with the possibility on occasion of wrong judgement and/or wrong action or usurpation; thus the social construction of crime prevention needs an intellectualised social ‘response construal’ mechanism of universal implication that ensures dependability of crime prevention as of the foresight of law and policing management construed as of an intemporal-as-ontological intellectual projection exercise. This same depth-of-thought is warranted across the dynamic scope of the social including the political for true transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-dementativity beyond normative conventioned constructs bound to hold-up the possibility of prospective ‘visions of humankind emancipation’. Such a depth of contemplation will fathom for instance that humankind appeared on earth about 100000 years ago but the pervasive de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic determinism of the nation-state which became common just about 500 years ago has been a source of much of humankind’s problems as of ‘reactionary construal’ and humankind’s constitutedness to the notion of nation-state seems to create an impasse for human Being-and-contemplative development. Consider again the possibility capable of arising as of a ‘response construal’ as effectively articulated by Derrida in his analysis of spirit. Derrida grasps that Heidegger strove to produce universal human meaningfulness-and-teleology but was caught up in the <amplituding/formative– epistemicity>totalising–thrownness-in-existence (I exist therefore existence is of transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity to my human-subpotency / hyperbole-of-temporal-to-intemporal-ontological-performance--<including-virtue-asontology>) as spirit failed to universalise and so Heidegger couldn’t carry the effective implications of his work to its true universal conclusion as he was caught up in the ‘reactionary construal’ of them-and-us, as his commitment to the ‘us’ overlooked/didn’t-come-into-grips with what the ‘us’ was doing, not to mention the possibility of him actually acting as transcendental over the them-and-us as a position of making a \(^\text{10}\) universal ‘response construal’. This problem isn’t particular to Heidegger but for the fact that the underlying regime of ‘us’ were the Nazis, as the them-and-us logic is intellectually rampant such that even Derrida was being condemned by many for not adopting it. The question can be asked whether any genuine intellectualism as providing a ‘response construal’ for humankind overall can construe of emancipation \(^\text{2}\) ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^\text{99}\) in them-and-us basis and whether this isn’t a recipe for potential disaster as all them-and-us rationale are just variances of the same insanity! We can imagine that a true understanding and \(^\text{10}\) universal application of Derrida’s spirit insight as a ‘response construal’ could have educated thought-and-intellectualism and prevent say the subsequent Rwanda and Burundi genocides in Africa from occurring with many supposedly normal and educated persons caught up in the overall mobbishness; but such a lesson can hardly come out from the prevalent them-and-us lazy intellectualism ‘reactionary construal’ which simply provides <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag comfort to protagonists by its lack-of or pseudo \(^\text{10}\) universal projection. Basically, a phenomenological extended metaphysics-of-absence–(implicit–epistemic-veracity–nonpresencing–perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>) as of notional–deprocrypticism perspective points out that humankind does have the possibilities of adopting an uninhibited/decomplexified posture for ‘inventing’ a whole new renewal/re-percepting/re-thinking beyond our apparently constricted metaphysics-of-presence–(implicit–‘nondescript/ignorable–void’–as-to–presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’) framework which in reality is just presence ‘hyperbolic dazing effect’ utterly distinct from the radical ontology possibilities of existence/existential-possibilities. transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity as implied here is with regards to \(^\text{83}\) reference-of-thought/epistemic-totalisation level ‘reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming–ofmeaningfulness’ which is the ‘ontologically veridical enabling notion of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity’ as of the-very-same-immanent-existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality,-as-to-'human<amplituding/formative– epistemicity>totalising~purview-of-construal’ in epistemic-confletedness as of underlying relative-ontological-incompleteness and relative-ontological-completeness reference-of-thought. Such a conceptualisation of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity is actually what a Kantian transcendental imagination and other subsequent philosophies of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity it inspired would have strove to arrive at, but according to this author wrongly understood transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity rather as of ‘phenomenal-abstractiveness’ as the basis/grounding to then construe/conceptualise ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ failing to factor in that ‘existential phenomenal-abstractiveness conlates-in-effecting-wholeness-as-of-

Such a conflatedness insight as of notional-deprocripticism rather points out that soundness-or-ontological-good-faith/authenticity of meaningfulness-and-teleology ontological-performance including-virtue-as-ontology arises as of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion-as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of meaningfulness-and-teleology involving the ontological-contiguity of the-human-institutionalisation-process induced various consciousnesses up to the protensive-consciousness enabling transcendental centered–epistemic-totalisation, as of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening. Actually, this author holds that the very fundamental handicapping issue to meaningfulness-and-teleology as of the philosophical tradition lies in the naïve human mental-reflex of implying that ‘a given human determination of the effecting basis/foundation/axiomatic-construct derived/deciphered from existential-instantiations as underlying the presence institutionalisation <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating thought-devolving-as-of-instantiative-context meaningfulness-and-teleology reference-of-carries-and-reflects all the depth/profoundness of existence/existential-possibilities’, thus not allowing for the possibility for further imbricatedness/threadedness/recomposuring as of existence/existential-possibilities of existential-instantiations outside any such reference-of-thought determination; such reference-of-thought determination being affixed rather in constitutedness as of any of the various registry-worldviews/dimensions specific underlying apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument reference-of-thought such as ‘non-rules—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism,–as-impulsive-or-accidented-or-random-mental-disposition of recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation’ not cognisant of the conflatedness possibility of prospective base-institutionalisation prospective relative-ontological-completeness\(^7\)-of-\(^7\) reference-of-thought, ‘rulemaking-over-non-rules—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism of base-institutionalisation—ununiversalisation’ not cognisant of the conflatedness\(^7\) possibility of prospective universalisation prospective relative-ontological-completeness\(^7\)-of-\(^7\) reference-of-thought, ‘universalisation-directed-rulemaking-over-non-rules—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism of universalisation—non-positivism/medievalism’ not cognisant of the conflatedness\(^7\) possibility of prospective positivism prospective relative-ontological-completeness\(^7\)-of-\(^7\) reference-of-thought, and in our case ‘positivising/rational-empiricism-based-universalisation-directed-rulemaking-over-non-rules—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism of positivism–procrypticism’ not cognisant of the conflatedness\(^7\) possibility of futural Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^9\) as of prospective notional–deprocrypticism prospective relative-ontological-completeness -of- reference-of-thought. Such that it thus construes as absolutely reflecting existence/existential-possibilities by operations of elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity\(^8\) on the basis of that given determination reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology\(^9\) with the consequence that its constitutedness\(^1\), since it doesn’t allows for superseding existence/existential-possibilities, now ‘contradictorily-and-naively supersedes-and-is-determinative-of existence itself’ rather than taking its cue from the conflatedness\(^7\) of existence/existential-possibilities given the imbricatedness/threadedness/recomposuring of existential-instantiations and as reflected at registry-worldview/dimension depth of construal as of reference-of-thought; as it then fails to grasp that ‘there is no understanding to be had outside the conflatedness\(^7\) of existence as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness -of- reference-of-thought’ with any such conceptualisation being nothing but vague virtuality that is not as of ontological-contiguity and ontological-veracity. Thus the problem of the philosophical tradition is notionally one of erroneous constitutedness, and this issue is recurrent-beyond-historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing-with-the-latter-only-a-bi-manifestation-of-the-recurrence,-as-psychically-recurrent as of human shallow-to-deepening-limited-mentation-capacity,-as-limited-mentation-capacity-deepening due to inherent human temporality /shortness and intemporality/longness across all registry-worldviews/dimensions, and speaks of a human existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought disposition reflected as historicity/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing as of the notional-conflatedness of notional-deprocrypticism behind the reality of a conceptualisation of human nature rather more completely as of institutionalisation and uninstitutionalised-threshold mental-dispositions. As highlighted before: consciousness is the point-of-focus <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising-conflated meaningfulness-and-teleology-as-of-notional-deprocrypticism-reflected historicity/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing ontological-performance <including-virtue-as-ontology>, so-derived as it solipsistically constructs-and-reconstructs underlying ‘coherence/contiguity-of-superseding-oneness-of-ontology-implied-as-of-inherent-existence-coherence/contiguity,-and-so-construed-as-the-enabler-of-insight-or-intuition-or-foresight-as-of-embodied-consciousness’ (so-enabled by underlying supposedly coherent ontological-commitment as of ontological-prime-movers-totalitative-framework.<amplituding/formative-epistemicity>causality-as-to-projective-totalitative-implications,-for-explicating-ontological-contiguity and not any notion of vague innateness besides existentially inherent human-subpotency potential to manifest as human) and developing meaninglessness-and-teleology as of understanding/reconstruing/correcting/adapting/maturing, taking its cue from the conflatedness of existential-instantiations successions as it construes of existence/existential-historicality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing as of the conflatedness of the successive human consciousnesses as of its reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-dementating/structuring/paradigmating–of-meaningfulness’. Thus consciousness by its full development as of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology speaks fundamentally of the entire narrative possibilities of the human species as of human sublimation-inducing—textuality/hermeneutics/possibilities-of-becoming-existential-interpretation/axiomatisation-of-existence. Such ‘consciousness conflatedness’ is reflected by the signifying mirroring of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ that is language as of its metaphoricity. Metaphoricity can thus be construed as the signification of articulated meaningfulness-and-teleology as of reference to existential-instantiation contexts adjunctively and not as naturally devolving into the ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ as signification of reference-of-thought, such that metaphoricity is rather an ‘adjunctive incorporation’ to the ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’. The ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ as of its self-referencing meaningfulness-and-teleology is always susceptible to the further deepening of human limited-mentation-capacity as of <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought such that prospective meaningfulness-and-teleology arises out of the adjunction to this ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ and is adjoined to it as metaphoricity, with metaphoricity construed as the signification implied as of syncretising-effecting meaningfulness-and-teleology. Thus language effectively reflects the totalising-self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag reality of human meaningfulness-and-teleology, as language is always a blending of the ‘underlying totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ with the conflatedness adjunction of its metaphoricity. It is interesting to grasp here that a signifying-construct as signification of ‘the self-referencing of meaningfulness-and-teleology’ is always totalising/circumscribing/delineating and is effectively signifying a reference-of-thought as of reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-dementating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’. Such centered-totalising/circumscribing/delineating meaningfulness-and-teleology construed as reference-of-thought, and its signification as implied by an ‘underlying totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ necessarily has to do with the fact that meaningfulness-and-teleology is as of a coherence/contiguity-of-superseding–oneness-of-ontology-implied-as-of-inherent-existence-coherence/contiguity, and so construed as the-enabler-of-insight-or-intuition-or-foresight-as-of-embodied-consciousness (so-enabled by underlying supposedly coherent ontological-commitment as of ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework for-explicating-ontological-contiguity and not any notion of vague innateness besides existentially inherent human-subpotency potential to manifest as human) for intelligibility to arise, thus is construed as reference-of-thought as of the the-very-same-immanent-existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality, as-to-human-totalising-purview-of-construal; as we know intuitively that meaning is always about the-one-meaning as well as a perspective/framing/reference/horizon were all the-oneepistemicity-totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’, and finally LEAVING-OUT some significations of the prior ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity-totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ and so together with some adjunctive-metaphoricity-significations of the prior ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity-totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’, as its very own as the prospective ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity-totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ adjunctive-metaphoricity-significations to which other adjunctive-metaphoricity-significations could be incorporated adjunctively. Effectively, with the positivism/rational-empiricism self-referencing <amplituding/formative–epistemicity-totalising/circumscribing/delineating construct of meaningfulness-and-teleology, its adjunctive-metaphoricity-signification can be construed as of the historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing of crossgenerational positivism/rational-empiricism reappropriation of the ancient mathesis universalis metaphoricity as its very own ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity-totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ ‘behind the instigative-drive for construing all human knowledge’ by such enlightenment thinkers like Galileo and ubiquitously with Descartes that rolled-over into later thinkers like Leibniz, Newton, and ultimately subverted medievalism and scholasticism leading to our present positivism/rational-empiricism dominant <amplituding/formative–epistemicity-totalising/circumscribing/delineating construct of meaningfulness-and-teleology. Existence itself as the absolute a priori underscores such a conception given the human species sublimation-inducing—textuality/hermeneutics/possibilities-of-becoming-existential-interpretation/axiomatisation-of-existence as of existential-stakes migration; since the existential dispositions of human subjects relative to social-stake-contention-or-confliction formation, and the cultural diffusion associated pidginisation and creolisation; as of social-stake-contention-or-confliction context adjunctive-metaphoricity-\textsuperscript{significations conflatedness} induced ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of languages’. In another respect with regards to language acquisition as mirroring a child’s existential integration into the dynamics of social-construct existential situations/instances, stakes, institutions and processes, a new born child existential integration into society, from its perspective, develops as of a dynamics of adjunctive-metaphoricity-\textsuperscript{significations in ‘significations accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay construed here as the phenomenology of human language acquisition différance’ that fundamentally mirror the child’s developing existential social relationships as an ordered process of social existential overtures constraining-and-cohering the child’s adoption-of/integration-with the supposedly ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ as of a peculiar, intuitive and dynamic developing metaphoricity\textsuperscript{significations in ‘both the child and members of the overall social-construct existentially adjust to each other as of spurious meaningful utterances like mutual babbling and baby-talk’ while implicitly converging towards the child’s adoption/integration at various stages of its existential development of the ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ as it is reflected by the dynamics of social-construct existential situations/instances, stakes, institutions and processes. But then as might be phenomenologically appreciated the notion of language as of its existential import is thus utterly dynamic as an overall signification construct that is never ‘absolutely present’ but rather ‘immensely existentially present’ with an ‘absolute language signification construct imagery rather implied as of projection/anticipation but not phenomenologically real’ explaining the concrete variation of individuals linguistic performance, as the phenomenality of language is rather held together by ‘the given social-setup underlying supposedly coherent ontological-commitment for its evolving-and-devolving construct of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’! Thus phenomenologically, ‘language arises, ebbs and flows as of a continuously-elusive individual and collective-social consciousness steering that reflects the<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syneretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag dynamics of individual and collective-social ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’, and this equally explains why language evolves and transforms over time. In effect, ‘language is never phenomenologically the complete possibilities of language as an absolute present conception but is rather a becoming as of an immensely-existentially-present signification reflected by individuals and the collective-social along existential development stages as of the dynamics of social-construct existential situations/instances, stakes, institutions and processes’. The above insight further points out the pertinence of construing-of and analysing language more completely as of human existentialism/thrownness/facticity, giving that language is more phenomenologically-and-pragmatically a signification accompaniment of ‘individuals and the collective-social along existential development stages as of the dynamics of social-construct existential situations/instances, stakes, institutions and processes’. This highlights the ‘knowledge implications as of accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay with regards to such a phenomenological conception of language as a lockstep veridical reflection of human personality development all along the various existential stages as of a notion of the dynamics of social-construct existential situations/instances, stakes, institutions and processes from childhood to adulthood’, notwithstanding the fact that the privileged social conceptualisation of language is as of ‘language as the complete possibilities of language as of an absolute present conception usually of a privileged end-institution purpose’. metaphoricity is thus rather construed as of its overall conflatedness\(^1\) causality\(^2\) as-to-projective-totalitative-implications,-for-explicating-ontological-contiguity\(^3\) of full consciousness development as of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion-as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of-meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^9\) underlying human sublimation-inducing—textuality/hermeneutics/possibilities-of-becoming-existential-interpretation/axiomatisation-of-existence\(^1\), beyond just mere figurativeness but as of figurative projected implications of individuals and the collective-social meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^9\) as of their peculiarity/differentiation to the entire textual/hermeneutic/reprojective rhetorical-stylistic-semantic delivery, and as such metaphoricity\(^9\) induces totalising/circumscribing/delineating signification in producing, as of accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay, ‘underlying totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ and together with its associated adjunctive-metaphoricity-significations. Overall, human explicit and implicit signification as of language as articulated above is equally reflected in human aesthetics/arts like music and even science. Ultimately, human adjunctive-metaphoricity-significations conflatedness\(^1\) reflecting syncretising-effecting superseding of human self-referencing signifying-constructs as of the need to supersede the limited certitude as of human limited-mentation-capacity, inherently implies that the possibility for ‘absolute certitude as of its theoretical possibility’ lies with such an adjunctive-metaphoricity-significations conflatedness\(^1\) as of syncretising-effecting as ultimately converging towards a deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought and so as of the prospect of an ontologically-veridical Theory of Everything, and insightfully with regards to elucidating the pervasiveness of ‘accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay’ construed as différance in conflatedness\(^1\) associated with human existential grasp of knowledge as of the implications of its limited-mentation-capacity. The notion of accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay\(^2\) as underlying human limited-mentation-capacity induced différance highlights the phenomenological reality all along humanity’s existence of ‘the privileging of ontological-construction’ as from the perspective/framing/reference/horizon of the end-purpose of the various relevant dominant social agencies and social institutions, and so as reflected as of humanity’s existence of ‘historiality/ontological-eventfulness’/ontological-aesthetic-tracing. While such a privileging as of immediate/instant existential implications like say parents and society privileging the conception of what is language in terms—as-of-axiomatic-construct of its end-purpose as of the perspective of the child’s integration in various social structures and institutions; however, in the bigger picture the fact that social structures and social institutions dysfunction as of human limited-mentation-capacity, point to the ‘ontological-veracity of fundamentally re-evaluating the pertinence of only-a-social-and-institutional-end-purpose-perspective/framing/reference/horizon driven basis for ontological-construction’, and so as of a putting into question exercise. Ultimately, such privileged perspective/framing/reference/horizon as of its ‘non-recording and negation’ of a ‘diverse-and-complete existential effecting possibilities accountability for ontological-construction’, and rather assuming the approach of a ‘select privileged ‘historiality/ontological-eventfulness’/ontological-aesthetic-tracing ontological-construction’, instead incompletely portrays the operant reality of humanity’s existence as of the cumulation of successive humanity’s <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag as implied with the various institutionalisations finalities. But then while that is pertinent, and so with regards to the successive institutionalisations outcomes of ‘intemporal ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-

same physics <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-verification/existential-reality’, but will grasp the deeper-level phenomenological insight with regards to all the background efforts and contributions that ultimately brought about these two successive <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag construed as the ‘historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing of the différance. The implication here resonates with the idea that knowledge is much more than the construal of conceptual knowledge outcome, but rather its construal as notional–knowledge involving the dynamic understanding of both its temporality/misconstrual and intemporality-as-ontological-construal as of accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay involving specifically disambiguation as of human limited-mentation-capacity dynamics as of deneuterising—referentialism and thus beyond ‘neuterising’ reflecting the difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising of the uninstitutionalised-threshold and the prospective institutionalisation; as the ‘effecting implications of knowledge’ are more than just about its conceptualised intemporality/as-ontology but involves grasping this together with the implications of temporality, and so because of the circular existential implications of human limited-mentation-capacity. Hence language can be more pertinently construed ontologically as of the social dynamics of existential meaningfulness-and-teleology signification than just as of just an outcome privileged institutional end-purpose perspective/framing/reference/horizon that is in many ways ad-hoc and phenomenologically uninsightful as of the many existential implications behind comprehending language. Thus human privileged social and institutional end-purpose perspective/framing/reference/horizon tend to be in constitutedness. Further such accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay is the existentially veridical and effective basis for reflecting ‘historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing transcendental outcome as can be implied in a storied-construct/ontologically-valid-narration as of existentially insightful meaningfulness-and-teleology\footnote{1}. Such a perspective should possibly usher in a ‘suprastructural postmodernism in everything’ including such nascent contemplations for breaking out of currently perceived subject-matter doldrums as implied with postmodern social sciences, postmodern humanities, postmodern art, postmodern science, postmodern mathematics and postmodern physics, and so notwithstanding a history of post-structuralism critiques of ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity ‘with moronic incantations that fail the mark of even bad intellectual arguments as social-aggregation-enabling invocations’, granted as of their beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology\footnote{2} ←〈in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought〉; as such a statement is not gratuitous given the mere fact that where knowledge-as-of-organic-knowledge as of human intemporality\footnote{3}/longness doesn’t take its due place, it is occupied by ignorance as of human temporality /shortness with consequent nefarious ramifications for Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of– meaningfulness-and-teleology\footnote{4}. Basically, just as the adjunctive-metaphoricity\footnote{5}-signification instigation of positivistic rationality as a potent construct took the form of a centered–epistemic-totalisation permeating all aspects and subject-matter domains of human existence and so for the better with regards to Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of– meaningfulness-and-teleology\footnote{6}, postmodern-thought and as of its underlying phenomenological depth transcendentally carries prospective Being adjunctive-metaphoricity –signification as of a potent construct for a centered–epistemic-totalisation permeation and sublimation of all aspects and subject-matter domains of human existence, and so for the better of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of– meaningfulness-and-teleology\footnote{7}. Such phenomenology as the ‘deepest phenomenological transcendental-point-of-departure handle as of the notional–conflatedness of notional–deprocrypticism deneuterising—referentialism’ is operantly enabled by accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay and is the maximal ontologically veridical articulation of conflatedness that ‘undermines the privileging of <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag as of its ubiquitous-protractedness as to de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic ‘ontological-contiguity or difference-of-kind’ disposition, and so beyond just reflecting such ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness privilege undermining as of transcendental outcomes implied by ‘historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing. While the ‘Derridean quasi-transcendental-freeplay différance’ by its rather quasi-transcendental-freeplay orientation doesn’t quite get to such a phenomenological depth of conflatedness, it does effectively elicit such an underlying conception of phenomenological profoundness. As such a ‘Derridean quasi-transcendental-freeplay différance’ is what is meant to be understood as a relatively more pertinent ontologically depth for such a more evolved and ‘experimental’ articulation of différance in the strive to maximally undermine <amplitudding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag implied in the Glas experimental project which goal is well beyond the two texts but more fundamentally a demonstration of ‘sublimation-inducing—textuality/hermeneutics/possibilities-of-becoming-existential-interpretation/axiomatisation-of-existence’ as multifaceted. Ultimately, ‘Derridean quasi-transcendental-freeplay différance’ unsuspectingly points out that ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology imply by default a given perspective/framing/reference/horizon, such that as of a <amplitudding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology facet it is then already compromising nonpresencing–or–withdrawal–or–metaphysics-of-absence{(implicated-epistemic-veracity-of- nonpresencing-Thus, this author holds that such a ‘Derridean quasi-transcendental-freeplay différance’ is fundamentally incomplete as of comparison with the implied conflatedness of accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay which is truly transcendental. The former fails to factor in that human limited-mentation-capacity has to establish the appropriate ‘perspective/framing/reference/horizon implications’ with regards to meaningfulness-and-teleology, and so as disambiguating presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness from nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> by their respective supererogatory-acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness—of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument, such that unsuspectingly the ‘Derridean quasi-transcendental-freeplay différance’ not doing that rather represents the presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness as the common perspective/framing/reference/horizon for both, thus falsely pointing to ‘difference-in-kind/difference-in-aposteriorising-or-logicising between presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness and nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> (rather than difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising), and so contradictorily as if both are of the presencing supererogatory-acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness—of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument. With the reality that nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> is wrongly-and-unsuspectingly given as of common presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness, thus inducing a relative ontologically-flawed quasi-transcendental freeplay as nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> is rather in notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity—of-shallow-supererogation—of-mentally-

accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay is akin to the complete ‘epistemic-break’, as of Einstein’s defining-threshold contribution with the theory-of-relativity and Bohr’s defining-threshold atomic-model contribution to quantum-mechanics together with other seminal scientists subsequent contributions that ultimately led to ‘the very same physics amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality’ transcendence-and-sUBLIMITY/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity as of the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs interpretation as of nonpresencing-perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>. In any case thus such a ‘Derridean quasi-transcendental-freeplay différance’ doesn’t have any serious ontological consequences with respect to presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness since it is reflected with the Glas experimental project, but it fails to recognise the possibility of a futural différance where meaningfulness-and-teleology is construed as of the prospective nonpresencing-perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence supererogatory–acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness–of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuring-instrument which points to a prospective relative-ontological-completeness/ontological-contiguity as of the very same amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–devolved—purview-as-domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality; even though it is the first step towards such a futural différance transcendence-and-sUBLIMITY/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity. It equally explains such a Derridean conclusion that human sublimation is an always evasive notion given its failure to recognise the difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising as of the transcendental implications of prospective nonpresencing-perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence in inducing sublimation, with such a difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising arrived at by human limited-mentation-
capacity-deepening\textsuperscript{52} as of \textsuperscript{1}de-mentation-(supererogatory-ontological-de-mentation-or-dialectical-de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics) involving ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality driven re-projection/re-anticipation as of prospective apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument about ‘coherence/contiguity-of-superseding—oneness-of-ontology-implied-as-of-inherent-existence-coherence/contiguity,-and-so-construed-as-the-enabler-of-insight-or-intuition-or-foresight-as-of-embodied-consciousness’ (so-enabled by underlying supposedly coherent ontological-commitment\textsuperscript{55} as of ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{56} <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>causality-as-to-projective-totalitative–implications,-for-explicating-ontological-contiguity\textsuperscript{6} and not any notion of vague innateness besides existentially inherent human-subpotency potential to manifest as human), and validated as of ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{57}; as of ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality ‘promise of correspondence between human-subpotency as of Being-and-consciousness development and existence as of ontological-veridicality’. It is interesting again to note that the so-renewed ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating of physics’ as the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs as of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity, is not arbitrarily arising from any human-subpotency\textsuperscript{7} presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness\textsuperscript{8} but is rather divulged-as-of-relative-ontological-contiguity\textsuperscript{9} from existence-potency~sublimating–nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-

This ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ centered—epistemic-totalisation-inducing—transcendence-and-sublimity/sublation/supererogatory—de-mentativity metaphoricity thus perfectly satisfies the ‘foreboding concern for ontological-veracity’ critically pursued by the Derridean freeplay différance, as it is existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation—and—existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation—<as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied—‘prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’> that phenomenological validates transcendence-and-sublimity/sublation/supererogatory—de-mentativity, and so implying human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening; and thus, this point that enables the Derridean freeplay différance as of tendential-deliberation-of-decidability to achieving transcendence-and-sublimity/sublation/supererogatory—de-mentativity is the full conflatedness reflecting existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation—and—existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation—<as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied—‘prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’> in its ‘nonpresencing—<perspective—ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>, and so beyond just a Derridean freeplay différance which is then in constitutedness as not factoring in the process of a tendential-deliberation-of-decidability towards attaining transcendence-and-sublimity/sublation/supererogatory—de-mentativity. Insightfully, we can grasp that the Derridean freeplay différance becomes as of constitutedness because ‘reasoning itself has become defective’ as presupposing-by-the-Derridean-freeplay to supersede existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation—and—existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-

We can appreciate that the medieval mindset reasons in terms of medievalism–non-positivism just as we reason in terms of our positivism–procrypticism mindset. The question can thus be asked is there more profound meaningfulness-and-teleology beyond any given registry-worldview/dimension mindset divulgeable by existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation—and-existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation <-as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied-'prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming'>? It is herein that we get into the realm of ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality as of de-mentation-(supererogatory—ontological—de-mentation-or-dialectical—de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics) inducible apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument. In other words, under sufficient constraint of existence/existential-reality-itself given its absolute a priori status, as reflected by ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework /contingency, human intemporal individuation is predisposed to put in question even a ‘registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag established existential–epistemic-totalisation-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology’ as of a reconstrual of reference-of-thought and devolving-axiomatic-constructs implications, and so as of maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframedconceptualisation. This insight about ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality further reveals that prospective 'nonpresencing' implies prospective renewal of attitude/mental-disposition/care—de-metation—supererogatory—ontological—de-mentation—stranding—attributive—dialectics) which at once draws out the renewed implications of what qualifies as affirmation/projection/assertion/dueness-validating-logicising/suitable-measuringinstrument-validating-measuring—as-to-postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking—with-apriorising-psychologism> and unaffirmation/deprojection/de-assertion/undueness-invalidating-logicising/unsuitable-measuringinstrument-invalidating-measuring—as-to-preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism> respectively as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness—of-axiomatic-construct-or-reference-of-thought and prior relative-ontological-incompleteness. In this regard we can imagine as of ‘the very same physics’—amplituding/formative—epistemicity—totalising—devolved—unenframed-conceptualisation articulation of such ideas as space-time, considering the ether as unreal, considering that the laws of physics are different at atomic scale, etc. as the fundamental basis for understanding the new physics as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness—of-reference-of-thought. Such a construal as a shift in axiomatic-construct is more-or-less within the same positivism/rational-empiricism registry-worldview, though it might pretty much be argued that the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs marks the beginning of a proto-postmodern science as of the fundamental human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposing-constructivism-towards-singularisation developments in physics since then, even though its meaningfulness-and-teleology remains intelligible, more or less, to the positive science essentially by the modern conception of observational and experimental validation. However, the idea of requisite shift in attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme from that simplistic ‘modern conception’ cannot be contested. Such an attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme implied shift as articulated above, construed as of an overall registry-worldview/dimension reference-of-thought transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity is rather ‘massively distressing’ when implied ‘as of an instant of transitioning’ since the reality of such attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme transitioning have tended to take place rather crossgenerationally as of human beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology.<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>. As we can now imagine the transitioning of positivism/rational-empiricism attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme from earlier crude conceptualisations of positivism/rational-empiricism as presently reflecting a more universal valid notion of positivism/rational-empiricism as of its spread worldwide and profoundness in today’s societies. Interestingly, this transitioning nature of human attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme renewal manifestation as of the social collective evolution, and is equally reflected in the individual as-receptacle-of-temporal-to-intemporal-individuations-ontological-performance <including-virtue-as-ontology>; as at any given moment individuals and society are rather inclined to adopt an attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme of dual-language/split-mentality as of <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–thrownness-in-existence (I exist therefore existence is of transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity to my human-subpotency / hyperbole-of-temporal-to-intemporal-ontological-performance <including-virtue-as-ontology>). The implied notion of human emancipation is always being articulated in an.
existentially dual-language/split-mentality that on the one hand fails the implied emancipation and on the other hand implies a strife for such emancipation. Consider in this regard, the attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme of warring nations in the early 19th century all too ready to arm themselves massively in preparation for the world wars and equally very much aware of the need for international peace, or in the 18th and 19th centuries the dual-language/split-mentality of universal human rights and ending slavery in the new world and the slave trade on the one hand and on the other still practicing it up to the point of wars like the American civil war to bring an end to it. In a more prosaic note, the dual-language/split-mentality associated with the evasiveness of emancipatory social and political dispositions as of relevant settings and contexts. In fact, this author will surmise that in many ways we already carry inklings of postmodern deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care—and–episteme as of the dual-language/split-mentality at appropriate contexts and settings extolling our liberality with progressive stakes while in other secluded settings and contexts espouse a damning language regarding such progressive stakes. The idea of requisite attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme renewal as implied for notional ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality induced transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supercracy—de-mentativity speaks of a ‘reality as of underlying human beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology’–<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>, that reflects a human tacit awareness that the grounding of its meaningfulness-and-teleology is not-certain-as-absolute at any given moment, and that it should be prepared to shift its attitude/mental-disposition/care—and–episteme for more profound-and-complete meaningfulness-and-teleology. While such an inclination is more forthcoming as of less profound-and-perceived personal existential implications with regards to the axiomatic-constructs within a reference-of-thought as articulated priorly with a shift for the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs within the positivism/rational-empiricism reference-of-thought, however, as of more profound-and-perceived personal existential implications as drastically implied at the phenomenological depth of reference-of-thought transcendental conceptualisation this turns out to be much more difficult to countenance given individuals ‘mental and existential investment’ into meaningfulness-and-teleology as grounded on a given ‘registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag established existential–epistemic-totalisation-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology as of prospective notional–deprocrypticism is exactly the capacity to construe meaningfulness-and-teleology as of full/complete human consciousness implications as implied by its protensive-consciousness which ultimately doesn’t allow for beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology - <in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> arising as of human prior relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought. The fact is the ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality conflatedness implication with respect to existence-potency–sublimating–nascence,—disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,—in-supereogatory–epistemic-conflatedness is such that in reality we are always tacitly aware of the evasiveness of absolute certainty but often rather inclined as of practicality to hang on to a delusion of the results of prior nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> as if of absolute certainty, so-construed as reasoning-from-results/afterthought. But then veridical absolute certainty is ever a promise always held in prospective existence-potency–sublimating–nascence, disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–renewing–realisation/re-perception/re-thought–in–supererogatory–epistemic-conflatedness relative-ontological-completeness of apriorising/axiomatising/referencing, and so as of the certainty of human limited-mentation-capacity prospective relative-ontological-completeness–of-axiomatic-construct-or reference-of-thought causality–as-to-projective-totalitative–implications, for explicating-ontological-contiguity for transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity, implied as of intemporal-preservation-entropy-or-contiguity–or–ontological-preservation. This explains why ontology’s-directedness-as-Being is the direction of meaningfulness-and-teleology grounding as always prospective as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness of reference-of-thought; and so, as of the successive base-institutionalisation, universalisation, positivism and notional–deprocrypticism registry-worldviews/dimensions nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> respectively as successive meaningfulness-and-teleology grounding for recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, base-institutionalisation–ununiversalisation, universalisation–non-positivism/medievalism, and positivism–procrypticism presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness. Interestingly we can appreciate that the attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme as of relevant existential issues of all the prior registry-worldviews/dimensions reference-of-thought are wanting-as-relatively-ontologically-flawed from our positivism–procrypticism as prospective perspective/framing/reference/horizon of meaningfulness-and-teleology. However, we are quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs actually reflects that prior conceptually-notions like ‘space’, ‘time’, ‘ether’ and ‘the laws of physics at atomic scale had to be the same as at the macroscale’, were all wrong. Thus ‘speaking of the reality of human limited-mentation-capacity as of its existential analytic capacity’ in a state of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness⁴⁷-of-reference-of-thought. It is human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening⁴⁷ as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness⁴⁷-of-reference-of-thought as subsequently assuming as more real the notion of ‘space-time’, ‘considering the ether as unreal’, ‘considering that the laws of physics are different at atomic scale from the macroscale’, etc. that as of the human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation exercise brought about the more profound insight enabling the conception of the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs ultimately validated as of ontological-prime-movers-totalitative-framework⁴⁷ by existence-potency-sublimating-nascence-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-amplituding/formative-epistemicity-totalising-renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought-in-supererogatory-epistemic-conflatedness; as all along humankind existence as of human-subpotency, the new reality so-espoused ‘is never about existence in itself as-existence-is-given-whatever-it-is-that-is-given’, but about human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening⁴⁷ for human emancipation. Thus implying existence-potency-sublimating-nascence-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-amplituding/formative-epistemicity-totalising-renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought-in-supererogatory-epistemic-conflatedness is ‘not really about any variation as of the human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation directed directly to inherent-existence-as-of-existential-reality/existence-potency-sublimating-nascence-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-amplituding/formative-epistemicity-totalising-renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought thought,-in-supererogatory-epistemic-conflatedness/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality whatever’, as it rather comes down to the human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation as of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening bringing about a more profound and complete grounding for human construing of the full-potency of existence, which remains-whatever-it-is-ultimately. The postmodern insight here is rather that what is relevant to humankind is human-subpotency development towards the abstract full-potency of existence-whatever-it-is-ultimately. So the notion of human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation has nothing to do with the inherent nature of existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality. Rather it has to do with ‘enlightening human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation of human limited-mentation-capacity which needs to be deepened before humankind embarks on the task of ‘conceptualising meaningfulness-and-teleology’ that increasingly reflects existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridical’. Thus this actually lead to ‘more and more objective meaningfulness-and-teleology’ as we cannot argue that the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs is less objective than classical-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs since it involved the human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation that led to human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening. Quite the contrary, it is that exercise in inducing prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-axiomatic-construct-or-reference-of-thought that brings about greater objectivity, as reflected in the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process behind Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of-meaningfulness-and-teleology. That naivety in failing to grasp this lies in the ontologically-flawed mental-reflex of temporal <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising~self-referencingsyncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag, wherein mental-dispositions operate by default without a double-gesturing, on the ‘wrong assumption that they already have the most ontologically-developed perspective/framing/reference/horizon for grasping prospective meaningfulness-and-teleology; and failing to project/anticipate prospectively the implications of their very own shallow limited-mentation-capacity implications from a deeper prospectively-construed perspective/framing/reference/horizon. Such a ‘modern take’ is susceptible to construe of the presence as of metaphysics-of-presence--(implicit-‘nondescript/ignorable–void’-as-to-presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness /illusion-of-the-present/present-consciousness/mirage, with hardly any contemplation of the retrospective and prospective projective-insights for construing ontologically-veridical meaningfulness-and-teleology. This paradox for human knowledge, as implied with the postmodern double-gesture reification, highlights that the human de-mentating/structuring/paradigming for construing knowledge is similar to H.G. Well’s country of the blind narrative, with the more critical issue being about ‘human blindness which needs to be resolved first before proceeding to see’, as what is to be seen as of the world is already given-whatever-it-is, and our true issue-as-of-knowledge is to develop the necessary human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation limited-mentation-capacity-deepening to see it. This fundamentally underlies the idea of apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument/reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming–of-meaningfulness’ as underlying a given registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought for meaningfulness-and-teleology conceptualisation and ontological-performance <-including-virtue-as-ontology>. In registry-worldview/dimension terms, the naivety of ‘failing to recognise that human limited-mentation-capacity deepens by human-subject-emancipatory-relativismdriven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation’ paradoxically and ridiculously amounts rather to construing of a prospective registry-worldview/dimension institutionalisation’s reference-of-thought as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness reference-of-thought in terms of the prior registry-worldview/dimension uninstitutionalised-threshold’s reference-of-thought as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness reference-of-thought as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness reference-of-thought in terms of the prior registry-worldview/dimension uninstitutionalised-threshold’s reference-of-thought as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness reference-of-thought as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness reference-of-thought. The argument traditionally made about postmodern-thought as ‘sceptical with regards to ontologically-flawed-metanarratives/ideologies and the lack of objectivity of meaning’ is a wrongly articulated/made argument ontologically, since it is being wrongly articulated/made from the ‘modern perspective/frame/reference/horizon’ which is actually in prior relative-ontological-incompleteness reference-of-thought as of a shallower limited-mentation-capacity (as to ‘redounding/wavering/waveforming—of-the-referencing-and-the-devolved-referencing-imbued-ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology> as to presublimation and nascent-sublimations overlapping-contiguity-of-referencing-and-devolved-referencing’ associated with historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition) and thus has to be decentered-as-preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism. Rather the ontologically-veridical articulation of the postmodern argument as of its actual prospective relative-ontological-completeness reference-of-thought which has to be prospectively centered-as-postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking—apriorising-psychologism over the modern take as prospectively decentered-as-preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism, should be affirmatory in articulating that postmodern-thought is about: the appraisal and supplanting of ontologically-flawed-metanarratives/ideologies including socio-econo-political ideologies and ontologically-flawed professed ideologies like demarcating ontological-flawed-ideology-of-science-and-its-distortive-implications from ontologically-veridical-science-in-practice, and its pursuit for the most profound-and-complete objectivity of meaning as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness\(^{17}\) reference-of-thought by renewing appraisal of intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality by human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation\(^{14}\) as of human-subpotency existential-contextualising-contiguity\(^{17}\) conflatedness\(^{17}\), and it is much more than just a naïve notion of a multiplicity of narratives as wrongly implied from the modern take of existentialising—enframing/imprintedness—historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> necessarily subject to ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity\(^{13}\) as of the modern’s take prospective uninstitutionalised-threshold\(^{12}\) of procrypticism or disjointedness—as-of-reference-of-thought in many ways explaining the difficulties of Derrida and Foucault in effectively qualifying their thought postures (when each was asked whether they were poststructuralist) underlied/organised respectively by messianic and parrhesia but rather postmodern-thought is of a prospective ‘relative-ontological-completeness’\(^{17}\) re-originary—as-unenframed/unbeholdening/outlier-conceptualisation—(imbued-postconverging/dialectical-thinking—‘projective-insights’/epistemic-projection-in-conflatedness\(^{12}\)—of-notional—deprocrypticism-prospective-sublimation)\(^{10}\) appraisal of human narratives as to dimensionality-of-sublimating—<amplituding/formative>supererogatory—dementativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness\(^{12}\)/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation’ thus implying rather a notional—deprocrypticism institutionisation ‘unenframed/unbeholdening/bechancing—supererogation parameterisation/reparameterisation—(reflecting—a—supererogatory—decisionality-of-socioinstitutional-conceptions—as-to—‘their-nascent-sublimations—dynamic-preempting-of-presublatory-decisionality—numbing-traction—desublimation’)-as-so-operationalising—‘scalarisation-as-to-rescalarisation-as—re-ontologisation’. The implication here is that hitherto postmodern-thought had been naively and falsely conceptualised within the ‘modern take attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme’.
as of its procrysticism—or—disjointedness-as-of reference-of-thought, instead of implying the ontologically-veridical ‘subverting of the modern take’ by its very own ‘postmodern deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of reference-of-thought apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme’ which prospectively represents the modern as preconverging—or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism while the postmodern is postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking—apriorising-psychologism; as the point of assertion of postmodern-thought as deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of reference-of-thought is actually a point of prospective de-mentation—supererogatory—ontological—de-mentation-or-dialectical—de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics). Of critical insight here is the fact that many postmodern authors like Foucault, Lyotard and Derrida adopted stances as of constructivism, relativism and deconstruction are rather ontologically-veridical observations/remarks/’constatations’ about the conception of social reality from their authentic analysis ‘without going further out-of-the-scope-of-ontological-veracity to ideologise constructivism, relativism and deconstruction beyond their implied ontologically-veridical observations/remarks/constatations’ as many of their critiques poorly misinterpret them; with the implications that their stances are open-ended and receptive to the elucidative justifications for their non-ideologised ontologically-veridical observations/remarks/’constatations’ about the constructivism, relativism and deconstruction manifestation/conception of social reality. Thus the ontologically affirmatory position adopted herein as of the prospective ‘postmodern deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of reference-of-thought apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme’ is not contradictory but rather complementing their positions as it rather reinterprets their observations/remarks/’constations’ as of human limited-mentation-capacity prospective relative-ontological-completeness—or reference-of-thought

The reality of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions–existentialism-form-factor speaking of human shallow-to-deeper limited-mentation-capacity implies that prospective de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic transcendental knowledge by its so-projected intemporality, at the uninstitutionalised-threshold, is not necessarily grasp as intemporal in the overall human social-stake-contention-or-confliction framework as of the lack of universal-transparency\textsuperscript{127}-(transparency-of-totalising-entailing-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising-in-relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{125}) for its prospective institutionalisation. Critical for the social validation and institutionalisation of any dementative/structural/paradigmatic transcendental knowledge is the fact that its ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{72}’ is not sufficiently decisive given that human temporal-to-intemporal nature as of the social-stake-contention-or-confliction framework at the uninstitutionalised-threshold\textsuperscript{122} cannot adjudge-and-commit-to the ontological-pertinence of such prospective transcendental knowledge ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’. Consider in this regard, the ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’ of the prospective positivism/rational-realism transcendental knowledge articulated by the Corpernicuses, Descartes, Galileo, Diderots, etc. as ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99}’ of prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought validated by corresponding prospective ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{72}’. Such ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{72}’ was not a sufficient basis for their ideas to be socially adopted by the medieval establishment social-stake-contention-or-confliction framework at its uninstitutionalised-threshold\textsuperscript{122} as of non-positivism/medievalism. The point being made here is that within a given registry-worldview/dimension institutionalisation framework the idea of ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{72}’ is only more or less determinant as of the institutionalisation’s internal basis of validation of knowledge grounded on its <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology\textsuperscript{99},-for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99} as of its <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating reference-of-thought–devolving’. However, at its uninstitutionalised-threshold\textsuperscript{122} the prospective ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’ as of the prospective institutionalisation’s basis of validation of knowledge grounded on the reference-of-thought-categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology, for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring—meaningfulness-and-teleology of the prospective institutionalisation’s <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating reference-of-thought—devolving’ will not necessarily meet with the approbation of the prior institutionalisation now construed as the uninstitutionalised-threshold, and so as of mutually beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology—in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought. This has to do with the fact that the full-potency of existence that divulges relative ontological-vericality supersedes human-subpotency epistemising orientation towards its, and thus epistemic constructs as of human-subpotency construal are inevitably ad-hoc to ontological-veracity as of the full-potency of existence; as existence doesn’t adjust to human-subpotency with the reverse being true, equally it is human epistemic constructs that ad-hocly adjust to ontological-veracity as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness. Thus while the idea of ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’ as the basis for the validation of knowledge is inherently ontologically veridical as of a given institutionalisation’s internal reference-of-thought-categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology, for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring—meaningfulness-and-teleology of its <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating reference-of-thought—devolving’, however, this is an overrated notion with regards to human social-stake-contention-or-confliction framework at its uninstitutionalised-threshold as external/prospective reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology, for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring—meaningfulness-and-teleology of its <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating 'reference-of-thought'-devolving’, which should and cannot be ignored by any proponent of prospective de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic transcendental knowledge. Rather human social-stake-contention-or-confliction framework fundamentally subscribes to knowledge, given this paradox, as of ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’ induced as of a de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic transcendental knowledge ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’ establishing and upholding it. The idea here is that the inherent and direct notions of positivism/rational-empiricism expounded by the Galileos, Descartes, Diderots, Copernicuses, etc. were not the fundamental basis for the ultimate human social-stake-contention-or-confliction framework validation but rather their derived positive-opportunism that brought about the ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’ implied-by-and-deriving-from their notions of universal human rights and open society, technical advances, better social organisation, etc., then leading to a reasoning-from-results/afterthought institutionalisation and enculturation of such (re-originary–as-unenframed/unbeholding/outlier-conceptualisation-{imbued-postconverging/dialectical-thinking ‘projective-insights’/epistemic-projection-in-conflatedness ‘of-notional–deprocrypticism-prospective-sublimation’) originary/event-of-prospective-ontology-origination positivism/rational-empiricism thought. In other words, human dimensionality-of-sublimating —<amplituding/formative>supererogatory–de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation as inclination to adhere to prospective de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic transcendental knowledge as of its ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’ is very much limited and such prospective ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitativeframework however its ontological-veridicality cannot be naively construed as all that which is needed to effectuate social transformation and transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/superrgatory-de-mentativity. We can appreciate this for instance in the case of cultural diffusion with respect to many a non-modern traditional social-setting where modern day medicine however its overall ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’ over other types of premodern medicine, will often be suspected and avoided as of its poorly established ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’, and it is only after it has been ‘socially habituated-as-institutionalised’ that it has the requisite ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’. This equally manifests as of prospective de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic transcendental knowledge construal, as implied for instance by postmodern-thought and particularly so as postmodern-thought has still been undergoing its full construction. The implication here is that all prospective transcendental ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ superseding uninstitutionalised-threshold do not come about as of simplistic continuity but rather as of epistemic-breaks/epistemic-resetting, involving successive ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’ instigated-and-upheld by the associated successive prospective ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’ de-mentating/structuring/paradigming of ‘reference-of-thought-categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology’,-for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring–meaningfulness-and-teleology’, as of successive prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought. The implication of such an indirect nature of human social-stake-contention-or-confliction framework validation of transcendental knowledge as of ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’ and not just direct ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’ implies that just as prospective de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic transcendental knowledge prospective ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’ could be ‘objected to as of human social-stake-contention-or-confliction framework’ notwithstanding its inherent prospective relative-ontological-completeness -of- reference-of-thought given its prior lack of ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’; any such prospective de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic transcendental knowledge must be construed and thought-out strategically as of its ultimate establishment of ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’ that as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness -of- reference-of-thought supersedes the prior relative-ontological-incompleteness -of- reference-of-thought, just as positivism/rational-empricism superseded non-positivism/medievalism scholasticism. Likewise ‘concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’ ontologically-flawed knowledge can be legitimately overlooked where such knowledge is implied as of priorly established ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’. This latter cases arise with many a bogus social or natural science study and methodology grounded on the ‘mystifying imprimatur’ of positivistic science, as ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’, but then on closer examination turns out to be poorly designed as well as the prevalence of institutional-being-and-craft suboptimal dispositions with regards to truly upholding the science ethos in many situations with regards to the ideal operation and promotion of scientific research; and so, as of human temporal-to-intemporal ontological-performance -<including-virtue-as-ontology> of any ‘reference-of-thought– categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology’,-for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring– meaningfulness-and-teleology”.

