Ready.

A photograph of a sunset or sunrise over a body of water. The sky is a deep, dark blue, and the water is a lighter, shimmering blue. A thin, white line is drawn across the horizon, separating the sky from the water. The text "The line." is centered over the image. The foreground is dark, with silhouettes of trees and a building. The entire image is set against a green background with a colorful, wavy border at the top.

From the Dictionary of Greek and Roman Biography and Mythology:
"Ôkeanos is the god of the river Oceanus, by which, according to the most ancient notions of the Greeks, the whole earth was surrounded."

This photolog relates through images a travel in French Polynesia, and it constitutes a love photoletter to the ocean, the islands, and its inhabitants.