often articulated about postmodern-thought that do not capture the postmodern deprocrypticism–or–preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought
disposition/care–and–episteme should be rejected; as the tendency for postmodern-thought to be misconstrued or perverted is not accidental, given the very fact that at its very core postmodern-thought is implying a prospective/new prospective relative-ontologicalcompleteness of reference-of-thought requiring its own apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument. In this regard, central to translating-as-reconceptualising prior and new postmodern-thought as of its very own 'postmodern deprocrypticism–or–preempting—disjointedness-as-of-'reference-of-thought apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’ organic-knowledge is the requirement for an affirmative mental-reflex with postmodern-thought construed ‘as the appraisal and supplanting of ontologically flawed metanarratives and its pursuit for the most profound-and-complete objectivity of meaning, by renewing appraisal of intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality involving its ‘human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation’ as of human existential-contextualising-contiguity'; and it is much more than just a naïve notion of a multiplicity of narratives as wrongly implied from the modern take of existentialising—enframing/imprintedness<as-to->historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> necessarily subject to ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity as of the modern’s take prospective uninstitutionalised-threshold of procrypticism or disjointedness—as-of- reference-of-thought in many ways explaining the difficulties of Derrida and Foucault in effectively qualifying their thought postures (when each was asked whether they were poststructuralist) underlied/organised respectively by messianicity and parrhesia but rather postmodern-thought is of a prospective ‘relative-ontological-completeness re-originary–as-unenframed/unbeholdening/outlier-conceptualisation{(imbued-postconverging/dialectical-thinking ‘-projective-insights’/‘epistemic-projection-in-conflatedness’-of-notional–deprocrypticism-prospective-sublimation) appraisal of human narratives as to dimensionality-of-sublimating —<amplituding/formative>supererogatory–de- mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness’/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation’ thus implication of ‘a metaphysical/ideological advocacy’ as postmodern-thought as to human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towardssingularisation is so with regards to the inherent ontological sublimating human possibility in existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality as to human-subpotency implied human potential, and so as emphasised and reflected with regards to the need for human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening’. We can garner insight about how we tend to misconstrue any attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme that is different from our own ‘present attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme’, whether it is a ‘prior/old/superseded attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme’ or a ‘prospective/new/superseding attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme’. For instance, in the previous articulation of the existential-contextualising-contiguity–lowest-level-reification perception-as-of-badomen with ‘recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme’ given its ‘non-rules—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism,-as-impulsive-or-accidented-or-random-mental-disposition’, the reality is that our mental-devising-representation still remains in our ‘present positivism–procrypticism attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme’ as of its ‘perceptivity-as-of-full-disease-and-scientific-theory-‘human<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~purview-of-construal’, in defining which reference-of-thought apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme is ‘relevant as the attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme of wholly immersed-and-engrossed ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’’. The point being made here is that our natural inclination is never meant to truly-and-comprehensively reflect any prior/old/superseded or prospective/new/superseding attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme by itself but rather in any such exercise always apriorises the ‘present attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’ and then reflect the other attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme referred to posteriorly, and hence the latter is adhocly-and-scantily identified. We can grasp this insight about this natural inclination to uphold-as-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument the ‘present attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’ from the fact that ‘originary contacts’ between two cultures of prospective relative-ontological-completeness-and-incompletenessof reference-of-thought doesn’t mean a wholly immersed-and-engrossed meaningfulness-and-teleology between the cultures, since their natural inclination is to both apriorise ‘their own present attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’ and respectively posteriorise the other culture attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme as of their respectively apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument present attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme; and so, as the framework of any subsequent cultural diffusion metaphoricity. Thus to fully grasp what is implied here ontologically by attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme, beyond the natural inclination, is to understand that attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme as ‘assumed-and-unflinching transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated–motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing’ implies a mental-projection exercise ‘reflecting-and-contemplating a wholly immersed-and-engrossed meaningfulness-and-teleology’ as of their given neuterising-as-of-prior-relative-ontologicl-incompleteness-of reference-of-thought if a ‘prior/old/superseded attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’ or deneuterising –as-of-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness-of reference-of-thought if a ‘prospective/new/superseding attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’, whilst the ‘present attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’ is then rather adhocly-and-scantily identified now as either deneuterising if it in relation to the prior/old/superseded or neuterising if it is in relation to the prospective/new/superseding. In other words, when it comes to registry-worldview/dimension implications, ontologically-veridical representation of attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme means ‘to be or exist as of the given registry-worldview/dimension reference-of-thought’ rather than ‘to refer to’; as the ‘referring to’ natural inclination is ontologically-flawed as it registers into the ‘present attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’ unlike the ‘to be or exist as’ approach which is ontologically-veridical but is not the natural inclination of representation as it overrides the ‘present framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology and is rather caught up, beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology -<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>, in the reasoning-from-results/afterthought effect of the positivism/rational-empiricism institutionalisation outcome as of its transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity from non-positivism/medievalism, and as it construes of that outcome as the absolute possibility of human existential emancipation failing to factor in the positivism/rational-empiricism prior relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought, such that the latter is construed as not having its own uninstitutionalised-threshold which then implies its failure to apriorise the notion of a human temporal-to-intemporal nature at its ontologically-veridical uninstitutionalised-threshold. Consequently, by assuming such a positivism/rational-empiricism transcendental outcome reasoning-from-results/afterthought predisposition as the complete basis for construing humankind existential emancipation, ‘the modern take attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’ adopts an ontologically-flawed ‘conception of human-subpotency existential scope’ that is construed essentially as-of <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag untransvaluated–temporal-intemporality at its ontologically-veridical uninstitutionalised-threshold, as it doesn’t even and fails to recognise any such uninstitutionalised-threshold pointing to its prior relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought. Thus, the manifestations of temporality/shortness at its unrecognised ontologically-veridical uninstitutionalised-threshold are construed as aberrations/oddities going from this wrongly implied intemporal/longness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology posture in <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag, rather than a recognition of it prior relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought, implying recognising its uninstitutionalised-threshold with the temporal-to-intemporal implications as of knowledge-notionalisation; thus providing the potency/empowering-consciousness for prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supercerogatory-de-mentativity, as knowledge-notionalisation not only factors in conceptual knowledge dynamics but equally the dynamics of the conceptual ignorances to better skew meaningfulness-and-teleology towards intemporality/longness as of organic-knowledge. The paradox here is that by its ‘most realistic/authentic/unexceptional-as-of-the-mediocrity-principle conception of human-subpotency existential scope’ as of its maximum potency/empowering-consciousness for human subpotent mastery of the the-very-same-immanent-existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality,-as-to-‘human<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~purview-of-construal’, the ‘postmodern deprocrypticism–or–preempting—disjointedness-as-of- reference-of-thought apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme ’ grounded on such rational-realism recognition of humankind temporal-to-intemporal nature at its uninstitutionalised-threshold is actually ‘effectively empowered’ to incisively tackle issues arising from human temporality/shortness as of its prospective de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic prospective relative-ontological-completeness of reference-of-thought; and so beyond just <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag and ad-hoc palliative resolution of a ‘modern take attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’ very much inclined to aberrational/oddities conceptioning of such temporality/shortness manifestations thus leading to their endemisation/enculturation from ‘ontologically-flawed and inevitability analyses’ conception. Thus a ‘modern take attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’ is de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically disempowered to address issues of its temporality/shortness as of the vices-and-impediments at its uninstitutionised-threshold. So because its \textless{}amplituding\textgreater{} formative-epistemicity-totalising-self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag is ‘existentially invested’ in modern social-stake-contention-or-confliction framework of meaningfulness-and-teleology as of procrypticism–or–disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought from where it derives its value-construct and value-reference, as it hardly countenances that prospective transcendental knowledge implied value-construct and value-reference is not meant to be of ‘idle’ relevance to the modern social-stake-contention-or-confliction framework but rather redeploy an altogether empowering perspective of prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought postmodern social-stake-contention-or-confliction framework of meaningfulness-and-teleology of value-construct and value-reference at the procrypticism uninstitutionalisation. Such prospective change as of de-mentation-(supererogatory-ontological-de-mentation-or-dialectical-de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics) of attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme can be appreciated retrospectively with respect to non-positivism/medievalism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme which from our modern take attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme we rather construe as vague scholastic pedantic dogmatism with regards to budding-positivism/rational-empiricism, but then such a conclusion as of their non-positivism/medievalism habits and traditions is not necessarily obvious to the non-positivism/medievalism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme. Ultimately, a notional–deprocrypticism coherent ‘postmodern deprocrypticism–or–preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’ is one that comes into terms–as-of-axiomatic-construct in

But then with respect to the possibility of prospective human transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/superrogatory–de-mentativity, the question arises as to how it is possible for human transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/superrogatory–de-mentativity to occur given its ‘re-originary–as-unenframed/unbeholdening/outlier-conceptualisation–(imbued-postconverging/dialectical-thinking\textsuperscript{2}‘projective-insights’/epistemic-projection-in-conflatedness\textsuperscript{15}‘of-notional–deprocrypticism-prospective-sublimation)\textsuperscript{10} metaphoricity\textsuperscript{15} instigation’ in the face of any registry-worldview/dimension <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-(imbued–averaging-of-thought–as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{10}‘as-of–‘nondescript/ignorable–void ‘-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>) natural inclination rather for construing meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{10} as ‘wholly of its cloistered-consciousness living experience only’ whether as of recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation only, base-institutionalisation– apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme further inspired its subsequent radicalisation by latter thinkers; wherein for instance, the more thoroughly positivism/rational-empiricism development of ‘the very same physics’ further inspired its subsequent radicalisation by latter thinkers; wherein for instance, the more thoroughly positivism/rational-empiricism development of ‘the very same physics’ was undertaken by Newton and Leibniz, extending the metaphoricity further even when we contemplate that in many ways these metaphoricity relaying scientists were still imbued with non-positivism/medievalism mystical and alchemic ideas. This ‘out of thin air’ metaphoricity possibility arises because the ‘full-potency of existence in relation to human-subpotency-as-human-knowledge grasp of that full-potency of existence’ is ever one of nonpresencing-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence; as the very notion of ‘human-subpotency-as-human-knowledge grasp of the full-potency of existence’ given human limited-mentation-capacity implies that such a grasp only opens up a ‘limited framework of the full-potency of existence’ for new human existential and knowledge possibilities as of new/prospective habits-and-tradition. But then this ‘limited framework of the full-potency of existence’ as of new habits-and-tradition construed as ‘reason-from-results/afterthought framework, ‘doesn’t induce a commitment upon the absolute transcendental possibility in the full-potency of existence’. Such that by dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness-by-reification/contemplative-distension (as of human self-surpassing—existentialism-form-factor,—in-overcoming—‘notionally—collateralising-beholdening—protohumanity’–to—‘attain-sublimating-humanity’—as—to—existence-potency—sublimating—nascence,—disclosed—from—prospective—epistemic—digression—of—totalising—renewing—realisation/re-perception/re-thought,—in—supererogatory—epistemic—conflicatedness to supersede human temporality/shortness wooden-language—(imbued—averaging-of-thought—<as-to—

implied “meaningfulness-and-teleology”, we can appreciate that the foremost goal of budding-positivists ‘was not to elicit the direct approval’ of the non-positivism/medievalism established arrangement, as in many ways they adopted a ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’ consummated/forfeiting posture’ with respect to establishment social stakes, but rather sought to induce the requisite metaphoricity of budding-positivism for the destruction-deconstruction of non-positivism/medievalism for prospective positivism, as their conception of achievement motive were tied down to prospective positivism institutionalisation as of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology. Likewise, the prospective ‘postmodern deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of—reference-of-thought apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme’ is well beyond the notion of eliciting the approbation of the modern take established arrangement in terms—as-of-axiomatic-construct, but rather is of ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness consummated/forfeiting posture’, in inducing budding-postmodern metaphoricity for the destruction-deconstruction of the modern take for prospective postmodern-notional—deprocrypticism institutionalisation as of prospective Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology. In both cases, the prospective institutionalisation attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme is ontologically validated as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness—of—reference-of-thought, divulging the <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag vagueness and futility of the pretences and judgments of the destructuring-threshold—(uninstitutionalised-threshold/presublimating—desublimating-decisionality)—of-ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology.

We can equally appreciate here that such a conception of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity is rather as of organic-knowledge and not mechanical knowledge, in the sense that what is critical is the induced apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument metaphoricity for prospective institutionalisation as of prospective ontological-prime-movers–totalitative-framework and not simply a mechanical knowledge conception possibly tolerated as of a stale a posteriori adjunctiveness as with the Copernican heliocentric idea initially, needing a latter apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument metaphoricity reinvigoration as of the overall renewal of ‘the very same physics <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality’. It should be noted that such metaphoricity rather points to psychoanalytic-unshackling/prospective-grounding/prospective-reification organic-knowledge nature of such prospective institutionalisation transcendental meaningfulness-and-teleology, which in its prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought is ‘a dimensionality-of-sublimating — <amplituding/formative>supererogatory–de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation inventing’ of the prospective notion of ‘thinking/postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking—apriorising-psychologism’ as positivism/rational-empiricism thinking or notional–depocrypticism thinking respectively, and so as their successive prospective reasoning-from-results/afterthought. In both cases, such metaphoricity as of its reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning cannot be construed as grounded-as-intelligible on the superseded/transcended registry-worldview’s/dimension’s attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme of medievalism–non-positivism or positivism/rational-empiricism manifestation of ‘procrypticism–or–disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought, but rather as of its very own transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity prospective

Thus such metaphoricity is rather induced as of the framework of prospective concurrent ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework in establishing its prospective ‘detour to social goodwill deferential-formalisation-transference to perceived overwhelming-relative-effectiveness’. Thus such metaphoricity as of its reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning is more aptly and consciously articulated at a dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness–by-reification /contemplative-distension (as of human self-surpassing—existentialism-form-factor,-in-overcoming-‘notionally–collateralising-beholdening-protohumanity’–to–‘attain-sublimating-humanity’–as-to-existence-potency–sublimating–nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-

Nietzschean thought can actually be interpreted critically as relating rather to ‘originarinessparrhesia,–as–spontaneity-of-aestheticisation over the human atrophying tendency for prior reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,–as–reproducibility-of-aestheticisation’ with regards to ecstatic-existence-as-transcendental-signifier—becoming-spontaneity-mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,–as–reproducibility-of-aestheticisation’ and thus in many ways the naïve/flawed conception of Platonism and Cartesianism today arise as to a reasoning as from reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,–as–reproducibility-of-aestheticisation perspective whereas Descartes and Plato—and–Plato’s Socrates are more fundamentally involved in an aporeticism overcoming/unovercoming exercise with respect to medieval-scholasticism non-positivising and ancient-sophists non-universalising respectively. These induced transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory~de-mentativity later on became prior reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,–as–reproducibility-of-aestheticisation as of their mere ‘atrophying mechanical practice’ with succeeding generations, and so just as Nietzsche equally appreciated that Christianity was becoming a mere ‘atrophying mechanical practice’ of succeeding Christian generations as for instance with ascetic practices becoming more of symbolism/aura and losing their inceptive emancipatory inspiration. Thus with all these instances rather warranting renewed originariness-parrhesia,—as—spontaneity-of-aestheticisation as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation and so as of prospective projection as implied with the ontological-contiguity—of—the—human—institutionalisation-process, but instead Heidegger will elicit a naïve turn to the pre-Socratics while Nietzsche will express admiration of Buddhism as both being of grander originariness and ontological-good-faith/authenticity. However going beyond a ‘relic-or-orthodoxy knowledge’ disparateness-of-conceptualisation-<unforegrounding-disentailment,-failing-to-reflect-‘immanent-ontological-contiguity’> notion of philosophy, it is herein contended that this relatively deficient analysis reflects the fundamental ontological-deficiency of subsequent philosophies influenced by Kantian philosophy which is rather ‘as a projection within the very same intelligible Cartesian/budding-positivists induced rational-empiricism/positivism registry-worldview’s/dimension’s supererogatory—acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness—ofressentiment and leveling failing to appreciate that these are ontologically-driven as of underlying relative-ontological-completeness knowledge-reification basis of such conceptualisations arising as to the need for prospective emancipatory inspiration of prospective originariness-parrhesia,–as–spontaneity-of-aestheticisation inducing human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening. Thus wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought–as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology—as-of–nondescript/ignorable–void—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications) is herein rather construed as wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought–as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology—as-of–nondescript/ignorable–void—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications) or ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity with respect to ‘mechanical practice’ of prior reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition—as–reproducibility-of-aestheticisation. In this regards, we can appreciate that all human meaningfulness-and-teleology arises as of aestheticisation before converging towards ontologisation, just as rightfully implied by Nietzsche’s genealogy of morals, but this doesn’t imply valuelessness (as is often naively implied with Nietzschean thought) since aestheticisation convergence towards ontologisation leads to grander ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology>. In this regards, we can appreciate that while from our vantage modern perspective the ontological-veracity of the Egyptian cultural system aestheticisation behind the construction of the pyramids will seem inherently impertinent, but that specific human aestheticisation induced technical, scientific and mathematical innovations were of lateral civilisational ontological-pertinence; likewise we can appreciate that while for the atheist the ontological-veracity of religion is unproven, however various specific religions human aestheticisation in many ways relayed laterally the ontological-veracity of universalising-idealisation thinkers as of the relatively conducive social conditions allowing for the arrival of medieval thinkers who then instigated the possibility for modern day science ontologisation; and besides, it can equally perfectly be claimed that even our modern day positivistic civilisation is not beyond a critique of ‘deficient ontologisation’ as we can appreciate the reality of the human aestheticisation of many modern activities (even those associated with technological development) held as of higher interest/worth which ontologisation value is questionable with respect to other possible activities of grander ontologisation but not necessarily held as of higher interest/worth (with the very worst case being media-driven merchandising associated with a generalised dumbing-down and de-intellectualisation increasingly and surreptitiously substituting for reifying intellectualism, increasingly undermining the citizenry capacity for democratic sovereign judgement). This analysis points to the convoluted relationship between human aestheticisation and ultimate ontologisation value. Rather than naïve and simplistic analysis, it is such an insight that better informs Heideggerian and Nietzschean thought with regards to ressentiment and leveling (as to <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought-sublimating—supererogatory—de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation induced self-consciousness ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ infrastructure’. It is thus not odd that as of human emotional-involvement implications, Socratic philosophers universalising-idealisation and budding-positivists projected ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ infrastructure rather met initially with the antipathy of their underpinning-suprasocial-construct and wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought—closing-construct—meaningfulness-and-teleology—as-of—‘nondescript/ignorable–void’—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications)—and specifically had to face up respectively with the value-construct conception of their temporal/sycophantic-sophistic presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness ontologically-flawed disparateness-of-conceptualisation—unforegrounding-disentailment,-failing-to-reflect—‘immanent-ontological-contiguity’—whether with the Ancient Sophists or medieval-scholasticism pedants. We can further appreciate the critical impact of the universalising-idealisation ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ infrastructure of the Socratic philosophers and their successors as providing the appropriate ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ infrastructure for the Roman Empire and subsequent religio-political developments unlike the case with say Ancient Egypt and Persia whose non-universalising sectarian cults perpetual ideological conflicts ultimately sapped their stability despite their technical advancement, and likewise Western enlightenment effectively arose as of the induced ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ infrastructure of budding-positivists, with perverted consequences like annihilation of Native Indians in the New World and the Transatlantic slavery rather arising as of their far-flung societies opportunistic activities distortive of budding-positivism ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ infrastructure as so-construed in their core societies in Europe with respect to the ending of serfdom, nascent socioeconomic emancipation and human rights. Thus basically the idea of human value-construction is ever always caught up between on the one hand human limited-mentation-capacity to come to terms with ‘transvaluation as <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>causality~as-to-projective-totalitivative~implications,-for-explicating-ontological-contiguity in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity—the-human-institutionalisation-process [amplification] anamnesis as of difference-conflatedness as-to-totalitative-reification—in-singularisation as-veridical-epistemic-determinism underlying the human construction-of-the-Self’ and on the other hand ‘the effective ontological-impertinence/dereification arising in the conceptualising of human value-construction as of a <amplituding/formative> wooden-language—(imbued—averaging-of-thought—<as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—as-of—’nondescript/ignorable–void’—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>) in <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag as construing of value-construction within any given registry-worldview’s/dimension’s presencing—absolutising-identititive-constitutedness—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology and so whether as of trepidatious (recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation), warped (base-institutionalisation–ununiversalisation), preclusive (universalisation–non-positivism/medievalism) or occlusive (positivism–procrypticism) implications’. This discrepancy (between the human capacity to achieve transvaluation and effective social–value-construction narrative as of any given registry-worldview/dimension) is reflected in the underlying reality that effectively practised human value-construction is the ‘outcome of privileged institutional end-purpose perspective/framing/reference/horizon’; wherein social–value-construction across the successive registry-worldviews/dimensions arises as a functional necessity that is meant to reflect supposedly coherent ontological-commitment and so in order to elicit stable social-functioning-and-accordance for social-stake-contention-or-confliction, whether such social– value-construction is ontologically-pertinent or not. In this respect, the reality in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process points to changing ‘de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic marginal equity of social–value-construction’, so-construed as ‘expected equity of all individuals for social–value-construction’ and so rather as from the de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic reference basis of ‘priorly implied-and-justified inequity’ whether the latter is implied-and-justified as of talent, royalty, class, productivity, mere traditional and cultural practice justification, etc.; thus effectively reflecting the overall consequence of social–value-construction as the ‘outcome of privileged institutional end-purpose perspective/framing/reference/horizon’. In this regards, social–value-construction arises from two levels; as of the inherent de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic implication of ‘outcome of privileged institutional end-purpose perspective/framing/reference/horizon’ as of ‘priorly implied-and-justified inequity’ and this in conjugation then with the individual inherently appraisable social–value-construction as of ‘expected equity of all individuals for social–value-construction’. In this respect, we can appreciate that an autocrat is more capable of ‘displaying greater social–value-construction’ than an ordinary denizen by the former’s mere social–value-construction ‘priorly implied-and-justified inequity’ as of its status in the autocracy (however an autocrat’s apparent magnanimity on the basis of the prior perspective of the autocratic society will rather be construed as of deficient value-construction as from a prospective perspective of <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> causality~as-to-projective-totalitative–implications,-for-explicating-ontological-contiguity comparison to the overall social and virtue progress implications of a better accountable political system, while on the other hand individuals effectively advocating for such a prospective political system may be construed as of deficient value-construction in the prior autocracy), while modern day social–value-construction ‘priorly implied-and-justified inequity’ arises as of politico-bureaucratic, talent, entrepreneurial, socio-historical, traditional and cultural practice justification, etc. implications (but is just as well subject to transvaluation analysis as of causality~as-to-projective-totalitative~implications,-for-explicating-ontological-contiguity, as it can perfectly be argued that the apparent magnanimity of plutocrats as of a capitalistic economic value-distributive system ‘excessively skewed towards final product/service/financial delivery as-of-first-come-near-monopoly and institutionally-skewed-possibility-for recurring wealth accumulation’ while excessively overlooking/devaluing the return to massive public externalities/external-resources contributions to economic production such as public education, human and social development, infrastructure, basic research, technological research, etc. rather speaks of deficient social–value-construction, especially as such a system ‘priorly implied-and-justified inequity’ as of its occlusive ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness is geared towards propping special interests, warfare spending, anti-taxation, anti-immigration, trivial interest in global human development, co-opted media narrative, etc. as of a suboptimal social–value-construction). But this doesn’t cancel the fact that individuals throughout sublimating historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing notwithstanding any disadvantaged ‘priorly implied-and-justified inequity’ for social–value-construction, intuitively cognisant of the pertinence of human transvaluation have elicited the underlying ontological-veracity/ontological-impertinence of their social-construct value-construction as of its supposedly coherent ontological-commitment to induce the transformation of the social-setup value-construction; such that at various critical times the more salient ‘priorly implied-and-justified inequity’ for social–value-construction had thus been basically intellectual-pertinence-as-of-ontological-veracity such that all other ‘priorly implied-and-justified inequity’ for social–value-construction have tended critically to ultimately be grounded on intellectual-pertinence-as-of-ontological-veracity whether of genuine or surreptitious justification. The more salient genuine sovereignty paradoxically as of obscured-and-deluding knowledge and misinformation that undermines individuals sovereign competence and choice with regards to increasingly skewed-contrived-and-limited stakes of the democratic process thus eliciting protest voting, and in the bigger global framework of competing politico-cultural values with individuals and societies rather construed occlusively as collateral damages. Transvaluation analysis thus ensues from the human akrasia-susceptibility-or-akrasiatic-drag complex which implies that the very state of unwariness with respect to prior relative-ontological-incompleteness\textsuperscript{105} as of a nihilistic disposition is de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically potently conducive/endemising/enculturating of its vices-and-impediments\textsuperscript{105} (as so-reflecting the grandest deeds of ontological-performance\textsuperscript{71}-<including-virtue-as-ontology>/morality/ethics, etc. of any given registry-worldview’s/dimension’s with regards to its ‘destructuring-threshold-(uninstitutionalised-threshold\textsuperscript{105}/presublimating–desublimating-decisionality)~of-ontological-performance\textsuperscript{71}-<including-virtue-as-ontology> dynamics of temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions’ ). But then while such an abstract transvaluation perspective for the construal of social–value-construction is cogently obvious, however the fact remains that the human subject as of its limited-mentation-capacity exists in circumstances of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint as of its given reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as–reproducibility-of-aestheticisation inducing its deficient ontological-performance -<including-virtue-as-ontology> thus explaining its given registry-worldview/dimension vices-and-impediments\textsuperscript{105}. Thus the transvaluation of the successive registry-worldviews/dimensions in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity\textsuperscript{67}—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\textsuperscript{67} is critically of dimensionality-of-sublimating —<amplituding/formative>supererogatory–de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-

Thus human limited-mentation-capacity implies that ‘more than just a thought-of ontological notion’ as of transvaluation, social–value-construction is rather accomplished phronetically/in-practicality as of the specific social-setup \(^10\) universal-transparency \(^{104}\)-<transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness \(^87\) > of supposedly coherent ontological-commitment \(^6\) with respect to social-stake-contention-or-confliction; and is bound rather to be highly infused with ‘priorly implied-and-justified inequity’ narrative(s) where such \(^{101}\) universal-transparency \(^{104}\)-<transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness \(^87\) > is muted and where such \(^{101}\) universal-transparency \(^{104}\)-<transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness \(^87\) > is unmuted rather infused with subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint of any relative-ontological-incompleteness registry-worldview’s/dimension’s—reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance as of its ontologically-flawed implied supposedly coherent ontological-commitment; pointing to the ontological-veracity of a ‘direct bilateral relationship of appropriate construction-of-the-Self for appropriate cognisance-and-integration of prospective relative-ontological-completeness—meaningfulness-and-teleology’. This ontological reality basis of social–value-construction, it is often claimed, needs to account for the reality of human sovereignty and free-will as to the ‘autonomy and independence of human disposedness’. But then such a conception of human sovereignty and free-will seems to imply an ‘existence-in-existence constitutedness’ ontologically-flawed de-mentating/structuring/paradigming’ as to imply human sovereignty and free-will supersede-and-override existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation-and-existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation—<as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied—prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming> so-reflected as of <amplituding/formative>formative–epistemicity>totalisingly–preceding-and-redefining-existential-contextualising-contiguity>. We can effectively appreciate that such human sovereignty and free-will implied ‘autonomy and independence of human disposedness’ say with regards to a mystical cause of disease in a non-positivistic society doesn’t stop existence as reflecting bacteria theory or any other biological reason from being the cause of disease and such a reference-of-thought-devolving-level manifestation of the primacy of existence equally extends to reference-of-thought-level wherein overall existence ‘as transcendental-enabling’ for a rational-empiricism/positivism registry-worldview/dimension as of its supererogatory–acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument ‘is more effective’ with respect to human grasp of existential reality manifestations than a non-positivism registry-worldviews/dimension, just as a prior universalisation registry-worldview/dimension ‘is more effective’ as of its supererogatory acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness of apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument in grasping existential reality manifestations than a preceding ununiversalisation registry-worldview/dimension. This however doesn’t implies the elimination of human sovereignty and free-will but rather effective speaks of human-subpotency within existence-potency~sublimating~nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising~renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-supererogatory-epistemic-conflatedness, so-construed as ‘human-subpotency ontological-performance’<including-virtue-as-ontology> within the full-potency-of-existence’s~sublimating~nascence-as-of-its-coherence/contiguity’; and specifically speaks as to overall reifying-and-empowering-reflexivity-of-ecstatic-existence-as-panintelligibility<~<imbued-and-‘hermeneutically/reprojectively-educing’–human-subpotency–epistemic-perspective-of-projective/reprojective—aestheticising-re-motif–and–re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing~conceptualisation>, wherein within the absolute a priori framework that is existence, humankind can construe of existence becoming/emanance manifestations allowing for human knowledge-reification and empowerment from the knowledge-reification within existence, with this in itself inducing a human reflexivity as of a human reflexive influence within existence (wherein for instance, a positivistic disease theory of bacteria and biological causation de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically induces a whole set of human existential disposedness of emancipatory and curative implications in existence as of human sovereignty and free-will, but also in the very first place the fundamental human existential disposedness at reference-of-thought-level to rationalempiricism/positivism is de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically conducive/preparatory for the possibility of such a positivistic disease theory of bacteria and biological causation to be construed by such humans). This then speaks to the fact that ‘human sovereignty and free-will is deflated going by the ontological-verity of human \(<amplitudding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–thrownness-in-existence\)’ as of ‘the specific human-subpotency implications as to overall reifying-and-empowering-reflexivity-of-exstatic-existence-as-panintelligibility \(<imbued-and–‘hermeneutically/reprojectively-educing’–human-subpotency–epistemic-perspective-of-projective/reprojective—aestheticising-re-motif–and–re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing–conceptualisation>; and so, as it applies to human knowledge-reification\) and empowerment from such knowledge-reification\) within existence as this defines human ontological-performance \(<including-virtue-as-ontology> reflected as of constructiveness-of-ontological-performance \(<including-virtue-as-ontology> and destructuring-threshold-\langleuninstitutionalised-threshold/presublimating–desublimating-decisionality\rangle–of-ontological-performance \(<including-virtue-as-ontology>. In this regards, the broader and more profound conception of human sovereignty and free-will as reflected by human \(<amplitudding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–thrownness-in-existence\) is rather grounded in the reality that all humans come into existence as of an overall framework of living-development–as-to-personality-development, institutional-development–as-to-social-function-development and Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of meaningfulness-and-teleology within which the notion of human sovereignty and free-will then arises in the very first place; such that in many ways human sovereignty and free-will is collectively predicated to the social-setup social-functioning-and-accordance as of its implied supposedly coherent ontological-commitment\. Thus, on this basis, the reality of human ontological-performance \(<including-virtue-as-ontology> (reflected as of constructiveness-of-ontological-performance \(<including-virtue-as-ontology> and destructuring-threshold{(uninstitutionalised-threshold /presublimating–desublimating-decisionality)–of-ontological-performance‘ - <including-virtue-as-ontology>) towards the effective articulation of human sovereignty and free-will is actually one that involves, with respect to human limited-mentation-capacity: ‘the deferential-formalisation-transference overall and underlying social-setup conception of knowledge-reification and empowerment from such knowledge-reification as enabling the framework of living-development–as-to-personality-development, institutional-development–as-to-social-function-development and Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of– meaningfulness-and-teleology’ and then ‘the individual dimensionality-of-sublimating — <amplituding/formative>supererogatory–de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation mental-disposition and expression’ within the former (and it is the latter that often comes to the mind when speaking of human sovereignty and free-will as ‘autonomy and independence of human disposedness’, while naively ignoring/overlooking the underlying ‘superseding existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation–and-existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation<as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied-Interestingly, such a broader conception of the manifestation of human sovereignty and free-will will recognise that the overall human deferential-formalisation-transference actually has a ‘historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing character that extends right up to the very first humans and as with the production of language and human institutions, with functioning-and-accordance by a claim to be as of supposedly coherent ontological-commitment⁶⁵, whether relatively real or surreptitious; and it is this preceding broader human sovereignty and free-willing disposedness for claiming social–value-construction for social-functioning-and-accordance as of supposedly coherent ontological-commitment⁶⁵ that gives the teleological orientation of human meaningfulness-and-teleology⁹⁹ in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity⁶⁶—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process⁷⁷, as it then exposes human meaningfulness-and-teleology⁹⁹ as of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening⁵⁵ to the prospective constraint to be as supposedly coherent ontological-commitment⁶⁵ thus inducing the possibility for prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/superradatory-de-mentativity when its any given meaningfulness-and-teleology is discovered/shown not to be ontologically veridical leading to its effective human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening⁵⁵. Thus the bigger picture here with regards to social–value-construction for social-functioning-and-accordance as of human sovereignty and free-will implications speaks to relative-ontological-completeness⁸⁷ as of ontological-normalcy/postconvergence, and so as of existence constraint implied ontological-contiguity⁶⁶—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process⁷⁷ dimensionality-of-sublimating — <amplituding/formative> superradatory—de-mentativity/epistemic-growth-or-confoundedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation as to difference-confoundedness—as-to-totalitative-reification—in-singularisation—as-veridical-epistemic-determinism —<amplituding/formative—epistemicity> causality—as-to-projective-totalitative—implications,—for-explicating-ontological-contiguity⁶⁶ in reflecting both destructuring-threshold-(uninstitutionalised-threshold⁷⁹/presublimating—desublimating-decisionality)—of-ontological-performance—<including-virtue-as-ontology> as of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness⁸⁸ implied preconverging/dementing—qualia-schema and constructiveness-of-ontological-performance—

explanation of epiphenomena as contrasted cross-generationally with various superstitious beliefs in the past compared with modern day science epiphenomenal explanations (for instance with the appraisal of ‘health epiphenomena of existence’ as of ‘historiality/ontological-eventfulness’/ontological-aesthetic-tracing ranging from perceptivity-as-of-bad-omen, perceptivity-as-of-a-specific-place-or-specific-evil-people-or-specific-evil-period, perceptivity-as-of-failure-to-follow-the-heeding-of-the-Deity-or-failure-to-adhere-to-a-certain-mysticism-or-failure-to-pay-reverence-to-an-ancestor, perceptivity-as-of-full-disease-and-scientific-theory-construct-as-the-exclusive-cause-and-effect-conceptualisation, and perceptivity-as-of-factoring-in-socioeconomic,-hermeneutically-education,-information,-environmental,-gender-and-power-relations-issues-underlying-healthcare-and-medical-delivery). Insightfully, the very essence of ‘overall existence phenomenal appraisal of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ as associated with philosophical aspects (beyond the our artificial subject-matter divisions referring to aspect where virtue, value, ontological principles and epistemic issues are of central concern) is one of interpretation given that the ordinary human-framework-of-experiential-existence is ‘a directly comprehensive and fulsome framework amenable to interpretation’ whereas ‘specific epiphenomenon–(in-the-overall-ecstatic-existence-supervening-conflatedness’) appraisal of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ especially as of their unordinary human-framework-of-experiential-existence like natural sciences while informed by ordinary human-framework-of-experiential-existence background/sense-of-things further require and accentuate their epiphenomenal manifestations (which are beyond ordinary human-framework-of-experiential-existence) with the devising of experimentations (as providing the prolongation for human interpretation capacity with respect to such epiphenomenal manifestations, as in reality even the natural sciences are fundamentally interpretative as ‘specifically aphoristic/cogent/pointed extensions of the underlying human philosophical interpretative disposition for knowledge-reification’). It is important to grasp here that mere experimentations, as often practised in many domains, that do not arise because of the veridical need to effectively accentuate epiphenomenal manifestations as of unordinary human-framework-of-experiential-existence but rather ‘on the vagueness and naivety that experimentations by themselves demonstrate profoundness’ are ontologically-impertinent (in the sense that the ordinary human-framework-of-experiential-existence as ‘a directly comprehensive and fulsome framework amenable to interpretation’ is the more critical basis for a profound knowledge-reification interpretation than any such ad-hoc and simplistic experimentation vagueness and naivety); and in many ways this explains experimental delusions in many domains associated with poor reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition, as reproducibility-of-aestheticisation as to the misunderstanding that experimentation should focus on the very critical epiphenomenal manifestations that are not amenable to the ordinary human-framework-of-experiential-existence as ‘a directly comprehensive and fulsome framework amenable to interpretation’. However, as of underlying human-subpotency sovereignty and free-will, what is definitely central to knowledge-reification is that it is grounded on human empowering reflexivity from prospective knowledge as of ‘ecstatic-existence-as-transcendental-signifier—becoming-spontaneity-implications-as-to-existence-potency—sublimating—nascence,—disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of—amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—renewing—realisation/re-perception/re-thought,—in-supererogatory—epistemic-confalatedness—as-to-the-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-projective-perspective,—to-which-latter-human-subpotency-projectively-conflates-to-in-order—to-overcome-our-prospective-epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence> from such human-subpotency prior reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition’. This reflects the ontological-veracity that human sovereignty and free-will can only be construed in conflatedness as of human <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—thrownness-in-existence revealing the epistemic-impertinence of dispositions for ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness\textsuperscript{11} as wrongly implying human sovereignty and free-will supersedes existence-potency-sublimating-nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising-renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-supererogatory–epistemic-confinatedness\textsuperscript{12} rather than the epistemic-veracity of difference-confinatedness-as-to-totalitative-reification -in-singularisation-as-averidical-epistemic-determinism\textsuperscript{12} <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>causality-as-to-projective-totalitative-implications,-for-explicating-ontological-contiguity\textsuperscript{66} of human meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99}. We can garner for instance that there is and has never been any truly ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’ of the sciences as often wrongly implied by science ideologues, but that scientists across-the-times have allowed existence-potency-sublimating-nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising-renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-supererogatory–epistemic-confinatedness\textsuperscript{12} to manifest itself in determining ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{72}; and so, as from the budding science of the days of Galileo and Copernicus, to Newtonian science, to Lavoisier laboratory science, to Einsteinian science to modern day institutional practices of science, with all fundamentally driven not by any ‘purported science-ideology’ but rather the practicality of results as of the constraint of the subject-domains of scientific study together with human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening\textsuperscript{52} implications in transforming the conceptualisation within any such specific subject-domains of scientific study as of their existential-contextualising-contiguity\textsuperscript{72} knowledge-reification\textsuperscript{86} rather than ‘any implied notion that naively supersede existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation-and-existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation<-as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied—prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’’. A further twist to such a poor conception of human sovereignty and free-will in the social arises as of an improper appraisal of the ‘implications of deferential-formalisation-transference as being de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically both-intensional-and-extensional to the fulfilment of human sovereignty and free-will’. The fact is human sovereignty and free-will is more critically about its ‘fulfilment as of sound-operating-of-human-sovereignty-and-free-will-towards-its-fulfilment’ rather than ‘mere appearance-of-fulfilment usurping-the-sense of sound-operating-of-human-sovereignty-and-free-will-towards-its-fulfilment’. For instance, a plumber who draws up the costing for a plumbing job explaining to the customer what is advantageously entailed in a convincing manner (as of ‘mere appearance-of-fulfilment usurping-the-sense of sound-operating-of-human-sovereignty-and-free-will-towards-its-fulfilment’) as they fail to ensure that their professional assessment will truly resolve the technical issue (as they are just looking to contract the job) is not really advancing the sovereign choice of the customer compared to another plumber who undertakes a candid professional assessment that may not sound advantageous with the customer (as they are more critically interested in the ‘fulfilment as of sound-operating-of-human-sovereignty-and-free-will-towards-its-fulfilment’) but does solve the technical issue; as any such customer in a deferential-formalisation-transference situation will most likely agree. Such operation of human sovereignty and free-will, beyond more or less simplistic social situations as the case highlighted above, is supposedly implied in the operation of all human institutions as of their inherent deferential-formalisation-transference proxy nature; but in many ways such a notion of ‘implications of deferential-formalisation-transference as being de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically both-intensional-and-extensional to the fulfilment of human sovereignty and free-will’ gets sunk with the increasing complexity and size of human institutions as to what such implications really are, and so especially as the idea of human sovereignty and free-will increasingly becomes abstracted and diffused in the overall social-construct and its institutions as so-associated with ‘the protraction of political and institutional performance, evaluation and accountability’ as reflective of human sovereignty and free-will. However, with regards to the latter as of social protraction of political and institutional action, the possibility of protracted human sovereignty and free-will while indirect comes to be increasingly associated with the sense of ‘equanimity/balance of institutions’ as to their expected ‘equanimity/balance of contending frameworks and policy frameworks as reflexive of socially-perceived commendation and disapprobation’, whether as garnered ‘politically from the equanimity/balance of competing policies and politics as from polling and/or polls trends’ and ‘professionally with the equanimity/balance of mainstream/conventional complementary professional policy-recommendations and professional practices’. The question about the effectiveness of such implied equanimity/balance as reflecting of human sovereignty and free-will is often raised critically with regards to political and institutional performance particularly during crises. In many ways, the systemic interrelatedness of large institutions as to their complementary end purposes and practices, renders such an assessment of implied equanimity/balance rather de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic to the overall politico-institutional system itself; and particularly so as in many ways the possibility of readjustment is much more practically instigated politically especially as with public institutions the individual manifestation of sovereign choice is much more rigidly tied to political action unlike the relative ability for direct disengagement from private entities. However, the fundamental fact that human sovereignty and free-will is ever always a question of the ‘transverse relation of all humans sovereignty and free-will in society’ inherently implies the underlying possibility for the undermining of human sovereign choice as of inherent social differentiation. <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>causality—as-to-projective-totalitative—implications,—for-explicating-ontological-contiguity

in reflecting holographically—<conjugatively—transfusively> the ontological-contiguity

going by the phronesis/practicality as of our positivism—procrypticism occlusiveness, the assessment of institutionally implied ‘equanimity/balance of contending frameworks and policy frameworks as reflective of socially-perceived commendation and disapprobation’, as advancing human sovereignty and free-will as of deferential-formalisation-transference implications, can be rather straightforward with regards to relatively compact/self-contained institutional functions and roles usually involved in direct public service delivery but it is much more difficult with spurious/supporting institutional functions and roles. We can appreciate in this regards that public scandals generally tend to arise out of public services and private services delivery institutional frameworks as of their relatively compact/self-contained institutional functions and roles, and that issues of transparency rendering such assessment difficult generally arise with regards to underlying spurious/supporting/supervisory/regulatory institutional functions and roles. In another respect concerning the modern day media, the need for relevant and balanced/equanimous communication and information delivery to the general public has increasingly been taking a backseat, and so fundamentally as the media becomes more of a business-making institution and rather plays a weaker and ancillary/perfunctory role in public policies and politics accountability. This is paradoxically reflected in the reality that despite the huge choice of media today, strangely enough this has rather been associated with greater public muddlement with regards to political stakes and public policies; undermining the political process as increasingly public policies are de-mentated/structured/paradigmed to default/revert into the interests of powerful groups and corporations with the support of increasingly astute, surreptitious and media-savvy political and economic think-tanks, as their media underhandedness in many ways foil the possibility for credible and effective public interest debate as of the distractedness of media reflexive anchoring on a stale, traditional, simplistic and increasingly irrelevant age-old left and right political narrative (and its derived politics and policies narratives) poorly reflecting the sophistication of the electorate that ‘doesn’t live in left and right worlds but a realistic world in want for solutions’! Strangely enough, such a media environment is now laden with public gurus holding outlandish views increasingly given the forum for their opinions (presented as reified-knowledge) not only in marginal media but mainstream media as well out of all proportion with the social and/or relevant expertising academic/professional resonance of such ideas, and so as of the underlying pretence of freedom-of-speech; as the notion of freedom-of-speech is increasingly being portrayed rather as the rationalising foundation for all sorts of discreetly, whimsically/fancifully and strategically prejudiced influences on media orientation. In this regards, the notion of freedom-of-speech as of such consequentially biased and disproportionate representation undermining ‘equanimity/balance of contending frameworks and policy frameworks as reflective of socially-perceived commendation and disapprobation’ (as thusly failing to advance human sovereignty and free-will as of deferential-formalisation-transference implications), is increasingly becoming the unbecoming/undoing of the modern day democratic political process. Direct media surreptitious drumming-up of specific policy stances and political movements have often interfered with political governance as with the tea-party movement for instance; when considering how political orientations are ‘strategically advanced/framed’ in the media at critical moments for upholding favourable political policies or foiling unfavourable political policies while undermining sound analytic public debate. It is no small wonder that a public opinion increasingly exposed to such media-driven ‘subterfuges’, overlooking the age-old party politics narrative entrapment, has been turning to protest voting as an expression of political disdain. Furthermore, the idea of human sovereignty and free-will across all times is intimately tied down to human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening as to the ‘relative-ontological-incompleteness’/relative-ontological-completeness - ontological-normalcy/postconvergence of ecstatic-existence-as-transcendental-signifier, wherein human sovereignty and free-will is construed as of the ‘de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic implications of relative-ontological-completeness’ in superseding/overcoming/transcending human-subpotency-aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint of relative-ontological-incompleteness, reflecting a human-causative-construction conception in conflatedness/projective-conflating apriorising/axiomatising/referencing about existence as ontologically-veridical (as it is the ‘totalitative epistemic/notional~projective-perspective’ that points out the veridical conception of causation) and so over a traditional reflex construal of human causation in constitutedness as of any given presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness apriorising/axiomatising/referencing in prospective relative-ontological-incompleteness. This insight about human sovereignty and free-will effectively points to the ontological-flaw of presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness conceptions whether as of the past, present or future, inherently as of failing to account for ‘relative-ontological-incompleteness/relative-ontological-completeness’-

veridically underlied by ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ outside existential-contextualising-contiguity implications of relative-ontological-incompleteness to relative-ontological-completeness. But then such pretence of presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness veracity of ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ is both theoretically and empirically non-veridical, speaking more of the reality of power-grabbing/appropriating/usurpatory/arrogating implications than truly rational argumentations as of knowledge-reification implications. Such ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ argumentations are often intimately associated with providing the ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology infrastructure for the powerful and vested-interests, and their insinuations of ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ as ‘outside existential-contextualising-contiguity implications of relative-ontological-incompleteness to relative-ontological-completeness’ is in effect not truly about the irrelevance of existential-reality implications of relative-ontological-incompleteness and relative-ontological-completeness but rather more critically ‘is in effect about defaulting to specifically unavowedly/surreptitiously implied convenient/advantageous interpretations about existential-contextualising-contiguity which are not to be subjected to a fulsome analysis for ontological-veracity as of implications of relative-ontological-incompleteness and relative-ontological-completeness and so on the basis of merely projecting the term ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ and thereof implying logical-dueness and articulating logic on the so-narrowed and uncontested framework’. The reason why such a ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ supposedly pertinent argumentation about human sovereignty and free-will cannot hold is that all "meaningfulness-and-teleology (as implied with the logical operation of any such projected ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’) operate on priorly established apriorising/axiomatising/referencing and inherently all apriorising/axiomatising/referencing purport to be as of existential-contextualising-contiguity thus subject to analysis as of ‘relative-ontological-incompleteness”/relative-ontological-completeness -(sublimating–referencing/registering/decisioning,—as-self-becoming/self-conflatedness”/formative–supererogating-<projective/reprojective—aestheticising-re-motif—and–re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing,-in-perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>) as to human-and-social–expectations/anticipations—metaphoricity –as-rede-mentating/restructuring/reparadigm–psychologism” as to their existential-reality veracity, such that fundamentally such ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ argumentation about human sovereignty and free-will are rather ‘internally inconsistent’ and more aptly reflect manifestations of power-grabbing/appropriating/usurpatory/arrogating implications when analysed as of relative-ontological-completeness”. Consider in this regards for instance as of the “presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness notion of ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ underlying slavery, such an implied ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ is inherently making a claim on existential-reality which rather more aptly reflect a manifestation of power-grabbing/appropriating/usurpatory/arrogating implications as of its apriorising/axiomatising/referencing that one human being has the right to own another human being (as actually not even the logical-dueness of such a ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ argumentation can arise from the perspective of relative-ontological-completeness as what is then implied from the relative-ontological-completeness perspective is the supererogatory acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness of apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument in unaffirmation/deprojection/de-assertion/undueness-invalidating-logicising/unsuitable-measuringinstrument-invalidating-measuring—as-to-preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism of any such implied slavery ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’). The proof that this is priorly ‘a power-grabbing/appropriating/usurpatory/arrogating implications of apriorising/axiomatising/referencing and not of veridical logical-dueness’ lies in the fact that for instance the Haitian slave revolters wouldn’t countenance the logical-dueness of any such implied logic of ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ underlying their enslavement but merely as of their relative-ontological-completeness perspective of apriorising/axiomatising/referencing undertake in revolt the unaffirmation/deprojection/de-assertion/undueness-invalidating-logicising/unsuitablemeasuringinstrument-invalidating-measuring-as-to-preconverging-or-dementing- apriorising-psychologism> of any such implied slavery ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely- implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given- discrete-social–value-construction’. This points to the reality that ‘human social- vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political- arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ argumentation do not truly escape the ontological prism as of existence being the absolute a priori, and rather speak of epistemic situations in epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence with the possibility for true causality implications to be drawn in relative-ontological-completeness as of ontological- primemovers-totalitative-framework construable ‘de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic implications of relative-ontological-completeness in superseding/overcoming/transcending human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought- indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint of relative-ontological-incompleteness’. The confusion here arises because of the habituation of any such ‘human social- vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political- arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ which is then taken to be natural to the point of ‘forgetting/overlooking that it is underlied by apriorising(axiomatising/referencing) power-grabbing/appropriating/usurpatory/arrogating implications’ to which even the weaker party might end up getting habituated to (over years, decades or centuries) as of little alternate existential choice and possibilities, and from which point a presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness false sense of logical-dueness as of ‘relative-ontological-incompleteness/relative-ontological-completeness’ (sublimating–referencing/registering/decisioning,–as-self-becoming/self- conflatedness/formative–supererogating–<projective/reprojective—aestheticising-re-motif– and–re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing,—in-perspective–ontological– normalcy/postconvergence) as to human-and-social–expectations/anticipations—metaphoricity—as-rede-mentating/restructuring/reparadigming—psychologism’ may seem to arise; but as with say the American civil war and the Haitian slave revolt, the reality that such implied ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ is rather of flawed apriorising/axiomatising/referencing power-grabbing/appropriating/usurpatory/arrogating implications is met not with logical-dueness and logical-engagement in wrongly validating any such apriorising/axiomatising/referencing but is rather meted with relative-ontological-completeness‘ perspective superfetatory~acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness—of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuringinstrument’ in unaffirmation/deprojection/de-assertion/undueness-invalidating-logicising/unsuitable-measuringinstrument-invalidating-measuring-<as-to-preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism>. In fact, besides the more starkly demonstrable case with respect to say slavery this equally applies with less starkly obvious situations having to do with human social differentiation as well as any other situations requiring prospective knowledge-reification as the possibility for all human progress arises effectively as a result of the transcending of all such human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint power-grabbing/appropriating/usurpatory/arrogating implications construed as ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ as well as their socially attendant situations in need for prospective knowledge-reification‘; and so not as of a falsely implied logical-dueness and logical engagement that wrongly validate the relative-ontological-incompleteness‘ apriorising/axiomatising/referencing of ‘human socialvestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ as being of existential-reality in relative-ontological-completeness, but rather as of the relative-ontological-completeness perspective in unaffirmation/deprojection/de-assertion/undueness-invalidating-logicising/unsuitable-measuringinstrument-invalidating-measuring-as-to-preconverging-or-dementing–apriorising-psychologism> of such implied ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ argumentation. In fact, such an interpretation about the ontological-veracity of ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ argumentation is not only relevantly undermined with respect to say highlighting the supposed weaker party perspective in such a framework of power-grabbing/appropriating/usurpatory/arrogating implications of apriorising/axiomatising/referencing but is equally undermined/subverted when conveniently so by the stronger party for instance in the case of the various allied powers of the second-world war overlooking Nazi scientists direct or indirect participation in war crimes on the rationale of strengthening themselves to ensure future security, and one can imagine the same with regards with many ad-hoc arrangements having to do with spying activities, etc.; thus pointing fundamentally to the ascendency of the ontological implications of human limited-mentation-capacity as to human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening possibilities of relative-ontological-completeness analysis over the absolutising of ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions–existentialism-form-factor (with the latter involving ‘direct bilateral relationship of appropriate construction-of-the-Self for appropriate cognisance-and-integration of prospective relative-ontological-completeness and-meaningfulness-and-teleology’ as implied prospectively in ‘construing of both the right apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument mindset-as-of-prospective-deprocrypticism-dissemination and thus the knowledge for that right mindset-as-of-prospective-deprocrypticism-dissemination’). Even with the modern day polity and law, the reality of human sovereignty and free-will implied in human rights takes precedence over any ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social–value-construction’ practicalities and is the basis for continual social and governmental reforms; and as so-implied by the ‘de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic implications of relative-ontological-completeness in superseding/overcoming/transcending human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint of relative-ontological-incompleteness’ and this is the very legitimation for any intellectualism purporting knowledge-reification. idealising/transcending/sublimating–meaningfulness-and-its-institutionalisation even as such framework-for-idealising/transcending/sublimating is clearly or abstrusely the reference of social and institutional deferential-formalisation-transference. Thus the underlying reflex in considering human originariness/reifying/intellectualising—idealising/transcending/sublimating–meaningfulness-and-its-institutionalisation as more or less fulfilled with a satisfactory theoretical-and-practicable-projected-outcome in many ways is naïve and incomplete as to when it is ‘wrongly predicated on a conception of the social and institutional as merely a passive framework of exquisite integration of abstract originariness/reifying/intellectualising—idealising/transcending/sublimating–meaningfulness-and-its-institutionalisation’ failing to factor in the dynamics of social-and-institutional-dissipative-integration of any such abstract originariness/reifying/intellectualising—idealising/transcending/sublimating–meaningfulness-and-its-institutionalisation as to a ‘dynamic social and institutional conjugation of temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions ontological-performance’-<including-virtue-as-ontology>-including-virtue-as-ontology at the destructuring-threshold-(uninstitutionalised-threshold /presublimating–desublimatingdecisionality)–of-ontological-performance-<including-virtue-as-ontology>’. Ultimately, with respect to social-stake-contention-or-confliction the effectively practised meaningfulness-and-its-institutionalisation while guided/constraint/structured by such originariness/reifying/intellectualising—idealising/transcending/sublimating–meaningfulness-and-its-institutionalisation theoretical-and-practicable-projected-outcome elicited positive-opportunism, generalised human behaviour to various extends actually becomes operatively and anticipatively aware by itself (as reflected by its covertly uttered wooden-language-imbued—temporal—mere-form/virtualities/dereification—/akrasiatic-drag/denatured/preconverging-or-dementing—narratives—of-the—reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology ) that varyingly betray/reconstrues—of the originariness/reifying/intellectualising—idealising/transcending/sublimating—meaningfulness-and-its-institutionalisation of this possibility of discrepancy/sundering from originariness/reifying/intellectualising—idealising/transcending/sublimating—meaningfulness-and-its-institutionalisation (not only as to undermining the former conceptual completeness but evolving with the contextual immediacy perceived underlying aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint) with respect to social-stake-contention-or-confliction, and as generalised human behaviour varyingly assume existentially constraint pragmatic inclinations and temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions as of varying thresholds of constructiveness-of-ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology and destructuring-threshold—(uninstitutionalised-threshold /presublimating—desublimating—decisionality)~of-ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology in relating with such originariness/reifying/intellectualising—idealising/transcending/sublimating—meaningfulness-and-its-institutionalisation. This points to the need to assume a notional construal cognisant and integrating the de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic implications of human-subpotency—aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions—existentialism-form-factor, as the ‘dynamic social and institutional conjugation of temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology—including-virtue-as-ontology at the destructuring-threshold—(uninstitutionalised—

<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-supererogatory–epistemic-conflicatedness (so underlied as of the parrhesiastic seeding-promise-of-human-subpotency-ontological-performance -<including-virtue-as-ontology>-correspondence-with-the-full-potency-of-existence’s~sublimating–nascence-as-of-its-coherence/contiguity), and this is effectively instigated/originated by the human capacity for dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness -by-reification/contemplative-distension in its construction-of-the-Self with respect to prospective human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint. The underlying point here is that there is no inherent meaningfulness-and-teleology but rather as of the specific human-subpotency as to overall reifying-and-empowering-reflexivity-of-ecstatic-existence-as-panintelligibility -<imbued-and–‘hermeneutically/reprojectively-educing’–human-subpotency–epistemic-perspective-of-projective/reprojective—aestheticising-re-motif–and–re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referring–conceptualisation>, that is, as to ‘human-subpotency potential to epistemically converge to the full-potency of existence’; and this underlying structure of reflexivity is the very structure in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process, however, the surreptitious and opportunistic temporal interpretations to exploit its positive consequences at one moment and to reject it the moment it prospectively challenges-us/puts-us-to-question as of prospective implications of living-development–as-to-personality-development, institutional-development–as-to-social-function-development and Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of– meaningfulness-and-teleology. The implication here is that all human knowledge is necessarily for-human-studies/for-human-constructs whether with regards to the social or the natural sciences; as to the fact that all such knowledge is ever only referenced/registered/decisioned in the human consciousness (individual consciousness and collective consciousness respectively as to direct knowledge and indirect knowledge as of deferential-formalisation-transference implications) and functions to broaden-the-latitude-of-human-collective-consciousness with regards to human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint in existence. The very possibility for prospective human knowledge generation thus calls for human dimensionality-of-sublimating—<amplituding/formative>supererogatory-de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation given the reality of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions–existentialism-form-factor, with such human dimensionality-of-sublimating—<amplituding/formative>supererogatory-de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation speaking of true humanity projection for prospective secondnaturizing institutionalisation (that goes on to broaden-the-latitude-of-human-collective-consciousness), and so over the wrongfully elicited self-satisfaction of sophistic/pedantic presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness in existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought failing to address the universal implications of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint. This underlying human knowledge-notionalisation is what speaks of the distinction between the physician and quack-doctor, the technician/engineer and the scammer, the intellectual and the sophist, etc. Critically, the former as involved in prospective originariness/reifying/intellectualising—idealising/transcending/sublimating—meaningfulness-and-its-institutionalisation bluntly profess that ‘human temporality’/shortness <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought<-as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—as-of—‘nondescript/ignorable–void’—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>’ is in want for secondnatured knowledge and institutionalisation, and so as to the former human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening (as to the specifically cultivated arts/skills and time investment, and on the intimation that the implied deferential-formalisation-transference is so-validated as of the supposedly coherent ontological-commitment). In the bigger picture, this speaks to a human socially expanded framework of deferential-formalisation-transference as to various cultivated skills/arts and time investment with their knowledge deferential-formalisation-transference validation as of the supposedly coherent ontological-commitment; and implying a greatly expanded human collective consciousness as of differing for-human-studies/for-human-constructs of originariness/reifying/intellectualising—idealising/transcending/sublimating—meaningfulness-and-its-institutionalisation. On the other hand, what is typical about quack-doctors, scammers, sophists, etc. with regards to prospective human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint is a predilection for eliciting the idea that ‘human temporality’/shortness <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought<-as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—as-of—‘nondescript/ignorable–void’—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>’ is basically of competent judgment (notwithstanding the latter’s underlying banal framework as to the reality of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions—existentialism-form-factor, and lack of related cultivated skills/arts and time investment as to the requisite human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening`). It is on the basis of ‘so-prepping the human ego’ in an exercise not truly meant to broaden-the-latitude-of-human-collective-consciousness (going by the eventual outcomes of such falsehoods) given that in the very first place the issue has nothing to do with inherent and genuine originariness/reifying/intellectualising—idealising/transcending/sublimating—meaningfulness-and-its-institutionalisation but rather a lulling falsehood that sees our mortal egos as the very target for surreptitiously inducing our moral and intellectual disenfranchisement/swindling/corruption/dispossession; as in effect, overall sophistry as to its underlying social-vestedness/normativity—<discretely-implied-functionalism> undermining of human dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness—by-reification—/contemplative-distension is effectively about discouraging the possibility for prospective humanity to manifest. But then this intellectualism and sophistry conundrum underlying knowledge-notionalisation (as of prospective human living-development—as-to-personality-development, institutional-development—as-to-social-function-development and Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology ), de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically marks all human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint as to ‘the uninstitutionalised-threshold attendant framework of lack of social universal-transparency—(transparency-of-totalising-entailing—as-to-entailing—<amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness—)–or-understanding-of-ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework—is-of-underlying-phenomena’. This very fact is defining as without the latter there wouldn’t be any human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint in the very first place; and this very much explains the defining relevance of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions–existentialism-form-factor, as to the possibility for genuine human reification and emancipation to broaden-the-latitude-of-human-collective-consciousness or disenfranchising falsehoods. The taxingness-of-originariness (as to the direct relation between human-subpotency and existence-potency–sublimating–nascence–disclosed–from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of–amplituding/formative–epistemicity–totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought–in–supererogatory–epistemic-conflatedness) is effectively what underlies human institutional paralysis and social-vestedness/normativity–discretely-implied-functionalism–as well as the possibility for prospective human construction-of-the-Self in the face of increasingly technically aloof/remote and racing technological, organisational and social transformation; such that the requisite human thoughtfulness that can correspondingly broaden-the-latitude-of-human-collective-consciousness is increasingly out of the loop as humankind in the modern positivism age has increasingly become rather a self-subjugating agent to such transformations as to their lopsided material/equipment/accoutrement sublimation implications with the notion of human consciousness sublimation increasingly passivised and blanked to vested social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning actions. But then humankind faces the challenge of contemplatively articulating meaningfulness-and-teleology capable of reinventing/recreating and keeping the human at the driver seat rather than an object of unformulated/unthought-of driven existential emergence/becoming as of lopsided material/equipment/accoutrement sublimation over a ‘dreary blankness of consciousness’ (rather functioning to be attended-to and accommodated/unaccommodated by that lopsided material/equipment/accoutrement sublimation) as human consciousness is in want of its very own corresponding sublimation as to redefining the possibilities/potential for prospective humanity that can further broaden-the-latitude-of-human-collective-consciousness. Such ‘dreary blankness of consciousness’ (beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology→<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>) is predicated upon and drags along the shiftiness-of-the-Self as from prior human stake-contention-or-confliction conceptualisation in a psychological entrapment of defining naiveties and complexes (so-construed in presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness as historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition), and so towards humankind’s supposed future (as of living-development—as-to-personality-development, institutional-development—as-to-social-function-development and Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-structure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology); and in many ways this historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition has already been stifling/stalling the human prospective potential as from the ontological-normalcy/postconvergence perspective conception of future historicity/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing relevant to deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought. Such historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition is fundamentally defined by a certain enduring reproducibility passivity and blankness of human social processes, wary of the implications of prospective renewal possibilities as the psychological entrapment constraints of historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition override prospective originariness-parrhesia,—as—spontaneity-of-aestheticisation possibilities, and the prospect for the future is ever so tied down to the psychological entrapment of prior human stake-contention-or-confliction framework that nullifies the possibility for renewal of humanity. Institutionalised historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition thus foregoes the construal of human meaningfulness-and-teleology as a construct of re-originariness/re-origination of meaningfulness-and-teleology as to human limited-mentation-
human-subpotency temporality/shortness; wherein ‘invested’ institutional and theoretical/conceptual postures take on an essence all of their own, and so independently and overlooking the precedence of existential-reality for the possibility for prospective sublimation and knowledge-reification and failing to ‘effectively re-stake/put-back-at-stake in re-originariness/re-origination the capacity of human ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology> in a renewing originariness-parrhesia,—as-spontaneity-of-aestheticisation’ over already set/established/determining prior reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as—reproducibility-of-aestheticisation, and so failing to be responsive to the fact that human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening rather invokes prospective dimensionality-of-sublimating—including-virtue-as-ontology> rather than—<amplituding/formative—supererogatory—de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equality for re-originariness/re-origination (and as ever always such destructuring-threshold—(uninstitutionalised-threshold/presublimating—desublimating-decisionality)—of-ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology> across the successive registry-worldviews/dimensions abuse of the idea of being at the backend of human institutional-cumulation/institutional-recomposure—as-to—historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing> as speaking to its own exceptionalism in a naïve —<amplituding/formative—epistemicity> totalising—self-referencing—syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag posture instead of the true instigative exceptionalism of the underlying ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process). This temporal/shortness disposition to fail re-originariness/re-origination is of overall social recurrence as to human temporality/shortness —<amplituding/formative> wooden-language—(imbued—averaging-of-thought—as-to—leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—of—‘nondescript/ignorable—void’—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications)> as of presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness becomes a psychological entrapment of an overwhelming presence hardly capable of profound re-originariness/re-origination but for its thresholding to the accrued historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperrealtransposition perception of temporal/shortness human stakes-contention-or-confliction framework; with the consequence that this mitigates the possibility to broaden-the-latitude-of-human-collective-consciousness off-the-beaten-path of historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition (as of living-development—as-to-personality-development, institutional-development—as-to-social-function-development and Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology) as to the relation with human lopsided material/equipment/accoutrement sublimation, as such a consciousness increasingly adopts a desublimation/gimmickiness rather than its very own sublimation in tandem with material/equipment/accoutrement sublimation. This is reflected with the increasing remoteness/aloofness and alienation of the generalised human subject from such material/equipment/accoutrement sublimation captured under abstract institutional frameworks of stewardship expecting a ‘dreary blankness of consciousness’ (rather functioning to be attended-to and accommodated/unaccommodated by the lopsided material/equipment/accoutrement sublimation) in order to maximise passive enculturation and merchandising as of ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness -of—meaningfulness-and-teleology’ given ‘historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition’. Thus, the possibility for the generalised human subject capacity for consciousness sublimation is seized up and constrained in such socially and institutionally bureaucratising and deterministic frameworks that now de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically determine the possibilities of human consciousness sublimation as to their abstracted defining conception of human stake-contention-or-confliction (as of living-development—as-to-personality-development, institutional-development—as-to-social-function-development and Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development—as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology) such that the generalised human subject re-originariness/re-origination sublimation imaginary possibilities are already truncated as from prospective ontological-normalcy/postconvergence epistemic/notional—projective-perspective of re-originariness/re-origination as implied with prospective deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of—reference-of-thought. Today, many agile initiatives allowing more or less for the expression of the human subject imaginary and so specifically with start-up entrepreneurship increasingly highlight that in many ways traditional social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning are suboptimal conceptualisations of human consciousness sublimation possibilities as to their thoroughgoing beholdenness to ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness -of—meaningfulness-and-teleology’ given ‘historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition’ bounded to prospective thresholds of passivity and blanking of human consciousness sublimation possibilities. In many ways because of poor appreciation of the ‘direct bilateral relationship of appropriate construction-of-the-Self for appropriate cognisance-and-integration of prospective relative-ontological-completeness meaningfulness-and-teleology the modern mindset has tended to construe of its lopsided material/equipment/accoutrement sublimation implications naively as implying the comprehensive fulfilment of human potential with poor appreciation/sense that effectively as reflected with prior registry-worldviews/dimensions, the proximity of technology then never implied as today a generalised human consciousness passivity and blankness to the point of relative desublimation/gimmickiness over sublimation (beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought ); and so as potently contended by Baudrillard simulacrum conception wherein gimmicky formulaic representations of overall aestheticisation—and—aestheticisation-towards-ontology increasingly substitute for more profound possibilities of human aestheticisation—and—aestheticisation-towards-ontology as

Whereas historically the technological accessibility and proximity to the generalised human consciousness of such events like the invention of metal implements, the plough, writing, the printing press, etc. provided more profound possibilities for human consciousness sublimation in re-originariness/re-origination, beyond mere lopsided technological as of lopsided material/equipment/accoutrement sublimation in the framework of ‘a presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’

Desublimating historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition imbued psychological entrapment arises inherently because of the taxingness-of-originariness as to the fact that: what has gone before aesthetically structures/paradigms distortedly the possibility for the later aestheticisation, with regards to human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening as of its decoherencing-structure—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—for-institutionalisation. But then existence is not beholden to any such human reproducibility—mathesis/motif/throwness-disposition,—as—reproducibility-of-aestheticisation residuality that induces human decoherencing-structure—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—for-institutionalisation stifling/stalling of the full possibility of prospective historicity/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing. Desublimating historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition aestheticisation—and—aestheticisation-towards-ontology decoherencing-structure—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—for-institutionalisation (as construed from the prospective notional—deprocrypticism ontological-normalcy/postconvergence epistemic/notional—projective-perspective) can be reflected with respect to the very supposedly most enlightening-giving notion of philosophy as to its decoherencing-structure—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—for-institutionalisation (as from the ontological-normalcy/postconvergence epistemic/notional—projective-perspective) from human philosophy, to varying philosophies as of African, Oriental, European, Arab, etc. as to desublimating 46 historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition psychological entrapment that ultimately denatures the 47 historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing purity of the very notion of philosophy. This patent elucidation of the decoherencing-structure—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—for-institutionalisation as to such a supposedly most abstract and enlightening-giving notion that is philosophy is a basic insight (as construed from the ontological-normalcy/postconvergence epistemic/notional—projective-perspective) of desublimating 46 historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition psychological entrapment with respect to the overall prospective sublimating 46 historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing (which de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically seems to be entrapped/stifled in human taxingness-of-originariness). Effectively, human decoherencing-structure—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—for-institutionalisation arises as of ‘taxingness-of-originariness (what has gone before aesthetically structures/paradigms distortedly the possibility for the later aestheticisation). The idea of superseding the human registry-worldview’s/dimension’s institutionalisation decoherencing-structure—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—for-institutionalisation (as to ‘abstractly projected finality in reflecting holographically—<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity —of-the-human-institutionalisation-process") for prospective sublimating 46 historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing, patently makes obvious what the true implications of prospective deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought project with respect to its dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness—by-reification /contemplative-distension re-originariness/re-origination conceptualisation in relation to our present positivism—procrypticism aestheticisation—and—aestheticisation-towards-ontology as 46 meaningfulness-and-teleology". This is reflected in the projected underlying ontological-performance\(^\d\)<-including-virtue-as-ontology> divergent relation between \(^\d\) historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition (as constrained to human taxingness-of-originariness as to: what has gone before aesthetically structures/paradigms distortedly the possibility for the later aestheticisation) and prospective \(^\d\) historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing. \(^\d\) historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition as implied at all uninstitutionalised-threshold \(^\d\) is what underlies the notionally-collateralising inclination of human \(^\d\) meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^\d\) as of any given registry-worldview/dimension in relative-ontological-incompleteness; speaking in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity\(^\d\)—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\(^\d\) as ‘an overall human aestheticisation—and—aestheticisation-towards-ontology originariness-by-reproducibility-laddering effect’ for corresponding human consciousness sublimation. But then the implication of \(^\d\) deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought as supposedly superseding human relatively-shallow-frame-of-elicited-positive-opportunism\(^\d\)-of-low-intrinsic-attribution-and-high-extrinsic-attribution-susceptibility,—in-dimensionality-of-desublimating-lack-of—<amplituding-formative> supererogatory—dementativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflicatedness\(^\d\) /transvaluated-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation, as to its ‘aspiring pureness of re-originariness/re-origination’, is effectively ‘a reconstrual in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity\(^\d\)—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\(^\d\) as to the obviating of its decoherencing-structure—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^\d\)-for-institutionalisation induced historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition (beyond the implications of taxingness-of-originariness as to: what has gone before aesthetically structures/paradigms distortedly the possibility for the later aestheticisation)’; such that the notional—deprocrypticism potential is ‘a wholly other of historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition’ as to the implications of its re-originariness/re-origination for prospective historicity/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing beyond foregone aestheticisation—and—aestheticisation-towards-ontology in reflecting holographically—<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process (in truly reflecting the ‘full human-subpotency potentiation’ as to the most profound human capacity for dispensing-with-immediacy—for-relative-ontological-completeness—by-reification /contemplative-distension ). Its defining question is whether and how can the human reconstrue meaningfulness-and-teleology in re-originariness/re-origination beyond its trailing/dragging foregone aestheticised meaningfulness-and-teleology construal? This limitativeness of historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition is fundamentally an issue of human psychological entrapment ‘defining naiveties and complexes’ as to human shiftiness-of-the-Self as of its presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness (construable abstractly as fundamentally subpar to human effectuation potential but for the fact that the psychological entrapment is a paradoxical circular constituent of the human as to its ‘notionally–collateralising-beholdening-protohumanity by sublimating-humanity existentialism-form-factor’). Human presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness as the very seeding disposition for historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition is ever always characterised by its immediacy-reactive-criticality (over panoramic-sublimating-criticality) as to its constraining aestheticisation—and—aestheticisation-towards-ontology framework; such that the propensity for human meaningfulness-and-teleology to be instigated (as to human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening before any construable human panoramic-sublimating-criticality outcome of meaningfulness-and-teleology) has ever always been bound to take ‘a notionally-collateralising inclination detour of aestheticisation—and—aestheticisation-towards-ontology’ (as with regards to human living-development–as-to-personality-development or institutional-development–as-to-social-function-development or Being-development/ontological-framework-end up overtly or covertly drawing their inherent justification on the basis of their inherent prior aestheticisation—and–aestheticisation-towards-ontology as of human socialvestedness/normativity-\(<\text{discretely-implied-functionalism}>\) rather than any relevant underlying supposedly coherent ontological-commitment\(^{8}\) as their social-vestedness/normativity-historicality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing. Actually, the notion of hyperreality–as-to-its-simulacrum implications highlighted by postmodern-thought is more profoundly manifested in reflecting holographically-\(<\text{conjugatively-and-transfusively}>\) the ontological-contiguity\(^{6}\)—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\(^{7}\) as to historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition implications with regards to

Likewise, this insight can be extended in reflecting the historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition of ‘an engrained traditional non-universalising conceptualisation of the world’ incapable/could-not-bring-itself to mentally process the implications of the nascent universalising-idealisation attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme implied by the Socratic philosophers as to its apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism (as of psychoanalytic-unshackling/memetic-reordering/institutional-recomposuring) induced crossgenerational transformation. In both instances it speaks to an underlying

Incidentally, the ‘supposedly positivism/rational-empiricism formulaic/mechanical knowledge contenders’ as of the economic-opportunism-and-then-enculturation of their nefarious practices, were very much countervailing the practice and trend within their own societies of origin undergoing-positivism/rational-empiricism-transformation and the underlying dual-language/split-mentality unscrupulousness was given away as of the ‘out-of-sight demeanour’ in their main societies pointing to historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition distortive-originariness/distortive-origination, rather than being fully assumed as marking positivism/rational-empiricism progress implied historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing originariness. The latter is so-criticised as to the fact that methods/methodologies/approaches, as reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as—reproducibility-of-aestheticisation, are actually the mechanical-knowledge outcrop of the ‘successive reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning prospective idiosyncratic-framing of existential-reality as to the organic-knowledge of the Socrates, Platos, Aristotles, Copernicuses, Galileos, Descartes, Newtons, Leibnizes, Darwins, Rousseaus, etc. as to their induced prospective-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—reification the implications of science-ideology are ultimately social and institutional as to the implications of human emancipation; and so in the sense that contrary to what is generally thought, science itself as for-human-studies is the very first-level of social science as of the epistemic implications it projects upon society and social ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’, and critically so because in reality budding-positivists were actually the very first modern social scientists in the sense that their posturing wasn’t critically about the ‘technicalities of the budding natural science they advanced’ like a heliocentric world or rational-empiricism driven natural science basis of analysis (as to satisfy their mere natural science curiosity given that in many ways some of the notions where previously advanced in different forms), but they were rather critically engaged in a social posturing to epistemically reconstrue the society and social ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ in those scientific terms and the future elaboration and development of the natural sciences could only be rendered possible with an open society responsive to such budding scientific meaning, and it was this social posturing which was the true source of their troubles and persecution. In fact, such ridiculous historical interpretations seeming to criticise budding-positivists like Galileo for wrongly making the case for a heliocentric world for instance are paradoxically based on condemning the latter and other budding-positivists for having a poor experimental framework as of ontologically-deficient presencing—absolutising-identitative-constitutedness analyses that fail to factor in that the very notion of ‘positivistic science experimental framework historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing’ was developed and enculturated/constructed as scientific practices by these budding-positivists with their medieval societies previously knowing nothing of such as to their medieval-scholasticism (as to the mere disinclination and incuriosity to even look through a telescope and draw contemplative consequences); and such a criticism on the basis of the subsequently developed and more precise modern day science experimental framework speaks of the characteristic nature of a supposed knowledge-reification exercise that doesn’t factor in human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening as of relative-ontological-incompleteness to ‘relative-ontological-incompleteness /relative-ontological-completeness’-(sublimating–registering/registering/decisioning,—as-self-becoming/self-conflatedness /formative–supererogating–<projective/reprojective—Thus it is such an ideological conception of science and knowledge-reification on the latter basis (as of prior-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–dialogical-equivalence-as-superseded-logical-basis) that ultimately translates into the ‘methodological, epistemic, institutional and social sagging of human knowledge-reification’ reflected abstractly in crises of methodology, epistemicity and scholarship as well as derived human institutional and social crises as to underlying ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ infrastructure; and critically so with regards to our own positivism/rational-empiricism manifestation of procrypticism–or–disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought relevant-level of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions–existentialism-form-factor that has to be addressed. Hegelian dialectics and its derived-dialectics like Marxism wherein aspiration/ideology takes-a-leap-above/parts-with and is not utterly submitted to inherent existence ontological aestheticisation–and–aestheticisation-towards-ontology’ speaks in itself of the ‘potentiative-paradox of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-

existentialism-form-factor’ (as the underlying potentiative-paradox of human paradoxes).
Critically, at any given moment, potentiatively humankind is ever always inclined-andamenable to face up to certain aporia/undecidability/dilemma/oughtindeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint while rather disinclined with respect to other aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint; and this very much explains the ‘potentiative-paradox of human-subpotency– aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint it is disinclined to face up to’ (associated with its defining prospective transvaluative-rationalising / sublimating-thoughtfulness / historicity-or-ontological-eventfulness—or-ontological-aesthetic-tracing / prospective-ontological-projection / ideality as to prospective originariness-parrhesia,—as—spontaneity-of-aestheticisation) but rather directly proceed as of the ‘perceived aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint it is supposedly inclined-and-amenable to face up to’ (reflecting its threshold as to dimensionality-of-desublimating-lack-of —<amplituding/formative>supererogatory—dentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation / desublimating-or-gimmickiness-unthoughtfulness / historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition / social-vestedness-or-normativity / positive-opportunism—disposition), but then the latter is improvisably/uncontrollably potentiatively-transformed into the former as to the former existentially constraining implications of ontological-veracity. Thus the reality of prospective human emancipation in reflecting holographically—<conjunctively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process rather as of such a ‘human consciousness defensive-driven/unhinging/unbalancing improvising/uncontrolled potentiative-transforming-process so-constrained existentially on the basis of human supposedly coherent ontological-commitment’ (as to the potentiative transforming/conversion, on the basis of existentially constraining implications of ontological-veracity, of human ‘perceived aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint it is supposedly inclined-and-amenable to face up to’ into human ‘prospectively conceptualisable aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint it is disinclined to face up to’) in many ways limits/stifles/undermines/derails human contemplative capacity for prospective emancipative implications (as can be so-contemplated from prospective notional–deprocrypticism conceptualisation of ‘boundless human aestheticisation–and–aestheticisation-towards-ontology’); and so critically as to the ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness human totalising-self-referencing-syncrétising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag social-stake-contention-or-confliction state inducing human psychological entrapment in want for prospective psychoanalytic-unshackling/memetic-reordering/institutional-recomposing. But then such apparently defining limitation to ‘boundless human aestheticisation–and–aestheticisation-towards-ontology’ when analysed as to the reality of human transformation across the time scale in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process (wherein the successive registry-worldviews/dimensions as from recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, base-institutionalisation, universalisation right up to our present positivism and so as from the appearance of mankind on earth about 200000 years ago) show ‘a time-accelerated metaphoricity—potentiation’ when we consider that our present positivism registry-worldview is just about 500 years; pointing out that as of our specific human-subpotency as to overall overall reifying-and-empowering-reflexivity-ecstatic-existence-as-panintelligibility—<imbued-and-

At the root of this undermining of prospective ‘requisite human dimensionality-of-sublimating—supererogatory–de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation’ is the social dilution/enfeeblement of value-construction/value-aspiration as to their ‘ad-hoc and incoherent totalising/circumscribing/delineating implications supposedly non-ontological as to non-metaphysical’ (with regards to conceptualising the social-construct prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity value-construction/value-aspiration), as associated particularly with ‘the specious usurpation of the overall social-construct’s intellectual–function/posture as to prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity’; with the paradox of such usurpation especially as of its drivenness in ‘intellectually mediating institutions as to popular-sovereignty’ including the media effectively projecting arbitrary social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> constructs and frameworks of value-construction/value-aspiration while failing to intellectually editorialise/articulate/reflect the ontological equanimity/balance of conceptualisations as to the momentous implications of prospective historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing (thus implicitly upholding the notion that the social is non-ontological as non-metaphysical); especially given that the equanimity/balance for upholding democratic sovereignty is in effect achievable only as of ‘de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic <amplituding/formative– decision-making/editorialising processes quite often the niggling exceptions to entrenched and existentially-unthought reflex. Such that beyond ‘gimmickiness/desublimation frameworks of aestheticisation’ in many ways the social-construct’s intellectual–function/posture itself (as of aestheticisation-towards-ontology with respect to prospective human emancipation) becomes capitalistically-captured-at-the-exclusion/denaturing of-reifying-and-empowering-intellectual-

lead to conundrums of prospective science and technology development as to the very possibility for developing the full human potential of science and technology as well as with respect to the underdevelopment of the human as to its shiftiness-of-the-Self\(^1\) in the capacity to handle and deal with prospective science and technology in such a manner that doesn’t imperil mankind’s very own survival (departing as from the larger conception of survival, beyond ‘reactionary construal’ of them-and-us in \(\text{presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness}\) \(^{13}\)<amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising~self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag\(^3\) that end up ‘destructively dehumanising’ the various ‘the other’). This difference between a ‘purist science/ontology epistemic-conception of veracity/truth’ and the conception of veracity/truth as from the latitude of ‘human social-vestedness/normativity-implied contract/political-arrangement-or-political-coercion/given-discrete-social-value-construction’ is critically reflected in the fact that the former orientation is priorly-and-ultimately concerned with existence’s foregrounding—entailment-\((\text{postconverging}–\text{narrowing-down}–\text{sublimation as to existence}–\text{as-sublimating-withdrawal,}\text{-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation})\) in reflecting ‘immanent-ontological-contiguity’\(^{3}\), as-operative-notional-deprocrypticism imbued sublimation whereas the latter is critically concerned with ‘conceptions of human abstract interpositions as of elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity’\(^{4}\) that are not necessarily subject to phenomenal/manifest existence’s foregrounding—entailment-\((\text{postconverging}–\text{narrowing-down}–\text{sublimation as to existence}–\text{as-sublimating-withdrawal,}\text{-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation})\) in reflecting ‘immanent-ontological-contiguity’\(^{5}\), as-operative-notional-deprocrypticism’; and so-peculiarly implied with the ‘importing/exporting of reductionisms’ (as to the fact that there is no physics reductionism of physics or say mathematics reductionism of mathematics or biology reductionism of biology as to being the real and natural orientation for the specific physics, mathematics and biology epistemic-conceptions of their respective epistemic-conceptions phenomenal/manifest-subpotencies-\(<\text{in-transitive-conflatedness}–\text{reflexivity,}-\text{in-the-full-potency-of-existence’s-sublimating–nascence}>\)) to explain human psychological and social phenomena that ‘end up implicitly denying the very obvious reality of the psychological and social subpotencies-\(<\text{in-transitive-conflatedness}–\text{reflexivity,}-\text{in-the-full-potency-of-existence’s-sublimating–nascence}>\)’. In many ways taking such ontologically-flawed interpretations seriously induces human impotency and desublimation (as to the implicated contention that the human ‘supposedly has no profound sublimating social and socio-psychological phenomenal/manifest-subpotencies<in-transitive-conflatedness→reflexivity,-in-the-full-potency-of-existence’s-sublimating–nascence>’ with the ‘supposedly profound phenomenal/manifest-subpotencies<in-transitive-conflatedness→reflexivity,-in-the-full-potency-of-existence’s-sublimating–nascence>’ construed rather in reductionist terms of biology/neurology or physicalism) as is often also associated with social-vestedness/normativity<discretely-implied-functionalism> disparateness-of-conceptualisation<unforegrounding-disentailment,-failing-to-reflect-‘immanent-ontological-contiguity’>; thus ‘actually denying the metaphysical nature and thus ontological nature of the sublimating social and socio-psychological’ such that existence-potency-sublimating–nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of<amplituding-formative-epistemicity>totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-supererogatory–epistemic-conflatedness sublimation implications with regards to the social and socio-psychological are hardly contemplated and recognised as so-projected herein as to the ontological-contiguity<of-the-human-institutionalisation-process>. But then such reductionism actually fails the ‘necessitation test of any science/ontology’ as in reality it is a gimmicky exploitation of the sublimation of the natural sciences as to their inherent phenomenal/manifest-subpotencies<in-transitive-conflatedness→reflexivity,-in-the-full-potency-of-existence’s-sublimating–nascence> to then ‘utilise the clout to falsely imply substitutive/reductionist sublation over the social and socio-psychological phenomenal/manifest-subpotencies<in-transitive-conflatedness→reflexivity,-in-the-full-potency-of-existence’s-sublimating–nascence>’ (as so-reflected with practices of science-ideology associated with biological/neurological and evolutionary substitutive/reductionist interpretations of the social and socio-psychological). But then the giveaway of such a flawed conception of science/ontology lies in the fact that such approaches do not project any ‘<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating necessitation frame–of–ontological-contiguity’ as all pretences of science/ontology must demonstrate and aspire to (consider in this regards the ‘<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating necessitation frame–of–ontological-contiguity’) of physics, chemistry, biological, genetic theories as to the ontological-contiguity Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology, and so comprehensively articulating human organisational and institutional driven/potent sociocultural, economic, political, legal, etc. manifestations on such biological/neurological and evolutionary substitutive/reductionist basis of supposed sublimation as to their ‘<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating existential-contextualising-contiguity’–foregrounding—entailment—(postconverging—narrowing-down—sublimation as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation in reflecting ‘immanent-ontological-contiguity’),—as-operative-notional—deprocrypticism in elucidating ontological-contiguity—<as-from-prospective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-epistemic/notional–projective-perspective>’. The reality of such biological/neurological and evolutionary substitutive/reductionist interpretations of the social and socio-psychological is rather one that points out that the ‘traditional nature versus nurture debate itself is fundamentally an axiomatically bankrupt conception’ since ‘not even such proponents implicitly point to an underlying human drivenness and functioning of the social and socio-psychological framework on the basis of any such supposed ‘<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating necessitation frame–of–ontological-contiguity of biological/neurological and evolutionary substitutive/reductionist interpretations’, but rather the strategies of such proponents (beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology—in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought) work paradoxically only by impliciting the reality of the ‘<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating necessitation frame–of–ontological-contiguity of the social and socio-psychological epistemic-conception phenomenal/manifest–subpotencies—in-transitive-conflatedness–reflexivity,—in-the-full-potency-of-existence’s–sublimating–nascence> (as to their implied sublimating existence’s

The consequence of such vague disparateness-of-conceptualisation--unforegrounding-disentailment,-failing-to-reflect--‘immanent-ontological-contiguity<--‘ as to failing ‘<amplituding/formative--epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating necessitation frame--of--ontological-contiguity<--‘ (as implied as of the requisite ‘<amplituding/formative--epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating existential-contextualising-contiguity<--‘ foregrounding—entailment—(postconverging—narrowing-down—sublimation as to existence— as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation<-- in reflecting ‘immanent-ontological-contiguity<--‘)-as-operative-notional—deprocrypticism in elucidating ontological-contiguity<--<as-from-prospective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-epistemic/notional—projective-perspective>’), is that (besides their basic epistemic innocence/naivety) such biological/neurological and evolutionary interpretations substitutive/reductionist epistemic-conception then provide the room for sophistic/pedantic dispositions that construe of the inherent sublimation in the natural sciences qua natural sciences as the surreptitious opportunity to project gimmicky/desublimating interpretations about the social (on the basis of the ‘hollow impressiveness of the natural sciences’) as a psychological trick/gimmick as to rendering knowledge-reification’sublimation in the social impotent with regards to varied social-stake-contention-or-confliction purposes. Such claims often project/imply that analysing the social qua social is just about irrelevant (or paradoxically ‘make their very own subterfuge social interpretations’ as from the psychological trick/gimmick of the projected hollow impressiveness of the natural sciences so-derived from the clout of a natural science without demonstrating the epistemic-veracity for such a bypassing/dodgery as to arrive at the social ‘<amplituding/formative--epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating perspective’ and ‘not about the constancy of any notion of intemporal individual’). Such a ‘perpetual off-balance act associated with human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening’ speak to the more profound reality that the ordinariness of human thought across the succession of human registry-worldviews/dimensions points to their ‘epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence’ despite the delusion of all registry-worldviews/dimensions in their ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’ as being of ‘absolute epistemic-normalcy’; and it is because of this latter fact (as from the ontological-normalcy/postconvergence epistemic-projection perspective) that prospective human progress and emancipation as of human transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity can occur in the very first place (in contradiction to all such registry-worldviews/dimensions ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’ failure to directly grasp their very own <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag, even as the possibility for prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity necessarily involves such a requisite psychoanalytic-unshackling/memetic-reordering/institutional-recomposuring). In other words, the ‘effective equilibration of human sublimating meaningfulness-and-teleology across the successive registry-worldviews/dimensions’ does not lie with any ‘ordinariness/commonsensicality as of the successive registry-worldviews/dimensions ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’ as falsely elicited by their sophistic/pedantic dispositions, as in reality it rather lies in ‘the dynamically differentiated transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated-’motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing of the ontological-performance—<including-virtue-as-ontology> of human temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions narratives’: and so as to human-subpotency ‘fatedness-of-sublimation-over-desublimation, to existence-potency~sublimating–nascence, disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of:<amplituding/formative– perspective over the prior institutionalised/classical-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs with the latter never assuming any arrogance as to its prior methodologising/mutualising/organising/institutionalising conception of physics. Critically, philosophers and budding-positivists it is always the case that the sophistic/pedantic dispositions will fathom that in relation to prospectively sublimating base-institutionalisation, universalisation, positivism and notional-deprocrypticism the effective ‘world that exists to the majority people (as of ‘human temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions accordion-ing-as-of-varying-individuations-contextually-transverse-desublimation/sublimation,-as-to-the-redounding/wavering/waveforming—of-their-referencing-and-their-devolved-referencing-imbued-ontological-performance -<including-virtue-as-ontology>) at uninstitutionalised-threshold as reflecting both desublimating historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition and sublimating historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing possibilities’) respectively is recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, ununiversalisation, non-positivism/medievalism and procrypticism—or—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought to go on cynically eliciting <amplituding/formative> wooden-language—(imbued—averaging-of-thought—<as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology”–as-of—‘nondescript/ignorable–void ‘—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>) as of the latter. Ultimately, there is a ‘social underlying sublimating intellection proficiency’ to which all specific domains of study need to account for their sublimating pertinence; and the possibility of putting into question all ‘Establishment intellection as of their given presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’ (from across the most ancient civilisations to modern times and so as instigated by the Socrates, Galileos, Descartes, Diderots, etc.) has always arisen within-or-without such epochal Establishment intellection by the prompting of their ‘social underlying sublimating intellection proficiency’ which contemplative consciousness is not to be underestimated as to a ‘decadence posturing of intellectual entitlement’. Critically, the possibility of prospective value-construction and pretence of projecting more profound value is indissociable from the capacity of producing the relative-ontological-completeness of knowledge that broaden-the-latitude-of-human-collective-consciousness as to the fact that just as prior recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, ununiversalisation, non-positivism/medievalism and procrypticism—or—disjointedness-as-of—reference-of-thought respectively are intellectually-and-morally wanting with respect to prospective base-institutionalisation, universalisation, positivism/rational-empiricism and deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of—reference-of-thought value-construction respectively; pretences of profound intellection as to the former are nothing but sophistic/pedantic exploitations of human limited-mentation-capacity as to ‘a delusion of generating knowledge and value from thin air’, and of vital importance in that regards is the fact that that which is in relative-ontological-completeness has to occupy the intellectual-and-moral ground imbued by such relative-ontological-completeness. Vague notions of arrogance and wretchedness are nothing but the ontological-veracity of the state of relative-ontological-incompleteness arrogance and wretchedness of thought (as from the ontological-normalcy/postconvergence epistemic/notional—projective-perspective) as to an epistemically-decadent wooden-language—imbued—temporal—mere-form/virtualities/dereification/akrasiatic-drag/denatured/preconverging-or-dementing—narratives—of-the—reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology); and so as to the fact that the magnanimity of dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness—by—reification/contemplative-distension out of concern about human prospective Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology ‘is the most important human and humanity-producing enterprise’ notwithstanding the paradox that the prior recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, ununiversalisation, non-positivism/medievalism and procrypticism—or—disjointedness-as-of—reference-of-thought respectively are intellectually-and-morally undeveloped to be the framework for appraising value-construction as of prospective base—institutionalisation, universalisation, positivism/rational-empiricism and deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought respectively in many ways explaining the underlying implications of human registry-worldview’s/dimension’s institutionalisation as involving crossgenerational psychoanalytic-unshackling/memetic-reordering/institutional-recomposuring. This affirmation is not articulated idly as to the fact that part and parcel of human knowledge-reification is not to allow desublimating thought to occupy the ground of sublimating thought (as the latter has to include a challenge to the knowledge-destroying desublimating thought arrogance and wretchedness), however the subterfuges available to such desublimation whether as of sophistry and mere-institutional-appendaging as reflecting the veridical prospective human-subpotency—aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint; taking hint that it is fundamentally a question about existence-potency—sublimating—nascence,—disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of—totalising—renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,—in—supererogatory—epistemic-conflatedness and no amount of human mortals methodologising/mutualising/organising/institutionalising can supersede prospective sublimating existence’s necessitating implications and consequences as otherwise the very idea of ontology/science then collapses and the supposed knowledge-reification exercise becomes pointless but as for institutional parading value. There is simply no knowledge without the effective demonstrated knowledge-reification implications and pretending otherwise as to ‘virtual wisdoms’ is nothing more tha totalising—self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag. Hence basically the overall differentiation between ‘purist science/ontology epistemic-conception of veracity/truth’ and ‘social-vestedness/normativity—epistemic-conception of veracity/truth’ lies with their constraining whether towards inherent existence projected underlying prospective human ontological-performance -<including-virtue-as-ontology> with regards to human \(^5\)meaningfulness-and-teleology \(^9\) speaks to the fact that prospectively induced human sublimation is bound to paradoxically distort-and-desublimate the ontological-veracity appraisal for inducing further and concomitant human sublimation (and so because of the de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic effect of relative limited-mentation-capacity-deepening\(^7\) in constrast to what will prevail in case of ‘absolute-mentation-capacity of apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument’). But then such effect critically varies as to both ‘purist science/ontology epistemic-conception of veracity/truth’ and ‘social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> epistemic-conception of veracity/truth’; in the sense that the latter poorly constrained to high predicative-effectivity–sublimation-{as-to-underlying-ontological-commitment \(\)} is strongly prone to desublimating \(^4\)historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperrealtransposition of ‘human-subpotency non-scalarity/beholding-<as-to-what-has-gone-beforeaesthetically-de-mentates/structures/paradigms-distortedly-the-possibility-for-the-later-ontologisation>’ in presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness\(^1\), while the former strongly constrained to high predicative-effectivity–sublimation-{as-to-underlying-ontological-commitment \(\)} is rather relatively amenable to sublimating \(^4\)historiality/ontological-eventfulness\(^7\)/ontological-aesthetic-tracing as of ‘scalarity/immanency of existence’s ontological-normalcy/postconvergence’. That said, human sublimation increasingly implies a ‘generalised background cultural,-organisation-and-institutional framework’ that itself needs to be sublimating, and it is here as well that even the propensity for sublimation of ‘purist science/ontology epistemic-conception of veracity/truth’ can be desublimated by an ontologically-impertinent ‘generalised background cultural,-organisation-and-institutional framework’ adopting ‘social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> epistemic-conception of veracity/truth’. In many ways with regards to the overall social framework, the usurpation of the intellectual–function/posture arising as of ‘social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> epistemic-conception of veracity/truth’ is often associated with vague-and-surreptitious conceptualisations of business success and media-and-social influence (in desublimating ‘historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition) as superseding social intellection itself as an inherent exercise for the social domain’s ‘purist science/ontology epistemic-conception of veracity/truth’ (as to the latter’s prospective sublimating 4historiality/ontological-eventfulness2/ontological-aesthetic-tracing). Critically such a ‘purist science/ontology epistemic-conception of veracity/truth’ analysis very much point out that the social-construct is riddled with narratives of ‘supposedly veridical ontological justifications/grounds’ but which on closer examination as of ‘purist science/ontology epistemic-conception of veracity/truth’ turn out to be at the least sub-ontological-<as-to-the-limitation-of-human-subpotency-in-its-reifying-and-empowering-reflexivity-of-the-full-potency-of-existence’s–sublimating–nascence>; and so as to the relative impertinence of the ‘social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> epistemic-conception of veracity/truth’ (so-construed as from the ontological-normalcy/postconvergence epistemic-projection perspective). This insight further informs prospective notional–deprocrypticism appraisal of the ‘tight-and-entwined relationship between the overall human ontological-commitment (across all registry-worldviews/dimensions) and (corresponding registry-worldviews/dimensions) predicative-effectivity–sublimation-(as-to-underlying-ontological-commitment⟩ (reflecting ‘scarity/immanency of existence’s ontological-normalcy/postconvergence’). In this regards, the de-

The strategic problem faced by the Ancient sophists and medievalism-scholastics in this respect (beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology<\textsuperscript>-<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>\textsuperscript>-) is how to exploit the fact that there is no ‘universalising-idealisation—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism enculturated/constructed social-pragmatics-framing-of—predicative-effectivity—sublimation-as-to-underlying-ontological-commitment’ and no ‘positivism/rational-empiricism—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism enculturated/constructed social-pragmatics-framing-of—predicative-effectivity—sublimation-(as-to-underlying-ontological-commitment)’ to de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically undermine respectively the possibility for both Socratic philosophers universalising-idealisation and positivism/rational-empiricism implied transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—de-mentativity meaningfulness-and-teleology by eliciting presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness sensibility/decorum as of non-universalising Ancient sophistry and non-positivism medieval-scholasticism respectively. Likewise, it is herein contended that a tradition of philosophy introduced and propped up after the second-world-war and a general social science and humanities attitude and practices closely associated with this orientation (as to perceived geostrategic reasons for undermining the possibility of unfettered thought paradoxically uncritical/thoughtless about the social implications associated with poor/usurped social critique) is fundamentally grounded on an actively surreptitious exercise of presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag that in many ways (given the inherent impotency it induces as recognised explicitly and implicitly by even its very own leading figures) has had the consequence of ‘undermining the natural social critical thinking that should enable the proper intellectual framing and addressing of human and social issues leading to a rather subservient intellectual posturing to socially dominant vested-interests/actors’ as so-reflected in the current impotence of the political exercise with mediating institutions failing sovereign-equanimity as political, economic and social stakes cumulatively default to vested-interests as to their \( \text{presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness} \) existentialising—enframing/imprintedness—\( \text{as-to- historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition} \).
Such an underlying intellectually deficient orientation is the surreptitious underhandedness failing social intellectual engagement in many ways explains the surreptitious campaigning against many a critical theory as to the possibility for a revitalised genuine and healthy social critique (and as it is especially so-directed at pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation promising postmodern-thought which portrays a very profound ontological-veracity as to prospective sublimation possibilities in the face of

This point out that the successive relative-ontological-completeness as base-institutionalisation, universalisation, positivism/rational-empiricism and notional–deprocrypticism respectively are actually projective-insights speaking to the fact that human prospective emancipation should rather be construed as of ‘human reference-of-thought (as grandest axiomatic-construct level) research-programme conception’ as so-enabling the transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity of the respective prior relative-ontological-incompleteness of recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, ununiversalisation, non-positivism/medievalism and procrypticism. Such ‘human reference-of-thought (as grandest axiomatic-construct level) research-programme conception’ reflects the fact that it is the ‘prospective de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic sublimation as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal–eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation’ as so-induced by notional–asceticism reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning’ that affirmatively validates any of the respective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{87} registry-worldviews/dimensions instigated human emancipation, and so as to the fact that the corresponding reasoning-from-results/afterthought inducing secondnatured institutionalisation (that speaks to collective thought in any given registry-worldview/dimension) while serving its secondnaturing institutionalisation purpose ‘is overrated with regards to the challenge of human aporeticism at prospective uninstitutionalised-threshold’ and shouldn’t be the threshold/limit for determining the possibility for prospective human emancipation (since it is relatively of poor responsiveness to prospective human Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{4} which rather requires instigative notional–asceticism\textsuperscript{4} reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning (as to the fact that for instance it is naïve to conceive that it was the ‘pure articulation of positivism/rational-empiricism logic that convinced/converted the non-positivism/medieval world into our positivism world’ but rather decisive in the secondnaturing of positivism/rational-empiricism was the notional–asceticism\textsuperscript{4} reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning instigative detour to positivism/rational-empiricism dementative/structural/paradigmatic sublimation as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation\textsuperscript{96} (manifested as of the ships that set sail around the world for spices and trade eliciting a positive commercial opportunism that is decisively responsible for destroying the collective social myth of a flat world; the bacteria theory that will ensure that one lives or die if we believe in it or not and draw the health implications constrained the destruction of a collective superstitious medical worldview; the scientific tools and knowledge that ensured that nation A or nation B will triumph if they believe in it or not, constrained the collective need to adopt a scientific worldview, etc.). Since the relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{87} logical-basis/logic-as-to—transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated-‘motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing\textsuperscript{101} is in transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated-‘motif-andapriorising/axiomatising/referencing with the relative-ontological-incompleteness logical-basis/logic-as-to—transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaффirmative—disambiguated—‘motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing, it is only the sublimation as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation that affirmatively upholds the relative-ontological-completelessness over the relative-ontological-incompleteness (as to their supposedly coherent ontological-commitment). In other words, genuinely projected knowledge as of ontological-good-faith/authenticity ~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—<seeding/incipient—profound—supererogation,—as-mentally-aestheticised—postconverging/dialectical-thinking —qualia-schema> is more than just the mechanical construct but speaks of the ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity ~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—<seeding/incipient—profound—supererogation,—as-mentally-aestheticised—postconverging/dialectical-thinking —qualia-schema> existential-condescension—of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism’ as of veridical existential relationship/signature as organic-knowledge. This is more obviously grasped with respect to human living-development—as-to-personality-development and institutional-development—as-to-social-function-development as to the positive-opportunism implications eliciting a decomplexed placeholder-setup/mental-devising-representation/mentation/consciousness-awareness-teleology of such ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity ~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—<seeding/incipient—profound—supererogation,—as-mentally-aestheticised—postconverging/dialectical-thinking —qualia-schema> existential-condescension—of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism’ but less obvious and poorly grasped with regards to prospective Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development—as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology. In this respect with regards to human living-development—as-to-personality-development and institutional-development—as-to-socialfunction-development as of our positivism/rational-empiricism registry-worldview/dimension we can appreciate for instance that in a professional–client relationship like between a physician and a patient or a plumber and a customer, the two parties do not normally engage one another in equivocating as of the ordinary "meaningfulness-and-teleology" desublimation which wouldn’t achieve the sublimation of medical care meaningfulness-and-technology or plumbing technician technical "meaningfulness-and-teleology" (as to the fact that the client doesn’t go on pretending to engage the professional at its more profound level of technical knowledge contemplation) with the relation thus involving the requisite ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity ~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming<-seeding/incipient–profound -supererogation",-as-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> existential-condescension<-of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism> of the professional with a corresponding deferential apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism of the client’ and so as reflecting the sublimating knowledge ontological-good-faith/authenticity ~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming<-seeding/incipient–profound -supererogation",-as-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> beyond-and-above the desublimating ontological-good-faith/authenticity ~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming<-seeding/incipient–profound -supererogation",-as-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> of ordinary "meaningfulness-and-teleology". However, this sublimating knowledge ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity ~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming<-seeding/incipient–profound -supererogation",-as-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> existential-condescension<-of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism>’ across all registry-worldviews/dimensions is ever always poorly appreciated with regards to prospective Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology’ (even though from a retrospective perspective we can grasp the preconverging/dementing \textsuperscript{qualia-schema} of ‘the God of plane’ type of articulation of say base-institutionalisation as of animistic social-setup as from our positivism/rational-empiricism reflex ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity \textsuperscript{dementating/structuring/paradigming-<seeding/incipient–profound\textsuperscript{supererogation},-as-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking \textsuperscript{qualia-schema}> } existential-condescension-<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism>’ but it is important to note that such an animistic social-setup doesn’t project of any such preconverging/dementing \textsuperscript{qualia-schema } placeholder-setup/mental-devising-representation/mentation/consciousness-awareness-teleology going by its \textsuperscript{presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness} just as we will be disinclined to contemplate about the more veridical preconverging/dementing \textsuperscript{qualia-schema} of our \textsuperscript{procrypticism–or–disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought uninstitutionalised-threshold} as from a prospective notional–deprocrypticism perspective projected \textsuperscript{placeholder-setup/mental-devising-representation/mentation/consciousness-awareness-teleology} ). In this regards, it can be appreciated with respect to budding-positivism and universalising-idealisation respectively that where the epistemic-veracity of looking through a telescope and drawing positivistic ontological implications do not avail as in the scholastic-medievalism underpinning-suprasocial-construct or where construing meaningfulness in coherent universalising-terms do not avail as in the non-universalising sophistry underpinning-suprasocial-construct, then there is a fundamental reality of desublimating ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity over which prospective sublimating ontological-good-faith/authenticity knowledge respectively as of budding-positivism and universalising-idealisation can only be established as of their respectively requisite ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity’ existential-condescension→of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing-psychologism’ and naïve present day presencing-absolutising-identitive-constitutedness interpretations in terms of the supposed arrogance of the Socrates, Galileos, Descartes, Diderots, etc. is nothing more but a manifestation of dimensionality-of-desublimating-lack-of—amplitudizing/formative>supererogatory—dementativeness/epistemic-growth-or-confabulatedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation (as to the failure to appreciate that the surpassing of human-subpotency aporeticism is all about originariness-parrhesia, as spontaneity-of-aestheticisation supererogatory—acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness—of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuringinstrument—for—conceptualisation that only arises as of ‘sublimation affirmation/projection/assertion/dueness-validating-logicising/suitable-measuringinstrument-validating-measuring→as-to-

Indeed, as to when such ‘relative-ontological-completeness\(^\circ\)–apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism enculturated/constructed social-pragmatics-framing-of—predicative-effectivity–sublimation–\(\langle\)as-to-underlying-ontological-commitment\(\rangle\)>’ is institutionalised say with modern day positivism/rational-empiricism the requisite ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity\(^\circ\) existential-condescension–\(<\)of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism\(>\)>’ of modern day scientific breakthrughs sublimation projected knowledge hardly put into question. Likewise, this insight about the requisite ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity\(^\circ\) existential-condescension–\(<\)of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism\(>\)>’ for organic-knowledge needs to be explicited with regards to the blurriness\(^\circ\) of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^\circ\)’ associated with today’s institutional-being-and-craft pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—insubontologisation/subpotentiation–\(<\)blurring/undermining-of-prospective-totalising-entailing,–as-to-entailing–\(<\)amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness\(\rangle\) with cynical, ridiculous and paradoxical pretenses of humility and sensibility/decorum that by that token (not unlike ancient sophistry and medieval-scholasticism) go on to induce ‘existentially invalid condescension’ as to their veridical desublimating \(<\)amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag \(\rangle\) as of ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity\(^\circ\)–de-mentating/structuring/paradigmging–\(<\)seeding/incipient–shallow\(\rangle\)–supererogation \(\rangle\), as-mentally-aestheticised–preconverging/dementing\(^\circ\)–qualia-schema\(>\). The fact is where such pretenses are nowhere found in the terrain of knowledge-reification\(^\circ\) but rather surreptitious enterprises of

In this regards, as to ‘sublimation affirmation/projection/assertion/dueness-validating-logicising/suitable-measuringinstrument-validating-measuring-as-to-postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking’–apriorising-psychologism’ over ‘desublimation unaffirmation/deprojection/de-assertion/undueness-invalidating-logicising/unsuitable-measuringinstrument-invalidating-measuring-as-to-preconverging-or-dementing’–apriorising-psychologism’, the requisite ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity existential-condescension–of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism’ for organic-knowledge ‘speaks to an intellectual-and-moral responsibility associated with knowledge as of the requisite dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness–by-reification/contemplative-distension’ for its elucidation and appropriate second-natured institutionalisation that is not dissociated from the very construction-of-the-Self’, and knowledge cannot thus be construed as ‘a minor and side thing of mere influencing and stature’ that is dissociated with veridical human mental-development and emancipation in order to rather surreptitiously serve human-subpotency as mortal methodologising/mutualising/organising/institutionalising perverted purposes (as so-of-ten implicitly construed by many a social dominance/vested-interest actor and sycophantic-sophistry throughout human history in eliciting wooden-language–(imbeded—averaging-of-thought-as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology–as-of—nondescript/ignorable–void ’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>) hardly showing disinterested interest in genuine knowledge). The blunt fact is that as explained above and clearly obvious with human living-development–as-to-personality-development and institutional-development–as-to-socialfunction-development the ordinariness of \textsuperscript{55} meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{9} is not to be exploited as if it is a credible state of profound ontological-veracity given the lack of dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{7} -by-reification\textsuperscript{87}/contemplative-distension\textsuperscript{87} (as to a disparateness-of-conceptualisation-\textlangle unforgrounding-disentailment,-failing-to-reflect-\textquoteleft immanent-ontological-contiguity \textquoteright\textrangle which pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation thrives on this lack of \textsuperscript{103} universal-transparency\textsuperscript{103}-(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-\textlangle amplituding/formative–epistemicity\textrangle totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{87}) with regards to prospective Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99} underlying the genuine social intellectual–function/posture. Intellectualism as such is much more than just about \textsuperscript{7} presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness\textsuperscript{13} methodologising/mutualising/organising/institutionalising enterprise as to the fact that ‘all given registry-worldviews/dimensions as \textsuperscript{7} presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness\textsuperscript{13} underpinning—suprasocial-construct relate to their given \textsuperscript{55} meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{9} in absolute terms whereas in reality there are veridically relative subontologisation of ontology as metaphysics-of-presence--\textlangle implicitied–nondescript/ignorable–void \textquoteleft-as-to- \textquoteleft-presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness \textquoteright\textrangle; and it is here that the genuine social intellectual–function/posture comes in to veridically reflect the reality that a social-construct is not of absolute scalarisation of human ontological-performance \textlangle including-virtue-as-ontology\textrangle for the possibility for its prospective scalarisation-as-to-rescalarisation-as–re-ontologisation/supererogatory—involuting-or-guilding-or-amplifying–scalarisation<as-to-existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation>, and the genuine social intellectual–function/posture as such is not about a naivist social-vestedness/normativity-\textlangle discretely-implied-functionalism\textrangle as otherwise the possibility for the succession of registry-worldviews/dimensions transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity right up to our present wouldn’t have availed speaking to our very own intellectual-and-moral responsibility for prospective Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion-as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of-meaningfulness-and-teleology. The genuine social intellectual-function/posture means that human thought can project beyond, overlook and override presentencing-absolutising-identitive-constitutedness existence—enframing/imprintedness-<as-to-historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> conception of sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition; and so as to the fact that presentencing-absolutising-identitive-constitutedness existence—enframing/imprintedness-<as-to-historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> actually tend to be skewed towards ‘immediacy supposed absolute sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ (as to the beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology-<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> positive-opportunism of living-development—as-to-personality-development and institutional-development—as-to-social-function-development) over ‘non-immediacy prospective sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ (with regards to its supererogation-profundity-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming requisite dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness-by-reification /contemplative-distension for Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion-as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of-meaningfulness-and-teleology), and in fact in many ways individuals intersolipsistic actions in society implicitly recognise this reality even as the overall underpinning-suprasocial-construct tends to be abstractly dementated/structured/paradigmed to skew towards ‘immediacy supposed absolute sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ (as for instance professional choices and callings
made well beyond just a question of their remunerative or supposed incidental social prestige worth). Part and parcel of the genuine social intellectual–function/posture is to undermine this skewing towards ‘immediacy supposed absolute sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ (as to the beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology\textsuperscript{77}—\textless in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought\textgreater positive-opportunism of living-development–as-to-personality-development and institutional-development–as-to-social-function-development) and reconstrue human-subpotency aporeticism in terms of ‘non-immediacy prospective sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’. In this regards historically, without individuals making choices not to optimally pursue ‘immediacy supposed absolute sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ as to their given presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness\textsuperscript{78} ‘immediacy supposed absolute sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ but instead optimising their effort for ‘non-immediacy prospective sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ then the possibility will not arise for the very backbone of human value and ontological-veracity sublimation (reflecting the ‘non-immediacy prospective sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’) upon which ‘immediacy supposed absolute sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ is grounded. History knows that the ‘contorted human mentality of registry-worldviews/dimensions’ as of ‘immediacy supposed absolute sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ do not truly pay their dues to the Socrates, Descartes, Kants, Newtons, Leibniz, Pasteurs, Rousseaux, Diderots, Einsteins, Teslas, etc. upon whose meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{79} infrastructure building ‘immediacy supposed absolute sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ arise and outlandishly skew human meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{79} (and so not only with human Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{79} but is equally reflected in a poor-spirited bland conception of human living-development—as-to-personality-development and institutional-development—as-to-social-function-development). This insight is critically important not as an idle exercise of merely stating the appropriateness of sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition but in reflecting that the skewed underpinning—suprasocial-construct projected and dementated/structured/paradigmed ‘immediacy supposed absolute sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ cannot be construed as absolute as in effect it will ultimately prospectively stultifying the requisite ‘non-immediacy prospective sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ that acts as the backbone for human value and ontological-veracity sublimation (as has always been the manifest case for surpassing the uninstitutionalised-threshold of registry-worldviews/dimensions). The fact is ‘immediacy supposed absolute sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ as underlying presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness end up as the registry-worldviews/dimensions Establishments underpinning—suprasocial-construct as to dominance/vested-interest—drivenness—as-to-its-eliciting-by-or-exploiting-of-descalarising-sycophantic-sophistic-interests,—as-inducing-prospective-threshold-of-institutional-and-social-desublimation> of presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness existentialising—enframing/imprintedness—as-to- historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> of social-vestedness/normativity—discretely-implied-functionalism> and social-stake-contention-or-confliction. It is the ‘non-immediacy prospective sublimating value and ontological-veracity disposition’ (so-reflected in human historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing) that goes beyond presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness and generate the requisite de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic sublimation-over-desublimation as reflected with the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process while superseding ‘human-subpotency non-scalarity/beholdening—as-to-what-has-gone-before-aesthetically-de-

The underlying insight here is that unlike the flawed mental-reflex associated with presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness\textsuperscript{-\textless amplituding/formative–epistemicity\textgreater totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag that de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically projects of a ‘neutrally/objectively sound human ontological-performance’\textsuperscript{-\textless including-virtue-as-ontology\textgreater} state failing to factor in human specific apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—ontological-deficiency arising from its specifically given \textless amplituding/formative–epistemicity\textgreater totalising–thrownness-in-existence\textsuperscript{34}, human \textless amplituding/formative–epistemicity\textgreater totalising–thrownness-in-existence\textsuperscript{14} as to human limited-mentation-capacity veridically implies that ‘existence is not beholdening to that human thrownness and the critical human teleological as to ontological-performance’\textsuperscript{-\textless including-issue is how to adjust to existence and is not about how existence adjusts to the human who is rather of a subpotent epistemic relation to the full-potency of existence’. The implication here is that the ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity ~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming~<seeding/incipient–profound”-supererogation”,-as-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> existential-condescension-<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism>’ is thus merely reflecting the veridicality of the possibility of prospective human transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity which is only possibile as to existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation–and-existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation”-<as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied–‘prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’> with regards to human formativeness-<as-to-intersolipsism-of-preformulating/preframing/premeaningfulness-imbued-mediativity-and-deferentialism>-of-meaningfulness-and-teleology”. Thus it is only the possibility of ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming~<seeding/incipient–profound”-supererogation”,-as-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> existential-condescension-<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism>’ that can thus allow human existential-discursivity—implicated-sublimation-over-desublimation beyond naïve presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag> (given that human ontological-performance~<including-virtue-as-ontology> cannot be neutrally be separated from human <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising–thrownness-in-existence and the reflexive temporal-to-intemporal ontological implications on human ontological-performance~<including-virtue-as-ontology>). This insight can be illustrated as follows: supposed say in 5000 BC an asteroid or virus could bring about a human cataclysm, such a ‘potential manifestation of existence is not beholdening to human appreciation of the existential implications of the notion and science behind the asteroid or virus’ and in this regard suppose extraterrestrials living in a ‘supposedly habitable Mars’ had achieved our present day civilisational and technological level, it is inevitable that they will effectively adopt ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity ~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming-<seeding/incipient–profound-supererogation,-as-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> existential-condescension-<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism>’ with regards to the human species on Earth and strive to preempt such a cataclysm as to their technical capacity. We can appreciate that the human species on Earth as to its relative-ontological-incompleteness doesn’t have a pretence to being of a ‘neutrally/objectively sound human ontological-performance -<including-virtue-as-ontology> state failing to factor in human specific apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—ontological-deficiency arising from its specifically given <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–thrownness-in-existence’, but together with the extraterrestrials is rather de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically in existential-discursivity—implicated-sublimation-over-desublimation relation as to the primacy of the full-potency of existence over any subpotency (speaking fundamentally to prior human ontological-commitment) with regards to the fact that the ontological-veracity of all humans as human-subpotency is priorily of existential-discursivity—implicated-sublimation-over-desublimation superseding pretenses of mere methodologising/mutualising/organising/institutionalising presciences as to entitlements of presencing—absolutising-identitative-constitutedness articulated induced elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity. Speaking of the requisite ‘owning-up’ as to when relative-ontological-completeness avails rather than ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity in upholding relative-ontological-incompleteness (given that immortality/existence-perspective as to intemporality cannot be construed as arising from our prior mortals whims superseding of existential sublimation entailment and such presumption rather speaks to preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism and not postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking—apriorising-psychologism). It is this pre-eminence of existential-discursivity—implicitation-sublimation-over-desublimation that explains why the availing of relative-ontological-completeness as to dimensionality-of-sublimating—as <amplituding/formative>supererogatory—de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation takes precedence in defining human intellectual-and-moral ontological-performance—including-virtue-as-ontology> and so as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation. This <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—thrownness-in-existence implied existential-discursivity—implicit-sublimation-over-desublimation as to ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity—de-mentative/structuring/paradigming—seeding/incipient—profound—supererogation’, as mentally-aestheticised—postconverging/dialectical-thinking—qualia-schema> existential-condescension—of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism’ effectively underlies the ‘Derridean underdetermination-imbued force/violence conception’ and ‘Foucauldian knowledge/power conception construed as knowledge-empowerment/ignorance-disempowerment’, as the preformulating/preframing/premeaningfulness—metaphoricity—disposition—as-to-psyche-induced-psychologism-of-existential-stake> from which human meaningfulness-and-teleology veridically arises. Thus existential-discursivity—implicit-sublimation-over-desublimation implies that the human is already ‘de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically intellectually-and-morally existentially engaged as to its limited-mentation-capacity’ without any ‘neutrally/objectively sound human ontological-performance<sup>7</sup>-<including-virtue-as-ontology> state failing to factor in human specific apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—ontological-deficiency arising from its specifically given <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising–thrownness-in-existence<sup>4</sup>’. This insight puts into perspective our ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness<sup>15</sup>’ conception of intellectual-and-moral responsibility wherein supposedly failed/unsuccessful/ineffective initiatives undertaken as to relative-ontological-completeness<sup>27</sup> (for instance with regards to some public engagement aspiratory dispositions of such intellectuals like Sartre, Foucault, etc. and in the scientific domain for instance controversies associated with Louis Pasteur breakthroughs in microbial science) seem to be wrongly analysed from the posture of a supposedly neutral/objective social-setup conception of intellectual-and-moral responsibility (that ducks/ignores such relative-ontological-completeness<sup>27</sup> aetiologisation/ontological-escalation posturing) without factoring in that ‘the social-setup’s relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>28</sup> specific apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—ontological-deficiency arising from its specifically given <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising–thrownness-in-existence<sup>4</sup>’ is not of neutrally/objectively sound ontological-performance<sup>7</sup>-<including-virtue-as-ontology>; as to the fact that for instance the incidence of modern day wars and their man-made catastrophies do not speak of neutral/objective individuals and social intellectual-and-moral responsibility as to their existence within the meaningful sovereign frameworks that de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically directly/indirectly validate such calamities. In other words, our intellectual-and-moral responsibility is already engaged as to our <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising–thrownness-in-existence<sup>4</sup> and the idea that any attitude of unconcern/indifference is intellectually-and-morally neutral/objective is bogus; and human intellectual-and-moral responsibility starts at the very least with an orientation to relative-ontological-completeness<sup>27</sup> as to overall existential dimensionality-of-sublimating — <amplituding/formative> supererogatory–de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-
and so very much countering the deceptive eliciting in desublimation of wooden-language—(imbued—averaging-of-thought—as-to-leveling/resentment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—as-of——’nondescript/ignorable—void’—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>) by dominance/vested-interest actors and sycophantic-sophistry seeming to imply human-subpotency takes precedence over existence). In this regards, and in the bigger scheme of things existential-discursivity—implicitly-sublimation-over-desublimation as to ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity’—de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—<seeding/incipient—profound—supererogation—, as-mentally-aestheticised—postconverging/dialectical-thinking—qualia-schema> existential-condescension—<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism>’ implies that as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation, the respective state of recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, ununiversalisation, non-positivism/medievalism and procrypticism cannot be construed as of ‘neutrally/objectively sound human ontological-performance’—<including-virtue-as-ontology> state failing to factor in human specific apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—ontological-deficiency arising from its specifically given <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>—totalising—thrownness-in-existence with respect to prospective base-institutionalisation, universalisation, positivism/rational-empiricism and notional—deprocrypticism respectively; and as relative-ontological-completeness avails intellectual-and-moral responsibility is rather reflected as of dimensionality-of-sublimating—supererogatory—de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflattedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation. Unlike it is often assumed from a sloppy conception of human sublimation in existence (caught up in any given ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’ self-justification of uncertainty of prospective human sublimation), the comprehensive coherence of human sublimation in existence as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation—is effectively highly regular and consistent (and this can only be fully appreciated from an ontologically sound conception of ‘existence as of its immanently tautologuous coherence speaking to its ontological-contiguity’ as to the possibility for intelligibility to arise as so-reflected with the overall ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process so-associated with human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening ). This confliction in the perception and relation to human sublimation in existence between metaphysics-of-presence--⟨implicated-‘nondescript/ignorable–void ’-as-to- presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness⟩ and on the one hand and on the other hand difference-conflatedness ‘-as-to-totalitative-reification’-in-singularisation’-as-veridical-epistemic-determinism as to relative-ontological-completeness’-‘<amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncetising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag’, on the one hand and on the other hand difference-conflatedness ‘-as-to-totalitative-reification’-in-singularisation’-as-veridical-epistemic-determinism as to relative-ontological-completeness’-‘<amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncetising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag’, is aptly reflected in the entangled/enmeshed nature of human sublimation in existence as reflected with the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process. This is so fundamentally because of human teleology speaking of ‘human phenomenal/manifest conceptivity/epistemic-reflexivity in existence as ontological (so-reflecting <amplituding/formative>disposedness-(as-to-orientation/value-construct/valuation–and–derived-parameterising) and <amplituding/formative>entailment-(as-to-totalising-contiguous/coherent–factuality-of-variability))’ (as reflecting the implications of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening underlying the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process ); such that human sublimation is hardly ‘purist’ and rather occurring as from successive human registry-teleology” such that a contrasting assessment rather highlights the ‘entangling/enmeshing of effectively-purist-sublimation-<reflecting-prospective- historiality/ontological-eventfulness>/ontological-aesthetic-tracing> and overall relative-ontological-incompleteness—presublimation-construct—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—induced desublimating of the effectively-purist-sublimation-<reflecting-prospective- historiality/ontological-eventfulness>/ontological-aesthetic-tracing>’ as to the concreteness/concretism/existentialising—enframing/imprintedness—<as-to- historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition>—of-human-ontological-performance—<including-virtue-as-ontology> of overall prospective sublimation. Human sublimation as such in reflecting holographically—<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process—is existentially susceptible instigated mostly as of materially/technically induced sublimation associated with tools, equipment, technical knowhow and natural science as to their immediately amenable positive-opportunism—social implications ultimately leading to subsequent human methodologising/mutualising/organising/institutionalising sublimating overall meaningfulness-and-teleology. But the overall de-mentating/structuring/paradigming of human sublimation in existence as such is not always coherent as to the discrepancy in the occurrence of specific sublimations and desublimations say material and technical sublimation pointing to relative-ontological-completeness and ‘immaterial/social overall relative-ontological-incompleteness—presublimation-construct—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—instigating the referencing/registering/decisioning desublimation of the nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations—<blinded-to-their-relative-ontological-completeness—reference-of-thought—devolving—>. In this regards, we can appreciate how the subsequent immaterial/social sublimation required for prospective positivism/rational-empiricism came to be appreciated by such thinkers like the Rousseaux, Diderots, etc. as to the fact that the material possibilities of their epoch associated with the printing press and increasing technical knowhow rendered the immaterial/social overall relative-ontological-incompleteness—presublimation-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology of their epoch wanting, explaining for instance Rousseau’s appreciation of the noble-savage and nature as speaking to a prospective aporeticism overcoming/unovercoming that recognised that mankind needed a more mature conception of interhuman relationship and human relation with nature as to when mankind/some-of-mankind began manifesting a more developed relationship with nature beyond just as of the immediacy of subsistence/survival relationship with nature (say for instance having technically more efficient guns with gunpowder didn’t imply just killing animals at whim or along the same lines explaining his anti-Slavery stance); thus speaking of the prospectively requisite immaterial/social sublimation as to prospective positivism/rational-empiricism postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking—apriorising-psychologism. In this regards even budding-positivists like Galileo, Descartes, etc. just as well implicitly recognised this discrepancy of prospective material and technical sublimation positivistic science in relative-ontological-completeness and the immaterial/social overall relative-ontological-incompleteness—presublimation-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology of medieval-scholasticism associated with alchemic/magical thinking, to the point that in many ways their actions were directed towards articulating at the very least an underlying ‘scientific—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism enculturated/constructed social-pragmatics-framing-of—predicative-effectivity—sublimation-(as-to-underlying-ontological-commitment )’ as the requisite immaterial/social sublimation for enabling positivistic science as we know it today to arise. This very insight explains the enlightenment struggle against feudalism and slavery as to the fact that the technical and scientific progress as to relative-ontological-completeness weren’t the occasion to put such technical and scientific progress like shipbuilding and other ocean voyage technologies at the service of the prior medievally clouded immaterial/social overall relative-ontological-incompleteness --presublimation-construct--of--meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^{19}\) value-construct and methodologising/mutualising/organising/institutionalising existentialising—enframing/imprintedness–<as-to– historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition>, but rather called for a renewed conceptualisation of humanity beyond a mentality of immediate subsistence/survival. Thus it is always the case that the positive-opportunism \(^{19}\) driving the second-natured institutionalisation of human sublimation induces discrepancy as to immediate material and technical possibilities of sublimation and the requisite dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness \(^{18}\)-by-reification\(^{18}\)/contemplative-distension \(^{18}\) immaterial/social sublimation considerations that rise to the aporetic challenge of the immediate material and technical possibilities of sublimation. In many ways this discrepancy of material and technical sublimation and immediate distortive immaterial/social desublimation is reflected in the ‘\(^{18}\) historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition gimmickiness/desublimation relation with ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^{19}\)’ of our positivism–procrypticism, for instance as associated with an ‘underlying dumbing-down public intellect and media industry’; as media-access and its commercialisation function in many ways rather ad hocly substitutes-for/undermines a profound genuine social intellectual–function/posture as to social-stake-contention-or-confliction implications. The further implication of this discrepancy is in highlighting that the supposed equanimity/balance of the overall politico-institutional system as to sublimating notions of sovereignty, democracy, free-will, etc. is only veridically effective as to the originariness/origination–<so-construed-as-to-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-perspective-scalarising-construal-of-existence> perspective of notional–deprocrypticism given the perpetual challenge of material sublimation upon human immaterial/social overall relative-ontological-incompleteness --presublimation-construct--of--meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^{19}\); as prospective material/technical sublimation is associated with a discrepant ‘immaterial/social overall relative-ontological-incompleteness –presublimation-construct–of– meaningfullness-and-teleology instigating the referencing/registering/decisioning desublimation of the nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations-<blinded-to-their-relative-ontological-completeness – reference-of-thought– devolving>’ that goes on as of presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness to render the supposed equanimity/balance of the overall politico-institutional system as to sublimating notions of sovereignty, democracy, free-will, etc. increasingly of relic/artifactual human ontological-performance –<including-virtue-as-ontology> reflected in their failing effective outcomes of equanimity/balance; wherein their practice increasingly tends to dominance/vested-interest actors and sycophantic-sophistry induced desublimating narratives as to the <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought–as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of–meaningfullness-and-teleology“As-of–’nondescript/ignorable–void ’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications)> displayed in the public domain (caught-up/entrapped in ‘a politico-institutional beholdening relic/artefactual disenfranchising notion of both-sides’ as psyching-subterfuge that renders the common concrete pragmatic aspirations of sovereign individuals increasingly politically irrelevant as to the paradox for instance that the healthier political framework in the years following the second world-war, as hardly subject to closed-circles of effective direct/indirect politico-institutional influence rampant today, notwithstanding the even greater social prejudice/bigotry/closed-mindedness was able to induce critical progressive social transformations that in many ways the present day political framework as to a period of rather profound and real-world cosmopolitanism/opened-mindedness can only dream about) as the more potent possibilities for social transformation are increasingly subdued under politico-institutional defaulting frameworks-and-practices rather surreptitiously subjected to closed-circles of effective direct/indirect politico-institutional influence ‘as to a strategic capacity to elicit old and relatively aporetically irrelevant beholding narratives of identity as a divide-and-conquer strategy for undermining the real and concrete common sovereign narrative of social transformation possibilities’ as so-reflected with commonly held objective sovereign aspirations that cut across party/ideological affiliations when not subjected to the disenfranchising effects of crafty politicised beholding narratives of identity with their ‘ad-hoc/arbitrary popping-up in the media at critical electoral moments involving high emotional charge quelling cerebral thinking as of the modern day efficient disenfranchising technique of flawed apriorising deception involving arbitrarily-skewing-or-debasing-the-terms-of-supposedly-constructively-opened-public-debate’ (as to the wrong mental enculturation of the notion that the ‘political game’ in-of-itself precedes individuals and social sovereign aspirations as if the latter were just ‘paying fans to a sports encounter’ rather than a political process meant to serve them as so reflected with an enculturated media political narrative hardly/poorly making room for direct individual and social sovereign aspirations as centrally defining with the consequence that substance is increasingly overwhelmed by a political characters portrayal of the political debate with political actors then effectively turning over rather towards the levers of their potential power which is paradoxically not necessarily/deterministically social sovereign aspirations as to a relic/artifactual conception-and-projection in the public domain but rather surreptitious/private closed-circles of effective direct/indirect politico-institutional influence as so-plainly exposed by the fact that long-term consequences of public policies recurrently ‘default for dominance/vested-interest actors’).

Even in the purely intellectual sense, modern day scientific advancements and achievements have correspondingly given rise to a distorted manifestation of science-ideology as a usurpatory mouthpiece of veridical science-in-practice that effectively rides the wave of natural sciences accomplishments and in so doing projects of a naïve ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’\textsuperscript{13} epistemic conception of science that in many cases poorly reflects upon effective scientific practices and craft as it poorly appreciates the dynamics of the overall human knowledge and scientific enterprise as to the aestheticisation–and–aestheticisation-towards-ontology underlying the overall ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process67, so-reflected from such science-ideology poor appreciation of the implications of the 4thinking of historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing rendering the scientific adventure as of a living existential-contextualising-contiguity exercise. Such that by this token science-ideology conception of science the requisite dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness—by-reification/contemplative-distension as to human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening implications in fully appreciating human underlying aestheticisation scheming in conceptualising existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal, eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation behind the ultimate development of human knowledge and science is lost to a flatminded interpretation of human progress based on the mere elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity conception of methods/methodologies/approaches as to mere reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition, as–reproducibility-of-aestheticisation with a poor appreciation for the prospective originariness-parrhesia, as–spontaneity-of-aestheticisation supererogatory–acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness–of-apriorising axiomatising/referencing/intelligibiltysetup/measuringinstrument for–conceptualisation behind the supererogatory invention and validation of any such methods/methodologies/approaches. necessary pathway to the present even as modern science demonstrates their limits (given that we are an animal of limited-mentation-capacity reflected as to our human-subpotency ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality to which the notion of institutional-cumulation/institutional-recomposure—<as-to- historiality/ontological-eventfulness</ontological-aesthetic-tracing> in supererogation\textsuperscript{29} is vital for perpetually enhancing that limited-mentation-capacity as of our aestheticisation—and—aestheticisation-towards-ontology); as such mystical/spiritual narratives were veridically ‘trialing aestheticisation frameworks of human apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument—for—conceptualisation as of the affirmatory sublimating possibilities inducible as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation\textsuperscript{33}’ that ultimately enabled and propelled human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening\textsuperscript{39} (so-associated with such affirmatory sublimating possibilities strong selective cultural diffusion as to the sublimating strengthening and anchoring upon the social-setup that such mystical/spiritual narratives enabled), and so-construable as from the institutional-cumulation/institutional-recomposure—<as-to—historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing> that led to our present day non-superstitious clairvoyance/clearsightedness with the important projective-insights that since human aestheticisation scheming has always been central and preceding human aestheticisation-towards-ontology (as even manifested in modern day natural sciences creativity) it would be foolhardy to adopt a mental-disposition as of science-ideology that poorly recognises the critical creative role for human aestheticisation in the perpetual development of human meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{44} as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation\textsuperscript{48}, especially so with regards to our own capacity to conceptualise of prospective Being-development/ontological-framework-

Along the same line of intellectual appreciation of prospective sublimation implications as to the fact that nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations—<blinded-to-their-relative-ontological-completeness—reference-of-thought—devolving> ‘critically points to an overall nascent knowledge-reification —gesturing directly or indirectly prescient of a comprehensive sublimating meaningfulness-and-teleology conception of the given prospective relativeontological-completeness registry-worldview/dimension; the possibility for ontology/science is effectively ‘an ontological-contiguity projection as to an all-englobing/all-encompassing construction’ (notwithstanding the epistemic limitation inherent to human limited-mentation-capacity) that captures relative-ontological-completeness induced sublimation as reflected in any subject-matter (as to its phenomenal/manifest-subpotency–<in-transitive-conflatedness–reflexivity,–in-the-full-potency-of-existence’s–sublimating–nascence>) and so as to the subject-matter underlying existential-discursivity—implicated-sublimation-over-desublimation as to ‘ontological-good-faith/authenticity–de-mentating/structuring/paradigming–<seeding/incipient–profound–supererogation–as-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking–qualia-schema> existential-condescension–<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism>’ (and so as effectively reflected by the overall reference-of-thought and reference-of-thought–devolving/subject-matter ‘relative-ontological-completeness’–apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism enculturated/constructed social-pragmatics-framing-of—predicative-effectivity–sublimation (as-to-underlying-ontological-commitment ’). In this regards, we can appreciate that going by the positivism/rational-empiricism relative-ontological-completeness registry-worldview/dimension, the natural sciences do not allow for any other external interpretations of their phenomenal/manifest-subpotency–<in-transitive-conflatedness–reflexivity,–in-the-full-potency-of-existence’s–sublimating–nascence> (but for issues of epistemic limitation inherent to human limited-mentation-capacity). In this regards, there can’t be any instance/circumstance to which the mathematician will construe of 1+1 as being equal to 4 as to totalisingly-disentailing—discretion/whim-of-thought; as to the fact that inherent ontological-veracity precedes-and-supersedes ‘mere-methodologising/mutualising/organising/institutionalising human-subpotency existentialising—enframing/imprintedness–<as-to–historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition>’. The implication here that in the bigger scheme of things, the ‘apriorising decisions advancing mere-methodologising/mutualising/organising/institutionalising human-subpotency existentialising—enframing/imprintedness-<as-to- historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition>’ over inherent ontological-veracity as manifested in many a social domain (while equally relevant in the natural sciences especially when ‘mere-methodologising/mutualising/organising/institutionalising human-subpotency existentialising—enframing/imprintedness-<as-to- historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition>’ increasingly undermine the organisation behind the natural conduct of the natural sciences) go on to undermine their pretenses to a status of profound ontological-veracity as reflected of an ontology/science as to aestheticisation-towards-ontology. In this regard, relic/artifactual conception of veridical human historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing rather speaks to deficient knowledge-reification—gesturing caught up in presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness as of beholdening-becoming—distortive-originariness/distortive-origination—as-to—historicity-tracing~inhibited-mental-aestheticising. Likewise, deliberate intellectual decisions emphasising institutional self-preservation and rendering veridical knowledge elucidation secondary to such institutional self-preservation decisions, in many ways wrest away from such supposed intellectual institutions their status as veridically knowledge producing as these increasingly become political as to their emphasising of a political motive ready to forego veridical knowledge-reification for its institutional self-preservation; with the consequence of increasing sycophantic-sophistry and genuine social intellectual—function/posture indifference or betrayal to dominance/vested-interest actors. This issue of institutional self-preservation is in many ways at the very root of the non-intellectual, media-driven and dishonest criticisms levied against postmodern-thought as to the latter obvious conclusive emancipatory implications; so-reflected in a practice of ‘clouded thought’ that has no true intellectual elucidation purpose but rather an extension of the political over veridical knowledge-reification\[\text{\textsuperscript{106}}\] (such that arguments about the accommodation of different intellectual practices tend to be articulated wrongly as to imply that ‘the true ontological-veracity as to sublimation-over-desublimation of intellectual practices’ are irrelevant and secondary to the mere purpose of institutional accommodation of different intellectual practices). It is herein contended that just as the prior successive registry-worldviews/dimensions required their specific ‘relative-ontological-completeness’—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism enculturated/constructed social-pragmatics-framing-of—predicative-effectivity—sublimation-{as-to-underlying-ontological-commitment }’ to usher in the possibility of their very own secondnatured institutionalisation unclouded knowledge-reification\[\text{\textsuperscript{106}}\]—gesturing, the ultimate possibility for our positivism–procrypticism overcoming its pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation—\(\text{\textsuperscript{87}}\) (blurring/undermining-of-prospective-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-\(\text{\textsuperscript{87}}\)\<amplituding/formative–epistemicity\(\text{\textsuperscript{87}}\)\>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness ) lies with the prospective ‘deprocrypticism—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism enculturated/constructed social-pragmatics-framing-of—predicative-effectivity—sublimation-{as-to-underlying-ontological-commitment }’ imbued foregrounding—entailment—\(\text{\textsuperscript{96}}\) postconverging–narrowing-down~sublimation as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation\[\text{\textsuperscript{106}}\] in reflecting ‘immanent-ontological-contiguity’),—as-operative-notional—deprocrypticism (enabling the true and profound attainment of ontological-contiguity\[\text{\textsuperscript{106}}\] in the social domain beyond the present practices of disparateness-of-conceptualisation—\<unforegrounding-disentailment,-failing-to-reflect—immanent-ontological-contiguity\(\text{\textsuperscript{106}}\)’). such an animistic social-setup as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation⁹, the fact remains that our thrownness in the animistic social-setup requires at least a basic engagement tolerable to its \(\text{meaningfulness-and-teleology} \) before any pretense to a projection of positivistic \(\text{meaningfulness-and-teleology} \) (as can so be appreciated with the cultural diffusion encounters throughout human history). In this regards as to a decisively globalising world we can’t conceive that ours will be the human generation bereft of ‘profound diffusionary/non-diffusionary aestheticisation prospective insight as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation⁹’ given the increasingly relic/artifactual nature of traditional cultures in our modern age as to the potent lack of prospective creative aestheticisation off-the-beaten-path of an increasing convergence deadening of the possibility prospective reappraisals of human \(\text{meaningfulness-and-teleology} \) (as so construed as of dimensionality-of-sublimating—\(\text{amplituding/formative-supererogatory-de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-confaitedness/transvaluitive-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation}\), as to the fact that overall human beholdening inclination (as to any defining overall relative-ontological-incompleteness—presublimation-construct—of—\(\text{meaningfulness-and-teleology} \) concerned mostly with human living-development—as-to-personality-development and institutional-development—as-to-social-function-development in the priorly achieved Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure—of—\(\text{meaningfulness-and-teleology} \) rather tends to reconverge to shallow \(\text{amplituding/formative–epistemicity–totalising~thrownness-in-concreteness/concretism/existentialising—enframing/imprintedness—as-to–historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition—of-human-ontological-performance—<including-virtue-as-ontology>\) as reflected by the successive registry-worldviews/dimensions —<presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness>

But then just like with all prior registry-worldviews/dimensions, our positivism–procrypticism “presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness existentialising—enframing/imprintedness—as-to-historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> effectively projects a hurdle to any such de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic notional–deprocrypticism conception of re-ontologisation as to its inherent <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag poorly amenable to profound alternative institutional aestheticising contemplation ‘given its calamitous conception and relation to the possibility for prospective re-ontologisation from its subontologisation’ such that any such profound alternative institutional aestheticising contemplation are traditionally bound to arise as disruptive institutional transformations whether or not involving power-showdown as associated with sudden/revolutionary transformations with ‘their drawback of having to think on their feet inducing deficient ontological-performance’-<including-virtue-as-ontology> as well as generalised social apprehension which is then enigmatically held against them’ (however the merits of their underlying case) very much unlike ‘the latitude for articulating conceptualisations available for presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness™ existentialising—enframing/imprintedness-<as-to-³ historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition>’ (however their de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic flaws). Today manifestations (in the political domain) of protest votes for instance, more than just a question of poor political leadership actually has to do in many ways with ‘an alienating politico-institutional entrapment/frame-up of sovereign choice’ within the supposed democratic process that ‘forestalls-and-narrows as of strategic rules and processes’ the effective political fulfilment of individual and social sovereign choices inducing anti-sovereign consequences as to defaulting policy consequences to dominance/vested-interest actors without truly being institutionally subject to competing profound alternative institutional aestheticising contemplation given their institutional ascendence. Such a beholding presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness™ existentialising—enframing/imprintedness-<as-to-³ historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> skews the fundamental ontology question by its inherent <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/.akrasiatic-drag gatekeeping stifling of the possibility for inquiring on the ontological-veracity of its practice as to a reflex for advancing the quietude of social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism>. This latter issue is the ultimate challenge to prospective notional~deprocrypticism institutionalisation ‘unenframed/unbeholding/bechancing–supererogation™ parameterisation/reparameterisation-(reflecting-a-supererogatory–decisionality-of-socioinstitutional-conceptions-as-to-∗‘their-nascent-

This is explained by the fact that the human can relatively easily appreciate the ontological-pertinence of new practices arising as from outside cultural diffusion but it is very much difficult to reconstrue of such practices as from the taxingness-of-originariness involved in surpassing an internalised <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag’ posture; and this very much explains the double epistemic orientation to notional–deprocrypticism institutionalisation ‘unenframed/unbeholdening/bechancing–supererogation’ parameterisation/reparameterisation–(reflecting-a-supererogatory–decisionality-of-socioinstitutional-conceptions-as-to–‘their-nascent-sublimations-dynamic-preempting-of-presublimatory-decisionality–numbing-traction-desublimation’)–as-so-operationalising–‘scalarisation-as-to-rescalarisation-as–re-ontologisation’ for prospective aestheticisation–and–aestheticisation-towards-ontology/ meaningfulness-and-teleology’ as highlighted above (as to the need to feed our <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–thrownness-in-existence decisively globalising world with

In this respect the possibility of human prospective reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning that goes on to induce prospective reasoning-from-results/afterthought as secondnatured-institutionalisation is ever always accompanied/framed by its ‘instigative–askesis-or-acumen de-mentating/structuring/paradigming the possibility for prospective sublimating and reifying socio-institutional conceptions/constructs/models as to prospective aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming-overcoming for human social emancipative reinvigoration/disruption’ as to the resultantly developed deferential-formalisation-transference socio-institutional model/construct (reflected historically as of a sacral, monasterial, pastoral, hippocratic, etc. aestheticisation–and–aestheticisation-towards-ontology and inconsistently echoed in modern day deonto-professional institutional practices’); and so by the mere token of the de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic relative ontological-deficiency of the generalised social-construct <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought-<as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology’–as-of–‘nondescript/ignorable–void ’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>) as to its beholdening to living-development–as-to-personality-development and institutional-development–as-to-social-function-development so-derived rather as from the prior Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology implied uninstitutionalised-threshold. This is necessary for fundamental ontology speaking of notional—deprocrypticism enabled fundamental ontology-driven ‘postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking—psychology or psychology-of-mentation-dynamics or natural—psychological-dynamics’ for inducing prospective human historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing. Basically, notional—asceticism is ever always associated with the successive relative-ontological-completeness registry-worldviews/dimensions possibility for prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—de-mentativity to arise (as to the notional—asceticism instigating originariness-parrhesia,—as—spontaneity-of-aestheticisation supererogatory—acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness projection of prospective methods/methodologies/approaches as from prospective sublimation induced methodologising/mutualising/organising/institutionalising), and so because all the ‘existential and contemplative internal adequation’ available for any given relative-ontological-incompleteness registry-worldview/dimension is as of its inherent apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism imbued logical-basis/logic<as-to—transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative—disambiguated—motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing that is not de-mentated/structured/paradigmed to recognise the prospective sublimating relative-ontological-completeness registry-worldview/dimension apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—psychologism imbued logical-basis/logic<as-to—transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative—disambiguated—motif-and—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing\textsuperscript{[1]} (with only the crossgenerational positive-opportunism\textsuperscript{[2]} arising from the relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{[3]} comprehensively induced sublimation as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation\textsuperscript{[4]} that then elicits the \textsuperscript{[5]}universal-transparency\textsuperscript{[6]}-{transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-\langle\textit{amplituding/formative–epistemicity}\rangle\textit{totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{[7]}}, untenability and affirmation/projection/assertion/dueness-validating-logicising/suitable-measuringinstrument-validating-measuring-\langle\textit{as-to–transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated–motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing\textsuperscript{[1]}}\rangle. But then with such notional–asceticism\textsuperscript{[8]} associated with notional–deprocrypticism factoring in that the projective-insights ‘out of thin air’ (as of reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning) that go on to contemplate of prospective relative-ontological-completeness sublimation is potentially a \textsuperscript{[9]}universal human capacity as of discretionary human disposition (as to when relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{[3]} avails) for opting for sublimating ontological-good-faith/authenticity \textsuperscript{~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming-\langle\textit{seeding/incipient–profound}\textsuperscript{[10]}-supererogation\textsuperscript{[11]}-as-mentally-aestheticised~postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema\rangle or opting for desublimating ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity \textsuperscript{~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming-\langle\textit{seeding/incipient–shallow}\textsuperscript{[12]}-supererogation \textsuperscript{,}-as-mentally-aestheticised–preconverging/dementing –qualia-schema\rangle, and that (as speaking to human-subpotency ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality) ‘this most fundamentally potent point of human-subpotency is the epistemic point-of-departure for construing ontology/science as from the notional–deprocrypticism projected human-subpotency

This insight can be translated by the fact that nascent-sublimations (nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations-blinded-to-their-relative-ontological-completeness – reference-of-thought- devolving) as to their effectively-manifest-sublimation/sublime rather speak to an underlying veracity about immanent-existence ‘beyond and unbeholding to any human merely-beholdening–aestheticising-reflex of meaningfulness-and-teleology’, and so for instance in the sense that human tools, other technical/material capabilities like electricity, etc. are rather of ‘de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic momentous-unbeholdening–aestheticising-reflex effectively-manifest-sublimation/sublime as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation’ as to the inherent sublimating/emancipatory possibilities accruable to all humans and societies as to their underlying ontological-commitment of meaningfulness-and-teleology; so-reflecting the fact that overall human civilisation (notwithstanding any given societies/cultures of naïve presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness as to presencing-distorted–meritocracy/totalising–sovereign-appropotioning—of-human-ontological-performance <including-virtue-as-ontology> ‘merely-beholdening–aestheticising-reflex of meaningfulness-and-teleology’) could only be possible by the cumulating/recomposuring of all such ‘de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic momentous-unbeholdening–aestheticising-reflex effectively-manifest-sublimation/sublime as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation’ manifested at various stages across all human societies/cultures and diffusible likewise across all human societies/cultures with the implications that such ‘de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic momentous-unbeholdening–aestheticising-reflex effectively-manifest-sublimation/sublime as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation” more fundamentally speak to ‘overall human momentous-unbeholdening–aestheticising-reflex effectively-manifest-sublimation/sublime attainment’ (with such a truer ontological-veracity rather much more profound than the ‘merely-beholdening–aestheticising-reflex of meaningfulness-and-teleology’ of various societies/cultures and as of such ontologically-flawed representation across various human historial epochs). In this respect the ontological-veracity of human institutional-cumulation/institutional-recomposure-as-to-historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing> (as of the accruing effectively-manifest-sublimation/sublime from stone-age to bronze-age to iron-age involving the formation of agrarian societies and cities and subsequent development of universalising societies and today’s positising modern world) rather more aptly speaks of ‘overall human momentous-unbeholdening–aestheticising-reflex effectively-manifest-sublimation/sublime attainment’; with the profound idea that the more momentous grasp of the notion of say the civilisations of Ancient Zimbabwe, Ancient Egypt, Ancient Greece, Ancient China, Ancient India or Ancient Aztec, etc. are rather as of a more profound point-of-departure as from a ‘human psychological-disposition for supererogatory–unbeholdening-conflatedness’/historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing of sublimating intelligibility’ divulging the underlying dynamism of human ‘de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic momentous-unbeholdening–aestheticising-reflex effectively-manifest-sublimation/sublime as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation’ (and so rather than a shallower point-of-departure as from a ‘human psychological-disposition for relic/artifactual–beholdening-constitutedness’/historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition of presublimating intelligibility’ of ‘merely-beholdening–aestheticising-reflex of meaningfulness-and-

The underlying point here is that just as human tools, other technical/material capabilities like electricity, etc. are rather of ‘de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic momentous-unbeholdening—aestheticising-reflex effectively-manifest-sublimation/sublime as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation’ as to the inherent sublimating/emancipatory possibilities accruable to all humans and societies as to their underlying ontological-commitment of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’, a ‘human psychological-disposition for supererogatory-unbeholdening-conflicatedness’ ‘historiality/ontological-eventfulness’/ontological-aesthetic-tracing of sublimating intelligibility’ implies that the othernesses of human civilisations/cultures/societies carry a more profound ‘de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic momentous-unbeholdening—aestheticising-reflex effectively-manifest-sublimation/sublime as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation’ as to the inherent sublimating/emancipatory possibilities accruable to all humans and societies. This overall insight is particularly salient in the sense that the ‘human psychological-disposition for relic/artifactual–beholdening-constitutedness’ ‘historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition of presublimating intelligibility’ (so-perpetuative as to human living-development—as-to-personality-development, institutional-development—as-to-social-function-development and Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology’), is exactly what critically clouds prospective possibilities for ‘human psychological-disposition for supererogatory-unbeholdening-conflicatedness’ ‘historiality/ontological-

The implications of this dual existentialising–decisionality psychological-dispositions is critical particularly with regards to the social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning of human \textsuperscript{5}meaningfulness-and-teleology of ‘blurriness in existentialising–decisionality’ as rather poorly amenable to profound ‘unbeholdening sublimating–nascence ontologising-depth of the full-potency of existence’ as it is relatively the case in the natural sciences (and so beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology\textsuperscript{6}<\text{in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought}>); as to the fact that existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation–and–existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation <as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied–‘prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’> more readily makes ‘desublimating nonsense’ of human existentialising–decisionality \textsuperscript{5}meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{19} failing ‘genuine knowledge-reification\textsuperscript{8} framework involving an immediate potent detour to existence-potency–sublimating–nascence–disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<\text{amplituding/\textit{formative-epistemicity}}\rangle\text{totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-supererogatory–epistemic-conflatedness}\textsuperscript{2} while the relative ‘blurriness in existentialising–

We can for instance appreciate this ‘human existentialising—decisionality dual psychological-dispositions continuum-gradient of sovereignising—by—ontologising-depth in inducing desublimation or sublimation’ say with regards to cultural-diffusion in a non-positivistic like animistic social-construct wherein positivistic technical and material nascent-sublimations can relatively be easily appreciated/grasped in a short timeframe by their immediate sublimating—nascence but the more profound notion of a positivistic registry-worldview/dimension (as to social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning of positivistic meaningfulness-and-teleology’) reflecting a positivising referencing/registry/decisioning is more problematically conceptualisable and mostly arises as of crossgenerational appreciation/grasp (given the non-positivistic presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness existentialising—decisionality psychological-disposition of defaulting individual and social ‘beholdening as sovereignising—imbued-subontologisation/subpotentiation’); and this ‘human existentialising—decisionality dual psychological-dispositions continuum-gradient of sovereignising—by—ontologising-depth in inducing desublimation or sublimation’ applies in the succession of registry-worldviews/dimensions with regards to the possibility for their prospective sublimation/emancipation. Along the same lines of disambiguating ‘human existentialising—decisionality dual psychological-dispositions continuum-gradient of sovereignising—by—ontologising-depth in inducing desublimation or sublimation’ just as ‘a God of plane non-positivistic proposition’ in an animistic social-setup implies priorly an ‘altogether superseding positivistic apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument—for—conceptualisation induced psychologism of ‘reference-of-thought’ (over their non-positivistic apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuringinstrument–for–conceptualisation psychologism of ‘reference-of-thought) from whence aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring can then ensue in existential-instantiations of conceptualising, and so as to the positivistic ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ ‘more profound reflection of existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation’ with regards to sublimating–nascence teleological-inflection{(as-to-more-profound-nondisjointing<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating)’, likewise prospectively with regards to nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations<blinded-to-their-relative-ontological-completeness ‘reference-of-thought–devolving> as underlying many a technical and natural sciences it is ever always the ‘more profound reflection of existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation’ in the sense that the technician and natural scientist are unconcerned with ‘any social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning existentialising–decisionality imbuement’ supposedly superseding existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation given that any such social and institutional pretense-of-sublimation cannot generate any inherent technical and scientific sublimating–nascence (wherein if such social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning pretense-of-sublimation warrants gravity on earth to be considered as 7 m/s2 for instance for one reason or another but for existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation ), rather the natural scientist and technician will view such social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning existentialising–decisionality pretense-of-sublimation as the very de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic undermining of the possibility of natural science and technical development as to sublimating–nascence beyond just the specific instance but as to a fundamentally underdeveloped social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning desublimating—existentialising—decisionality that must be overridden (so that similar intellectual decadent pretense-of-sublimation should not arise) for the prospective possibility for science and technical development sublimating—nascence to flourish; and likewise it is herein contended that absolutising social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning existentialising—decisionality pre-eminence as to imprimatur and the dynamics of imprimatur (with regards to ‘blurriness in existentialising—decisionality’ associated with social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning) as ‘precedingly defining the possibility of prospective knowledge over inherent knowledge’ is itself the very de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic desublimating undermining of the possibility of veridical social and institutional prospective sublimation/emancipation as to sublimating—nascence, and in that respect no mortal (including the one mortal making this articulation herein) can pretend to a status bigger than existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation to then imply that genuine knowledge-reification cannot cross-it/has-to-bow-to-it (for one reason or another), and in that regards the more profound knowledge-reification as to the de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic upholding at all instances of the possibility for prospective genuine knowledge-reification inducing sublimation/emancipation as to sublimating—nascence is more than just the specific knowledge-reification—gesturing for sublimation but rather more critically overt articulation of the ‘veridical de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic intellectual underdevelopment underlying any such a mortal claim’ as to the fact that no human can claim that 2+2 is not equal to 4 because they are vexed for one reason or another (as it is that condition of our mortality that then provides the possibility for our self-surpassing in prospective construction-of-the-Self) so-reflected in the fact that the underlying existentialising—frame of knowledge is the very requisite condition for eliciting the true meaningfulness-and-teleology of any given specific knowledge-reification–gesturing for sublimation (as for instance there is little point articulating any given positivistic existentialising–decisionality specific knowledge-reification–gesturing for sublimating–nascence as to positivistic nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations–<blinded-to-their-relative-ontological-completeness–reference-of-thought–devolving> as so-reflected also with ‘postmodern thinkers direct/indirect criticisms of ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’ as the sublimating-existentialising-decisionality predefining condition for their specific knowledge articulation to more profoundly be grasped/comprehended/realised), with human knowledge-construal being an altogether level playing field only driven as of the sublimating potential as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation (and in this regards theories and concepts cannot be articulated to imply that their subverting criticisms are rather personal/traditions attacks as is increasingly the case in todays institutional-being-and-craft pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation-(blurring/undermining-of-prospective-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness ) since the very first credo of the intellectual is for inherent knowledge above any given theories and concepts and traditions which are rather subordinate to the more profound purpose of the human knowledge-reification project as was so understood and propounded by such mid-twentieth century thinkers like Bertrand Russell, A.J. Ayer, Richard Rory, etc. even as their conceptions came under criticism because a genuine relation with knowledge is what can bring about appropriate prospective correction for sublimating knowledge when prospective inspiration avails notwithstanding the traditional approach to knowledge so long as it remains self-critical whereas a false social and institutional pre-eminence driven relation to knowledge shoves existential issues under the table not because there is no human intelligence to tackle true knowledge but because the possibility for more profound contemplation is a-priori placed out-of-sight since ‘supposed knowledge-reification as to its gesturing’ is as of ‘existentialising–decisionality that desublimatingly precedes knowledge-reification’ rather than veridically ‘knowledge-reification as of its very own deriving/manifest/ensuing/event uating sublimating–existentialising–decisionality’ and as so-reflected when mere methodologising/mutualising/organising/institutionalising as of humansubpotency is construed as doing away with priorly requisite-and-relevant supererogatory—acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness—ofapriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuringinstrument—for—conceptualisation with the off-the-shelf and made-to-measure projection of methods and statistics by itself considered as supposedly profound knowledge, and even then such an approach ends up losing out on vision while wrongly reinforcing knowledge as a self-serving punctual/expeditious institutional enterprise rather than of overall prospective human existential sublimation/emancipation). Overall the social-construct itself is reflexive of this ‘human

performance<including-virtue-as-ontology> is the very element particularly acted upon by social and intellectual pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—insubontologisation/subpotentiation as to incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness—enframed-conceptualisation (as it can be appreciated for instance that the pretense-of-sublimation rather unconstrained to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation. Critically the ‘unbeholdening sublimating–nascence ontologising-depth of the full-potency of existence’ associated with nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations-blinded-to-their-relative-ontological-completeness—reference-of-thought-devolving—is necessarily of totalising-entailing as to the immediate-potency of existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation thus relatively undermining such ‘beholdening as sovereignising–imbued-subontologisation/subpotentiation’ gesturing associated with social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning as of ‘blurriness in existentialising–decisionality’ (that is, where the latter does not extensively intrude into the former as for instance in determining-and-demarcating the framework of natural sciences research). Hence in many ways prospective knowledge cannot elude the aporeticism overcoming/unovercoming of such ‘beholdening as sovereignising–imbued-subontologisation/subpotentiation’ gesturing and so relatively to the given domain-of-study/domain-of-interest blurriness, wherein blurriness is reflected with desublimating–existentialising–decisionality supposedly taking precedence over inherent prospective knowledge-reification rather than ‘unbeholdening sublimating–nascence ontologising-depth of the full-potency of existence (implied as to the very inherent knowledge-reification—gesturing as determining sublimating–existentialising–decisionality)’; with this conflicting of ‘beholdening as sovereignising–imbued-subontologisation/subpotentiation’ and ‘unbeholdening sublimating–nascence ontologising-depth of the full-potency of existence’ so-reflected across the successive registry-worldviews/dimensions given human temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions as to prospective social-stake-contention-or-confliction (beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology-in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought). Thus such an aporeticism overcoming/unovercoming necessarily imply the integration of the analysis of pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—insubontologisation/subpotentiation-(blurring/undermining-of-prospective-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness) as part and parcel of prospective knowledge-reification as to knowledge-notionalisation, and especially as so-manifested increasingly with ‘extra-knowledge/knowledge-outside-knowledge/knowledge-without-knowledge frameworks’ that on the baiting of imprimatur then switch on to propound ‘extra-knowledge/knowledge-outside-knowledge/knowledge-without-knowledge constructs out-of and implicitly obviating the veracity of the universal-transparency-(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness) of knowledge-reification’ (and so as to self-serving social-vestedness/normativity-(discretely-implied-functionalism)) and this must effectively be contested. Such lousiness and as broadly reflected in poor media editorialising in many ways increasingly turns media accessibility into intellectual pre-eminence as ‘intellection is no longer about depth of contemplation and knowledge-reification for sublimation but rather about gimmicky-and-flashy threads of mere communication performance’ with many such interlocutors openly admitting-and-manifesting their critical lack of relevant intellectual thematic competence as popularity then supposedly becomes the driving force of thought; the fact though remains (however the seemingly trivialising concern about such media driven pop-intellectualism as rather unimportant in some milieus of more profound intellectual contemplation) that unfortunately in many ways directly or indirectly (as to the social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning susceptibility to ‘blurriness in existentialising–decisionality’ and as encouraged by dominance/vested-interest actors) such pop-intellectualism end up being elevated as the summum of intellection in the social while overlooking the requisite depth of sublimating universal-transparency-(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~in-relativeontological-completeness) of critical importance for effective social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning sublimating-existentialising-decisionality (and as the ‘mediatic framework of access and communication of sublimating thought’ is rather turned around into ‘a framework that supposedly inherently create sublimating thought by mere access and communication’ especially as to naive social feel-good banalities as supposedly sublimation actually of desublimating existentialising—enframing/imprintedness-<as-to-historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> as of vague impression-driven/good-naturedness/wishfulness ‘beholdening as sovereignising—imbued-subontologisation/subpotentiation’). But then the idea of knowledge driven as of totalising-entailing as so-demonstrable with say the momentous development of quantum physics with the physics totalising-entailing implications of argumentations of sublimating—existentialising—decisionality at critical moments moving from one physicist to the other as of ‘totalising-entailing pertinence of thought upheld/elevated above anyone person’ (whether Bohr, Einstein, Dirac, Schrodinger, etc.) without any extra-knowledge/knowledge-outside-knowledge/knowledge-without-knowledge notion like reputation having any incidence, speaks to a more profound lack of constraining aporeticism overcoming/unovercoming as to institutional convenience that fails to articulate such a ‘totalising-entailing pertinence of thought upheld/elevated above anyone person’ and thus renders in relative terms the social domain more intellectually impotent in inducing a similar level of sublimating—existentialising—decisionality as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation as is relatively the case in the natural sciences (and so notwithstanding the relative blurriness of the social which can effectively be brought to exactifying/precisioning—of-sublimation-<as-to-entailing-theoretical,-conceptual-and-operant-implications> as to the requisite self-criticality overcoming as well as emotional-involvement overcoming rather than assuming a relatively false social and institutional pre-eminence driven relation to knowledge); with the further implication of such ‘totalising-entailing pertinence of thought upheld/elevated above anyone person’ being that the ‘knowledge-reification⁵’ process becomes highly impersonal and complementary in a natural way’ without the artifice of ‘politically-driven accommodation of ideas not necessarily as of the pre-eminence of existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation ’. In this regards, it is contended that the argumentation articulated herein are strictly striving towards aetiolisation/ontological-escalation in reflection of ‘abstract human intemporal individuative ontological-performane (as to the backdrop of the notionalisation/notional-conception/amplituding of human temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions) while striving for totalising-entailing pertinence of thought’ and so projecting beyond any implications of personalising/particularising import but rather turning towards ‘ontological elucidation import as it then reifyingly-and-empoweringly enables human sublimation as to prospective operationalising construals’ and so-reflected in the idea that the fundamental stakes of prospective knowledge-reification⁸ is about prospective social-stake-contention-or-confliction and not prior social-stake-contention-or-confliction (as for instance prospective positivistic ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology⁵’ is not developed to go about articulating/relating-to ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology ’ as to the prior social-stake-contention-or-confliction of non-positivistic ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology ’), and so by the mere implications of dimensionality-of-sublimating—<amplituding/formative>supererogatory—deamentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation (even as such prospective ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ tend to be rather desublimatingly related to as of dimensionality-of-desublimating-lack-of—<amplituding/formative>supererogatory—deamentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation by the prior —presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness¹ existentialising—enframing/imprintedness-<as-to- historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition>). But then as well the fact remains that the reality of human knowledge-reification especially (as speaking to prospective human destructuring-threshold-{uninstitutionalised-threshold /presublimating–desublimating-decisionality})–of-ontological-performance ⟨including-virtue-as-ontology⟩ is inevitably infused with social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning manifest politically-driven motives of desublimating–existentialising–decisionality beyond just ‘a purported baseline conception of neutral knowledge-reification’ with such frameworks projecting their presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness existentialising—enframing/imprintedness-<as-to- historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> conception of the ‘overall possibility of human existentialising–decisionality as to catchmenting-by-rejection’. In this respect, it is important to grasp that knowledge-reification then desublimatingly becomes an issue of more than just rightness or wrongness but involves a striving for interest/advantage/ascendancy/head-start with respect to existentialising–decisionality of prospective knowledge-reification, and this reality given human temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions is reflected by an inherent human ‘referencing/registering/decisioning of shallow-supererogation—to—profound-supererogation conception of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ with respect to prospective knowledge-reification. In many ways recent history of human thought has shown that ‘social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning manifest politically-driven motives of desublimating–existentialising–decisionality going beyond just neutral knowledge-reification’ that cannot be ignored as to intellectually decadent practices of scepticism and blurring underlied by cynical reframing of thought at later moments (which had been related to sceptically and in blurriness at previous moments), and so as to shallow-supererogation desublimating–existentialising–decisionality driven by mere institutional-ascendency. In many ways thus the conceptualisation herein ‘is not caught-up/constrained to any such fooleries’ (as to the history of such ploy against postmodern thought) and is consciously articulated as to the profound-supererogation motive of human sublimation beyond/and-not-subjected-to the existentialising—enframing/imprintedness—<as-to-historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> of any shallow-supererogation social-and-institutional-frameworks—of—referencing/registering/decisioning as to the 8.5 billion humans on planet Earth and as any party of interest of profound-supererogation may find useful or not! In this respect, it is critical to understand what defines humanity as to the ‘firstnatureness and derived secondnaturedness positive-opportunism’ required for human self-surpassing—existentialism-form-factor,—in-overcoming—‘notionally—collateralising—beholding—protohumanity’—to—‘attain—sublimating—humanity’—as—to—existence-potency—sublimating—nascence,—disclosed—from—prospective—epistemic—digression—as—of—<amplituding/formative—epistemicity>—totalising—renewing—realisation/re-perception/re-thought,—in—supererogatory—epistemic—conflicatedness ; as to the fact that all human sublimation is instigated as of re-originary—as—unenframed/unbeholding/outlier-conceptualisation—(imbued-postconverging/dialectical-thinking —‘projective—insights’/‘epistemic—projection—in—conflicatedness’—of—notional—deprocrypticism—prospective—sublimation) before secondnaturing positive-opportunism institutionalisation, as so-reflecting Derridean messianicity wherein even when the messiah comes they still have to come (inevitably—so given prospective human temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions to whatever induced supererogation/messianicity of originariness—parrhesia,—as—spontaneity—of—aestheticisation so-associated with human dimensionality—of—desublimating—lack-of—<amplituding/formative>—supererogatory—dementativeness/epistemic—growth—or—conflicatedness /transvaluative—rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic—residuality/spirit—drivenness—equalisation). It is this fact that explains why no underpinning—suprasocial-construct is able to coherently explain

This ‘extra-knowledge/knowledge-outside-knowledge/knowledge-without-knowledge paradox’ when it claims to co-opt/supersede prospective sublimating knowledge-reification can be further elucidated along the same lines (with regards to living-development–as-to-personality-development and institutional-development–as-to-social-function-development) wherein for instance the notion of say genius is supposed to imply the ‘supposed genius’ is exceptional/abnormal (by their ‘specifically given sublimating elucidation’ so-enabled as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation). But then actually the ‘supposed genius’ cannot be exceptional/abnormal for the simple reason that ‘existence (so sublimatingly elucidated) is nothing but just normal as to its ontological-normalcy/postconvergence’ reflecting the fact that the social-construct meaningfulness-and-teleology as from the moment of the sublimating elucidation is/has-been rather of epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence, with the notion of ‘supposed genius’ serving as to human presencing–absolutising-identitive-constitutedness existentialising–enframing/imprintedness-<as-to- historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> (beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology–<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>) to render obstruse the veracity of this epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence of the social-construct meaningfulness-and-teleology that the ‘supposed genius’ is pointing out as ‘the very issue at stake warranting the social-construct’s prospective dimensionality-of-sublimating —

In many ways the above elucidation of the ‘extra-knowledge/knowledge-outside-knowledge/knowledge-without-knowledge paradox’ of social- and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning existentialising—decisionality prone to “presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness” existentialising—enframing/imprintedness-=as-to- historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> needs to be critically brought to the consciousness-awareness-teleology of the ‘genuinely aspiring student of society and human-and-social-constructs’ (given a social-domain relatively undermined by ‘temporal beholdening as sovereignising–imbued-subontologisation/subpotentiation implied pretense-of-sublimation as to desublimating–existentialising–decisionality supposedly taking precedence over inherent prospective knowledge-reification”), and so as the requisite aporeticism overcoming/unovercoming ‘for effectively conceptualising anything near a veridical ontology of the social’ along the same lines in the natural sciences (with ‘the very inherent knowledge-reification—gesturing as determining sublimating–existentialising–decisionality”). It is important to note in this regards that ‘knowledge-reification–gesturing historicality/ontological-eventfulness'/ontological-aesthetic-tracing’ is the more profound conception of ontology and science (as to human dimensionality-of-sublimating — amplituding/formative>supererogatory–de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or- conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit- drivenness—equalisation), and so as of the ‘profound supererogatory appraisal-and-reappraisal that supersedes mere-manipulable formulaicity’ driving ontology and science across their punctual developments from past to present and into the future (underlined by human sublimating–referencing/registering/decisioning self-becoming/self-conflatedness’/formative– supererogating-projective/reprojective—aestheticising-re-motif—and–re-apriorising/re- axiomatising/re-referencing,-in-perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>’ arising as of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening’). This elucidation is important in the sense that pedantic science-ideology is driven by a conception of mere-manipulable formulaicity of reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as—reproducibility-of-aestheticisation that poorly appreciates the profound-supererogation in the ‘invention/creation’ of true science and thus comes to relate to science as ‘off-the-shelf and made-to-measure contrivance of formulaicity devoid of profound–supererogation’ in a soulless ‘temporal beholdening as sovereignising–imbued-subontologisation/subpotentiation (implied pretense-of-sublimation as to desublimating–existentialising–decisionality supposedly taking precedence over inherent prospective knowledge-reification’), with this shallow–supererogation explaining naivist interpretations of the Newtons, Galileos, Pasteurs, etc. in their very formation and development of what we now call science; and in many ways this pedantic science-ideology construal of knowledge as of \( \text{presencing-absolutising-identitive-constitutedness} \) conception in desublimating-referenced/registered/decisioned self-presence/self-constitutedness \(<\text{in-perspective-epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence}>\) (without or poorly appreciating the profound-supererogation involved in true science and ontology as to ‘sublimating-referencing/registering/decisioning self-becoming/self-conflatedness’/formative-supererogating-\(<\text{projective/reprojective-aestheticising-re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing,-in-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence}>\)’ leads to dominance/vested-interest prodded social-stake-contention-or-confliction determination of knowledge as of historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition with the accompanying social disenfranchisement/swindling/corruption/dispossession. Such development as to ‘extra-knowledge/knowledge-outside-knowledge/knowledge-without-knowledge paradox’ is ultimately associated with scenarios of institutional-ascendency and other dominance/vested-interest (as associated with many a modern day think-tank and secret institutions) overtly or covertly construed as inherently predicative-of and superseding knowledge as to networks of influence bent on intimating what can be thought or not as well as pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation of genuine knowledge, in ‘temporal beholdening as sovereignising—imbued-subontologisation/subpotentiation (implied pretense-of-sublimation as to desublimating—existentialising—decisionality supposedly taking precedence over inherent prospective knowledge-reification’)’. This latter conceptualisation goes well beyond a point of just mere technical ontological-pertinence as to the fact that it operantly captures in a nutshell the prospectively requisite human aporeticism overcoming/unovercoming in upcoming years and decades, as to the capacity for the human to redefine humanity in the light of the societal and technological transformations of the past few decades and the resultant/developing geopolitical context. It is herein contended that the incapacity for such a collective reconstrual of humanity (as to ‘intemporal unbeholding sublimating–nascence ontologising-depth of the full-potency of existence implied as to the very inherent knowledge-reification—gesturing as determining sublimating—existentialising—decisionality’) following the social and industrial transformation occurring by the end of the 20th century very much underlies the ‘temporal beholding as sovereignising—imbued-subontologisation/subpotentiation (implied pretense-of-sublimation as to desublimating—existentialising—decisionality supposedly taking precedence over inherent prospective knowledge-reification)’ which could only end up in the human-made calamities of the 20th centuries so-critically attributable to dominion/statal—logic—preconverging/shallow-supererogating—‘human-and-social—expectations/anticipations—dementating/structuring/paradigming—psychologism’—as-to-its-specific—collateralising-beholdening—<whether—trepidatious-or-warped-or-preclusive-or-occlusive>—and—its-consociated-dominance/vested-interest-subontologising-skewed-influence-as-to-social—vestedness/normativity—<discretely-implied-functionalism>). still so long as this rather plays the role of a psychological-outleting that project a falls sense of public accountability of poor or no effective resolutive course, this mechanism of ‘punctual and surreptitious undermining of knowledge-driven sublimating–existentialising–decisionality at

Such catchphrases like deficits, public spending, social engineering, socialism, etc. already speak to subliminally induced existentialising—enframing/imprintedness—<as-to— historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> fundamentally skewing the democratic public debate undermining an ontology/ontological-veracity driven conception reflected as to ‘intemporal unbeholding sublimating—nascence ontologising-depth of the full-potency of existence (implied as to the very inherent knowledge-reification’—gesturing as determining sublimating—existentialising—decisionality’); and critically this ‘subliminally induced existentialising—enframing/imprintedness—<as-to— historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> reflex’ is a reflex that has ever always existed across the succession of human registry-worldviews/dimensions notwithstanding the paradox of human prospective sublimation/emancipation despite this reflex (thus speaking to the requisite ‘reference-of-thought—devolving—meaningfulness-and-teleology’ comprehensiveness of prospective sublimating—nascence (over relative-ontological-incompleteness—presublimation-construct—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology) as to overall social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning psychological-disposition, and hence failing to reflect human sublimating/desublimating—modalisation-as-to-absolute-referencing—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—upon the full-potency of existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation—and-existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation—<as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied—prospective-aporeticism—overcoming/unovercoming—> in perspective ontological-normalcy/postconvergence as to underlying inherent existence’s sublimating—nascence inducing of ontologisation/omnipotentiality. This latter point speaks to the very fundamental ontological-deficiency of knowledge-reification—gesturing as undertaken with many a subject-matter failing ‘supererogatory—aestheticising—<as-from-perspective—ontological-normalcy/postconvergence—>—re-origination/reshuffling/anarchisation/transformativeness in hermeneutically/reprojectively-educing—historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing’ and rather betrothed to a ‘functionalism projection and conception’ (to which the notion of prospective sublimation/desublimation as to the possibility for prospective knowledge-reification is inevitably bogged down to the <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag of our modern—presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness—social-vestedness/normativity<discretely-implied-functionalism> inducing of subontologisation/subpotentiation) as so-reflected in a psychological-disposition to presublimating relic/artifactual—beholdening-constitutedness—dementatively/structurally/paradigmatically bound to historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition. This is exactly in contrast to the whole object of effective fundamental ontology as incipiently/seedingly central to Derridean deconstruction and Foucauldian genealogy (and as reflected with science-in-practice driven as of historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing conception and not naïve

This conceptivity/epistemic-reflexivity difference between ‘human sublimating/desublimating—modalisation<as-to-absolute-referencing—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology> upon inherent existence’s sublimating—nascence inducing of ontologisation/omnipotentiality’ and ‘human sublimating/desublimating—modalisation<as-to-absolute-referencing—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology> vestedness/normativity<discretely-implied-functionalism> upon inducing social-of subontologisation/subpotentiation’ can be compared in allegorical terms to say having a highway with poor signalling and construction bound to induce a given level of accidents (as to possibility of sublimation/desublimation), with the former rather construing of the inherent nature of the highway of foundational problematic aporeticism and the latter rather ignoring the inherent foundational problematic aporeticism nature of the highway and adopting extricatory stratagems for dealing with the highway in its given state with the implicated expectation of accidents; and in this respect deconstruction and genealogy analyses (and notional–deprocrypticism suprastructuralism analysis as expressed herein with regards to the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process) as to ‘human sublimating/desublimating—modalisation—<as-to-absolute-referencing—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—> upon inherent existence’s sublimating–nascence inducing of ontologisation/omnipotentiality’ sublimating–existentialising-decisionality is bound to a knowledge-reification—gesturing for tackling the more foundational problematic aporeticism issues underlying say the present decadal economic crises, media and information crises, political accountability, etc., whereas ‘human sublimating/desublimating—modalisation—<as-to-absolute-referencing—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—> vestedness/normativity—<discretely-implied-functionalism> upon inducing social-of subontologisation/subpotentiation’ supposedly of sublimating–existentialising-decisionality as implied not only with regards to overall social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning reflex but manifested with many a subject-matter like economics theory, psychological theory and social theory tend to implicitly ignore/consider this more foundational problematic aporeticism reality of present decadal economic crises, media and information crises, political accountability, etc. as a given and rather come-up-with/reflect ‘stratagems of extricatory solutions considered of sublimating–existentialising-decisionality’ and paradoxically validating the very inherence of the decadal economic crises, media and information crises, political accountability, etc. as to a winners-and-losers implicitiated conceptualisation of social-vestedness/normativity—<discretely-implied-functionalism> and incapable of an orientation for addressing fundamental ontology (as to ‘requisite profound–supererogation—entailing—<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness—historiality/ontological-eventfulness—ontological-aesthetic-tracing implications of aporeticism

This is effectively what practically underlies the postmodernism notion of human overcoming of metaphysics-of-presence--{(implicit-'nondescript/ignoreable-void ’-as-to-’ presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness } as of ’presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> inducing of subontologisation/subpotentiation’ (in a psychological-disposition to presublimating relic/artifactual–beholdening-constitutedness de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically bound to historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition); with the further idea that an adorning use of abstract formulaicity of science, scientific methods, statistics and mathematics (as to totalisingly-disentailing—discretion/whim-of-thought pretense-of-sublimation in failing to face up to foundational problematic aporeticism as required for fundamental ontology as to ‘the very inherent knowledge-reification –gesturing as determining sublimating–existentialising–decisionality’), speaks to naïve science-ideology priorly driven by social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> historicity-tracing—in-presencing/hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition rather than genuine science supererogatory—acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness hermeneutically/reprojectively-educing historicality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing implications that rather bring out the true lustre of science, scientific methods, statistics and mathematics when-and-if of sublimating relevance. Critically, the inherent relative ignorance/disenfranchisement of the human sovereign–function/posture in many ways renders blurry the differentiation of such a historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition with respect to true knowledge-reification and overall social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning sublimating–existentialising–decisionality; as to the fact that ‘totalisingly-disentailing—discretion/whim-of-thought pretense-of-transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated–motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing\textsuperscript{111} is effectively at the very core of human psychoanalytic-unshackling/memetic-reordering/institutional-recomposuring induced self-becoming/self-confalatedness\textsuperscript{112}/formative–supererogating–projective/reprojective—aestheticising-re-motif–and–re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing,—in-perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> as conflating towards the possibility of ‘scalarity/immanency of existence’s ontological-normalcy/postconvergence’, and so as to ‘human intellection exercise direct-or-elicited very own self-distantiation’ (involving appropriate ‘metaphoricity\textsuperscript{9} as of hermeneutic/reprojective <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought–in-supererogatory~epistemic-confalatedness\textsuperscript{113}’) and appropriate deferential-formanlisation-transference sense of distantiation over distractive-alignment-to-relative-ontological-incompleteness\textsuperscript{91}. With regards to human Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{114}, ‘distractive-alignment-to-reference-of-thought–<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing>\textsuperscript{29} translates in the overlooking of the effectively requisite social-stake-contention-or-confliction prospective aporeticism overcoming/unovercoming’ (as to a threshold where subontologisation/subpotentiation supposedly takes over from re-ontologisation/omnipotentiality, and it is quite interesting to realise that there is hardly any distractive-alignment-to-reference-of-thought–<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing>\textsuperscript{29} in posturing for limiting human re-ontologisation/omnipotentiality with regards to nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations–blinded-to-their-relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{115}–reference-of-thought–devolving> existentialising–decisionality that can so-arise as constrained to human temporal-and-immediate advantageously perceived positive-opportunism\textsuperscript{116}, whereas on the other hand pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—insubontologisation/subpotentiation distractive-alignment-to-reference-of-thought-<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing>\textsuperscript{19} is rather elevated when it comes to social-and-institutional-frameworks-of-referencing/registering/decisioning existentialising–decisionality as to social-stake-contention-or-confliction). Critically in this regards, notional–self-distantiation-<imbued—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing>\textsuperscript{19}/\textsuperscript{12}/distantiation of contemplative existentialising–frame as to transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated–motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing\textsuperscript{103}’ is merely the translation of the perspective ontological-normalcy/postconvergence of inherent existence as to an impasse/break between relative-ontological-incompleteness\textsuperscript{88} and relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{87} (with regards to their varying projection of <amplituding/formative>disposedness-(as-to-orientation/value-construct/valuation–and–derived-parameterising) and <amplituding/formative>entailment-(as-to-totalising-contiguous/coherent–factuality-of-variability}) as to fore grounding—entailment—(postconverging–narrowing-down–sublimation as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation\textsuperscript{96}). This can starkly be appreciated in the instance of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99} wherein for instance the notion of God-of-plane in an animistic social-setup speaks of a fundamental rementating/restructuring/reparadigming notional–self-distantiation-<imbued—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing>\textsuperscript{19}/\textsuperscript{12}/distantiation of contemplative existentialising–frame as to transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated–motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing\textsuperscript{103}’ as to the fact that the positivistic/rational-empiricist meaningfullness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99} is of utter ‘<amplituding/formative>disposedness-(as-to-orientation/value-construct/valuation–and–derived-parameterising) and <amplituding/formative>entailment-(as-to-totalising-contiguous/coherent–factuality-of-Insightfully, this points out that the very exercise of making-available/opening-up prospective knowledge as of organic-knowledge is inevitably tied down to the exercise of underlining simultaneously a prospective threshold of pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation and associated intellectual-decadence (but then the detachment and lesser ‘emotional-involvement’ with regards to nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations—<blinded-to-

as-of-existential-unthought. Fundamentally, the ‘contrastive inequivalence relation’ implied as of notional-self-distantiation-<imbued—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing>/’distantiation of contemplative existentialising-frame as to transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated-‘motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing’ is critically ‘the manifestation of the very ontological-normalcy/postconvergence nature of existence but for the confusion of human limited-mentation-capacity induced presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’. Thus in effect notional-self-distantiation-<imbued—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing> actually reflects the reality of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening (rather than truly a counterpart to distractive-alignment-to-reference-of-thought-<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing>), and so in the sense that existence as of its ontological-normalcy/postconvergence is unbeholding to human limited-mentation-capacity (as to its <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising—thrownness-in-existence—and-imbued-projective-arbitrariness/waywardness-(as-to-the-human–projective/reprojective—aestheticising-re-motif–and–re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing-process-of-‘<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising—conceptualisation’)) which beholding ‘wrongly projects a contrastive equivalence relation’ between notional-self-distantiation-<imbued—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing> and distractive-alignment-to-reference-of-thought-<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing>; as rather notional-self-distantiation-<imbued—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing> is a ‘submission and making up to existence’s ontological-normalcy/postconvergence’ as to when relative-ontological-completeness avails—and—re-avails (and not a ‘submission and making up in contrastive equivalence to human-subpotency epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence’ in relative-ontological-incompleteness as wrongly implied with distractive-alignment-to-reference-of-thought-<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing>), thus speaking rather of the

In this respect, we can appreciate that appropriate notional–self-distantiation—imbued—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing> is effectively what is bound to bring about momentous historiality/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing as to a human genuine social intellectual–function/posture (underlied by ontological-commitment implied self-assuredness-of-ontological-good-faith/authenticity—as-being-as-of-existential-reality) wherein without such a ‘submission and making up to existence’s ontological-normalcy/postconvergence’ the transition say between classical-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs and theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs would have been problematic (if the proponents of the former as of human institutional social-stake-contention-or-confliction adopted a distractive-alignment-to reference-of-thought—aof-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing> as to ‘submission and making up in contrastive equivalence to human-subpotency epistemic-abnormalcy/preconvergence’ in relative-ontological-incompleteness, but then the very healthy intellectual environment meant that even the proponents of the superseded classical-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs were already involved in a healthy notional–self-distantiation—imbued—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing> that would be receptive to such an eventual anarchic-growth/anarchisation for re-ontologisation) while in contrast such transformation implied (with respect to the relative blurriness of ‘social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning existentialising–decisionality as to immaterial/social overall relative-ontological-incompleteness—presublimation-construct–of—meaningfulness-and-teleology’ eliciting ontologically-flawed distractive-alignment-to reference-of-thought—aof-

Such a conception of \textit{supererogatory–human-subpotency}\>–effecting is critically relevant in appraising that ‘technical/profound articulations are not made gratuitously’ (in contrast to a modern day unnecessary ‘social-and-media reflex of facility/convenience’ shunning technicity/profundity which goes on it is herein argued to be at the ‘infrastructural/root source of the cultivation of public and institutional discursive mediocrity’ as to ‘enculturating a practice of public interestedness/profundity mediocrity and public awareness/accounting/decisioning mediocrity’ whereas the technicity/profundity of modern day training and professions rather points to the fact of a public potentially capable to handle more creatively profound/technical public analysis and public debate rather than just ‘parsimonious/frugal ratings-driven defining conception of intellectual analysis prone to desublimating disorientation, misanalysis and irrelevance’) as to the requisite social notional–self-distantiative contemplative profundity/technicity that inherent existence sublimating–nascence warrants to make available appropriately sublimating
This poor appreciation of profundity/technicity in public arises as of a poor projection of existence’s sublimating-nascence to wrongly imply that the individual ‘is perfect as they are’ with supposed ‘normalised/standardised/selfhelping/etc. knowledge being brought at their service’, and critically wrongly implying that knowledge as to organic-knowledge can be acquired without the requisite epistemic-growth/discomfort/disquiet of the individual as to their ‘appropriate notional–self-distantiation–imbed—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing’ for acquisition in epistemic-growth’, while at the same time ‘a pseudo-contrition as to awareness of such relatively shallow technicity/profundity cultivated in such social-and-media spaces’ doesn’t deter such spaces (consciously or unconsciously) from surreptitiously acting as of profound technicity/profundity at critical moments of public discourses with the consequence that ‘there is an opaque connection/continuity between public, media and institutional discursivity with social and institutional outcomes as if these are discrete and unrelated activities’ (whereas the supposed relevance of discursivity has to do with how it allows for comprehensible public epistemic-growth in effectively appreciating social and institutional outcomes processes rather than individuals reflective estrangement about public and social outcomes). Ultimately, technicity/profundity is inescapable for achieving sublimating–nascence whether as more readily appreciated with nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations–blinded-to-their-relative-ontological-completeness–reference-of-thought–devolving existentialising–decisionality or with the relative blurriness of social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning existentialising–decisionality, and critically in many ways the cultivation of shallow technicity/profundity (as to poor epistemic-growth requiring appropriate notional–self-distantiation–imbued—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing) in public spaces is not detached from public interestedness/profundity mediocrity and public awareness/accounting/decisioning mediocrity. But then technicity/profundity as to the public discourse is all about cultivating the possibility for ‘a public formulative appraisal and habituation for an enlightened sovereign engagement with public decision-making policies and technicalities’; and in this regards it is herein contended that unlike it can naively be construed about human capacity for understanding, a lot of ‘human understanding is actually passive exposition to understanding of appropriately articulated/formulated knowledge-reification’ so-underlying $\text{supererogatory}$ human-subpotency–effecting as to the formative-and-enabling formulative backdrop for sovereignly appraising ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ technicity/profundity’ whether with regards to public education or even childhood-development education and/or formative institutional/professional education, as to the fact that formulative understanding (as of $\text{supererogatory}$ human-subpotency–effecting) is the sovereignty/independence giving possibility for human epistemic-growth relation with knowledge (as to conscious awareness existentialising–decisionality implications even if complete understanding as of complete meaningfulness-and-teleology technicity/profundity is not achieved and thus rendering the public resilient to desublimating pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation with regards to the competing discourse in the public spaces by such a capacity for notional–self-distantiation-$\text{imbued}$–re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing> to cultivate epistemic-growth/discomfort/disquiet over a facility/convenience mental-reflex). In this regards, the sovereign–function/posture ontologising-aptness is truly realised as to a dynamic deferential-formalisation-transference relation with the genuine social intellectual–function/posture that is much more than a conception of ‘normalised/standardised/selfhelping/etc. knowledge being brought at the sovereign’s service without any underlying conception of epistemic-growth/discomfort/disquiet’ as such a flawed conception is very much prone to disenfranchising public, media and institutional pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation bound to ultimately induce individuals reflective estrangement about public and social outcomes (and as such disenfranchising framework render the truly relevant public issues secondary/indirect to their punctual/immediate purpose of ratings/popularity than genuine thought). But rather the sovereign–function/posture ontologising-aptness in many ways is in a protracted continuum with the genuine social intellectual–function/posture, so-implied as to ‘a totalitative construal of the genuine social intellectual–function/posture parallel intellectual contestation of aptitudinal substantive pertinence educating layers of deferential-formalisation-transference enabling the sovereign–function/posture ontologising-aptness (as to ‘the overall underlying social-construct ontological-commitment⁷ implied self-assuredness-of-ontological-good-faith/authenticity—as-being-as-of-existentia... inescapable for achieving sublimating–nascence whether as more readily appreciated with nascent-particular/incipient-and-material/technical-sublimations−<blinded-to-their-relative-ontological-completeness−reference-of-thought−devolving> existentialising–decisionality or with the relative blurriness of social-and-institutional-frameworks-of—referencing/registering/decisioning existentialising–decisionality); and so to fundamentally bring to the consciousness-awareness-teleology that sovereignty doesn’t equate with technicity/profundity. This eventually means that the genuine social intellectual–function/posture should be able to saliently impress upon the ‘overall social intellecction-aptitude body’ with appropriately sublimating technicity/profundity capable of veridically responding to social and institutional aporeticism overcoming/unovercoming (rather than the manifested mediatic silliness wherein ‘supposed intellecction’ is widely scorned upon by the ‘overall social intellecction-aptitude body’ while by mere entitlement/access and ratings-drivenness elicits pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation so-inducing individuals reflective estrangement about public and social outcomes, and as so-cynically-and-surreptitiously cajoled by dominance/vested-interest-subontologising-skewed-influence-as-to-social-vestedness/normativity−<discretely-implied-functionalism> as to render the ‘overall social intellecction-aptitude body’ irrelevant towards upholding the sovereign–function/posture). Thus, the sovereign–function/posture is effectively disempowered as to its relevance to public and social outcomes when the ‘overall social intellecction-aptitude body’ assessment capacity is fundamentally undermined as to monopolising/quasi-monopolising/networking existentialising–frame of public and institutional discursivity as of mere entitlement/access and ratings-driveness bent on side-lining salient and relevant narratives (such that in effect through the decades such dominance/vested-interest-subontologising-skewed-influence-as-to-social-vestedness/normativity−<discretely-implied-functionalism> has paradoxically effectively-and-preemptively succeeded in ‘qualifying in the public psyche’ the ‘specific overall social intellection-aptitude body that is the public university as to its underlying social-construct ontological-commitment implied self-assuredness-of-ontological-good-faith/authenticity –as-being-as-of-existential-reality so-reflected as of social notional-self-distantiation-<imbued—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing> with regards to socio-econo-political social-stake-contention-or-confliction aporeticism overcoming/unovercoming’ in falsehoods terms of ‘contrastive equivalence’ implied distractive-alignment-to- reference-of-thought-<of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing> so as to undermine its ‘neutral sovereign–function/posture upholding’ and with a failed public consciousness about the sovereign importance of the public university practically subjecting them to increasing private funding deeply eroding-and/or-corrupting their capacity for ‘neutral sovereign–function/posture upholding’). The above insight provides a relevant backdrop for a truer appreciation of ‘what is entailed by prospective anarchic-growth/anarchisation for re-ontologisation’ since critically any registry-worldview/dimension is rather of ‘forward-facing constructiveness-of-ontological-performance’-<including-virtue-as-ontology> as to social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ such that it reflects of itself mainly as of postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking–apriorising-psychologism while qualifying its prospective uninstitutionalised-threshold as of preconverging-or-dementing–apriorising-psychologism as nondescript/ignorable–void and so in a presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness existentialising—enframing/imprintedness-<as-to- historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition>. But then ontology/science being as of existence doesn’t kowtow–and–subject-to the ‘little human mortal’ thresholds about existence, and it is up to the human to undertake its epistemic-growth/disquiet/discomfort in dispensing-with-immediacy-for-relative-ontological-completeness-by-reification/contemplative-distension for prospective Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-

In this regards, the reality of human transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity however its crossgenerational and diffusionary nature is an ‘empirical fact’ that can be counted upon for prospective human anarchic-growth/anarchisation for re-ontologisation as to the fact that the social-construct and its institutions are bulldozeable when grossly failing ‘their overall underlying social-construct ontological-commitment 45 implied self-assuredness-of-ontological-good-faith/authenticity 46–as-being-as-of-existential-reality so-reflected as of social notional–self-distantiation–<imbued—re-motif-and-re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing>’ when ‘merely hanging to the thread of institutional prescience’ devoid of aptitudinal substantive pertinence. This ‘human existentialising–decisionality dual psychological-dispositions continuum-gradient of sovereignising—by—ontologising-depth in inducing desublimation or sublimation’ effectively underlies the inherent existentialising–decisionality of underpinning–suprasocial-construct as to underlying socio-econo-political subontologisation/ideology-over-ontology whether technocratic, capitalistic or communist; as to the fact that in many ways ‘the very existentialising–realness of such abstract notions as to their nondisjointing tends to be <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalisingly–absent/vague, relative/qualified and ephemeral/fleeting’ with the underpinning–suprasocial-construct more fruitfully identifiable/construable as to its ‘underlying social dynamics of presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism>’ that-drives/is-behind such subontologisation/ideology-over-ontology disjointing abstract notions as technocratic, capitalistic or communist which are rather ‘catchmenting-by-rejection vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ (as can be more vividly be observed in moments of crisis when such ‘underlying social dynamics of “presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness” social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism>’ manifest themselves as superseding any such abstract ‘catchmenting-by-rejection vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ but also persistently across time in more subtle ways). Such ‘catchmenting-by-rejection vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ are geared on collectively inducing defaulting ‘beholdening as sovereignising—imbued-subontologisation/subpotentiation’ existentialising—decisionality psychological-disposition (as to relative-ontological-incompleteness—presublimation-construct—of—meaningfulness-and-teleology desublimating—existentialising—decisionality) that goes on to ‘surreptitiously/subconsciously distract-from/drown/dilute/enframe the possibility for prospective incisive and diligent ontological-veracity sublimation/emancipation analysis of any such underpinning—suprasocial-construct defining catchmenting-by-rejection of value and value-possibilities’ as to the underlying manifestations of “presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness” social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism> (as more thoroughly elucidated further above); wherein as ‘supposedly forever-and-ever tried-and-tested ready-to-hand reflex existentialising—decisionality that do not know of human limited-mentation-capacity and thus the need for human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening’ the analytical possibility for original prospective creative re-ontologisation (as required for human scalarisation-as-to-rescalarisation-as—re-ontologisation/supererogatory—involting-or-guilding-or-amplifying—scalarisation-<as-to-existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation >) is de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically closed-off, and there is ‘supposedly no sublimating/emancipating existentialising—decisionality “meaningfulness-and-teleology”’ that can arise outside the underpinning—suprasocial-construct existentialising—enframing/imprintedness—<as-to— historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> as putting into question the very ontological-veracity of the subontologisation/ideology-over-ontology ‘catchmenting-by-rejection vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ (as the underpinning–suprasocial-construct becomes an enclosing/hemming-in religiosisty inculcated as defining the very notional/epistemic framework of human living-development–as-to-personality-development, institutional-development–as-to-social-function-development and Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology and so consciously/unconsciously as supposedly superseding pure-ontology) as we can appreciate that the very supposedly abstract notions of say social-science or economics-science or political-science do not actually socially exist in their ‘abstract semantic sense’ but are ‘already pragmatically deferring into the religiosisty of the underpinning–suprasocial-construct catchmenting-by-rejection of value and value-possibilities’, such that in effect all thought gravitates around the religiosisty whether critical or praising as to the existentialising—enframing/imprintedness–as-to-historicity-tracing—in-presencing–hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition> of the religiosisty with the idea of an altogether incisive and diligent engagement as to socio-econo-political re-originary–as-unenframed/unbeholdening/outlier-conceptualisation–(imbued-postconverging/dialectical-thinking –‘projective-insights’/epistemic-projection-in-conflatedness –‘of-notional–deprocrypticism-prospective-sublimation) rather of overt-and-covert taboo status thus in many ways ripping away from the human the possibility to reproject originarily for ‘human-decisionality–as-to-play-of-valid/invalid-decisionality-imbued-sublimation/desublimation> omni-potential commensurability with inherent immanent-existence’s sublimation-structure'/omnipotentiality. In this respect we can appreciate with regards to the capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ that its most critical/grave moments are moments at which it is hardly/poorly present/existent as to its ‘given implied totalising-entailing meaningfulness-and-teleology ’ wherein for instance the social atrophying associated with the Great Depression rather elicited statal supererogatory–progressivity extending into the postwar era of sociopolitical and socioeconomic value renewal that can hardly be qualified as of capitalistic instigation in the pure sense of the word and in many ways the technocracy developed and resourced in the postwar years and the associated scientific and technical advancement especially in the face of the Cold War in many ways speak to an underlying supererogatory– progressivity on which waves the capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ rode as so- reflected by Eisenhower cautioning about the U.S. militaro-industrial complex potential sycophantic exploitation of such overall national supererogatory–progressivity and further reflected as to the accruing of national technical and scientific dividends incommensurably to private capitalistic actors. Furthermore, moments of national socio-economic crises as to such capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ have always been critically involved with recouping and reallocating resouces and means for ‘a poorly self-sustaining capitalistic model of social ascendancy with respect to public externalities, taxation and public debt’ as such a capitalistic model increasingly developed in later years into a de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic parasitising renting economic model associated with the explosion of financialisation especially as it substitutes/arrogates the social capacity to instigate formative supererogatory–progressivity initiatives (as it can now be appreciated that in many ways much of the postwar economy arose as of strong public and local governance directed investment in public infrastructure, housing and property which supererogatory–progressivity in many ways is now capitalistically substituted/arrogated rather as of a short-term renting-model that thrives upon creating winners and losers as to asset inflation strategy for skewed value-extraction). In a critical respect all the creative social supererogatory–progressivity after the postwar years is now reduced in terms of public mitigation of the deleterious fallouts from the capitalistic model all other social supererogatory–progressivity possibilities are now effectively assumed to lie with propping up a poorly self-sustaining capitalistic model (with respect to public subventions, bailouts, taxbreaks) and so notwithstanding the massive financial gains and transfers to tax havens as to a global economy of contrasting rising wealth disparity with the supererogatory–progressivity for individual and social creative initiatives construed as lying in a labour subsistence surrendering to whatever modest possibilities such capitalistic model makes available as supposedly an absolutely determining construct of human supererogatory–progressivity possibilities (while overlooking the reality of its manifest renting parasitising of social value and value possibilities). This in effect speaks to ‘a renting and skewed value-extraction capitalistic colonising of the social capacity for supererogatory–progressivity’ as to imply that the social capacity for initiative can only be logged/cultured into the expropriating/estranging/constraining/limiting capitalistic model and so-reflected as of a globalised framework of totalising-entailing interlocking corporate interests and corporate welfaring that in effect critically and implicitly dictates to states (as of the subtle threat of runaway financial and economic disaster and/or state political-economy retrogradation for non-compliance) the very possibility for their full-capacity for supererogatory–progressivity while being well aloof of the public accounting that political actors running states have to fulfill thus speaking to a most fundamental globalised capitalistic induced democratic-deficit while relatively disempowered governments are left to pick-up-the-pieces (while de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically hemmed-in by the clerical counsels championing the capitalistic model) as to the blindness/sightlessness of a general public backlash (directed to media-driven impressionable narratives rather than to the protracted implications of the roguish capitalistic model), and so as to the more critical de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic international capitalistic system usurpation and undermining of the possibility for social supererogatory–progressivity and rendering democratic processes circularly unsatisfactory with the electorate increasingly resorting to protest and anti-incumbent votes. In many ways thus the supererogatory–progressivity potential of the global economy presents more opportunities than the capitalistic model arrogatingly seem to imply as in many ways it can be argued that as of individual and social supererogatory–progressivity much of ‘vocational rationale’, ‘vocational skills’, ‘vocational economic models’ and ‘vocational creativity’ underlying the capitalistic model can perfectly thrive without capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’; and so as to the fact that the very notion of capitalistic enterprising across the world takes various shapes and forms wherein ‘the more doctrinaire skewed value-extraction and market distorting models’ ride-the-wave of profound value creation activities (often of poorly compensated supererogatory–progressivity) and in many ways undermining the inclination for profound value creation as to the shortcut for short-term returns. This capitalistic model of skewed value-extraction undermines the possibility of overall human supererogatory–progressivity as to when in the contest between optimal-resource-allocation for value-creation as to the requisite creativity for individuals and social supererogatory–progressivity and skewed value-extraction eventually reflects poorly self-sustaining capitalistic model (but for mechanisms of external and foreign relocations exploiting the externalities investments in education and infrastructure of second and third world countries) but still posing the question as to how skewed value-extraction can dementatively/structurally/paradigmatically address in the long-run issues of requisite social and public investment as a requisite for a theoretically self-sustaining economic model (not critically driven and supported by the supererogatory–progressivity prioritisation of local or foreign state) as ‘arrogating public supererogatory–progressivity at the exclusion of overall social and resourcefulness/ingenious possibilities’. Interestingly, the more explicit manifestation of supererogatory–progressivity as underlying any given underpinning–suprasocial-construct is most obvious today with the Chinese economic revolution as to the creative impetus driving its overall socioeconomic transformation. Here again it is fair to say just like with the Japanese and South Korean economic revolutions (given their more uniform and deferential populations) there is a whole directedness here (beyond just a purist capitalism model especially of a renting and skewed value-extraction capitalistic model) and so as to ‘country supererogatory–progressivity directed whole socioeconomic transformation project’, and in many ways the capacity for the Chinese to now begin to invest abroad lies with this relatively healthy supererogatory–progressivity conception/model less betrothed to short-term skewed value-extraction poorly capable of fulfilling the necessary externalities investment to thrive in weaker developing markets (in contrast to the long-term resource-allocation needed to make such markets stable and sustainable). But then in reality when push-came-to-shove the fact is that the postwar history of all modern developed governments was hardly about their naïve subjection to a purist capitalistic model to rebuild themselves as in reality their redevelopment involved initial and massive public-driven investments in association with already matured nation-building human resource as to the reality of their supererogatory–progressivity national development programmes (especially as in the middle of the 20th century international trade accounted for just a small part of economic growth) and it is this that purportedly then gave way in later years to a the rising capitalistic model associated with privatisations and private equitisation; and this supererogatory–progressivity model applied in the postwar governments of Western Europe, the United States as well as China, Japan and South Korea as to their initial economic redevelopment. Paradoxically one of the most deleterious postwar economic policy stances advanced with respect to many a third world country as to the prodding of international economic organisations and as ‘abstractly and vaguely theorised’ by capitalist economists was the advocacy of nation-building in the third world following their postwar independence on the basis of the purist capitalistic model, thus leading in many ways to perpetuating the dependence of these nations on these international economic organisations as having to submit to the capitalistic ‘shallow-supererogation’ of supererogatory–progressivity’ as so-associated with debt servitude and de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic adjustment programmes. The fact then is that the only nations in the postwar years that ‘truly experienced anything closed to the pure capitalistic economic model as devoid of any national supererogatory–progressivity investment-drive and social programmes mitigation for the consequences of the capitalistic model’ are in many ways third world countries of limited human and natural resources to be capable of instigating national supererogatory–progressivity with respect to their incipiently disadvantageous circumstances (especially compounded by their limited nation-building human resources) and this in many ways accounts for their high and relatively inefficient and subsistence informal sectors as to the relative inability of state resources to construct profound and sustainable projects of socioeconomic development (and even then when given the chance with the little means available as of a natural intuition they recoursed essentially to supererogatory–progressivity initiatives like education and basic infrastructural capacities that will hardly pass the test of a true profit-driven and value-extraction capitalistic model), and more critically so as to their more profound interests in social stability in the very first place which can only arise as from a basic level of social wellbeing of their populations before even practically utterly appropriating any such abstract capitalistic model rationale (which in many ways actually served to induce a skewed logic on the basis of which natural resources exploiting corporations from developed countries exploit third world natural resources on unfair shallow–supererogation economic terms) and as the short-termism of such a capitalistic model can hardly contribute to inducing the requisite political stability for sustained economic progress (with the capitalistic model as to its self-serving requirement rather warranting the requisite externalities possibilities for its thriving to be established beforehand). The more abstract rationale here (as to ‘human-decisionality-<as-to-play-of-valid/invalid-decisionality-imbued-sublimation/desublimation> omni-potential commensurability with inherent immanent-existence’s sublimation-structure’/omnipotentiality) is to reflect the reality today of underlying human supererogatory–progressivity as to the incipient reality that human family, communal, clanic and national communities cannot truly operate on the totalising-entailing basis of a purist capitalistic model of social organisation (as to the very risk of undermining social organisation as reflected in the relative prioritisation of national education and basic public facilities in the post-independence years in many third world countries) with such a purist conception rather reflected as to capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ in a rather comprehensively developed framework/mechanism of value-allocation and value-extraction necessarily underlied by a basic level of supererogatory-progressivity. Further the capitalistic model as to its fabrication of winners and losers given its ‘all englobing critical delimiting/catchmenting of human supererogatory-progressivity possibilities’ increasingly brings peoples at loggerheads across races, classes, regions and nations with the implication that since it is centrally/critically defining as to the present day statal conception of social supererogatory-progressivity possibilities, there must necessarily be losers and winners with no creative supererogatory-progressivity beyond this dilemma; thus as to the fact that there can’t be a profound humanity-level creative supererogatory-progressivity as well as decolonised-capitalistic-by-statal supererogatory-progressivity so-construed as ‘anarchical individual and social supererogatory-progressivity’. Such a representation as herein articulated of the truer supererogatory-progressivity (however the ‘shallow-supererogation of supererogatory-progressivity’) beneath the capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ is hardly reflected today as to ‘hardened narratives of an absolutising pure capitalistic model’ as mirroring the very ruthlessness associated with the renting and skewed value-extraction capitalistic model (as so-enculturated socially and mediatically as to ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness<discretely-implied-functionalism>). The relative veracity of supererogatory-progressivity is strongly seen with the state-driven Asian and European supererogatory-progressivity economies (with the Germans, Japanese and Chinese out-competing the U.S. with respect to trade balance and so without all the ‘grandiose capitalistic economic theorising’ but on the more veridical realism of policy-driven supererogatory–progressivity) and as even in the U.S. there is at least a critical level of strategic supererogatory–progressivity with local states definitely adopting incentives-driven approaches of supererogatory–progressivity; all this speaking from an totalising-entailing perspective analysis of the purist capitalistic model as poorly self-sustaining of its socioeconomic framework (especially its relative irresponsibility with regards to foundational externalities like education, infrastructure, well thought-out policies, collective social advancement, etc.). The bigger question that then arises has to do with the possibility for optimal human supererogatory–progressivity ‘beyond just the statism and geostrategy/states-competition muddled framework’ that is de-mentated/structured/paradigmed to induce skewed ‘shallow-supererogation’ of supererogatory–progressivity’ as to capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’. Taking a step aback, in many ways the reality of the very fundamental notion of the capitalistic model speaking of perfect markets do not exist, and rather ‘markets themselves develop as advantageously created situations after the facts’ as to the requisite human creative supererogatory–progressivity for a market to even arise; and in this respect the supposed fittest notion of capitalistic competition as to punctual/immediate fitness tends to underperform the more advantageous supererogative contemplative deliberation of markets for critically efficient/optimising resource allocation/utilisation/development (as to the fact that de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically the relatively deliberative conceptualisation of markets associated with say German, Japanese, Chinese, South Korean public-policy supererogatory–progressivity economic models participate in their competitive edge over ‘vague/abstract punctual/immediate fitness notion of capitalistic competition’ that speaks to an overall deliberative optimalising potential of human supererogatory–progressivity beyond any such capitalistic limitative-artifice-of-human-imaginary/metaphysical-conceptualisation as to ‘unbeholdening sublimating–nascence ontologising-depth of the full-potency of existence’ is, more-or-less as of its relative-ontological-incompleteness, ‘a usurpation of abstract purist ontologisation/ontological-veracity/aestheticisation-towards-ontology projected as of notional–deprocrypticism/<amplituding/formative>notional–preempting—disjointedness-as-of-

In other words, the notion of ‘the other’ as aetiologisation/ontological-escalation is much more than ‘magnanimity towards the other’ but more fully a stance that ‘calls upon a principled commitment to the notion of the other’ by the other as enabling the completeness of universal responsibility. Paradoxically, viewed from this angle as of the possibility of inducing prospective notional-contiguity/epistemic-contiguity -<profound-supererogation -of-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> for ontologically-veridical virtue transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity, a different interpretation can be made about the posture of a thinker like Heidegger during the troubled years of the 30s; as effectively, the implication of Heidegger’s analysis of the situation which he associated with Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>causality–as-to-projective-totalitative–implications,-for-explicating-ontological-contiguity<sup>6</sup> points to ‘a conception emphasising ontology as defining virtue thus ultimately geared towards prospective notional-contiguity/epistemic-contiguity -<profound-supererogation -of-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking –qualia-schema> as of the need for prospective relative-ontological-completeness -of- reference-of-thought’, but failing not because of the said orientation but with regards to the wrong conclusion about Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> misunderstood as implying that it lies with a historical tradition like the Ancient Greece tradition or German Folk tradition rather than lying with an underlying transcendental universal notion construed

Likewise, but with regards to virtue analysts analyses that are naively articulated on the basis of the ontological-contiguity of our ‘modern take attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’ as of our <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag prior relative-ontological-incompleteness–of-reference-of-thought leading to palliation as of selecting, triaging, mutually-concurring-and-accommodating and power-relations driven palliating virtue constructs, an altogether different drawback is decisively apparent as we know that since those troubled years, wars, genocides, and other crimes against humanity have still been taking place and will probably continue to take place, as of the de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic consequence arising with such manifestations in ontological-contiguity of our ‘modern take attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’; divulging that conceptualising virtue in ontological-contiguity is at best only of palliative consequence and not truly aetiologisation/ontological-escalation which rather warrants prospective notional-contiguity/epistemic-contiguity–<profound-supererogation>–of-mentally-aestheticised–postconverging/dialectical-thinking–qualia-schema> as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness–of-reference-of-thought. The fact is well-meaningness, good-intentions and/or good-naturedness however comforting to contemplate about doesn’t substitute for ontology/ontological-veridicality as of the need to truly understand the human limited-mentation-capacity dynamics behind human action for appropriate aetiologisation/ontological-escalation that brings an end to the endemisation and enculturation of any given registry-worldview’s/dimension’s vices-and-impediments⁹. This existential reality about ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework¹⁰ is no more different between the social world and the natural world, and so as of existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation—and—existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation—<as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied—‘prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’> inherent ontological coherence/contiguity. This insight about virtue as lying with ontology has been to varying degrees implicitly understood by many postmodern thinkers, beginning with Heidegger pointing to a sophistication of thought but for the poor development and poor conclusions of his analysis during the troubled years of s; and rather poorly interpreted by virtue critiques adopting a ‘modern take attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme’ in ontological-contiguity as of its <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—self-referencing—syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag prior relative-ontological-incompleteness—of—reference-of-thought perspective construed-as reasoning—from-results/afterthought of modernity. Such sophistication of thought to think in terms of inherent ontology, however ontologically-flawed with respect to Heidegger, has been further implicitly pursued by latter postmodern thinkers as of quasi-transcendental implications for construing virtue from the orientation of prospective notional-contiguity/epistemic-contiguity—<profound—supererogation—of-mentally-aestheticised—postconverging/dialectical-thinking—qualia-schema> as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness—of—reference-of-thought, as implicated with the case of Derrida’s spirit insight. Ultimately, the ‘postmodern

We can effectively grasp why Heidegger’s implicated insight as of notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity—<shallow-supererogation—of-mentally-aestheticised—preconverging/dementing—qualia-schema> but rather being associated with a given tradition actually couldn’t break through the barrier of perceiving notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity—<shallow-supererogation—of-mentally-aestheticised—preconverging/dementing—qualia-schema> as ‘futural way of thinking’, as it misperceived that any tradition can reveal as of its inherent nature the ‘futural way of thinking’, rather than that this lies with ‘a \^{102}\text{ universal principle understanding of the transformation of traditions’ and thus how such \^{103}\text{ universal principle understanding as of its universal implications informs about the ‘futural way of thinking’.} In this regard, we can equally understand why Heidegger’s supposed criticism of Cartesianism was altogether a misplaced analysis given that ‘a \^{103}\text{ universal principle understanding of the transformation of traditions’ as herein implied by this author in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity”—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process”, would have provided the insight that Descartes was actually ‘establishing a positivism tradition as of futural way of thinking’ breaking away from non-positivism/medievalism and so ‘as to the fact that dimensionality-of-sublimating —<amplituding/formative>supererogatory—dementativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation\textsuperscript{60} is aporetically the more fundamental incipient/seeding originariness-parhresia,—as—spontaneity-of-aestheticisation to Descartes thinking-proposition for budding-positivism reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as—reproducibility-of-aestheticisation’ and thus in many ways the naïve/flawed Cartesianism today arise as to a reasoning as from reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as—reproducibility-of-aestheticisation perspective whereas Descartes is more fundamentally involved in an aporeticism overcoming/unovercoming exercise with respect to medieval-scholasticism non-positivising (as of dimensionality-of-sublimating —<amplituding/formative>supererogatory—dementativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness\textsuperscript{1} /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation\textsuperscript{6}) which philosophically precedes his secondary thinking-proposition as reasoning-from-

attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme in superseding/transcending non-positivism/medievalism. In effect it is herein contended that what is implicitly missed about the Cartesian proposition ‘I think therefore I am’ is not the idea that Descartes contemplates that he is the first person to be self-conscious about his thinking; rather his underlying reasoning is ‘more than just speculative doubting’ but ‘motivated doubting’ that is highly contextual-as-of-the-non-positivism/medieval-epoch and highly prefigurative-as-to-what-Descartes-wants-to-do-of-transformative-with-thinking-given-that-context aporeticism (underlying that Descartes’ dimensionality-of-sublimating —<amplituding/formative> supererogatory—de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvalutative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation as to existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation is aporetically the more fundamental incipient/seeding originariness-parrhesia,—as–spontaneity-of-aestheticisation in then secondarily inducing his thinking-proposition for budding-positivism reproducibility—mathesis/motif/thrownness-disposition,—as—reproducibility-of-aestheticisation). That is, Descartes seeks to affirm the ‘mereness of thought’ beyond any existing habit-and-tradition-of-thought as of non-positivism/medievalism scholasticism pedantic dogmatism reasoning-from-results/afterthought, and so liberated rearticulate thought ‘out of thin air’ as of prospective reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning as reflected by his novel mathesis universalis metaphoricity rationalism schema/dissemination that permeates all of his works such that even with his ontological argument something subtle and more original is happening, in that unlike many medieval scholasticism dogmatic interpretations that construe of a supernatural permeation into the natural, in affirming the ontological argument Descartes blocks-out/passivises the supernatural from the natural with the metaphoricity implication that the natural can be thought of operationally and in sublimation on its own terms–as-of-axiomatic-construct. Thus Descartes ‘I think therefore I am’ is rather a statement of intent as of a ‘futural way of thinking and sublimation’ and its budding-positivism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme, that is unique as ‘consciously setting up the pre-eminence of thinking in eliciting-and-resolving systemic doubting and de-mentating/structuring/paradigmimg the possibility of elucidation of any subject on this thinking and sublimation basis’. In effect Descartes project is actually as to existence-potency–sublimating–nascence, disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of–amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–renewing–realisation/re-perception/re-thought–in–supererogatory–epistemic-conflatedness relative-ontological-completeness of apriorising/axiomatising/referencing as of positivism, and so from the presencing–absolutising-identitive-constitutedness of non-positivism/medievalism. With both the budding-positivism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme and postmodern deprocrypticism–or–preempting–disjointedness-as-of–reference-of-thought apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme, we may be forgiven to confuse-and-dismiss their schema as-to-de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic–disseminative-implications as of prospective reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning as incoherent from a shallow-and-immediate uninsightful analytical perspective on the basis of the respectively prior reasoning-from-results/afterthought of non-positivism/medievalism and positivism/rational-empiricism manifestation of procrypticism–or–disjointedness-as-of–reference-of-thought (since as of the latter relative-ontological-incompleteness perspective ‘all the reasoning in the world’ is only respectively as of non-positivism/medievalism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism or positivism–procrypticism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–psychologism); thus failing to successive prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{8} of reference-of-thought as to the ‘ontological-contiguity —of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\textsuperscript{8} as of reference-of-thought différance/internal-dialectics/difference-deferral’. The appropriate contemplative perspective for the appreciation of their schema as-to-de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic—disseminative-implications is effectively crossgenerational as of the amplitude/breadth of reference-of-thought implied transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—dementativity; as we can effectively appreciate that the very mathesis \textsuperscript{8} universalis schema/disseminative metaphoricity\textsuperscript{8} engendering our positivism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care—&—episteme is still ongoing today even as it is more clearly demarcated as initiated about 500 years ago. The overall logic of this notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity\textsuperscript{8} <-<shallow-supererogation -of-mentally-aestheticised—preconverging/dementing —qualia-schema> analysis, implied as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{8} of reference-of-thought, can be understood simply as of the relation between existence which is already given and human-subpotency which as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{8} of reference-of-thought grasp more and more what is of the full-potency of existence by way of its axiomatic-constructs of existence or of purviews/domains of existence, with its grandest axiomatic-construct as an epistemic-totalising /circumscribing/delineating construct being the reference-of-thought. We can grasp that it is not existence and purviews/domains of existence which will adjust to human-subpotency for ontologically-veridical meaningfulness-and-teleology but rather human-subpotency adjusting as to existence-potency—sublimating—nascence,—disclosed—from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,—in—supererogatory—epistemic-conflicatedness; with such adjusting being construed as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{2}. But then humankind as of its developed-and-invested habits and traditions about existence counterintuitively relates to existence and purviews/domains of existence as if it supersedes them, and thus do not or poorly construes of prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{2}-of-reference-of-thought:relative-ontological-completeness -of-axiomatic-construct as an issue of human-subpotency adjustment as of psychoanalytic-unshackling/prospective-grounding/prospective-reification\textsuperscript{14}, implied as of de-mentation-(supererogatory-ontological-de-mentation-or-dialectical-de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics) with regards to the reference-of-thought transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity. In lieu the poor intuition is to imply that we are already well grounded and that prospective meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{9} is an incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness —enframed-conceptualisation to our already established psychoanalytic disposition rather than a maximalising-recomposing-for-relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{7}—unenframed-conceptualisation in resetting-our-psychoanalytic-disposition/prospective-grounding as of <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought in conflatedness\textsuperscript{9}, such that this leads to constitutedness\textsuperscript{11} when so poorly psychoanalytically grounded on the naïve and ontologically-flawed basis that it is existence and purviews/domains of existence that adjust to our human-subpotency. Thus however counterintuitive, this overall conception structures the fact that it is as of de-mentation-(supererogatory-ontological-de-mentation-or-dialectical-de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics) that our human <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating reference-of-thought is transcended for prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{7}-of-reference-of-thought implied as of notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity\textsuperscript{6}—shallow-supererogation -of-mentally-aestheticised–preconverging/dementing –qualia-schema>. This phenomenological insight in recognising that there is ‘an underlying metaphoricity–induced relative-emancipatory migration’ from the mindset of the early hunter-gathers as of recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation towards modern man as of positivism–procrypticism to the prospective postmodern man as of deprocrypticism, calls for a full appreciation of this most profound phenomenological transcendental process of corresponding ‘human attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme migration’ inducing successive apriorisings/apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstruments of human meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{15} as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{15}—

and other postmodern creative-processes avant-gardism’ that are not in a reasoning-from-results/afterthought ontological entanglement with our ‘modern take attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme’. Consider in this regard the reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning prospective de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic disseminative implications as of Derridean différance/internal-dialectics/difference-deferral, Foucauldian genealogy-knowledge-and-power-discourse and Deleuzian immanence experimentation that can all be construed (and as equally implied by this author’s ontological-normalcy/postconvergence referentialism conception of ‘historiality/ontological-eventfulness’/ontological-aesthetic-tracing), as of prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/epistemically-de-mentativity singularisation/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism for perpetuated/disseminative preemption of conceptual disjointedness. Thus ultimately the notional–deprocrypticism registry-worldview/dimension is one that will be marked by sharper and sharper singularisation/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism, construed as of its perpetuating/disseminating of the preemption of disjointedness. In this regard, singularisation/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism retrospectively and prospectively reflects the notional–conflatedness/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism implied as of ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality but with the latter as a ‘seeding promise of human-subpotency ontological-performance’—<including-virtue-as-ontology> equivalence/correspondence with the full-potency-of-existence’s—sublimating—nascence-as-of-its-coherence/contiguity’ ever always coming short due to human temporal ontological-performance—<including-virtue-as-ontology> denaturing as of temporal/shortness-of-register-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology pedantic/formulaic alignment to ‘apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology’,-for-

Thus singularisation\(^2\)/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism by its implied notional–conflatedness highlights that ‘axiomatic-constructs as of <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating reference-of-thought–devolving’ in reflecting of ‘human-subpotency ontological-performance –<including-virtue-as-ontology> correspondence with the full-potency of existence in its coherence/contiguity as of implied human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation, is effectively as of dissingularisation/epistemic-nonimmanence/flawed-epistemic-determinism to singularisation/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism. That is singularisation/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism points out that there is no inherent meaning of existence about existence as existence is tautologically what it is as existence, rather the notion of meaning arises as of the notion of human-subpotency strife to ‘grasp what is existence’, and that latter notion is all about human-subpotency ‘axiomatic-constructs as of <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating reference-of-thought–devolving’ human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation. In other words, meaning is always a human project to construe existence as of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening of ‘axiomatic-constructs as of <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating reference-of-thought–devolving’. singularisation/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism, and as reflected by this author’s notion of ontological-normalcy/postconvergence referentialism conception of quantum entanglement, relativity theory implications, the teleologically constrained nature of biological processes as more than just the parsimonious-or-disparate nature of organic matter but rather singularisation /epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism as of whole living organisms, and likewise human meaningfulness itself is a dementating/structuring/paradigming singularisation /epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism as of sharply defined teleological possibilities of social and individuals existence with respect to the different registry-worldviews/dimensions specific institutionalisations, etc. (Interestingly, as of this author’s conception of such a teleological perception of existence as of its singularisation /epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism, as of the human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation insights of postmodern-thought has been subject to naïve obfuscation grounded on the supposed privilege of ‘science-ideology’ over science-in-practice as an opened construct of scientific knowledge as of cause-and-effect constraint, and with the form of science at various times continually moulting as from the budding science of the days of Galileo and Copernicus, to Newtonian science, to Lavoisier laboratory science, to Einsteinian science to modern day institutional practices of science, with all fundamentally driven not by any ‘purported science-ideology’ but rather the practicality of results as of the constraint of the subject-domains of scientific study as of their existential-contextualising-contiguity knowledge-reification rather than ‘any implied notion that naively supersede existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation-and-existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,-eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation—as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied-’prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’’. In this regard, it is interesting to note that the notion of science practised by the successive pioneers cited above are markedly different from each other and all subjected rather to the implications of existential-contextualising-contiguity knowledge-reification of their purview/domain of existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality. It is interesting as well to note for example that when equations didn’t work out in reflecting existential-contextualising-contiguity\textsuperscript{18}, Einstein rather rethought and subjected human assumptions to existence—as-the-absolute-a-priori-of-conceptualisation—and—existence—as-sublimating-withdrawal,—eliciting-of-prospective-supererogation—<-as-to-perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence-implied—‘prospective-aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming’> for his science, with such notions as space-time rather than traditional space and time; pointing out that there cannot be any ideology about science and it is rather the constraint for existential-contextualising-contiguity\textsuperscript{18} knowledge-reification that determines science practice, and so in existential conflatedness\textsuperscript{1}. Further, it had long dawned on this author that scam studies meant to undermine the validity of underlying constructivist and relativist insights about existential reality as implied by postmodern-thought including with respect to such implications in the natural sciences are rather ‘supposedly invalidating’ wholly with respect to the authors of such scam studies coming out with the arguments of their ‘intendedness of invalidation’; with the legitimate contention that such ploys are thus surreptitious manoeuvres for preempting a given orientation of thought ‘not because of the inherent invalidity of such orientations as of inherent theoretical knowledge arguments in undermining such orientations’ but rather as a ploy of ‘inducing popularised scientific ideology’ to surreptitiously stifle such orientations without truly engaging in undermining its theorisation. Bogusness or non-bogusness is not a relevant scientific criteria, though granted it can be a relevant criteria for ‘surreptitious media-driven invalidation’, as science-in-practice is about ultimate cause-and-effect relationships, and in practical terms many scientific studies are rather elaborated as of ‘deferred cause-and-effect constraint’ as a reifying gesture for ultimate cause-and-effect determination. The fact that similar scam studies for the ‘intendedness of invalidation’ cannot be construed as scientifically valid with respect to any given orientation of study renders such manoeuvres intellectually void, and whatever their underlying ‘covert goals’ and however genuine their authors are of intent. It is very much important in this regard that intellectuals, whether in the natural sciences or in the social and humanities, not be cowered/enframed by non-intellectual/extra-intellectual approaches to ‘acknowledged intellectual ways and approaches for intellectual argumentation’, and not even if such approaches are media-driven, so because much that is central and critical to intellectualism is about exploring all possibilities.) All these highlight an underlying ontology’s-directedness-as-Being that bears notional-conflatedness\textsuperscript{92} singularisation\textsuperscript{91}/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism implications, as of ontologically-veridical singularisation\textsuperscript{91}/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism of human-subpotency ontological-performance\textsuperscript{91}-<including-virtue-as-ontology> correspondence with the full-potency of existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality over ontologically-flawed dissingularisation\textsuperscript{28}/epistemic-nonimmanence/flawed-epistemic-determinism; and yet our psychological disposition is more often than not geared to ontologically-flawed dissingularisation\textsuperscript{28}/epistemic-nonimmanence/flawed-epistemic-determinism that tend to be absolutised in constitutedness\textsuperscript{13} of prior reasoning-from-results/afterthought mental-reflexes of \textlangle amplituding/formative\textrangle wooden-language-(imbued—temporal–mere-form/virtualities/dereification\textsuperscript{86}/akrasiatic-drag/denatured/preconverging-or-dementing—narratives—of-the—reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology \textrangle, and so failing to grasp that the very principle of human institutional-cumulation/institutional-recomposure-as-to-historiality/ontological-eventfulness\textsuperscript{66}/ontological-aesthetic-tracing> in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity\textsuperscript{67}—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\textsuperscript{67} itself is one driven by the future as of its own reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme\textsuperscript{5} which reflects an increasing orientation away from identitive-constitutedness-as-‘epistemic-totality’-dereification—in-dissingularisation-as-flawed-

Such ‘excogitative-blanking of prospective existential-contextualising-contiguity-in-reification’ can be construed as to when say the non-positivistic mindset goes about articulating meaningfulness-and-teleology falsely as if superstitious notions ontologically-veridical out of prospective positivism existential-contextualising-contiguity-reification, and likewise with regards to a positivism/rational-empiricism manifestation of procrypticism–or–disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought mindset construal of meaningfulness-and-teleology that utterly overlooks the de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic reference-of-thought denaturing implications of its prospective disjointedness of meaningfulness-and-teleology out of prospective existential-contextualising-contiguity -reification, as such disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought can be instigated originally from a postlogism-slantedness mental-disposition and the developing social dynamics with human temporality. We can appreciate in this sense that even within a non-positivistic social-setup as animistic or medieval for instance, despite the fact that it is susceptible to ontologically-flawed superstitious beliefs like notions-and-accusations-of-sorcery, the bulk of human action will be in good intent as of its institutionalisation framework ‘perceptual perspective/framing/reference/horizon of meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^9\) about existential-contextualising-contiguity\(^9\)’; but then at its uninstitutionalised-threshold\(^2\) where its reference-of-thought de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic ontological-flawed implications of believing in superstition set in as of its prior relative-ontological-incompleteness\(^1\) of reference-of-thought, it always systemically faces notional-procrypticism/notional-disjointedness as of vices-and-impediments\(^3\) arising from non-positivism/superstitious human-subpotency existentially constrained temporal ontological-performance\(^7\) include-virtue-as-ontology as <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-{imbued—temporal—mere-form/virtualities/dereification\(^9\)/akrasiatic-drag/denatured/preconverging-or-dementing\(^9\)—narratives—of-the-reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology\(^9\}) in usurpation of the prior institutionalisation ‘perceptual perspective/framing/reference/horizon of meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^9\) about existential-contextualising-contiguity\(^9\)’ now in false certainty/assurance. This points out that when consciously aware of uninstitutionalised-threshold\(^2\) manifestation, we can’t naively operate as of our prior institutionalisation ‘perceptual perspective/framing/reference/horizon of meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^9\) about existential-contextualising-contiguity\(^9\)’, as of the fact of the beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology\(^9\) in-existential-extrication-as-ofexistential-unthought> preconverging-or-dementing apriorising-psychologism human-subpotency existentially constrained temporal ontological-performance\(^7\) include-virtue-as-ontology as <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-{imbued—temporal—mere-form/virtualities/dereification\(^9\)/akrasiatic-drag/denatured/preconverging-or-dementing\(^9\)—narratives—of-the-reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology\(^9\})

But this conception is a reflection of more than just ad-hoc temporal manifestations at uninstitutionalised-threshold but rather points out, besides the trite or more grave consequences of this state of affairs as a result of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions–existentialism-form-factor, that the possibility for all prospective institutionalisations necessarily passes through understanding ‘human-subpotency existentially constrained temporal ontological-performance’-<including-virtue-as-ontology> as <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-{imbued—temporal—mere-form/virtualities/dereification/akrasiatic-drag/denatured/preconverging-or-dementing narratives—of-the reference-of-thought—categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology} of the prior registry-worldview/dimension in usurpation’, which understanding is actually what empowers the possibility for prospective institutionalisations that surpersede/transcend it. In other words, humans in the various prior institutionalisations before our positivism were not limited to their various registry-worldviews/dimensions as recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, base-institutionalisation, universalisation and our positivism just because they were inherently different from us as a species, but because of the need for the necessary institutional-cumulation/institutional-recomposure-as-to-historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing> of understanding as of its organic-knowledge to enable the very same species to accede prospective institutionalisations as of human-subpotency adjusting to the full-potency of existence, and not the false certainty/assurance that any human registry-worldview/dimension is fully developed and that existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality will adjust to it, however our myopic/cloistered 60–100 years of living perspective. That is, grounding of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ is certainly required, but as of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity it is not about grounding as of the present but rather as of psychoanalytic-unshackling/prospective-grounding/prospective-reification\(^6\) for prospective relative-ontological-completeness\(^5\)-of-reference-of-thought; and as highlighted elsewhere it is ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought (of human-subpotency as of its limited-mentation-capacity-deepening\(^5\)) that can imply human-subpotency ontological-performance\(^7\)-<including-virtue-as-ontology> correspondence with the full-potency of existence. It should be noted here that this ontology’s-directedness-as-Being/ontologically-veridical notion of human-subpotency singularisation\(^7\)/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism ontological-performance\(^7\)-<including-virtue-as-ontology> correspondence with the full-potency of existence is a notion of teleology\(^9\) in notional–conflatedness\(^12\) as of ontological-normalcy/postconvergence (with teleology\(^9\) fundamentally construed as ‘phenomenal/manifest conceptivity/epistemic-reflexivity in existence as ontological (so-reflecting \(<\text{amplituding/formative}>\text{disposedness-(as-to-orientation/value-construct/valuation–and–derived-parameterising)}\) and \(<\text{amplituding/formative}>\text{entailment-(as-to-totalising-contiguous/coherent–factuality-of-variability)})’ and so as to the specific human-subpotency as to overall reifying-and-empowering-reflexivity-of-ecstatic-existence-as-panintelligibility\(^7\)-<imbued-and-‘hermeneutically/reprojectively-educing’–human-subpotency–epistemic-perspective-of-projective/reprojective—aestheticising-re-motif–and–re-apriorising/re-axiomatising/re-referencing–conceptualisation>), as utterly different from a traditional conception of teleology\(^9\) as of dissingularisation /epistemic-nonimmanence/flawed-epistemic-determinism that is rather in constitutedness\(^13\) as it reflects prior relative-ontological-incompleteness -of- reference-of-thought as of identitive-constitutedness -as-‘epistemic-

‘human-amplituding/formative–epistemicity-totalising-purview-of-construal’, the meaningfulness-and-teleology of a positivistic mindset with the idea of going into a supposed evil forest to collect a plant root as a cure in say an animistic social-setup will probably be construed as ridiculous as of its prior relative-ontological-incompleteness-reference-of-thought despite the existential-contextualising-contiguity knowledge-reification ontological-veracity that the possibility of curing ailments in the animistic social-setup lies with the positivistic mindset prospective relative-ontological-completeness-reference-of-thought. The fundamental implication here is that transcendental underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality reflected as to ontological-good-faith/authenticity over ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity of existential-contextualising-contiguity is not the sufficient reason for prospective human registry-worldview’s/dimension’s institutionalisation, but warrants a secondnaturing process of elicited and secondnatured positive-opportunism as of ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework articulation of meaningfulness-and-teleology by skewing for universal-transparency—⟨transparency-of-totalising-entailing, as-to-entailing, <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness ⟩ and social deferential-formalisation-transference. The implication here is that the social-construct has ever always been a threshold as of its prior institutionalisation as well as a threshold as of its uninstitutionalised-threshold; wherein respectively there is positive-opportunism for prior institutionalisation and no positive-opportunism for prospective institutionalisation, explaining the developing reality of the various successive human registry-worldview’s/dimension’s institutionalisations, as of retrospective and prospective implications. This fundamentally points to a ‘human psychology of positive-opportunism as of prior-institutionalisation-reification and uninstitutionalised-threshold “dereification”’, that points out that hitherto the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process has not been about ‘dimensionality-of-sublimating — <amplituding/formative> supererogatory–de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-confoundedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation temporal individuations dispositions’ transformation into ‘dimensionality-of-sublimating — <amplituding/formative> supererogatory–de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-confoundedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation as of ontological-faith-notion–or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing–as-so-being-as-of-reified insight. The insight here about reification is that all their intemporal value references are rather as subsumed in their ‘positivistic reification of meaningfulness-and-teleology’ as of their prospective relative-ontological-completeness of reference-of-thought with the corresponding implications of human ‘prospective positivistic transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogation–de-mentativity ontological-performance ’<<includingpositivism/medievalism vices-and-impediments. By that token they are effectively of the most intellectually-and-morally inclined persons of their society. Contrastively, the temporal singularisation'/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism insight points to such a prior registry-worldview/dimension denaturing’ meaningfulness-and-teleology’, and implying effectively that they are of lesser intellectual-and-moral dialogical-equivalence. This further explains why vague classification schemes of value like good-naturedness, kindness, honesty, etc. have no inherent meaning as of themselves, as all the ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ that there is and can exist is ontological as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness, such that any such implied meaning is only ontologically intelligible with its reification as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought, as so implied from singularisation/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism as the reflection of ontologically-verbatim ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’. This points out that as of its very own \textit{amplituding/formative–epistemicity} totalising–self-referencing-syncronising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag, a registry-worldview/dimension reference-of-thought is not the ontologically-veridical point of conceptualisation of intemporal value reference, which is rather as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought reification of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’, as we can appreciate with regards to all prior institutionalisations but will certainly be complexified/inhibited to construe the same as of our positivism–procrysticism as from futural Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology as of prospective deprocrysticism–or–preempting—disjointedness-as-of–reference-of-thought prospective relative-ontological-completeness perspective. The fact is no registry-worldview/dimension as of its temporal/shortness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology \textit{wooden-language} \textit{(imbued—averaging-of-thought–as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct–meaningfulness-and-teleology–as-of–nondescript/ignorable–void –with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications)} \textit{instigated prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation–supererogatory–de-mentativity}, is construed as ‘putting-into-question its existentially invested conception of ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’, which is rather a contradiction of sorts given human-subpotency–

However, this ‘ontologically-veridical reification’ of value reference as of prospective relativeontological-completeness ‘ and the ‘ontologically-flawed dereification’ of value reference as of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness is associated with a fundamental paradox/confusion with regards to sound human intellection at destructuring-threshold(uninstitutionalised-threshold/presublimating—desublimating-decisionality)—of-ontological-performance ‘-<including-virtue-as-ontology>. As this reification/dereification of meaningfulness-and-telelogy paradox/confusion has always provided the room for intellectual-

With such charlatanism certainly knowing better but opting for denaturing conceptions of value reference as of <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-{imbued—averaging-of-thought←as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology ←as-of—‘nondescript/ignorable—void ’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>} advancement of temporal interests in stifling the possibility of prospective human intellectual-and-moral emancipation. The idea of ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity raised herein by this author is a reflection of the reality that knowledge as organic-knowledge is existentially all-committal by the mere fact of human-subpotency—aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions—existentialism-form-factor, with the possibility of denaturing as of social-stake-contention-or-confliction, and particularly so in spurious and blurry domains of study not readily/easily constraint to ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework reflection of existential-contextualising-contiguity. This brings up the implication of what is truly transcendental knowledge by its nature as of knowledge-notionalisation and organic-knowledge. Transcendental knowledge is actually institutionalising and re-institutionalising, implying it supersedes institutional practices and constructs as to the possibility for prospective institutionalisation, and so as of its dimensionality-of-sublimating —<amplituding/formative> supererogatory–de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation inducing institutional secondnaturing. It is rather not out of the question that knowledge so-construed as of prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity implications put-into-question as ‘charlatanic’ institutions and their practices construed as of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness –of- reference-of-thought specifically as extra-intellectual and pedantic orientations that undermine the advancement of their supposed prospective intellectual and emancipatory vocations. Interestingly, we can garner that positivistic knowledge arose and was cultivated as of ‘its very own apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme conception of knowledge’ that superseded and didn’t recognise-and-submit to medieval-scholasticism for its validation, as it construed that the latter wasn’t meant/de-mentated/structured/paradigmed to uphold and perpetuate positivism implied transcendental knowledge as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{5} reference-of-thought; and in due course, by its ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{6} constraining it crossgenerationally overrode medieval-scholasticism. It is herein contended that it isn’t out of the question that a creeping and slumbering institutional-being-and-craft intellectual tedium today increasingly fails to elicit the full re-originary–as-unenframed/unbeholdening/outlier-conceptualisation–\textsuperscript{7}\{imbued-postconverging/dialectical-thinking `projective-insights’/`epistemic-projection-in-conflatedness`/of-notional~deprocrypticism-prospective-sublimation\} potential for prospective intellectual emancipation, and so rather as of de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic institutionally-induced and societally-induced anti-intellectualism implications. The question can further be asked whether transcendental implied knowledge can actually be construed as the subject of ‘understanding’ of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness\textsuperscript{8} reference-of-thought with the latter’s \textsuperscript{9} implications of transcendental knowledge. Is transcendental knowledge as of that token rather more a metaphoricity constraint as of ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{10} for the possibility of prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity as more than just about abstract intellection but extending intellectualism to supersede the existential-investment implications that underlie excogitative-blanking to such prospectively implied ‘understanding’ as of transcendental knowledge. From the prior relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought naïve non-transcendental <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag, it may be thought/reasoned that a transcendentally projecting intemporal mental-disposition is rather uncanny about the ‘existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought malignity reality of existence’ construed as pragmatic living, but this rather confirms the ‘dereifying irresponsibility’ of such temporal thought/reasoning mental-dispositions ‘caught up mainly in their 60-to-100 years of existence reality of meaningfulness-and-teleology’. The intemporal ‘reifying choice-and-adherence’ to the ‘reified assumed-responsibility’ of aetiolisation/ontological-escalation is ever always a reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning that by definition is not in a ‘reasoning with’ relation with reasoning-from-results/afterthought deficient prior institutionalising; and certainly explaining why uninstitutionalised-threshold transcending has ever always been conflicted as to the necessary reality of imposing the ‘superior party’ that is as of the full-potency existence/existential-reality/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality over the denaturing mortals that we are for our prospective emancipation. Without an insight about reification and dereification, the notion of singularisation/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism as it reflects ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought for ontologically-veridical meaningfulness-and-teleology is easily misconstrued since denaturing of meaning in dereification will be teleologically-elevated and meaning produced as of reification will be teleologically-degraded; as so blatantly obvious particularly with the dereification manifestation of childhood psychopathy postlogism-slantedness but then takes on a wholly covert nature as of adulthood psychopathy and social psychopathy dynamics. In this regard, divergent as of temporal-to-intemporal dynamics of human ontological-performance\(^\text{71}\)-\(<\text{including-virtue-as-ontology}>\) of aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring\(^\text{5}\) meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^\text{9}\) reflecting dereified and reified construals of existential-contextualising-contiguity\(^\text{8}\) is to be expected, and assessable on the basis of a commonly expected apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument, which then speaks of a dialogical-equivalence of both temporal mental-dispositions and the intemporal mental-disposition with no dereification\(^\text{5}\) and reification\(^\text{6}\) contrast. However, compounding this situation making relevant the need to contrast reification\(^\text{6}\) and dereification\(^\text{5}\) and imply moral-and-intellectual inequivalence together with dialogical inequivalence, and so between temporal mental-dispositions and intemporal mental-disposition, is specifically the flawed ontological-performance\(^\text{71}\)-\(<\text{including-virtue-as-ontology}>\) manifestation of psychopathy and social psychopathy which is ‘de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically associated with the denaturing\(^\text{7}\) of the <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–devolved apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument’, and arises so fundamentally with regards to the apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument which is the <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag\(^\text{33}\) backdrop for existential-instantiations aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring\(^\text{5}\) meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^\text{9}\); with the fundamental implication that there are thus divergent apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstruments as of psychopathic induced postlogism\(^\text{77}\)-slantedness, and its social cognisance and integration as conjugated-postlogism\(^\text{77}\) so-conjugating as of ignorance/affordability/opportunism/exacerbation/social-chainism-or-social-discomfiture-or-negative-social-aggregation/temporal-enculturation-or-temporal-endemisation as of social psychopathy. In this latter case of contrasted reification\textsuperscript{6} and dereification\textsuperscript{6} and implying moral-and-intellectual inequivalence together with dialogical inequivalence, and so between temporal-as-psychopathic-and-social-psychopathic mental-dispositions and the intemporal mental-disposition, and so-implied as of ‘disseminative-notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity\textsuperscript{6}—contrastive-reification\textsuperscript{6}-dissemination\textsuperscript{6}-and-dereification\textsuperscript{6}-dissemination\textsuperscript{6}-implications’ construed as the ‘variance/discrepancy of \textsuperscript{55}meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99}’ as-of-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{87}-postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking\textsuperscript{20}—apriorising-psychologism and as-of-prior-relative-ontological-incompleteness\textsuperscript{88}-preconverging-or-dementing\textsuperscript{19}—apriorising-psychologism respectively; it is only ontologically-veridical difference-confounded\textsuperscript{12}—as-to-totalitative-reification\textsuperscript{86}-in-singularisation\textsuperscript{17}-as-veridical-epistemic-determinism\textsuperscript{21} from the projected ‘notional—singularisation\textsuperscript{28}/epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemic-determinism’ of the intemporal mental-disposition as-of-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{87}-postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking\textsuperscript{20}—apriorising-psychologism recognising this ‘preconverging-or-dementing\textsuperscript{19}—apriorising-psychologism and postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking\textsuperscript{20}—apriorising-psychologism variance/discrepancy of \textsuperscript{55}meaningfulness-and-teleology’ that induces an ontologically-veridical disambiguation of dereified and reified construals of existential-contextualising-contiguity\textsuperscript{13} as implied by the apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuring/instruments as of reifying intemporal/valid/postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking\textsuperscript{20} apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuring/instrument in prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{87} apriorising-teleological-elevation-in-ontological-contiguity\textsuperscript{15} and as of dereifying temporal-as-psychopathic-and-social-psychopathic/invalid/preconverging-or-dementing\textsuperscript{19}—apriorising-psychologism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuring/instruments in prior relative-

But then again, the reality of theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness will point out that such ‘traditional classical mechanics axiomatic-construct’ identitive-constitutedness-as-‘epistemic-totality’-dereification-as-flawed-epistemic-determinism is in reality preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism as of its relative-ontological-incompleteness. This insight equally applies at the reference-of-thought-level, for instance, with regards to the fact that our positivism-procrypticism registry-worldview/dimension doesn’t recognise-nor-register any such notion as procrypticism—or—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought that speaks of our prospective preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism at our prospective positivism-procrypticism uninstitutionalised-threshold, and so as reflected from futural Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology as of prospective deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of—reference-of-thought registry-worldview/dimension prospective relative-ontological-completeness. Interestingly, it should be noted here that with such phenomenon as psychopathy and social psychopathy that is ‘dementatively/structurally/paradigmatically associated with the denaturing of the

Basically when post-structuralists speak of ‘the other’ this translates into aetiologisation/ontological-escalation as of ‘universal projection implications attitude/mental-disposition/care—and—episteme event —or-operant implications to all and sundry’ as implied in the above analysis, as postmodern-thought portends to be non-ideology-driven, non-speculative, non-imaginary, theoretical, conceptual and operant. This insight is also very much conscious of the ontologically-flawed misconstrual of ‘the other’ that pervades human wooden-language—imbuéd—averaging-of-thought-as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology—as-of—‘nondescript/ignorable–void’—with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications—mental-dispositions as of ‘mutual temporal/shortness-of-register—meaningfulness-and-teleology’

The fact is from an ontological standpoint, we inherently are no more virtuously exceptional even with regards to the earliest of humans, and so as of the very same species potency, and thus we can’t ascribed inherent virtuous superiority by the mere token of our own practice. Rather the exceptionality behind human virtuous potential lies ontologically with ‘intemporal ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality instigated ontological-contiguity\(^6\)—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\(^7\) as of difference-conflatedness\(^1\)—as-to-totalitative-reification\(^7\)—in-singularisation\(^8\) as-veridical-epistemic-determinism \(^4\) -<amplituding/formative—epistemicity>causality—as-to-projective-totalitative—implications,—for-explicating-ontological-contiguity\(^9\) as of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^9\), reflecting the fact that pure-ontology that as of its secondnaturing induces the requisite level of human virtue performance at each given registry-worldview/dimension, retrospectively to prospectively. It is rather by acting upon the inherent ontological-contiguity\(^6\)—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\(^7\) as of its ontological reflection in Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^9\) that virtue transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—de-mentativity comes about, whether or not beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology\(^7\)-<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existent-unthought>. In this regard, any registry-worldview/dimension reference-of-

Inevitably any such virtue construct is transcendental as meaning ‘going beyond oneself’; and so with regards to any prospective institutionalisation relative to the uninstitutionalised-threshold. Thus the ‘field of conception’/notional–conception/notion of virtue-as-ontology covers way more than its articulation within a same registry-worldview’s/dimension’s <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag, as its implications as of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology need to be drawn beyond a cloistered-consciousness as of retrospective and prospective transcendental illuminating implications. In this regard, a postmodern/suprastructuralism philosophical stance with regards to virtue-as-ontology very much aware of the transcendental ontological sublimating-over-desublimating implications of existence-potency–sublimating–nascence,—disclosed-from-prospective—transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity as of the need for the subversion of its "reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology", for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring–meaningfulness-and-teleology that endemise-and-enculturate its vices-and-impediments by prospective reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology for-prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity, more like could the Copernicuses, Galileos, Descartes, Diderots, etc. call upon the very same non-positivism/medievalism in need for prospective positivism transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity to underwrite the subversion of its entrenched non-positivism/medievalism internal social-stake-contention-or-confliction changing temporal constraints, temporal meaningfulness-and-teleology existentialising—enframing/imprintedness-as-to-historicity-tracing—in-presencing—hyperrealisation/hyperreal-transposition frameworks and temporal mandarinism and pedantising/muddling/formulaic-hollowing-out—in-subontologisation/subpotentiation frameworks; and, hence the ontologically-veridical paradox of the very dementating/structuring/paradigming implications of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening renders any registry-worldview/dimension reference-of-thought ever deficient as of its need for psychoanalytic-unshackling/prospective-grounding/prospective-reification of meaningfulness-and-teleology. Ultimately, anti-constructivism and anti-relativism criticisms of postmodern-thought come down to our ‘modern positivism/rational-empiricism ontologically-flawed as of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness perspective/framing/reference/horizon’ constitutedness construed of categorising/taxonomising schemes that pervades the ‘modern categorising mental-disposition’ as of our occlusive-consciousness neuterising, as we fail to grasp the implication of an implied apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument that is naively superseding the true apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument nature of existential reality as the absolute a priori; such that the meaningfulness-and-teleology that arises is a relatively virtual-or-ontologically-flawed-construal. On the contrary it is conflatedness that ensures that our apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument syncs with the true apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument nature of existential reality as the absolute a priori, and so as of an ontological-normalcy/postconvergence posture which rather ‘turns the idea of analysing and conceptualising on its head’ into one of ‘grasping human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening implications as of the underlying psychoanalytic-unshackling’ for human-subpotency construal of the full-potency that is existence. This insight about the complete relationship between developing human-subpotency and its potential to fully grasp the full-potency of existence, fundamentally underlies the protensive-consciousness referentialism of the notional-conflatedness of notional-deprocrypticism. However, it is equally critical to

The latter points to an inappropriate attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme which is not beholden to the prospective institutionalisation but rather is of existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought relation with it. More concretely, consider the practice of serfdom in Europe, or the annihilation of many Native American tribes and slavery and slave trade in the new world, while at the same time in a registry-worldview/dimension transitioning from the non-positivism/medievalism to the positivism/rational-empiricism registry-worldview with this contrastive mechanical-knowledge attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme and organic-knowledge attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme. While the full implications of a positivism/rational-empiricism organic-knowledge attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme will imply an end to such practices as of universal human rights, ‘economicopportunistic-and-then-enculturated tenants’ of such blatant moral supremacy and thus racial supremacy distorted the implications of the technical and social organisation advancement brought about from budding-positivism/rational-empiricism to reconceptualise by their specific interests \(5\) meaningfulness-and-teleology\(5\) in terms–as-of-axiomatic-construct of the prior non-positivism/medievalism attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme as of its prior relative-ontological-incompleteness\(8\)–of–reference-of-thought, and thus justify their nefarious practices; speaking of mechanical-knowledge in positivism/rational-empiricism. Whereas progressive organic-knowledge tenants construed positivism/rational-empiricism as an openness to the potential of all societies and peoples to rather arrive at the higher possibility of positivism/rational-empiricism virtue, and so as of a \(4\)human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation\(7\) posture that allows for \(2\)universal human emancipation as expressed by the Quakers movement, Rousseaux, Diderots, etc. Incidentally, the positivism/rational-empiricism mechanical-knowledge contenders as of the economic-opportunism-and-then-enculturation of their nefarious practices, were very much countervailing the practice and trend within their own societies of origin undergoing-positivism/rational-empiricism-transformation and the underlying dual-language/split-mentality unscrupulousness was given away as of the ‘out-of-sight demeanour’ in their main societies, rather than being fully assumed as marking positivism/rational-empiricism progress. The occasional development of enlightenment and positivism/rational-empiricism by its technical and social organisation transformation implications wasn’t the opportunity for such societies to turn around and then dehumanise other societies and humanities that haven’t done likewise, but rather as of organic-knowledge called for a double-gesture reification\(6\) in recognising that such positivism/rational-empiricism implications are about all of humanity, just as implied in preceding human cultural emancipations. Suprastructuralism or postmodernism double-gesturing of virtue doesn’t function on the naïve basis of ‘merely construing relative implied levels of virtue development and making relative conclusions’ but rather orientate to the more profound perspective of all of humanity’s potential as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness of reference-of-thought/ontological-normalcy/postconvergence and then reconstrue the possibility of all of humanity-as-of-societies to ultimately fulfil it virtuous potential; and this is the optimum and emancipatory virtue disposition for all humankind and human societies. It adopts this orientation because it always put into question the idea of ‘grounding meaningfulness-and-teleology as of any specific human society relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought as fundamentally denaturing, and likely to induce transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated–motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing dehumanising of some cultures and societies by others’; as it recognises, however tepid, that all societies and humans are curious, predisposed to their emancipation and achieving optimum existential possibilities, and can uphold universal values, and so as of universal-transparency ⟨transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing<decltype amplitude/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness ⟩. Ultimately, such a double-gesturing hold out the possibility in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process as of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology as pertinent for all humankind, whether as of internal social-progress, cultural diffusion or cultural-reappropriations. This practically translates, say considering an instance of a given traditional practice that is abhorrent to modern positivism/rational-empricism attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme, by implying from a postmodern perspective that emancipation truly arises when the humans come to assume as well by themselves a universal positivism/rational-empricism attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme in transforming their society. We can appreciate that supposed a space civilisation come to earth, implying for instance in a position of strength that we are too violent, disorganise, etc. and thus morally inferior, and that our best interests was just to take our cue from them. Here as well, the postmodern double-gesture reification of virtue will project that we do have the potential for further development, and that to be ourselves we cannot be utterly alienated from ourselves like robots in our relationship with them, and that our curiosity and openness will correspondingly bring about our functional moral equivalence with universal-transparency-(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-

 Further arguing that if they are truly more advanced than us, then that advancement is necessarily about a greater aetiologisation/ontological-escalation as of the human-subject-emancipatory-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation that will necessarily subscribe to recognising ‘the other’ that we are to them; as insightfully, grander aetiologisation/ontological-escalation come with relative-ontologically-veridical attitude/mental-disposition/care-and–episteme. Claims of such grander aetiologisation/ontological-escalation as implying dehumanising interpretations are ontologically-flawed as such claims are rather surreptitiously based on prior registry-worldview/dimension uninstitutionalised-threshold-reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology-foraposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring–meaningfulness-and-teleology as teleological-degradations-in-notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity,<shallow-supererogation-of-mentally-aestheticised–preconverging/dementing–qualia-schema>. In other words, the organic-knowledge in its true appreciation of ‘the other’ as of aetiologisation or ontological escalation implies a universal projection implications attitude/mental-disposition/care–and–episteme event–or-operant to all and sundry’. Finally, the naivety when facing such anti-constructivism and anti-relativism arguments is to think that these are always about fair and objective intellectual disagreements; but then the history of many such criticisms has revealed its underlying perfidy; as to when for instance, supposed critiques of postmodern relativism make mention of the anti-relativism stances of many a creed like Christianity (which are necessarily absolutist as to their doctrinal practices) thus decontextualising and equating the framework of secular intellectual discourse with that of a creed, something which even such creeds do not do given the mortal framework of human \text{amplituding/formative–epistemicity}\text{totalising–thrownness-in-existence} (as to when even the Christian Jesus refers to giving to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to the Christian God what belongs to God as of a necessary relativistic stance with respect to human mortality which requires constructiveness and this stance is further reflected with interfaith dialogue which will be absolutely impossible if creeds were to engage each other on the absolute basis of their doctrinal practices), and furthermore much of the criticisms levied against postmodern relativism is ‘forged criticism’ in the sense that the critiques make their own flimsy interpretations of postmodern-thought and then go on to criticise the flawed interpretation for instance the idea that pastiche art or the fact that Las Vegas Strip as-copying-other-notable-places-architectures are necessarily inauthentic and flawed is not necessarily a postmodern criticism as ontological-good-faith/authenticity and veracity is more fundamentally about the re-originary–as-unenframed/unbeholding/outlier-conceptualisation\text{imbued-postconverging/dialectical–thinking}‘-projective-insights’\text{epistemic-projection-in-conflatedness} ‘-of-notional–deprocrypticism-prospective-sublimation)\text{creative insight and appreciation of any pastiche work or of such a Las Vegas Strip replication of other notable places. With regards to all these ‘forged criticisms’ the underlying falsehood is rather geared to elicit a non-intellectual emotional response than true knowledge-reification insight. Further, as of organic-knowledge and knowledge-notionalisation, this author holds that it is naïve to conceptualise of human knowledge mainly as of pure erudition warranting mainly sound arguments, proofs and convincing demonstrations, and that the reality all along ‘intemporal ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality instigated ontological-contiguity66—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process67 as of difference-conflatedness—as-to-totalitative-reification—in-singularisation—as-veridical-epistemic-determinism21 <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>causality—as-to-projective-totalitative-implications-,for-explicating-ontological-contiguity ’ shows that there has always been beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology—in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> ‘institutional investment’ that is not always just of eruditic ideal, inclined to undermined prospective knowledge as of its prospective relative-ontological-completeness77-of-axiomatic-constructs-and-reference-of-thought, and that true knowledge especially as it portends to transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity cannot be conceptualised losing sight of this fact. The blunt fact is that postmodern-thought has shown itself to be more useful and applicable across the humanities with a massive potential for furthering human emancipation, however the tentativeness of many of its bold ideas, and so much more than the vagaries peddled by many such critiques surreptitious anti-intellectual media-driven waylaying who on the contrary seem to construe of institutional anchoring as the very essence of validation. Such situations are often highly liable to ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity11 undermining of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology99 due to ‘lack of social universal-transparency —{transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing—<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness }’. In other words, medieval charlatanic eliciting of old ways, conventioning and existence as of non-positivism/medievalism despite its prior relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought as underscoring medieval vices-and-impediments20 with respect to prospective positivism was psychically and surreptitiously undermining of a sense of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology; and this insight is valid across all registry-worldviews/dimensions as of the eliciting of temporal individuations self-referencing cloistered-consciousness in nihilistically undermining prospective ontological-completeness-of—reference-of-thought. It is only an organic-knowledge sense of consummation-as-not-beholden to temporal/shortness-of-register-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology stakes that human intemporal individuations as of a protracted-consciousness can contemplate of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology as of its crossgenerational transcendental implications and as reflected from the insight in reflecting holographically—<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity —of-the-human-institutionalisation-process. Again, it can be noted here that Einstein, Bohr and the other seminal physics contributors to the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs had no prior basis to adopt their subsequently transcendental and sublimation orientation but for their ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality as of their ‘re-projection/re-anticipation’ about ‘the very same physics <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality’ which was then validated as of ontological-prime movers-totalitative-framework, and so divulged by existence-potency—sublimating—nascence, disclosed from prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought—in-supererogatory—epistemic-conflicatedness; as prior human presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness experience wouldn’t have thought about space-time, considered the ether as unreal, considered that the laws of physics are different at atomic scale, etc. In other words, there wasn’t any prior ‘logocentric transcendent-al-signifier’ as of the prior classical-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs construed as ‘presenting—absolutilising-identitive-constitutedness’ enabling the obtention of any such conclusions from the given classical-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs constitutedness, but rather it is by conflatedness with regards to ‘the very same physics <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality’ that the prospective theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs was construed as of nonpresencing—perspective—ontological-normalcy/postconvergence. Interestingly, as of the underlying phenomenology-driven ontology, it is rather more pertinent with respect to transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—de-mentativity to grasp that such ultimate decidability is construed as of human intemporal/longness-of-register—meaningfulness-and-teleology individuation mental-disposition in ‘a tendential-deliberation-of-decidability as enabled by ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’ tendential validation as to existence-potency—sublimating—nascence—disclosed-from—prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of—totalising—renewing—realisation/re-perception/re-thought—in—supererogatory—epistemic-conflatedness. Such a construal of human transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—de-mentativity will cover the seminal contributions prior and after the defining-threshold epistemic-break/epistemic-resetting of the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs by Einstein and Bohr. Such an ontological-basis for construing sublimation overrides our neuterising laden modern convention ways of judging breakthroughs overemphasising singular initiative, as it is rather grounded more soundly on an abstract notion of ‘intemporal-as-ontological individuation’ as the basis of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening analysis; and insightfully, as reflected in the underlying conflatedness of accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay, sublimation is achieved rather out of the notional obviating of human temporal-as-non-ontological neuterising with deneuterising—referentialism and with correspondent intemporal-as-ontological rearticulation/reconstrual of meaningfulness-and-teleology as of dynamics of insight of shallow-to-deeper human limited-mentation-capacity implications, and so as of protensive-consciousness of notional–deprocrypticism perspective/framing/reference/horizon. Similarly, this author’s articulation of futural-différance as of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity is necessarily construed ontologically as of a rearticulated protractedness as futural différance that coincides-and-is-contiguous with a prior Derridean différance as of quasi-transcendence and evasiveness of sublimation. In both cases, this highlights that ‘decidability is not instantaneous as of inherent spontaneous identification and occurrence of decisional act’ but that decidability in enabling transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity is as of an ‘overall différance tendential-deliberation-of-decidability’ as of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening process. Thus sublimation is equally reflected in the deliberateness involved in cultivating artistic, educational, technical or research capabilities/skill in the final outcomes derived forthwith, as of the quality imbued on human limited-mentation-capacity to deepen itself; and this translates into human contemplation of the existential-possibilities attainable by its human-subpotency. Tendential-deliberation-of-decidability is thus the central ontological insight attached to différance as ‘a contiguously theoretical and operant phenomenological construct involving necessarily the deliberateness as of Derridean freeplay différance, as a putting into question exercise, and subject to ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework validation before attaining defining-transcendence and defining-sublimity’; and différance as of such ‘existential-reality concreteness dynamics’ is scientific and utterly dissimilar from a speculative idealisation exercise à la Hegelian dialectics and well beyond the latter’s conceptual patterning. Ultimately, such tendential-deliberation-of-decidability for attaining defining-transcendence and defining-sublimity, arises from more than just a blatant/flatminded notion of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening or say the vague social convention idea of talent, it is more critically beyond and about a question of human mental-disposition with respect to the prescience of existence-potency~sublimating-nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising~renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-supererogatory-epistemic-conflatedness so-implied as of ontology’s-directedness-as-Being. This is the very meaning of organic-knowledge beyond the conception of mechanical-knowledge as-knowledge-as-a-mere-thing-to-be-acted-upon-for-given-outcomes. Organic-knowledge as such implies priorly a supplanting-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation—postconverging/dialectical-thinking—apriorising-psychologism deference to the prescience of existence-potency~sublimating-nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising~renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,-in-supererogatory-epistemic-conflatedness over any human-as-mortal framing of meaningfulness-and-teleology including oneself-as-human-as-mortal, as is human mortality-as-temporality that is rather what is in need for further Being and consciousness development. Thus the de-mentating/structuring/paradigming of sublimation for a registry-worldview/dimension reference-of-thought, as reflected in the Derridean social ethics stance, is rather one for the ‘subsumptive inventing’ of the prospective ontological possibilities of prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought over human normativity/conventioning as of the latter’s prior relative-ontological-incompleteness-of-reference-of-thought, and so by maximalliing-recomposuring <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising~renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought as of organic-knowledge. A nonextricatory existential de-mentating/structuring/paradigming of sublimation implying that the state of recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, base-institutionalisation–ununiversalisation, universalisation–non-positivism/middle-ism, and positivism–procrysticism, are successively-wanting of prospective defining-transcendence and defining-sublimity going by their successively-given mechanical-knowledge in temporality−as-of-neuterisation/relative-ontological-incompleteness/existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought. In other words, an intemporal-as-ontological mental-disposition projecting of the organic-knowledge as of prospective registry-worldview/dimension reference-of-thought in prospective relative-ontological-completeness/of-axiomatic-construct-or-reference-of-thought can’t sidestep such implied prospective defining-transcendence and defining-sublimity, and undertake existence as of the prior registry-worldview/dimension reference-of-thought in prior relative-ontological-incompleteness, even if it such a mental-disposition could lead to such an outcome as in H.G. Well’s country of the blind or Galileo say with the medieval Establishment; despite the fact that the possibilities of such outcomes arise out of establishment Charlatanism, which knows better, but exploits lack of ‘social universal-transparency⟨transparency-of-totalising-entailing-,as-to-entailing←amplituding/formative–epistemicity⟩totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness⟩’. But then it is actually a sign of ‘propounded theoretical health and pertinence’ when all such Establishment charlatanism comes to dodge such substantive-and-frontal articulation of prospective knowledge, and in lieu come up with worn out refrains and sidestepping manoeuvres avowing their true ‘intellectual blankness’ grounded on institutional-being-and-craft; as we know that in all genuinely inclined intellectual pursuits the very central tenet has always been about theoretical disputative engagement and not acts of escapism and downgrading of intellectual arguments as of ‘solo media exploits of intellectual popularity’. Thus by its prospective relative-ontological-completeness/of-axiomatic-construct-or-reference-of-thought as futural différance, accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay comes into terms with both presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness\textsuperscript{13} and nonpresencing-\textsuperscript{<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>} on the basis of the prospective relative-ontological-completeness /ontological-contiguity of the latter over the prior relative-ontological-incompleteness\textsuperscript{18} of notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity\textsuperscript{7} of mentally-aestheticised–preconverging/demoting-\textsuperscript{<qualia-schema>} of the former as of the-very-same-immanent-existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality,-as-to-‘human<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~purview-of-construal’. Thus what is being correctly implied is not ‘difference-in-kind/difference-in-aposteriorising-or-logicising’ but rather difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising\textsuperscript{23} between presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness\textsuperscript{13} and nonpresencing-\textsuperscript{<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>}. Such an insight is enabled as of the fundamental awareness that human knowledge construction fundamentally involves two different exercises; with the first factoring in that at the fundamental level of knowledge construction humankind has a limited-mentation-capacity that needs to be developed as a ‘developed consciousness perspective/framing/reference/horizon as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness\textsuperscript{87}’ notional-contiguity/epistemic-contiguity construed as its apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument to then be able at an operative level to articulate sound-or-authentic ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99} grounded on such a developed consciousness perspective/framing/reference/horizon. This explains why it is impossible for a ‘recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalised mindset perspective/framing/reference/horizon as of trepidatious-consciousness apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument’ to grasp base-institutionalisation ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{100} without first developing a ‘base-institutionalisation mindset perspective/framing/reference/horizon as of warped-consciousness apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument’; for a ‘base-institutionalisation–ununiversalisation mindset perspective/framing/reference/horizon’ to grasp universalisation ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ without first developing a universalisation mindset perspective/framing/reference/horizon as of preclusive-consciousness apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuring/instrument’; for a ‘universalisation–non-positivism/medievalism mindset perspective/framing/reference/horizon’ to grasp positivistic ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ without first developing a ‘positivistic mindset perspective/framing/reference/horizon as of occlusive-consciousness apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuring/instrument’; and apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuring/instrument’.

As we can get that the fundamental stake for the Copernicuses, Galileos, Descartes, etc. during the Enlightenment wasn’t just about the specific positivistic knowledge they articulated or else they would have been satisfied with just their personal curiosity and enlightenment and leave it at that, but rather they surreptitiously undermined many of the prevailing social norms and rules in trying to expound their knowledge and vision, and more critically so because they knew it is the ‘formation of a positivistic social consciousness apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuring/instrument’ that would enable the anchoring of all such prospective positivistic knowledge, and this sense of things fully underscored such a more comprehensively directed project-and-purpose undertaken later by the Encyclopédistes; with the underlying insight that while a social state of generalised prior relative-ontological-incompleteness”-of-”reference-of-thought is enabling to surreptitious Establishment charlatanism, however with increasing ‘social universal-transparency-(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>-totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness)’ such charlatanism is exposed for what it really is, explaining the panickiness and falsehood associated with such charlatanism as with the reactionaries to the Encyclopédistes project, as if the articulation of knowledge by itself was a threat rather than subject to disputation! Underlying as the non-speculative, non-imaginary, theoretical and conceptual possibility for such futural différence consciousness development is the notion of ‘de-mentation-⟨supererogatory-ontological-de-mentation-or-dialectical–de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics⟩’ which by pointing out an epistemic-break as of difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising /ontological-discontinuity, underscore at once ‘both as affirmation/projection/assertion/dueness-validating-logicising/suitable-measuringinstrument-validating-measuring-⟨as-to-postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking⟩–apriorising-psychologism’ of the consciousness in ontological-contiguity /relative-ontological-completeness-‘of-’reference-of-thought and as unaffirmation/deprojection/de-assertion/undueness-invalidating-logicising/unsuitable-measuringinstrument-invalidating-measuring-⟨as-to-preconverging-or-dementing⟩–apriorising-psychologism’ of the consciousness of notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity ‘⟨shallow-supererogation–mentally-aestheticised–preconverging/dementing–qualia-schema⟩/relative-ontological-incompleteness –of– reference-of-thought as of ‘maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness’—unenframed-conceptualisation, and not incrementalism-in-relative-ontological-incompleteness—enframed-conceptualisation, as of the-very-same-immanent-existence/intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality,—as-to–‘human⟨amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–purview-of-construal’’. As futural différence is enabled, unlike the case with the ‘Derridean quasi-transcendental-freeplay différance’, as of ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality involving human mental-disposition successive apriorising/axiomatising/referencing reprojection-or- reanticipation capacity inducing human limited- mentation-capacity-deepening ; overriding the idea that the perspective/framing/reference/horizon of contemplation is absolutely given-and-determined as of the implication that all 5 meaningfulness-and-teleology9 should be as of ‘difference-in-kind/difference-in-aposteriorising-or-logicising2, but rather reconceptualising the possibility of difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising23 as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness’-of- reference-of-thought bringing about transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity as of ”nonpresencing-<perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>. Thus such a phenomenology associated with accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay further divulges, unlike the ‘Derridean quasi-transcendental-freeplay différance’, the full possibility of human sublimation.
Consider in this regard the decisive transitions-as-sublimitys that occurred in physics: with ‘traditional classical mechanics axiomatic-construct’ and the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs; wherein the successive axiomatic-constructs in prior relative-ontological-incompleteness20 and prospective relative-ontological-completeness21, with regards to ‘traditional classical mechanics axiomatic-construct’ and the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs as of ‘the very same physics <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising-devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality’ are not as of a ‘difference-in-kind/difference-in-aposteriorising-or-logicising2 but rather a difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising23; with human-subpotency aligning towards the full potency of existence which thus divulges the possibility of human sublimation as of the physics science implications today. It is interesting to note that the difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising\textsuperscript{23} bringing about the successive physics axiomatic-constructs/theories are successive ‘epistemic-breaks’ from prior reasoning and are akin to ‘leaps of faith’ which then ‘establish new reasoning’ that then becomes the internal ‘difference-in-kind/difference-in-aposteriorising-or-logicising’ of the new physics as the new presencing; brought about from the transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity of non-presencing-<perspectiveonological-normalcy/postconvergence>. In other words, human consciousness tends to be constraint to its <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising-self-referencingsyncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag\textsuperscript{22}, and thus assumes a ‘difference-in-kind/difference-in-aposteriorising-or-logicising’ mental-disposition as of ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’. But existence/ontology’s-directedness-as-Being as of non-presencing-<perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> is beyond and not constraint by human consciousness as of its <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising-self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag\textsuperscript{23}, and thus hints at the ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbuedunderdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-ofexistential-reality possibilities of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-dementativity as of ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework validation that is at the very center of the ‘promise of correspondence between human-subpotency as of Being-and-consciousness development and existence as of ontological-veridicality’, and so despite the complexifying/inhibiting metaphysics-of-presence-{implicated-‘nondescript/ignorable–void’- as-to-presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness} of any given
syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag from a ‘difference-in-kind/difference-in-aposteriorising-or-logicising posture; such that humankind then overlooks presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness and re-projects/re-anticipates nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> enabling human transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory de-mentativity. Therefore, metaphoricity as highlighted herein is actually construed as of ‘its natural ontology implications’, and this natural ontological notion of metaphoricity is construed herein as superseding-and-englobing all other differentiated adjunctive significations including conventional figures-of-speech. metaphoricity as such simply refers to signification adjunctiveness to ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ as of both the meaningfulness-and-teleology implications to the so-renewed ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’ and the specific adjunctive-metaphoricity-signification within such renewed ‘underlying <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating signifying-construct of language’. metaphoricity is very much a mirroring of existential ‘syncretising-effecting’ going by the latter’s existential implications on ‘human underlying self-referencing meaningfulness-and-teleology as an epistemic-totalising/circular construal’. This ‘epistemic-totalisation/circularity epistemic-breaking’ of self-referencing associated existentially with syncretising-effecting as mirrored in metaphoricity arises because of human limited-mentation-capacity, and is a reflection of the circular deepening of human limited-mentation-capacity as of growing certitude from the opening up of nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> by human re-projection/re-anticipation ultimately validated by existence/ontology’s-directedness-as-Being ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework. Further, metaphoricity as such speaks of the evasiveness of all human meaningfulness-and-teleology at uninstitutionalised-threshold as recurrently depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastrucure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology%29 as of prospective notional—deprocrypticism institutionalisation implications representation, and so beyond just our natural inclination for <amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag%29. Galileo could well had possibly recasted his implied positivism ”meaningfulness-and-teleology” in scholasticism—mysticism terms, just as Copernicus work was held back priorly in limbo, but then the implications as he perceived would have been a degradation and lost of the essence of what he was doing, and so more than just the specific scientific knowledge but more critically it warranted a psychoanalytic-unshackling into the ”nonpresencing—or—withdrawal—or—metaphysics-of-absence—(implicated—epistemic—veracity-of—nonpresencing—<perspective—ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>)—or—transcendental-reasoning-of-event”-as—prospective-ontology-origination perspective/framing/reference/horizon of positivism ”meaningfulness-and-teleology” we entertain today. Likewise, as of such metaphoricity” episteme, the ”meaningfulness-and-teleology” herein implied as of its essence cannot do without this hermeneutic/reprojective circle phenomenological ontology elucidation as of its psychoanalytic-unshackling conflatedness ; and the ideal backdrop for this lies in a further developed postmodern-thought phenomenological-depth of construction, as implied herein by this author as of accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay . This author conceives that at the very core to such genuine understanding of postmodern-thought is a double-gesture reification%29 that consists of perspective/framing/reference/horizon and then contention/argumentation within such articulated perspective/framing/reference/horizon, as so implied by postmodern-thought together with other kindred though less dramatic textuality-thinkers like Gadamer and Habermas; as of the need to adopt/instigate the appropriate mindset for knowledge appraisal given the fundamental distorting effect, beyond just perception, of human limited-mentation-capacity. This double-gesture reification%29 reality for construing human knowledge amounts to a quasi-psychoanalytic-unshackling, as it reflects the fact that The-Given as of existentialism/thrownness/facticity is always an insufficiently/poorly developed perspective/framing/reference/horizon for direct instigation of contention/argumentation aspiring for profundity and completeness. Such that this double-gesture reification of the textuality-driven intellectuals involves their ‘special focus orientations’ profundity say like genealogy with Foucault, deconstruction with Derrida, etc., and this together with transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated-‘motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing complementarity and criticisms of all such ‘special focus orientations’, go on to conjointly-and-fruitfully define what is postmodern-thought. Postmodern-thought as such can be analogised with the anecdote of the blind men striving to determine what an elephant is, but with each one saying authentically what the find in front of them in developing the relevant specific imageries and overall imagery of what an elephant is. This in itself is a milestone in theorisation, and as an overall conception postmodern-thought, besides the ‘special focus orientations’ of the specific textuality-driven intellectuals, is primarily about ‘consistently taking a best shot’ at reality and is not inherently driven at its core by ideology but rather ontological-good-faith/authenticity. As such it effectively achieves a more potent construal of the human condition and knowledge especially as it is ‘driven by such transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated-‘motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing cumulative authenticities that augment the possibilities of human limited-mentation-capacity’ thus going a long way to open up new and coherent thought possibilities as of its grander and overall conception and spirit. Interestingly, what is central about the ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity critique of postmodern-thought is the lack-of-insight/feinting-lack-of-insight about all these underlying elements of postmodern-thought construction: as failing to grasp/recognise the implied double-gesture reification as of its transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity implications, and by not appreciating due to ‘flatmindedness’/banality/flimsiness the implications of perspective/framing/reference/horizon before contention/argumentation as of any given perspective/framing/reference/horizon, thus implying ‘poor critical judgment’. With such ‘flatmindedness’/banality/flimsiness further protracting into a poor grasp of postmodern theorists ‘special focus orientations’ with the tendency to engage postmodern-thought as of an uninsightful literal and shallowminded/banal/flimsy reading; and with the ultimate outcome that all such naïve uninsightful literal and shallowminded/banal/flimsy readings are cumulated and summated as the entirety of the postmodern theoretical construct, and so on an apparently implied flawed logic that the discretion allowed for criticism doesn’t engage the intellectual credibility of the critique, a notion that is especially abused within a media background. Such ‘flatmindedness’/banality/flimsiness with respect to postmodern-thought fails to grasp that all subject-matter as of their inherently deferential-formalisation-transference as of institutional percolation-channelling are necessarily construed as of a double-gesture reification that supersedes the ordinariness/banality of day to day social existence analysis as of <amplituding/formative> wooden-language-{imbued—averaging-of-thought-<as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology–as-of–nondescript/ignorable–void ’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>}, such that as of the history of such critiques it will be naïve not to factor in the reality of ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity and so particularly as it tends to shy away from genuine intellectual engagement with postmodern-thought, and highlighting that the idea of arrogance peddled about postmodernism strangely enough speaks of the ‘ignoble arrogance’ of such ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity critiques, as de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically that which attributes value judgments is that which is knowledgeable-as-of-its-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness -of- reference-of-thought-postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking – apriorising-psychologism and not that which is ignorant-as-of-its-prior-relative-ontological-incompleteness\textsuperscript{85} of reference-of-thought-preconverging-or-dementing\textsuperscript{13} apriorising-psychologism. Such that there is no dialogical-equivalence that then arises by the fact that the former is a nonextricatory/intemtemporal/ontological relationship with meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{89} while the latter is an existential-extrication/temporal/non-ontological relationship with meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{90}, in the sense that it is the former intemtemporal-as-ontological individuation mental-disposition that is responsible for bringing about human Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{91} in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity —of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\textsuperscript{67} retrospectively and prospectively while the latter as of its false ‘untransvaluated–temporal-intemporality\textsuperscript{92} is rather existentially extricatory and oblivious to Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion–as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{91} in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity —of-the-human-institutionalisation-process\textsuperscript{67}. As ultimately, it is the prospective relative-ontological-completeness -of- reference-of-thought pursued by the former that supersedes and dissolves human vices-and-impediments\textsuperscript{105} as of prospective registry-worldview/dimension transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity reference-of-thought. The overall insight here of such ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity\textsuperscript{63} can be construed analogically as say in a non-positivistic social-setup where the modern disease theory is not yet socially familiar such that patients may assume that they should be cured immediately/instantly after treatment with no perspective/framing/reference/horizon of appreciation for judging medicine as optimally an over-a-time-period-bodily-reparation construed as the basis of a positivist physician practice; a notion being spread and advocated by the positivist physician in the social-setup. Now consider a competing healer very much aware of such a non-positivist social-setup ‘lack of social universal-transparency-transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness’ with regards to such over-a-time-period-bodily-reparation notion and throwing a spanner in the works by pretending that the physician should confirm that patients are cured immediately as otherwise the physician must be practising witchcraft on the patients, understanding fully well the authentic disposition of the physician to affirm a practice of over-a-time-period-of-bodily-reparation for a long term dependable notion of medicine. While they are pragmatically inclined to advanced opportunistically whatever explanation to justify that their healing is immediate/instant and so involving any such stratagem like opportunistically accusing patients or some other persons for any implied failure of immediate/instant cure having the effect on the most part of shutting-off any complain or at least negative allegations about the healer’s cure, and so-enabled on the basis of the healer priorly institutionalised deferential-formalisation-transference posture in the social-setup. Such a healer encouraging the social-setup notion of immediate/instant cure as a ploy (given the possibility of the positivistic disease theory conception subverting their own non-positivistic healing practice notwithstanding ontological-veracity). The manifest acts of many such ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity critiques with respect to postmodern-thought: whether when pretending to misunderstand postmodern double-gesture reification of meaningfulness, blatantly caricaturing in the most inane terms postmodern-thought, avoiding genuine intellectual-level disputation, and so rather opting for subversive <amplituding/formative>wooden-language-(imbued—averaging-of-thought<as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology-as-of-‘nondescript/ignorable–void ’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>) ‘uncritical social media preaching towards sold publics-of-conquest’ paradoxically while claiming not to grasp postmodern-thought, with subterfuges of unoriginal thought usurping the notion of science and intellectualism towards such uncritical publics; and all this as a manifestation of perverted intellectual institutional-being-and-craft. While postmodern-thought is not and has never been immuned from genuine intellectual criticism not only from other schools-of-thought but among postmodern and poststructuralist thinkers themselves, and this calling out of such ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity critics is much more than an issue about postmodern-thought but about all intellectualism generally as such malpractices tend to mark the beginning of intellectual teleological-decadence—<-in-dimensionality-of-desublimating-lack-of—<amplituating-formative>supererogatory—dementativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation> subversion of progressive thinking and go on to permeate social practices and media practice, thus rendering social and critical thought impotent. Further knowledge as understood by this author is more than just the conception of its intemporal-as-ontological nature but knowledge is much more completely and potently notional~knowledge as it understands as well the implications of temporal-as-non-ontological mental-dispositions dynamics in relation to pure-ontology, and thus in the face of ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity shouldn’t take the bait of overlooking and thus falsely elevating teleologically as intellectually pertinent ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity rather than relating to it at its teleologically-degraded level for what it truly is, and so as part and parcel of a complete conception of knowledge. Ultimately, intellectual statuses are as pertinent as veridically enabling to human emancipation as of intemporal/ontological/social/species/universal/transcendental/maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation—dementating/structuring/paradigming, and intellectuals’ choice of ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity is nothing less than self-inflicting irreverence and cannot thus turn around to intimate irreverence when surreptitiously undermining knowledge of universal consequential implications. This author as of metaphysics-of-absence—(implicated-epistemic-veracity-of- nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>) will summate that prior postmodern thinking is akin-and-pointing-to a proto-prospective reference-of-thought as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-axiomatic-construct-or-reference-of-thought over a <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising-self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag as prior reference-of-thought, and that necessarily it speaks by its double-gesture reification of quasi-psychoanalytic-unshackling thus requiring a psychoanalytic-reorientation to such an implied prospective reference-of-thought ‘as of the prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-axiomatic-construct-or-reference-of-thought of a better knowledge perspective/ reference-of-thought before/as-preceding contention/argumentative-engagement, and so avoiding ‘flatmindedness’/banality/flimsiness. The underlying current of postmodern-thought is that our limited-mentation-capacity induces our prior relative-ontological-incompleteness with regards to reference-of-thought and its derived meaningfulness-and-teleology, with the implication that we need to a prospective relative-ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought to be able to articulate intemporal-as-ontological construal as of the internal-dialectics/différance of meaningfulness-and-teleology. In other words, all concepts, notions as of ontologically-veridical meaningfulness-and-teleology, are made to have their internal-dialectics/différance as of nonpresencing-<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> for their sublimation and transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supernumeratory-de-mentativity into more profound and more complete meaningfulness-and-teleology. For instance the ‘postmodern take’ about science is rather a more profound and complete notion of science than the ‘modern take’, such that a ‘modern approach’ to the conception of science naively fails to factor in unlike the ‘postmodern approach’ the implications of human limited-mentation-capacity and the need to deepen it, thus translated into the prior need for prospective relative-ontological-completeness; wherein the ‘modern take’ might naively consider medicine as simply providing medications and remedies, the ‘postmodern take’ by an internal-dialectics/différance of the notion of medical science will factor in socioeconomic, education, information, environmental, gender and power relations issues underlying healthcare and medical delivery as a more profound and complete notion of medical science; construed effectively as of deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought. Thus, for postmodern-thought the capacity to attain relative ontologically-veridical meaningfulness-and-teleology comes down to the capacity of arriving at the very essence of meaningfulness-and-teleology while overcoming the drawback of our human limited-mentation-capacity. This insight about the essence of things is what underlies fundamentally Heideggerian-essencing-as-of-the-ontological-difference, Sartrean-existence-precedes-essence and Derridean-différance-as-there-is-nothing-outside-the-text, all construed by this author as of existential-contextualising-contiguity; is the enabling approach for human ontological-reconstituting—as-to-conflatedness as of aetiologisation/ontological-escalation. Basically thus, the overall postmodern project implication is that we deepen our limited-mentation-capacity first (and so as of dimensionality-of-sublimating—amplituding/formative supererogatory de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness/transvaluative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness—equalisation of our supererogatory—acuity/perspicacity/astuteness/edginess/incisiveness—of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibility/setup/measuringinstrument) to ensure that we go about deriving ontologically-veridical meaningfulness-and-teleology in relative-ontological-completeness. This is in reality the ultimate scientific insight as such an internal-dialectics/différance is articulated as of non-speculative, non-imaginary, theoretical, conceptual and operant scientific implications; and this is reflected in the very initiation of the postmodern de-mentating/structuring/paradigmning with Heidegger’s criticism of Hegelian dialectics, with the latter construed by this author as ‘not founded-on-and-constrained-by ontological-veridicality/intrinsic-reality as of ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework’, but rather dialectical discretion, imagination and speculation ‘as to lack of a congruent,-cogent-and-operant entailing framework of ontological-contiguity’ as herein implied by this author with ‘the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process’ congruent,-cogent-and-operant entailing framework of ontological-contiguity’. Anecdotally, the shallowmindedness of a ‘modern take’ in failing to recognise the postmodern double-gesture reification will simply consider the blind men reporting of an elephant as a tree-trunk, a rope, a wall, a fan or a spear as ‘postmodern madness’ without factoring in the underlying double-gesture reification for perspective and insight, given the problematic of human limited-mentation-capacity that itself needs to be factored in and thus actually strengthen the human thought process in its aetiologisation/ontological-escalation. In the bigger scheme of things, such an internal-dialectics/différance is what explains the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process as of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology and so-construed as suprastructuralism beyond just the specific interpretation of suprastructuralism as of postmodernism with respect to modernism. This internal-dialectics/différance as of successive transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supercrasygory—de-mentativity is behind the respective registry-worldviews/dimensions as of their given—reference-of-thought specific—neuterising as well as the ultimate deneuterising—referentialism of deprocrypticism. But then ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity is equally elicited by ‘lack of social—universal-transparency—(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,—as-to-entailing—<amplituding/formative—epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness’ as of a cynicism of institutional-being-and-craft. The transcendental implications of a registry-

reference-of-thought ‘reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’ arises for instance in the sense that however ‘wishful’ the ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework transcendent-possibilities/potential as of knowledge-constructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional–referential-notions/articulations/virtue and human emancipation potential/possibilities of a prospective registry-worldview/dimension like positivism as of its ‘reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’ cannot avail to a prior registry-worldview/dimension like non-positivism/medievalism. In this regard the Copernicuses, Galileos and Diderots of their eras, and more explicitly Descartes in his direct construal of the positivism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument, would have certainly sensed that their specific knowledge conceptualisations wasn’t the more critical issue but rather their insistence was an implicit understanding that the non-positivistic ‘reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’ was de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically a framework that wouldn’t be enabling for their positivistic and all other positivistic knowledge conceptualisations as of its prior relative-ontological-incompleteness—reference-of-thought (and were thus more fundamentally projective dimensionality-of-sublimating—<amplituding/formative>supererogatory—de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-conflatedness /transvalutative-rationalising/transepistemicity/anamnestic-residuality/spirit-drivenness–equalisation). Such conflatedness imbued in postmodern-thought address more than just constitutedness implications of knowledge construction as articulated herein but equally points critically to intellectually decadent institutional dispositions and practices where imprimatur and the dynamics of imprimatur by themselves are increasingly construed as of more critical epistemic pertinence for knowledge constructions undermining the possibilities of breakthroughs given that the primacy of intellectualism as of the pertinence of intellectual arguments increasingly takes a back seat, with intellectual postures increasingly defended with non-intellectualism obsession of ideologies of schools-of-thought as of institutional-being-and-craft. This manifests itself in the form of many an intellectual increasing disposition ‘to misunderstand’ others works, as there are little common stakes for breakthroughs but rather the stakes are increasingly of institutions academic visibility and tenure with emphasis on likeminded networks and forums driven increasingly by influence than carefree universal intellectual curiosity. Furthermore intellectualism has increasingly been surreptitiously mingling-and-yielding to social and economic interests undermining its obligation for enabling social clairvoyance, with a resultant sense of socioeconomic and socio-political impotence as such a blurriness is increasingly undermining the relevance of intellectualism in its public discourse and enlightenment mission. Ultimately, the epistemic and de-mentating/structuring/paradigming of academic institutional setups are not dissociated from the effective possibility for transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supercratory—de-mentativity, especially as such breakthroughs require the spontaneity of Dionysian arrangements. This author’s construes of deprocrypticism—or—preempting—disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought ‘reference-of-thought—devolving-teleological-de-mentating/structuring/paradigming—of-meaningfulness’ conceptualisation as of ontological-escalation or aetiologisation, with respect to our present positivism—procrypticism disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-thought, as the more fundamental transcendental issue for prospective ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework transcendental-possibilities/potential beyond self-referencing-syncretism and circular palliative knowledge-constructs/theories/intersolipsistic-intercessory-notions/notional—referential-notions/articulations/virtue with regards to attending to the inherent deficient uninstitutionalised-threshold of knowledge-construct possibilities and vices-and-impediments imbued in our positivism—procrypticism disjointedness-as-of-reference-of-

of notional-deprocrypticism ‘referentialism—ontologically-uncompromised-mediating,-as-of-confledness protensive-consciousness sound conceptualisation perspective’. In so doing, the latter reflects the limited-mentation-capacity dynamism of meaningfulness-and-teleology as of notional-deprocrypticism as well as temporal-to-intemporal individuations mental-dispositions, by way of deneuterising —referentialism, in lieu of neuterising. Thus this notion of human limited-mentation-capacity as the basis of différenc/ternal-dialectics/difference-deferral divulges ‘ontologically-compromised-mediating,-as-of-their-specific-constitutedness consciousnesses flawed conceptualisation perspectives’ and as of their ontologically-flawed constructs of neuterising, with regards to articulating teleological elevation-as-of-upholding-ontological-veridicality or teleological degradation-as-of-failing-ontological-veridicality respectively either as of conflatedness or destructuring respectively. Basically, the construal/conceptualisation of human <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising-throwness-in-existence (I exist therefore existence is of transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity to my human-subpotency / hyperbole-of-temporal-to-intemporal-ontological-performance-<including-virtue-as-ontology>) has always involved a disparateness-of-ontologically-construed-social-reality as of on the one hand a dichotomy of ‘intemporal-projection transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory-de-mentativity abstraction of prospective Being and meaningfulness-and-teleology construal as of organic-knowledge implications and so as reductive construction however non-mechanical and intemporal-as-ontological-its-projection and hence as an open-ended-incompleteness/nonachievement-of-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence construal of social reality’, and on the other hand ‘an ad-hoc open-ended summative hotchpotch conventioning of temporal projections and intemporal projection grounding of social reality construction including organic-knowledge as well as mechanical-knowledge implications’; such that from the ontological-normalcy/relative-ontologicaluncompromised-mediating,-as-of-conflatedness⁰¹₂ protensive-consciousness sound conceptualisation perspective’ that by its ‘reference-of-thought—devolving—différance/internal-dialectics/difference-deferral’ grasp the ontologically-veridical ‘underlying human limited-mentation-capacity dynamics of <amplitudding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating reference-of-thought—devolving, and so without being subject to any neutering’ as is the case with all ‘ontologically-compromised-mediating,-as-of-their-specific-constitutedness’ consciousnesses flawed conceptualisation perspectives’. Thus by its deneuterising⁰¹₆—referentialism construed as of historicity/ontological-eventfulness /ontological-aesthetic-tracing, notional–deprocrypticism enables a fundamental ontology-driven ‘postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking—psychology or psychology-of-mentation-dynamics or natural–psychological-dynamics’, and so superseding a naïve metaphysics-of-presence—{implicated-'nondescript/ignorable–void ’-as-to-presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness } affect-driven mented or stigmatic psychology rather as of a shallow perspective and vaguely articulated as of universal import.

The idea here with regards to human transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity, is that from a creative perspective: the notion of a given neutering is equinominal/equivalent with a given presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness⁰¹³, and as this speaks of human limited-mentation-capacity prospectively-construed ontologically-flawed implications as of ontological-normalcy/postconvergence. It is over this neutering that human transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory-de-mentativity is achieved from the prospective notional–conflatedness⁰¹⁰ of notional–deprocrypticism and so by deneuterising —referentialism, which is equinominal/equivalent to nonpresencing—⟨perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence⟩. In other words the historical implications of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening⁰¹⁰ is that ‘as of a less and less ontologically-flawed instantiations’ thus resolving the open-ended-incompleteness/nonachievement-of-ontological-normalcy. Overall, such a notional–conflatedness of reference-of-thought/de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic—ontological-performance—<including-virtue-as-ontology> ‘performance-construct of candidity/candour-capacity’ can be garnered as of metaphysics-of-absence–(implicated-epistemic-veracity-of- nonpresencing–<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>) wherein across the successive registry-worldviews/dimensions a notional–deprocrypticism insight makes obvious that it is increasing ontological-normalcy/postconvergence by increasing prospective relative-ontological-completeness—of-reference-of-thought that underlies reference-of-thought/de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic—ontological-performance—<including-virtue-as-ontology> as a wholly internal process of conflatedness, highlighting ‘the concatenation of intemporal-projection inextricably with derived-denaturing–deprojections-in-distractiveness-of-intemporal-projection, with the former in relative longness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology and the latter in relative shortness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology/distractiveness’ that occurs at the individuation-level and is reflected in the registry-worldview/dimension-level by the concatenation of institutionalisation inextricably with uninstitutionalised-threshold as the former is in longness and the latter in shortness/distractiveness to the former. This conceptualisation of candidity/candour-capacity associated with notional–deprocrypticism with regards to de-mentation—(supererogatory—ontological–de-mentation-or-dialectical–de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics) implications for reference-of-thought transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory—de-mentativity’ is in effect a ‘more profound-and-comprehensive notion of différance construed rather with respect to the defining reference-of-thought of meaningfulness-and-teleology as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness—of-reference-of-thought’ and can be qualified as ‘futural différance’ as of its

This example isn’t that farfetched as anthropological evidence of such cases abounds with many native societies so disrupted by culturally alienating positivistic material diffusion. Human material/technical development and corresponding mentality as of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—"meaningfulness-and-teleology" are inextricable and critical in reflecting holographically—<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the ontological-contiguity — of-the-human-institutionalisation-process— including our positivism—procrypticism registry-worldview/dimension. preconverging/dementing –apriorising-psychologism of the postlogism-and-conjugated-postlogism in a non-positivism/medievalism setup, wherein faced with arguments of the sort who is the sorcerer, how are they using their sorcery, etc., speaking of the non-positivism/medievalism relative-ontological-incompleteness-induced, threshold-of-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation — preconverging/dementing –apriorising-psychologism with regards to the limits of a registry-worldview’s/dimension’s institutionalisation (whether base-institutionalisation, universalisation and positivism eliciting respectively the uninstitutionalised-threshold of ununiversalisation, non-positivism/medievalism and procrypticism) across all the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process wherein the prior/transcended/superseded registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought in its <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-synergetising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag’ (as metaphysics-of-presence--{(implicit-- ‘nondescript/ignoreable–void’-as-to-’presenting—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’}): illusion-of-the-present/present-consciousness/mirage) is representing itself as ‘postconvergingor-dialectical-thinking’–apriorising-psychologism and dialectically/contendingly in-phase’ whereas from the prospective institutionalisation registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought, as of the ontological-normalcy/postconvergence epistemic/notional–projective-perspective, it is ‘preconverging-or-dementing –apriorising-psychologism and dialectically/contendingly out-of-phase’. The reason for the ontologically defective <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-synergetising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag’ is that all registry-worldviews/dimensions reference-of-thought ‘tend to convention’ and in so doing close the ‘existential frame-of-ontology/meaningfulness (which is the transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–dementativity)’ in their conventioning, and thus to the exclusion of prospective ontological profoundness of reference-of-thought. Thus all registry-worldviews/dimensions had hitherto been <amplituding/formative> wooden-language{(imbued—averaging-of-thought-<as-toleveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology’-as-of‘nondescript/ignoreable–void ’-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>}). However human existential closure of meaningfulness as conventioning doesn’t supersede but is rather superseded by existential ontological-veridicality, explaining the susceptibility of registry-worldviews/dimensions references-of-thought to be transcended/superseded with human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening expansion of ontological-depth as increasing ontological-completeness-of reference-of-thought (or reducing relative-ontological-incompleteness’-induced,’‘threshold-of–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation)—preconverging/dementing—apriorising-psychologism’). Existential closure of meaningfulness as conventioning induces psychologically a registry-worldview/dimension ‘exclusive representing’ of itself as as ‘candored and straight’ with respect to ‘meaningfulness-and-teleology’ whereas its transcending/superseding by the prospective registry-worldview/dimension exposes psychically that it is rather ‘decandored and oblongated’ with respect to more profound prospective/transcending/superseding meaningfulness-and-teleology. A further example will be say ‘the God of plane’ type of articulation wherein such a base-institutionalisation as of animistic social-setup which is not positivistic (not the case of non-positivistic as medieval) is psychically ‘candored and straight’ with itself in <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag” (its metaphysics-of-presence--{implicated-‘nondescript/ignorable–void ’-as-to- presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness }) and goes on articulating “meaningfulness-and-teleology” even in the new existential transcendental/superseding contextualisation in terms–as-of-axiomatic-construct of the doubly-prior/transcended/superseded base-institutionalisation/animistic registry-worldview/dimension. Given such a state of <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag”, the notion of generating meaningfulness-and-teleology from the ontological-normalcy/postconvergence epistemic/notional–projective-perspective priorly implies a requisite psychoanalytic-unshackling/memetic-reordering/institutional-recomposuring, and so by maximalising-recomposuring-for-relative-ontological-completeness—unenframed-conceptualisation. While excluding any exercise of elaboration-as-mere-extrapolating/constituting/abstracting/deducing/inferring-of-elucidation-outside-existential-contextualising-contiguity since the latter is only appropriate in the instance of prospective relative-ontological-completeness—of—reference-of-thought; as the base-institutionalisation (animistic) prior relative-ontological-incompleteness\(^8\)-induced, ‘threshold-of-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation — preconverging/dementing — apriorising-psychologism’ puts into question the very first and absolute apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument of meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^9\) (‘existential-contextualising-contiguity’ \(^7\)s-reifying/elucidating-of-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness\(^7\)-of-\(^8\)reference-of-thought—\(^7\)devolving-as-of-instantiative-context as to existence-potency—sublimating—nascence,—disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression—rules-of-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing-that-further-epistemically-unconceal-the-very-ontologically-same-existential-reality construed as of increasing human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening\(^2\) in the apriorising/axiomatising/referencing of meaningfulness-and-teleology\(^9\) construal’) with respect to the base-institutionalisation (animistic) registry-worldview’s/dimension’s-uninstitutionalised-threshold\(^2\)—defect-\(<\)as-Being-or-ontological-or-existential—defect\>\(^5\). Equally we can imagine that making a positivistic argument in the midst of a non-positivism/medievalism setup will seem ‘deranged’ from their perspective and their mental orientation will be geared to their traditional sense of meaning and living as absolutely defining, but then the ‘center’ had moved from their world (from non-positivistic as base-institutionalisation/animistic or medieval preconverging-or-dementing\(^9\)—apriorising-psychologism decenter) to the positivistic world (as postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking\(^6\)—apriorising-psychologism center). Likewise such a suprastructural articulation of our positivism–procrypticism relationship to its postlogism\(^7\) that includes psychopathy and social psychopathy will apparently not make any sense to our present but then ontologically our present is now decentered as threshold-of—nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation\(^6\)—preconverging/dementing\(^5\)—apriorising-psychologism, though our mental-reflex will be a traditional sense of meaning and living as sound-and-not-preconverging.

or-dementing –apriorising-psychologism as well. However, to the extent that it is ‘not such <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag temporal/shortness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology inclinations’ that drove human registry-worldview’s/dimension’s institutionalisations and resolved uninstitutionalised-threshold from recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation to base-institutionalisation–ununiversalisation to universalisation–non-positivism/medievalism to positivism–procrypticism (as by reflex the temporal mental-disposition will rather be inclined to temporal (shortness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology) extrication in any registry-worldview/dimension with no upholding of transcendental possibilities), to that extent the intemporal-disposition should rather construe/conceptualise its intemporal-disposition as the tip of human transcendental institutionalisation possibility and thus inherently that it transversally takes precedence over human temporal complexes (and such a ‘transversality-of-affirmative-and-unaffirmative–disambiguated–motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing confliction’ resolved intemporally by prospective ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework and secondnaturing. This actually explains the inevitable contrariety involved in the making of transcendental human progress involving a prior/transcended/superseded reference-of-thought and a prospective/transcending/superseding reference-of-thought; given the blunt fact that ‘there is no untransvaluated–temporal-intemporality’ and pretences of inevitability of human progress without need for intemporal projection are falsehoods ‘arising as temporal/shortness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology distraction’ with respect to the institutionalising/intemporalising constraining effect of intemporal/longness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology projections.). Critically, the notion of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity and transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity associated with intemporality /longness and institutionalisation/intemporalisation as of its very defining core is rather one of ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{72} as it propounds the supersedingness/primacy/ascendency of intrinsic-reality as a the-Good/understanding/knowledge-driven construct over human ‘good-naturedness’/impression-driven constructs as well as social-aggregation-enablers. The idea being that ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{72} is much more than a notion associated with the positivistic registry-worldview/dimension (as has naively been traditionally implied) but is a central heuristic drive in defining and de-mentating/structuring/paradigming \textsuperscript{72}meaningfulness-and-teleology in all prior registry-worldviews as well however relatively inefficient; given that with corresponding shallow to limited-mentation-capacity-deepening \textsuperscript{52}, as institutionalising ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{72} successively induce more and more profound ‘mimetic-echoness to ontological-normalcy/postconvergence’ as of the full-potency of existence-as-of-its-mimetic-echoness/existence-in-reverberation/existence-potency–sublimating–nascence,–disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression-as-of-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought,–in-supererogatory–epistemic-conflatedness\textsuperscript{99}. (Consider the case with ancient Egyptians and even ancient Greeks where their relations with their deities were closely related to the fortune they expected on an empirical basis whether with respect to such occurrences like droughts, warfare, etc. which technically speaking is a rational allocation as ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework\textsuperscript{72} of \textsuperscript{52}meaningfulness-and-teleology\textsuperscript{99} going by their limited-mentation-capacity-deepening\textsuperscript{52}. \textsuperscript{52}transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity and \textsuperscript{52}transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity as so construed is more than just a vague notion of dialecticism but one that recognises on ‘an effective reality basis that human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening’ implies more and more profound reconstruals/reconceptualisations (<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–renewing–realisation/re-perception/re-thought) inducing transformative implications with respect to meaningfulness-and-teleology as transcendence; in contrast to the mere aestheticisation of abstract dialecticism or analogy/mere-analogue speaking thus of human sublimation-inducing—textuality/hermeneutics/possibilities-of-becoming-existential-interpretation/axiomatisation-of-existence. As knowledge conception as contrasted to sovereign conception, ‘transcendence and transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity doesn’t recognise any human discreet primacy with respect to intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality’ but rather intrinsic-reality is the inherent purveyor of pertinence and primacy. For instance, we don’t have a choice in deciding that gravity is about 9.8 m/s² on earth since intrinsic-reality imposes that idea and the corresponding knowledge construction and organisation where intrinsic-reality is ascendant is rather based on an ‘intemporality–asymmetric-subsumption-of-temporality’, for relative intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity. This is not to be confused with sovereign constructions and organisations driven by human sovereign choices such as political choices or marketing choices or other sovereign choices based on practices and habits. The latter are social-scientific (besides the previous notion of social-scientific referring to intrinsic social reality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity), with respect to transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity construals/conceptualisations only as of existence-in-its-mimetic-echoness as inclusive of the human condition, i.e. human existential sovereign choices of meaningfulness-and-teleology as ontological construals ‘not in terms of the inherent intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality of the meaningfulness-and-teleology itself’ but ‘rather as of the veracity/ontological-pertinence of the reality of the human sovereign choices as of themselves as humans values independent of... their inherent intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality as ontologically construing the reality of human condition’, and so with respect to ‘historiality/ontological-eventfulness’/ontological-aesthetic-tracing, politicisation and other social choices like moralisation, cultural value, economic value, etc. This distinction is critical because very often sovereign choices as conventions will tend to be acted upon as if these were transcendental knowledge of intrinsic-reality/ontology construal of the social in a wrong equivalence, and further because the transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity as of the intrinsic-reality/ontology construal of the social is more fundamental as the tool for ‘creating/inventing-and-destroying/deconstructing conventions’ for more and more profound grasp of intrinsic-reality/superseding–oneness-of-ontology as of human subpotent knowledge. Sovereign constructs can as such be construed beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> to stifle the possibility of intrinsic-reality/ontology of the social, construed as ontology/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity knowledge, from arising. This insight explains why all deferential-formalisation-transference are only of pertinence as they justify and are derived from relative intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity conceptualisations, and collapse when they fail that test. For instance, notions such as arguments from authority are useful in ensuring social efficacy but when authority is demonstrated as relatively fallacious, it then has no pretence to the sanctity of not being undermined. Ultimately, the veridical nature of knowledge beyond ‘institutionalised-being-and-craft’ (as established by prior transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity) to prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity is not as an exercise of ‘logical mere convincing’ as of social-aggregation-enabling about what is knowledge and appropriate, but rather as a critical exercise of channelling of relative intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality successive registry-worldviews/dimensions conventioning are increasingly ontologically-driven in their value construct as it is more and more profound ontological-veridicality that enables human transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/teleology—and-supernatural—and-supernatural-de-mentativity and the ontological-contiguity—of-the-human-institutionalisation-process in the first place; with the notional—deprocrypticism institutionalisation conventioning supposedly attaining absolute ontological grounding. The insight here is that the relative pure-ontology-drive of a Socrates philosophical clairvoyance superseding Athenian society conventioning limits but then with the latter perceiving in <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag its conventioning limits as absolutely ontological, Socrates is paradoxically construed as ontologically-impertinent and thus accused of heresy. Such an argument can also be extended to say a Copernicus or a Galileo whose relative pure-ontology drive advocating a heliocentric universe in medieval society comes against medieval society scholastics dogmatism conventioning limits but then with the latter perceiving in <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag its conventioning limits as absolutely ontological, Copernicus and Galileo are paradoxically construed as ontologically-impertinent. This highlights that a registry-worldview’s/dimension’s construes in <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag its conventioning limits as being the absolute ontological determinant of meaningfulness-and-teleology ontological-performance including-virtue-as-ontology, and that meaningfulness-and-teleology as of relative pure-ontology superseding it is paradoxically construed as ontologically-impertinent. This is relevant with regards to the ‘intellectual projection’ choices made as of their transformative implications on society; wherein such highly unconventional thinkers like Diderot of more dramatic social transformation implications are actually less appreciated as of the <amplituding/formative– extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> )’ weren’t fundamentally a ‘direct convincing’ of humans exercise as of social-aggregation-enabling but rather in projecting a big picture of the-Good/understanding/knowledge-drive as of relative intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory—de-mentativity, however unintelligible, as a prospective institutional percolation-channelling exercise as validated by ultimate ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework with subsequent corresponding formalisation and secondnaturing. The point of this construal/conceptualisation is inevitably equally along the same lines. In fact, it can be further contended going by the reality of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions–existentialism-form-factor that ‘human knowledge is necessarily a secondnaturing construction’ and not an ‘intemporal-disposition construction’ as the latter will wrongly imply that we are only intemporal-as-longness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology, which is obviously false since we are temporal-to-intemporal by our mental-disposition and our virtue with the notional–deprocrypticism registry-worldview/dimension institutionalisation is actually to understand (as knowledge/the-Good) this and paradoxically be superseding in that respect by a pivoting/decentering psyche and institutionalisation, and not an artificial projection that is not real and hence will be ineffective and circular as threshold-of–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation—preconverging/dementing –apriorising-psychologism. Thus human knowledge is a dynamic secondnatured construct in upholding-and-vouching for the intemporal while preempting of the temporal, and so beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology —<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>.

[The notion of ‘beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology —<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought> ’ as used herein goes beyond the notions of ‘consciously’ or ‘unconsciously’ as we normally understand them, in the sense that ‘beyond-the-consciousness-
awareness-teleology←<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>← speaks of the mental state as of threshold-of–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation←preconverging/dementing←apriorising-psychologism by its relative-ontological-incompleteness←of←reference-of-thought at the point of uninstitutionalised/unintemporalised/solipsistic/recomposuring/animality-thresholds-of-intemporal-preservation-entropy-or-contiguity–or–ontological-preservation (also referred to as ‘uninstitutionalised-threshold’) where the mental-disposition/mindset/reference-of-thought is rather emphasised as being in ‘a state of relative incapacity’ rather than one of full-conscious-capacity but neither full-unconscious-capacity mental-disposition. Thus unlike just ‘conscious’ or ‘unconscious’, the notion of beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology←<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>← implies ‘conscious’ and/or ‘unconscious’ as of threshold-of–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation — preconverging/dementing←apriorising-psychologism at the uninstitutionalised-threshold of a registry-worldview/dimension whether with regards to retrospective or prospective transcendental analysis. For instance say in a non-positivistic as medieval or animistic/base-institutionalisation social-setup someone accused another of sorcery. It is hardly the case that we can absolutely say they committed a conscious immoral act with their accusation of sorcery since the ontological-completeness-of-reference-of-thought as knowledge-framework available to them doesn’t enable their full conscious appraisal of such a judgment call as they are in an insecure-certitude-by-incertitude-and-virtue-by-vice-mental-flux with notions-and-accusations-of-sorcery. However, supposed they adopted such an attitude not only by such ignorance but rather affordability/opportunism/exacerbation/social-chainism-or-social-discomfiture-or-negative-social-aggregation/temporal-enculturation-or-temporal-endemisation, then they are effectively relatively conscious with respect to their action as a dishonest/deceitful/immoral act even though beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology← Of course, where supposed someone from a positivistic social-setup found themselves in such a non-positivistic social-setup and equally proffered such an accusation of sorcery, then their conscious immorality is fully engaged as being in full-conscious-capacity with respect to their deception going by their positivistic prospective relative-ontological-completeness of reference-of-thought that supersedes superstitions including notions-and-accusations-of-sorcery. By extension, psychopathic/postlogic induced deception can only be construed as beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology as when eliciting ignorance (as of ‘lack of constraining social universal-transparency of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing<-amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness ) of the psychopath’s mental-disposition of postlogism - (perverted-outcome-sought-precedes-existentially-veridical-logical-dueness)), and while construed as beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology as when eliciting affordability/opportunism/exacerbation/social-chainism-or-social-discomfiture-or-negative-social-aggregation/temporal-enculturation-or-temporal-endemisation, is not disculpating. Ultimately, going by the very decisiveness of relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought, as it leads to ‘lack of constraining social universal-transparency of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing<-amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness ), associated with the successive uninstitutionalised-threshold states, the notion of ‘human beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology’ is actually in the bigger picture the larger determinant of manifest human vices-and-impediments as of virtue-as-ontology conceptualisation, speaking fundamentally of the specific registry-worldviews/dimensions ‘registry-worldview’s/dimension’s-uninstitutionalised-threshold—defect—as-Being-or-ontological-oruninstitutionalisation, universalisation-superseding-ununiversalisation, positivism-superseding-non-positivism/medievalism and prospectively deprocrypticism-supersedingprocrypticism. Thus de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically, this is the supratransversality—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing associated with intemporal-/longness and construed as ‘intemporal-asymmetric-subsumption-of-temporal’ since it is ‘not equable’ with the relative shallowness as temporal/shortness-of-postconverging/dialectical-thinking ‘-‘projective-insights’/‘epistemic-projection-in-conflatedness ’-of-notional–deprocryptism-prospective-sublimation) transcendental notions of intemporality’/longness in successive epochs become dominant notions of human knowledge and institutionalisation by giving man access to relative intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity. Further along the rational-realism line of thinking, the fact is paradoxically that as more cuttlingly demonstrated with ‘cultural diffusion driven transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity’, the mechanism of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity is not a simplistic transference from a more ontologically-completeness-of- reference-of-thought registry-worldview to a lesser one. Surprisingly, the lesser one is actually in the position of determination in the contention for transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory–de-mentativity, and it is the competitiveness of ideas that are more ontologically-complete and ontologically inducing untenability/internal-contradiction/internal-incoherence/institutional-constraining and inconsistency that initially leads to the <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag towards the path of its transcendence; as notions and ideas of the prospective reference-of-thought gradually creep over those of the prior reference-of-thought. (This should be distinguish from the case of the transference of ideas where there is a common reference-of-thought, for instance, the-theory-of-relativity and quantum-mechanics are spectacular developments from Newtonian physics but they still share the same common reference-of-thought of positivism/rational-empiricism enabling the new theories to be quickly adopted within the mechanism of the common reference-of-thought in terms–as-of-axiomatic-construct of psychical and institutional orientation). Consider in this regard the case in an animistic social-setup wherein failure to be cured from the traditional healer tempts individuals in that setup as a matter of life and death to approach the newcomers of a positivistic registry-worldview/dimension, and with a successful of thought; as explanations for the cure will still be advanced in terms–as-of-axiomatic-construct of the old reference-of-thought (giving human natural predisposition to social-aggregation-enabling) but increasingly ridding such explanations of their credible substance until there is critical transference into the new registry-worldview’s/dimension’s reference-of-thought. <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag is actually the process by which transcendental meaningfulness, as of prospective/transcending/superseding registry-worldview reference-of-thought, is institutionalised; underlying the essential contiguity of human mental-disposition across all registry-worldviews/dimensions. This equally highlights a superficiality-of-inherent-sanctimony displayed by succeeding institutional-cumulation/institutional-recomposure<as-to-historiality/ontological-eventfulness/ontological-aesthetic-tracing>, which may wrongly imply being out of the scope of human-subpotency–aporia/undecidability/dilemma/ought-indeterminacy/deficiency/limitation/constraint—imbued-temporal-to-intemporal-dispositions–existentialism-form-factor, and thus fundamentally undermine ontologically-veridical analysis where exceptionalism is adhered to instead of the mediocrity principle. This quite sums up the mechanism by which re-originary–as-unenframed/unbeholdening/outlier-conceptualisation (imbued-postconverging/dialectical-thinking∠projective-insights/epistemic-projection-inconflatedness∠of-notional–deprocrypticism-prospective-sublimation) transcendental ideas (transcendental in terms–as-of-axiomatic-construct of putting in question the prior <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising/circumscribing/delineating reference-of-thought–devolving, beyond just novel ideas within the same reference-of-thought), whether by diffusion or internal transformation, come to be dominant when ontologically pertinent; as even the ‘moulting’ intellectual/emancipator, beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology–<in-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought>, is coming from a point of habitation with prior traditional ideas (consider the case of Newton with alchemic notions), wherein acceptance of the new ideas they are purporting only comes after an unconscious process of suspicion and denial of such nagging new ideas until they arrive at a firm point of supplanting–conviction-as-to-profound-suprerogation—postconverging/dialectical-thinking–apriorising-psychologism before admitting to themselves the possible veracity/ontological-pertinence of the ideas, and so as their very own <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag which makes it unsurprising that even socially <amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag is a necessary process for the ultimate acceptance of prospective ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework as this subsumes-as-supplant–(as-of-the-more-profound-construal-of-existential-contextualising-contiguity’s–reifying/elucidating-of-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness’s–reference-of-thought–devolving-as-of-instantiative-context) the prior ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework. It is hardly the case of just a direct intemporal sense of meaningfulness-and-teleology’s transference of transcendental notions. The bigger point being that the construal/conceptualisation of transcendental ideas is not necessarily validated by their immediate recognition, a notion the would-be intellectuals/emancipators should be of a ‘presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness’ consummated/forfeiting posture’, but rather as providing fodder in the competitive ideas assuring human progress with emphasis instance, even the industrial revolution when considered as actually generating material wealth was poorly perceived by many trade guilds). It is only the

Supposed there is a given context where the solution to additions of the aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring\textendash{purpose\textendash}{of-obtained-measurements ( meaningfulness-and-teleology\textendash{) taken involves rewards depending on how big is the number with the Donor not in a position to pay particular attention to the exact sums to be resolved if a character is in a position to fiddle with the implied sum to be resolved like deliberately using the defective apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument—producing-measurements as perversion-of reference-of-thought-as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation> (more like the ‘covert negative vista’ of the hidden-nature/unavailable social universal-transparency—(transparency-of-totalising-entailing-as-to-entailing-amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness ) of psychopathy especially at adulthood). Now supposed to resolve a ‘purposeful measurement’ (meaningfulness-and-teleology ), A appropriately uses a correct apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument—producing-measurements (appropriateness-of reference-of-thought-as-of-conflatedness ) and find out that the numbers measured and to be added are 5+2 and is trying its best thereafter to resolve the sum but fails in its logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation and gives 9 as the answer, this doesn’t void logically re-engaging with A with respect to other sums in terms of aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring—purpose—of-obtained-measurements to be undertaken (as to logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation ) so long as A learns and understands the addition principle well. This instance of A’s reference-of-thought where it is not perverted (correct apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument—producing-measurements) but its logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation has failed because of A’s genuine incapacity for addition calculations is part and parcel (whether successful or not) of prelogism. Now supposed B is in a position and has the mental-disposition to covertly add 1 to any of the numbers measured and to be involved in the calculations to be undertaken before then calculating and so as to measurement (so construed as use of a defective apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument producing measurements speaking of B’s perversion-of-reference-of-thought-as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation) such that its calculations as aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring—purpose—of-obtained-measurements (meaningfulness-and-teleology) is undertaken erroneously rather implying 6 + 3 instead of 5 + 2 (with respect to the same correct apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument as measurement undertaken by A for subsequent calculation as 5+2) and then resolved correctly to be 9 as well just as A did out of wrong calculation, fundamentally the idea of re-engaging with B for solutions of additions (as to logical-processing—or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction—as-to-profound-supererogation) is flawed since B is not committed due to its perversion-of-reference-of-thought-as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation (incorrect apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument producing measurements) to genuinely strive for correct answers (ontological-veridicality), and this speaks of the possibility of B denaturing an infinite number of additional calculations (to the extent where it is ‘socially-functional-and-accordant’ to do so, i.e. functionally possible in the social context). Unlike the case with A having to do with A’s addition ability but whose reference-of-thought is not perverted, such that A’s defect is a defect—of—logical-processing—or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction—as-to-profound-supererogation of the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s—reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance, on the other hand B’s defect is a Being/ontological/existential–defect, i.e. the teleological disposition of B inherently carries the defect (to the point that B can be socially-functional-and-accordant while committing the defect, i.e. where the veridical notion/axiomatic-construct of the defective apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument is not universally transparent as a ‘negative covert vista’). Now supposed we are in a social context where C, D, E, F are to calculate additions as well but from the solutions arrived at by A and B. In the instance where C is ignorant of B’s Being/ontological/existential–defect, there is a possibility of re-engaging with C but only where B’s condition is exposed to it, but where the characters are not that ignorant but in any of the mental states (implying undermining the intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity of normal additionality with such a social-aggregation-enabler situation) and so as of expediency or affordability for D, opportunism for E, exacerbation for F, social-chainism/social-discomfiture/negative-social-aggregation for B, C (where B’s condition is not exposed to it), D, E and F or temporal-endemisation/temporal-enculturation of B’s condition for B, C (where B’s condition is not exposed to it), D, E and F. It should be noted that C (where B’s condition is not exposed to it), D, E and F technically speaking have a ‘derived-Being/ontological/existential–defect’ as well, and so to the point that they consciously perceive it can be socially-functional-and-accordant to them wherein lack of ‘social universal-transparency\(^{103}\)-{(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-\(<\text{amplituding/formative–epistemicity}>\text{totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness}\}> \) which protects the internal-coherence of meaning for virtue’ enables their own ‘covert negative vista’ however ad-hoc as conjugated-postlogism, i.e. as to the conjugated-ignorance of C (where B’s condition is not exposed to it), conjugated-affordability of D, conjugated-opportunism of E, conjugated-exacerbation of F, and conjugated-social-chainism of B, C (where B’s condition is not exposed it) D, E and F, and conjugated-temporal-enculturation to B’s condition of B, C (where B’s condition is not exposed to it), D, E and F; and they cannot therefore be re-engaged logically with (as of ‘prologism-as-of-conviction,-as-to-profound-supererogation re-engaging reflex’) on the basis that they will relay in circularity/recurrence/repetition/repeatability the defective apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument (perversion-and-derived- perversion-of- reference-of-thought<-as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation -->-as-to-uninstitutionalised-threshold --self-referencing-and-subtransversality-of— apriorising/axiomatising/referencing) elicited by B in terms–as-of-axiomatic-construct of B’s postlogism-as-of- compelling–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation and C, D, E and F relative-ontological-incompleteness-induced,-‘threshold-of–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation’— preconverging/dementing —apriorising-psychologism’ that is ‘in-wait as of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness—of- reference-of-thought defective ) reference-of-thought–categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology to enable their conjugated-postlogism , where it is socially-functional-and-accordant to do so. It should be qualified that postlogism (psychopathy) and conjugated-postlogism (as social psychopathy) are enabled, endemised and enculturated by the possibility of the phenomena being socially-functional-and-accordant without negative consequences to its agents so long as it is not socially transparent, and so eliciting the respective temporality/shortness over the intemporality/longness of adhering to proper apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysetup/measuringinstrument (ontologically-veridical “meaningfulness-and-teleology”). Further more than postlogism and conjugated-postlogism being just passively socially-functional-and-accordant, a more active socially-functional-and-accordant framework is often induced by extrinsic-attribution on the token of eliciting ‘social-aggregation-enablers over intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory–de-mentativity’. This is highly specific and circumscribe for efficacy-sake from accrued involvement with childhood psychopathy (with regards to adult psychopathy or adult postlogism ) wherein achieving the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s–reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance threshold enabling postlogism /psychopathy and/or conjugated-postlogism /social-psychopathy involves an insight about how ‘lack of constraining social universal-transparency ⟨transparency-of-totalising-entailing, as-to-entailing≦amplituding/formative–epistemicity⟩totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness⟩ of perversion-and-derived-perversion-of- reference-of-thought=<as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation > determines how prelogism -as-of-conviction,-as-to-profound-supererogation minds will act as of ignorance/affordability/opportunism/exacerbation/social-chainism-or-social-discomfiture-or-negative-social-aggregation/temporal-enculturation-or-temporal-endemisation. Besides and critically as well, in addition to this inherently induced faulty-mentation-procedure-deception involved with the state of postlogism -as-of- compulsing–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation and its protraction into conjugated-postlogism /social-psychopathy, postlogism and conjugated-postlogism is equally and decisively sustained socially by the accompanying inherent disposition to uphold the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s–reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance thereafter as of mechanical-knowledge (given that inevitably social confliction is bound to arise in the social-setup with the phenomena of postlogism /psychopathy and conjugated-postlogism /social-psychopathy), and as the mere recurrence of such social conflictsion associated with the postlogism /psychopathy and conjugated-postlogism/social-psychopathy characters might ultimately jeopardise the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s–reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance (even when other prelogism-as-of-conviction,-as-to-profound-supererogation minds do lack a social universal-transparency-{transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness} of the veridical postlogism/psychopathy and conjugated-postlogism/social-psychopathy underlying phenomena of perversion-and-derived- perversion-of- reference-of-thought<-as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation> as perverted-outcome-sought-precedes-existentially-veridical-logical-dueness). In this regard, prelogism-as-of-conviction,-as-to-profound-supererogation minds generally adopt a generalising approach for determining ‘the overall registry-worldview’s/dimension’s–reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance experiences and recounts with any specific individual’ including psychopathic or conjugated-postlogism, and in so doing construe dichotomously the said individual’s as adhering or not-adhering to the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s–reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance (and so specifically judged rather in various shades of the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s–reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance implied mechanical-knowledge), as entails with associating or not associating the said individual in given occasions or in specifically given aspects of life depending on such experiences and recounts. With this in mind (based on its dormant childhood development experience), the adult psychopathy personality arising from its growth experience (and correspondingly the protraction into conjugated-postlogism behaviour in this regard), wherein its childhood psychopathy failing the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s–reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance induced a shift in behaviour such that in lieu of ‘such preposterous acts-and/or-narratives of vicious postlogism-as-of–compulsing–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation’ at childhood, the childhood psychopathy comes to grasp that ‘acts-and/or-narratives of vivious postlogism-as-of-compulsing–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation’ as of ‘compensating directed pseudo-virtue acts-and/or-narratives’ will lead to relative social overlooking of the ‘postlogism-as-of-compulsing–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation’ vicious acts-and/or-narratives’; and so cultivating its deterministic ontological-primemovers-totalitative-framework faulty-mentation-procedure-deception ‘misconception of meaningfulness-and-virtue’. For instance, as highlighted further below where John in a ‘dereifying act’ spills water on a chair, his ‘misconception of meaningfulness-and-virtue’ involving such a mental-disposition of ‘compensating directed pseudo-virtue acts-and/or-narratives’ may be to do some house chore but rather in ‘crude behaviour manner’ that reveals an ad-hoc quest to re-establish the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s–reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance with others. The adult psychopathy personality development arising from this fundamental faulty-mentation-procedure-deception ‘misconception of meaningfulness-and-virtue’ at childhood, further evolves a long way with a constantly readjustment process to ultimately enable the credulity for the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s–reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance at adult psychopathy, such that at adulthood social universal-underlying postlogism–as-of–compulsing–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation often gets lost enabling its faulty-mentation-procedure-deception at adulthood. By derivation the subsequently induced conjugated-postlogism /social-psychopathy, as of human temporal-dispositions will exploit unconsciously (as ignorance), expeditiously (as affordability) or consciously (as opportunism/exacerbation/social-chainism-or-social-discomfiture-or-negative-social-aggregation/temporal-enculturation-or-temporal-endemisation) the lack of such social \[\text{universal-transparency}\] (transparency-of-totalising-entailing, as to entailing <amplituding/formative–epistemicity> totalising–in-relative-ontological-completeness) of the psychopathic/postlogism\[77\] perversion-of reference-of-thought <as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation>, and thus its own derived perversion-of reference-of-thought <as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation>; wherein even in the case of occasional elucidation of specific postlogism\[77\] set-of-narratives-and-acts of the psychopath as being rather of compulsing—nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation and preconverging-or-dementing—apriorising-psychologism, this does not necessarily transform the mental-dispositions of temporal-dispositions in their conjugation to psychopathic postlogism\[77\] as conjugated-postlogism\[77\] since the induced-deception is fundamentally of reference-of-thought-elements/registry-elements (implied—logical-dueness-or-scape, profile-or-stature, presumptuousness-or-arrogation, assumptions, value-reference and teleology), with the conjugated-postlogism\[77\] interlocutor as of ‘ reference-of-thought—degraded-devolving-as-of-uninstitutionalised-threshold’, even when they recognised the specific postlogism set-of-narratives-and-acts and are rather inclined to contend on the basis of the same flawed and deceptively-induced reference-of-thought-elements/registry-elements (whether unconsciously as beyond-the-consciousness-awareness-teleology <in-existential-extrication-as-of-existing-unthought> as conjugated-ignorance or by expediency as conjugated-affordability or consciously as conjugated-opportunism/conjugated-exacerbation/conjugated-social-chainism-or-social-discomfiture-or-negative-social-aggregation/conjugated-temporalsupererogation vicious acts-and/or-narratives’, and ‘compensating directed pseudo-virtue acts-and/or-narratives’ towards relevant significant others, wherein that compensating is not a trite equivalence but rather involves ‘high-proportionality of overcompensating directed pseudo-virtue acts-and/or-narratives’ relative to ‘specific or given postlogism as-of-compulsing-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation vicious acts-and/or-narratives’ in order to enable the postlogism/psychopathic manifestation achieve the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s–reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance (with such overcompensation involving sought after overall preceding and subsequent sense of social allegiance with relevant significant others and then corresponding ‘high-proportionality overcompensating directed pseudo-virtue acts-and/or-narratives’ towards relevant significant others, whether relevant individuals and/or relevant social network, as overall ‘social investment’ that should allow its instigated ‘postlogism as-of-compulsing-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation vicious acts-and/or-narratives’ with respect to another individual or situation, as the occasion may arise, to be overlooked/absolved/exonerated/exculpated socially). This faulty-mentation-procedure-deception mental-disposition at adulthood psychopathy is more profound than just an ad-hoc trite association between committing a given vicious act and initiating a given limited ‘compensating directed pseudo-virtue act-and/or-narrative’ in compensation as is the case at childhood psychopathy, since the adult psychopath discovers at that stage that such triteness of association is relatively inefficient for attaining the registry-worldview’s/dimension’s–reference-of-thought-for-social-functioning-and-accordance (but rather requires a more profound association of the ‘postlogism as-of-compulsing-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation vicious acts-and/or-narratives’ and ‘compensating directed pseudo-virtue acts-and/or-narratives’). As then during its childhood the ‘compensating directed pseudo-virtue acts-and/or-narratives’ are relatively universally transparent socially for what these truly are, as rather being associated with its faulty-mentation-procedure-deception mental-disposition of ‘perversion-of-reference-of-thought-as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-shallow-supererogation’, ‘than just merely or confused with innocent virtue acts-and/or-narratives’; and as ‘interlocutors in prelogism-as-of-conviction,-as-to-profound-supererogation’ come to grasp the deliberativeness/consciousness of the artificial and fallacious systematic eliciting of ‘compensating directed pseudo-virtue acts-and/or-narratives’ as a crude-trite-compensating mechanism for its urge to commit ‘postlogism-as-of-compulsing–nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-as-to-threshold-of-shallow-supererogation’ vicious acts-and/or-narratives’ and is thus socially-dysfunctional at childhood. Whereas at adulthood psychopathy the overcompensating involves a surreptitious upending/undermining/blurring of this underlying insight that the ‘high-proportionality overcompensating directed pseudo-virtue acts-and/or-narratives’ is rather as of a personality development derived-from and connected-with such fallacious crude-trite-compensating at childhood; such that it is then adopted and relayed as contending thus wrongly validating its apriorising–reference-of-thought-elements/apriorising–registry-elements of implied—logical-dueness-or-scape, profile-or-stature, presumptuousness-or-arrogation, assumptions, value-reference and teleology (which are actually outside existential-contextualising-contiguity’s-reifying/elucidating-of-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness’s-reference-of-thought’s-devolving-as-of-instantiative-context) as first-level deception, and thus enabling the infinite possibilities of second-level deception from their logical-processing-or-logical-implicitation—supposedly-apriorising-in-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation. This underlying postlogism-psychopathic faulty-mentation-procedure-deception mental-disposition and its protraction in conjugated-postlogism/social-psychopathy involving deliberative/conscious or unconscious (conjugated-ignorance) artificial, fallacious and intemporal contrastive-synopsising-depths-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology’) should be central to an elucidative storied-construct/ontologically-valid-narration of temporal-tointemporal-dispositions disambiguation. The very ‘intemporal synopsising-depth-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology’ required for ‘intemporal mental-projections’ or ‘ontological construals’ outside institutionalisation framework as enabled by deferential-formalisation-meaningfulness-and-teleology", and as it develops into adult psychopathy where social universal-transparency\(^{11}\)-(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-so reflected by its relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought (disjointedness-as-of reference-of-thought) is bound to induce defective/perverted ‘temporal-distractively-aligned synopsising-depth of meaningfulness-and-teleology’ relative to intemporal/ontological and virtue constructs.

[Consider the instance of an archetype illustration with respect to say a Socrates or Rousseau individuation ‘intemporal synopsising-depth-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology /supratransversality—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing as-to-\textless \text{amplituding/formative–epistemicity}\textgreater totalising–social-context-construed-conflatedness’, ‘temporal-distractively-aligned synopsising-depth-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology’-as-shallowness-of-thought/subtransversality—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing in pseudointemporality lip-servicing will within the relative-ontological-incompleteness of reference-of-thought of their respective epochs poorly grasp their respective ‘intemporal synopsising-depth-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology’/supratransversality—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing as-to-\textless \text{amplituding/formative–epistemicity}\textgreater totalising–social-context-construed-conflatedness’, and rather think as irrational the projective disposition of a Socrates that doesn’t rather advance a temporal interest in the city-state polity but is rather bent on spreading new ideas as a natural philosopher while prioritising as of nonextricatory-existential-preempting-of-existential-unthought in his asceticism the prospective intemporal/longness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology over the temporal/shortness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology status quo, and likewise with a Rousseau who isn’t advancing a temporal/shortness-of-register-of–meaningfulness-and-teleology interest that his aristocratic stature should warrant like actively pursuing for landed properties and currying favours with kings but is rather bent principally on a prospective commitment on grasping and spreading notions of a renewal of the human condition as universal rights and enlightened despotism; such that the
of its purposefulness/ontological-aspiration (notwithstanding the debatableness of veracity/ontological-pertinence as all knowledge constructs must necessarily be opened to) to many ‘temporal-distractively-aligned synopsising-depth-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology’—as-shallowness-of-thought/subtransversality—apriorising/axiomatising/referencing. This fundamentally arises due to the fact that prospective transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supercerogatory-de-mentativity arises as ‘an exercise of outward-facing prospective institutionalisation metaphysics-of-absence—(implicitied-epistemic-veracity-of—nonpresencing—<perspective–ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>) value-referencing’ relative to a ‘<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising—self-referencing-syncrétising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag inward facing uninstitutionalised-threshold value-referencing’.]

Ultimately, loss of social universal-transparency—(transparency-of-totalising-entailing, as-to-entailing—<amplituding/formative–epistemicity>totalising—in-relative-ontological-completeness) as of existential-contextualising-contiguity’s-reifying/elucidating-of-prospective-relative-ontological-completeness—of—reference-of-thought as of instantiative-context as of relative-ontological-incompleteness—of—reference-of-thought such that mental states with respect to postlogism’s and conjugated-postlogism’s as of specific registry-worldviews/dimensions reveal the reality of the registry-worldview/dimension relative-ontological-incompleteness—of—reference-of-thought, and more specifically relevant to the phenomenon of psychopathy and social psychopathy it points to disjointedness—of—reference-of-thought associated with procrypticism relative-ontological-incompleteness—of—reference-of-thought. It should be noted as well that the notion of overlooking and resetting (as the fact is the conscious manifestation of perversion-and-derived—perversion—of—reference-of-thought—<as-effectively-apriorising-in-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining—as-to-shallow-supererogation> doesn’t truly qualify for such a notion of overlooking and
